WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 6, 1900. Every house in Winterville is occupied or engaged and more houses wanted.

Hunsucker Carriage Co's material keeps coming in. They are also employing some hands and will begin work in earnest in a few days.

Ice in the tank has been thicker and water in barrels frozen harder this cold spell than all last winter.

E. Dalrymple, representing Columbus Bolt Works of Columbus, Ohio, was in town yesterday. He is a clever old man and well known to carriage builders.

We are to have another merchant. Simon Moye is opening up a nice grocery business in one of the brick stores. Mr. Moye is a hustler and invites the patronage of his friends, also the trade in general.

G. W. Parker says wire has advanced again 35 cents per hundred. You had better get what wire fence you want of him before he has to advance the price on that.

It would not be doing our town justice to leave out an account of its new Jews Harp Band composed of Bud Joe, G. R. Dixon and A. G. Cox. Each of these gentlemen received a Jews harp from the Christmas tree. Bud Joe is leader of the band.

Our young merchant, Mr. Harrison, from Parmele was like the flower that passeth away. Whether he is like the flower in any other respect or not, will leave others to say. At any rate he has passed away, some say to Ayden, we know not whither.

Mat Slaughter, of Kinston, was in town yesterday. He does right much business in this neighborhood, and any one desiring to purchase a musical instrument of any kind or a sewing machine will do well to see him.

Winterville Cig. Co. is now running a full force of ten hands, some of them working night and day. Since getting some of the most popular young ladies of the place at work in the factory, the boys have decided to keep the floor swept, instead of waiting for a certain month in the year for sweeping.

The Greenville REFLECTOR suggests the name of J. Bryan Grimes, for Secretary of State, when the convention meets. It is early yet to suggest names and there may be others. Yet. The Courier would be glad to see the suggestion of the REFLECTOR carried out. It is a good one.—Edenton Courier.

Somebody's Dog.

The Chief of Police has been instructed by the Mayor to obtain the name of every person in Greenville who owns a dog and has not paid the tax thereon. Some folks had better go see the Tax Collector before the Chief calls to escort them to the Mayor's office. No joke about this.

Evangelist Fife is conducting a meeting in Durham.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C., Jan. 5, 1900. W. G. Garriss went to Winterville Thursday.

Miss Annie Pittman came Friday.

H. C. Brooks is here for a few days.

E. Pittman and family returned home to New Bern Thursday.

Capt. Robt. Pittman while coming down from Hookerton Wednesday killed a fine gobbler and two ducks.

At Grifton Theatre (Brooks, Hall) Friday night Jan. 12th, a troupe of star performers will appear. Come laugh and grow fat.

MARRIED.

There was a very nice and complete wedding at Salem church, near here, on Wednesday Dr. W. W. Dawson and Miss M. A. Brooks were married at seven o'clock and left immediately for the home of the groom's father Mr. Council Dawson, where a very nice reception was held.

Criss Moore caught a fine otter and killed four mallard ducks Wednesday.

Another Good Show.

The Osceola Minstrels had another full house at their show Friday night. The programme was even better than at their former in entertainment and the audience gave enthusiastic applause. Every body says the home boys give a better minstrel performance than any traveling troupe that has been here. The boys are talking about making a trip to Kinston.

There is an epidemic of small-pox in Chatham county. The disease is said to have been carried there by negroes from Greensboro.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1900.

Look out for squalls when the "end-of-the-century" controversy reaches Kentucky.

Hanna will meet in Philadelphia, will propose McKinley and Root, second them, nominate them and adjourn. The convention will then applaud.

Quay went into politics a poor man. Now, he owns real estate in Pennsylvania, Washington, and Florida, and has a lot of stocks and bonds besides. The plum tree seems to have borne well for him.

Brooklyn people have been making trouble for their school board because it has appointed a negro to teach white children. Yet, these same people have been denouncing the south for drawing the color line.

It is estimated that the surplus in the Treasury, for the year 1899 will be about $60,000,000. Yet the war revenue act is not to be repealed. The $60,000,000 will be spent in subsidies to ship builders and other Administration pets.

Mr. J. A. Crews, who has been traveling representative of the Wilmington Messenger for more than ten years, will sever his connection with that paper and take a cruise around the world. No pun intended.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5, 1900.

As soon as Congress reassembled the hammering of Secretary Gage for his favoritism in depositing government money in national banks was begun. Senator Allen and Representative Sulzer offered resolutions calling for all letters, telegrams agreements etc., between the U. S. Treasury and the City National Bank and the Hanover National Bank, of New York City. Mr. Sulzer's resolution was referred to the committee on Ways and Means, and Mr. Allen's is on the table of the Senate. The hammering will be continued.

Senator Chandler, who is one of the republicans who acknowledges fear of the committal of his party to the single gold standard, has offered an amendment to the gold standard bill, now before the Senate, providing for more attempted bamboozling in the shape of a continuance of the alleged efforts to secure international bimetalism.

Senator Hoar gave the imperialists in the Senate quite a scare when objection was raised to Senator Pettigrew's resolution asking the Secretary of War whether it was true that Aguinaldo had sent a flag of truce to Gen. Otis the day after the fighting of our men began, with a message saying that the fighting started through an accident and asking his co-operation to stop it, and Otis had replied by saying the fighting must continue by saying: "If there is to be an absolute suppression of all revuets for information concerning the war with the Filipinos. I shall object to the taking up of other matters during the morning hour when such resolutions are pending.

