Serious Charge Against a Colored Woman.

Down near the river in the direction of the wharf is a rather disreputable part of the town and some of the toughest of our citizens reside there.

It seems that Will Webb and Mag Lanier, both colored, had been staying together in a house and had a falling out Tuesday. That night Webb went to stay with Marion Perkins, another colored man living close by. Early in the night the woman went to the house of Perkins and called Webb to come out and go up town for her. Webb refused to go out when the woman became boisterous and cursed him, telling him if he did not come out she would burn him up in the house. Later Webb and another woman went in the yard of Mag after a bucket of water when they met and had some words. Webb returned to Perkins' house, when Mag repeated the threat that if he went in there she would burn him out.

The occupants of Perkins' house went to sleep and about 11 o'clock were awakened by smoke and hearing a roaring. They got up to investigate and found the house on fire. The fire was burning at the corner on the outside of the house, and the flames were just getting through to the inside. There was a smell of kerosene oil about it. They threw water on the fire and put it out.

Wednesday Marion Perkins got out a warrant for Mag Lanier and Chief of Police W. B. James arrested her. Late in the afternoon a preliminary trial was held by Justice W. H. Long, the evidence at the trial being about as stated above. Four witnesses were examined for the State and they all told about the same story.

The house that was set on fire was a long shanty of several rooms in which a number of colored people lived.

The defendant had three witnesses but there was not much in their testimony. Mag was committed to jail for trial at April term of Superior Court.

Some men believe in making the most of their opportunities, and seem to regard every other man as an opportunity.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

There were 225 pupils at the re-opening of the State Normal College at Greensboro.

The State Board of Agriculture, will hold a farmer's institute at Snow Hill on the 12th of February; among the speakers are Massey, Patterson, Kilgore, Johnston, Holmes and Cartice.

Big Record

During the month of January Register of Deeds Moore issued sixty-four marriage licenses. Of these thirty-five were for white couples and twenty-nine for colored.

Something New.

It is a dull day for Raleigh when that city is not having some kind of a convention. The Post says an "Old Maid's Convention" is announced. There will not be any delegates from Greenville to that convention.

Useful Hints

To stop bleeding. A handful of flour bound on the cut.

A red-hot iron will soften old putty so that it can be easily removed.

A sun bath is of more value to health than much warming by the fire.

To cure a sting of bee or wasp. Mix common earth with water, and apply at once.

To prevent doors from squeaking. Oil the hinges with a feather dipped in linseed oil.

To clean gilded frames. Gently wipe them with a fine cotton cloth dipped in sweet oil.

Stock Sold.

F. C. Harding, assignee, today sold the R. B. Jarvis & Bro. stock of goods. W. T. Lee & Co. were the purchasers. They will carry on a business in the Jarvis store and the Greenville Tailoring Co. will move in with them, and will be run in connection with the store.

Mrs. M. R. Lang Dead.

A telegram from New York received by THE REFLECTOR this morning announced that Mrs. M. R. Lang died suddenly at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. No further particulars were given in the message. The news was a shock to her many friends in Greenville where she lived for so many years before moving to New York a year ago. She was an excellent woman, a true and faithful friend, and was held in warmest esteem by all who knew her. We extend sympathy to the sorrowing husband in his severe bereavement.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1190.

It is announced that a Republican daily paper is to be started in Raleigh. Maybe it will continue as long as the Republican campaign fund holds out. At least that has been the experience of such ventures in the past.

Affairs in Kentucky which have been at upheaval since the late gubernatorial election, reached a bloody crisis Tuesday in the assassination of Senator Goebel as he was walking through the capital grounds to the capital building at Frankfort. He was shot by some one from ambush and latest reports indicate that his injuries would prove fatal. It was an outrageous act and may lead to further bloodshed. The Governor called out the militia in the effort to preserve order.

Let the Man Reform Before Marriage.

"A girl should never marry a man that she may reform him," writes Margaret Sangster, in the February Ladies' Home Journal. "If he is in need of reformation let him prove himself worthy by turning from evil and setting his face steadfastly and perseveringly to good before he asks a girl to surrender herself and her life to him. Nor should a girl be too impatient with father, mother and friends if they counsel delay in deciding a matter which is to influence her whole career and her lover's when they with clearer eyes than her own, perceive in him an unsuitability to her."

A Costly Error in An Advertisement.

In their advertisement in yesterday's Observer Messrs. Tapp, Long & Co. intended to say: "Twenty-five pieces black cheviot dress goods, 50 inches wide, regular $1 goods; we start them moving at 75 cents." By error the last figures appeared "25." Ladies flocked to the store in the early morning hours, and others phoned their orders for these goods at 25 cents. It was in vain that the explanation was made that the price was placed at 25 cents through a typographical error, and that 75 cents was intended. The customers demanded the goods at the price advertised, and the Observer office was appealed to. The advertising manager properly directed that the customers be supplied as long as the goods lasted, at 25 cents a yard, the paper making good to the firm the difference of 50 cents on each yard sold. It was the Observer's error and it stood under it. —Charlotte Observer, 28th.

