NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Dec. 16, '99

A. G. Cox has the mumps. Barnes Sumrell, of Ayden, was in town yesterday.

Smiling Bob, of the town of Ayden, was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. M. G. Jenkins, of Bethel, who has been spending several days down here with her husband, returned home yesterday morning.

Will Alligood and wife, of Scotland Neck, are spending several days with relatives in town.

Joseph Tripp was here yesterday, jolly as ever, and leaving a few of the many dollars which he makes by his shrewd farming.

W. L. House is now in a position to administer paregoric and sing lullabys. He is the proud father of a nine pound boy presented Thursday evening.

Yesterday morning a balloon was found near Mr. Frank Harrington's. The boys say it went up in Ayden and drifted over to this place. Knowing that this is an age of wonders we let them have it their way.

READER:—What have you decided about getting a box of cigars for Christmas? We have other brands from $1.50 to $6.00 per hundred. Will take pleasure in filling your Christmas order for any brand you wish.

WINTERVILLE CIG. CO.

ANOTHER CHANGE which the twentieth century will bring is the superceding of rail and plank fences by wire fence. G. W. Parker hopes to take an active part in this change, and promises the same faithful attention to the wishes of his customers.

One more week of the old century. It would be nice if we could think back one hundred years from this Christmas, but alas we can only do so by the aid of history. The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. is not near this old so people know its history without having it written. There are also indexes to different points of its history scattered all over the country, some of them dating a great many years back, in the form of Cotton Planters, Cart Wheels, Wagons &c.

[Our correspondent falls into the error that many other people have made by king that this year closes the nineteenth century. There is another whole year yet before the old century is out. Bear in mind that 99 does not make 100, nor does 1899 make 1900, therefore the nineteenth century does not end until the year 1900 is closed and the new century begins with the year 1901. You never begin to count 100 with the cipher 0, but always start with 1.—ED.]

S. L. Hart Dead.

S. L. Hart died early this morning at his residence, near Hartease, of pluro-pneumonia. He was 40 years of age. He was a good citizen, possessed a wide circle of friends and a wider one of popularity.

At the election last year he was elected a member of the Legislature, in which body he served with credit to himself and county. He was a member of the Board of Agriculture and owing to the lively interest he always manifested in the State Guard, from the time he joined it, about twenty years ago, he was made Assistant-Inspector General. Probably his last official act was to inspect the Edgecombe Guards at this place.—Tarborough Southerner.

PITT'S HONOR ROLL.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1899

Although Mr. Reed is practicing law in New York, his rules are still doing business at the old stand on Capitol Hill, Washington.

William I. of the United States throwing bouquets at William I. of Germany, is one of the sights which readers of that verbose document, the President's message, are permitted to enjoy.

Latest intelligence tends to the belief that there is no truth in the report that Great Britain intends to banish Lord Paul to St. Helena. It will be necessary to catch your uncle Paul first, don't yer know.

Washington will take on the hues of the rainbow about the time the Hon. Tim Woodruff, of New York, and his gorgeous waiscoats arrive to plead with McKinley for second place at the Republican funeral next year.

The Bank of France and the Bank of England have raised their rates of interest and Mr. McKinley advocates greater money making privileges for banks in the United States. Evidently this is not a bad year for the money power the world over.

Four days are to be required to debate the currency bill in the House which the Republican leaders have decided must pass in order that the party may win next year. Why not clip off the debate and thus omit a large part of the hypocrisy that will necessarily follow the talking?

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15, 99.

Senator Allen, who has been appointed by the governor of Nebraska to fill the vacancy left by the death of the late Senator Hayward will be warmly welcomed as a staunch and valuable recruit to the ranks of the anti-gold standard Senators, who are preparing for a long and hard fight in the Senate against the gold standard bill, which Mr. McKinley has found it so easy to jam through the House.

The republican speeches in the House, this week, have contained lots of gush about "republican prosperity" and "sound money", but very little praise of any portion of the gold standard bill, which will if it becomes a law, put the control of the finances of the country in the hands of the bankers, enabling them to contract or expand the amount of money in circulation at will.

Mr. Quay is in Washington, making a personal appeal to Senators to vote to seat him on the governor's credentials. It is said that if he does not receive assurances from a sufficient number of Senators to make it absolutely certain that he will be seated, he intends to withdraw his application and credentials, but there is a doubt as to whether he could withdraw them.

The democrats intend pushing trust legislation at this session of Congress. Senator Morgan, of Alabama, has introduced an anti-trust joint resolution which he says he intends forcing to a vote if it possibly can be done, and Senator Chilton, of Texas, says the same about the anti-trust bill he has introduced.

Married His First Wife Again After 26 Years.

James G. McGlamery, of Reddies River township, was in town last week and got license to marry the woman that he says he married 26 years ago and has lived with ever since. He says that 26 years ago he and America Nichols went to South Carolina and were married. They made their home there till a few years ago, when they were burned out and everything destroyed. The certificate of marriage was burned with the other things. They moved back to Wilkes, where they have lived together since. They have eight children, some of them married. There are, however, always "doubting Thomases" and some of their unfriendly neighbors have recently doubted their marriage and threatened to have suit brought. Their certificate was gone and the witnesses dead, and so they decided to have the ceremony performed again so as to allay the doubts of their neighbors.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

NOW ON EXHIBITION AT OUR STORE AND WHICH WE TEND TO GIVE AWAY.

We guarantee that our prices on goods will remain the same.

This ware is rapidly taking the place of White Granite or Iron Stone Chiha. It has that soft, white, velvet finish; is of the finest quality, and without doubt the best in the world. The shapes are the very latest patterns and have been designed to meet the tastes of the most fastidious.

It is only by our guaranteeing to use a large quantity of this ware that we have been able to get it at a price that puts it within the reach of all.

Our assortment consists of Cups and Saucers, Pie Plates, Breakfast Plates, Dinner Plates, Platters, Covered Dishes, Cream Pitchers, Sugar Bowls, Tea Pots, and everything else which goes to make up a FINE SET OF DISHES.

We earnestly invite you to call and inspect it, when we will cheerfully give you full information.

Very respectfully,

"Is My Name Written There?"

How solemn that question, as it stands in a beautiful hymn.

I trust many of your readers will find their names written in the "Lamb's Book of Life." Sometimes we are made sad by seeing certain names in certain places.

I would rather see my daughter's name on her tomb stone than to find it in a list of dances.

I would rather see my son's name in your obituary list than to read his name as leader of a "German."

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY

Passed by Singletary Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy

The Daughters of the Confederacy met in obedience to a call at the residence of Mrs. R. W. King, on Thursday, Dec. 14th, 1899, when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

That whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in the mysterious dispensation of His providence, to remove by death from our neighboring Chapter Mrs. Mary Laughinghouse Grimes, a beloved and useful member of our organization, therefore be it resolved:

1st. That an earnest expression of our profound sorrow and sympathy for their great loss be extended to said chapter in Beaufort county, and especially to the members of the bereaved family who's names are enrolled on the chapter of this Singletary Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

2nd. That a suitable copy of these resolutions be and are herein forwarded to the persons above named by the Secretary of our chapter.

Cut His Throat.

This morning, while under the influence of liquor, Paul Metrick cut a deep gash on his throat with a knife. He was bleeding freely when he came out on the street, and parties took him to Dr. Moyer for his wound to be dressed. The wound is not a serious one.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.

I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.

MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it. They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.
