SHOOTING AT FARMVILLE.

Negro Released From Guard House.

Teet's Show gave a performance at Farmville Monday, a large crowd being there that day. When the afternoon performance was over the force went about their preparation for supper, which they served in one of their tents. While supper was going on several colored men gathered around the circus kitchen and began making themselves objectionable. The manager asked them to go away from the kitchen and to go around in front of the main tent where the band would soon play. One of the colored men grew very insolent over being asked to move. Soon afterwards a pistol shot was heard outside the tent. This was followed by a second shot, when a little son of Mr. McDonald, one of musicians of the show, screamed and said he was shot. The boy was struck in the shoulder.

The shooting caused great excitement and broke up the night performance of the circus. The negro, Fagus Joyner, who was charged with doing the shooting, was arrested and placed in the guard house to be held until he could be brought to the county jail, but during the night his friends broke open the guard house and released him.

The parents of the wounded child brought him to Greenville Monday night and left this morning for their home in Huntington, W. Va.

Monday's Panic.

The tremendous decline in the cotton market Monday created consternation all over the cotton growing States and numerous inquiries were made as to the cause of the collapse. Monday night Price, McCormick & Co. sent out other telegrams on the situation in order that if possible confidence might be restored. THE REFLECTOR received the following:

New York, Dec. 19th, 1899. ED. REFLECTOR, Greenville, N. C. Stock market panic adversely affected cotton today but worst seems over. Understand action will be taken by Secretary of Treasury and New York clearing house that will avert any trouble tomorrow. Market seems to have seen bottom today.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER, 19, 1899.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 18, 99.

The attempt of Nebraska republicans to prevent the seating of Senator Allen, appointed by the Governor to succeed the late Senator-elect Hayward, on the ground that as Mr. Hayward never qualified as Senator, his death caused no vacancy that could be legally filled by the governor; aroused nothing but amusement in Washington. There will be no opposition to the seating of Senator Allen, because there is nothing whatever upon which it should be based. The gold standard republicans would like very much to find some way to keep such a stalwart friend of silver out of the Senate, until the long financial debate, which will begin as soon after the Christmas recess as the Finance Committee reports its gold standard bill, is over, but they know too much to butt their heads against brick walls. It is unnecessary to say that Senator Allen will be most cordially welcomed by the silver Senators who know his fine fighting qualities from experience.

Mr. McKinley, the man who once blackguarded Mr. Cleveland for worshipping the golden calf and being the enemy of silver, completed the job of jamming the gold standard bill through the House, today. The programme was carried out according to the advance announcement, in every particular except that there were fewer democratic votes for the bill than had been claimed by the republicans. The bill has now gone to the Senate, where Mr. McKinley can do no jamming, and where this particular bill will be allowed to slumber in Committee. But the Finance Committee will report as a substitute, a gold Standard Bill that is even more objectionable than the House bill. It is whispered in inside republican circles that the party leaders would not be sorry if this session of Congress adjourn without final action on gold standard legislation, because it would be easier to raise a big campaign fund from the money kings if the matter is left hanging, by promising to complete the job at next winter's session, than it will be if the bill goes on the statute book before the Presidential campaign.

Congress will adjourn on Wednesday until January 3. The Senate Committees have been re-arranged, under the republican grab, and three new committees—on Pacific Islands and Porto Rica, on the Philippines, and on Cuba—have been formed, and Mr. Henderson will announce the House Committees before adjournment.

Sanctification.

We have before referred to the fact that two of the daughters of Mr. Sion Watts, of Alexander county, lost their minds some weeks ago as the result of attending sanctification meetings. The sanctification preacher denied this and said that Mr. Watts had stated that the insanity of his daughters was not due to their having imbibed the sanctification doctrine. In the Statesville Landmark, of Friday, Mr. Watts states that he never said anything of the kind. One of his daughters, he says, is in the Hospital at Morganton; the other regained her mind and is at home now, "and will stay there a long time before she goes to hear another sanctification preacher. I would rather," he continues, "have a dozen Mormon elders turned loose in my neighborhood than one sanctification snorter."

This doctrine does indeed appear to be the most dangerous and troublesome thing that has ever hit North Carolina. The dog fennel, Canada thistle, Hessian fly, hives and seven-year itch are not in its class; no more are hemorrhagic fever, yellow fever, malaria and smallpox. It makes fools of sensible people, runs fools crazy, and, from every point of view, is a nuisance and a menace.—Charlotte Observer.

Quality and News.

In presenting interesting phases of scientific and economic problems high-class newspapers frequently give information of as great value in their advertising columns as in those devoted to the publication of the principal events of the day; and when the fame of a product is extended beyond its natural limits into foreign lands, and a large demand created throughout Great Britain and her Colonies and the principal sea-ports and cities of Europe, Asia and Africa, it becomes a pleasant duty to note the fact and to tell of the points of excellence on which so great a success is based. We refer to the now world famed laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, the product of the California Fig Syrup Company. The merits of this well-known excellent laxative were first made known to the world through the medical journals and newspapers of the United States; and is one of the distinct achievements of the press. It is now well known that Syrup of Figs is an ethical proprietary remedy, approved by the most eminent physicians everywhere, because it is simple and effective, yet pleasant to the taste and acceptable to the system, and not only prompt in its beneficial effects, but also wholly free from any unpleasant after-effects. It is frequently referred to as the remedy of the healthy, because it is used by people who enjoy good health and who live well and feel well and are well informed on all subjects generally, including laxative. In order to get its beneficial effects, it is necessary to get the genuine Syrup of Figs, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