Senator Allen put a quick stop to the rumor that he was to be brought out by the Nebraska fusionists as their candidate for President, by declaring that he was not a candidate, would not be, and would not accept the nomination if it were unanimously tendered to him. He clinched it by adding: "Mr. Bryan undoubtedly will be the candidate of the democratic, populist and free silver parties for the Presidency, and Nebraska will give him a united, active delegation to all three conventions." Senator Allen also took occasion to say that there was absolutely no foundation for the stories of trouble in the fusion ranks because of his appointment to the Senate; that his appointment had been determined upon by the governor before Mr. Bryan knew anything about it, and that the relations between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hitchcock and himself were of the most harmonious character, and would continue so.

Somebody Correct This.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

In this busy day one man thinks, another writes, and nobody has time for Grammar.

We notice recently you were unable to "prevent it coming" or to "stop him falling."

We notice the esteemed Raleigh Post gives a timely article headed "Good English," in which it well says: "After our boys have spent eight years in graded schools, three or four in high schools and academies, four years in college, and, perhaps three more in professional schools, they can by no means be trusted to write a decent letter in English."

Then it seems a little funny that the Post should recently have been so hot after one politician—to block his success—that it jumped over the Grammar to "prevent him succeeding." Z.

True Enough.

The advertiser who takes big space in standard publications stands a much better chance of being a winner than any other advertiser, provided, of course, he uses the space wisely and has the nerve and the capital to keep it up until the advertising has a chance to do its full, perfect work.—Patent Record.

The silver Republicans seem determined to continue a thorn in the side of their gold standard brethren and now and then put out an address or an appeal just to remind them that they are alive and kicking.—Oxford Ledger.

A SINGLE STANDARD

A PERFECT NEWSPAPER.

To publish all the news promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss its significance with frankness, to keep an open eye for public abuses, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its daily editions of from 10 to 14 pages, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of one cent, that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "The Record."

THE PIONEER one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still leads where others follow.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation, exceeding 185,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

THE DAILY EDITION of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 per year or 25 cents per month.

THE SUNDAY EDITION at 2c. per copy or $1.00 per year, together with the Daily, will give its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on in the world every day in the year, including holidays, will be sent for $4.00 a year or 35 cents per month. Address

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since. MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

Cruelly Repressed.

"It's a shame; that's what it is," exclaimed the boy wrathfully. "I can't have any fun at all."
"What's the matter?" asked the sympathetic neighbor.
"Dad says he'll lick me if he ever hears of me fighting with a boy smaller than I am, an' I dassen't fight with a bigger one."—Chicago Post.

NEW YEAR CALLERS.

Some Stop Here, Some Go Yonder.

W. B. Wilson left this morning for a trip north.

Mrs. L. C. Renfrew left this morning for Whitakers.

W. T. Lee and family arrived Friday evening from Scotland Neck.

Luther Savage, of Whitakers, has taken a position with C. S. Forbes.

A. Littman, a former resident of Greenville but now of Smithfield, was here today.

E. A. Brown, formerly of this county but now of Louisiana, is visiting his mother near Greenville.

Miss Minnie Quinn left this morning for Raleigh to resume her studies at the Baptist University.

Mrs. M. A. Stephens, of Dunn, who has been spending some weeks with friends here, left this morning.

W. S. Greer, of Baltimore, is in town. He has talked some of his front teeth out but keeps in the ring.

Miss Ophelia Howell, of Goldsboro, arrived Friday evening to resume charge of Mrs. Forbes' school.

A. J. Otterbridge has moved his family here and occupies the building in West Greenville which he recently purchased.

H. W. Whedbee has moved to the Chas. Skinner residence, in West Greenville, which he purchased some time ago.

Miss Rosalind Rountree returned Friday evening from Scotland Neck. Miss Annie Kitchin accompanied her home for a visit here.

Worked the Town.

A Prof. Robertson, teacher of writing, has "done" Tarboro. The Southerner says he collected tuition fees in advance from about twenty-five pupils and skipped also leaving the hotel short on a week's board bill.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Mrs. N. Jacobs, of Wilmington, fell dead on the street in that city on Thursday.

Gov. Russell sent the Governor's Guard, of Raleigh, to Lumberton to protect a negro against threatened lynching. The negro was in jail under sentence of death, having been convicted of rape, and the Governor had twice given him a reprieve.

State Treasurer Worth has issued a circular letter to all county treasurers of the State asking them not to send in the warrants for the pro-rata part of the special appropriation of $100,000 to the public schools as the treasury is not in a condition to permit the payment of the warrants at this time.

Cotton Factory.

There is a movement now on foot that looks like a cotton factory will be established in Greenville. For a day or two Mr. A. A. Andrews has been going among the business men to see what stock they will take in such an enterprise. He tells us the subscriptions already amount to about $20,000 and there are many parties yet to be seen. With such success to start with it looks like the factory ought to be secured. If every one able to do so will take stock the necessary amount will soon be raised. Greenville needs nothing more than it does factories, and this movement should have all possible encouragement.