The Colorado Springs Gazette suggests that Mr. Rockefeller's recent gift of $100,000 to establish a chair of psychology at the Columbia University was made with a view to the investigation of the question as to whether corporations have souls.

The Monroe Journal says that Mr. W. W. Walsh's cow died from some unknown cause after great suffering. They cut her stomach open and the trouble was revealed. In the stomach were a large number of nails, screws, pins and a quantity of gravels and small rocks.

Webster's Weekly and the Danville Bee, two of the staunchest fighters against the tobacco trust, do not endorse Jordan's scheme of doing up the trust. We do not know how the Jordan plan will work, but if the farmers wish to try it we would not attempt to discourage them, as we have nothing better to suggest.—Durham Herald.

The Philippine war costs the United States $1,000,000 a day, which is twice as much as the average daily cost of all the public schools of the United States with their army of 400,000 teachers. Could the expenses of one year of this war be added to the school fund, the educational facilities of the whole country could be doubled for two years.—N. C. Journal of Education.

While there are wars and rumors of wars in all lands, we believe the 20th century has in store for all mankind great and wonderful blessings. The inventive genius of this age is something wonderful to think about. Science is making magnificent strides. Progress in all lines is great. And while evil forces are not slow in troubling the world, yet we believe that good is rapidly triumphing over evil. New methods of healing disease are being discovered that are astonishing the world. Truth in all its beauty, is being unveiled, and wisdom is looked upon as one of the most priceless pearls. Men of far-seeing range of intellectual vision are rising up on every hand and are pointing the human race to a brighter day. Pessimism is dying out, and hopeful optimism bids us be patient and look forward and be glad.—LaGrange Sentinel.

The sleeping lion is aroused and is beginning to show his teeth. All over North Carolina the Democratic party is beginning to put on its armor for the great fight for white supremacy. The Republicans and Populists have done so much talking the past few months that they had already defeated the amendment—in their minds. They will sing another song ere many moons shall wax and wane. There will be a great fight. Let no Democrat be lulled to sleep with the idea that we will have a walk over. The fusionists will make one last and desperate stand for existence. Every man must be up and doing and if every man who desires white supremacy and good government does his full duty there can be but one result—the victory will be ours.—Statesville Landmark.

Wants Satisfied.

When two or more persons have wants that can be mutually satisfied the interested persons should be brought together. The merchant wants customers, and the public is anxious to know where to purchase. Advertising brings the seller and the buyer into close business relationship, to the benefit of both.—Philadelphia Record.

THE AMENDMENT.

The following is the amendment to article 6 of the State constitution, adopted by the General Assembly of 1899, and to be submitted to the voters for ratification next August:

Section 1. That article VI of the constitution of North Carolina be, and the same is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof shall be substituted the following article of said constitution:

ARTICLE VI.

SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE—QUALIFICATIONS OF AN ELECTOR.

Section 1. Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years of age, and possessing the qualifications set out in this article, shall be entitled to vote at any election by the people in the State, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. He shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the precinct, ward or other election district in which he offers to vote, four months next preceding the election; Provided, That removal from one precinct, ward or other election district to another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed, until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon indictment of any crime the punishment of which is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State prison, shall be permitted to vote, unless the said person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. Every person offering to vote shall be at the time a legally registered voter as herein prescribed and in the manner hereinafter provided by law, and the General Assembly of North Carolina shall enact general registration laws to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

Sec. 4. Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the constitution in the English language; and, before he shall be entitled to vote, have paid up or before the first day of March of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax as prescribed by law, for the previous year. Poll taxes shall be a lien only on assessed property, and no process shall issue to enforce the collection of the same except against assessed property.

Sec. 5. No male person who was, on January 1, 1867, or at any time prior thereto, entitled to vote under the laws of any State in the United States wherein he then resided, and no lineal descendant of any such person, shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by person of his failure to possess the educational qualifications prescribed in section 4 of this article: Provided, he shall have registered in accordance with the terms of this section prior to December 1, 1908. The General Assembly shall provide for a permanent record of all persons who register under this section on or before November 1, 1908, and all such persons shall be entitled to register and vote at all elections by the people in this State, unless disqualified under section 2 of this article: Provided, such persons shall have paid their poll tax as required by law.

Sec. 6. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and all elections by the General Assembly shall be viva voce.

Sec. 7. Every voter in North Carolina, except as in this article disqualified, shall be eligible to office, but before entering upon the duties of the office he shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and maintain the constitution and laws of the United States, and the constitution and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as _____ So help me, God."

Sec. 8. The following classes of persons shall be disqualified for office: First, all persons who shall deny the being of Almighty God. Second, all persons who shall have been convicted or confessed their guilt on indictment pending, and whether sentenced or not, under judgments suspended, of any treason or felony, or any other crime for which the punishment may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, since becoming citizens of the United States, or corruption and malpractice in office, unless such person shall be restored to the rights of citizenship in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Compliment to Small.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Congressman Small, on Monday, engineered to successful passage through the House, a bill to amend section 4445 of the Revised Statutes, relating to the licensing of officers of steam vessels. The bill was reported from the Committee of Merchant Marines and Fisheries, of which General Grosvenor, of Ohio, is chairman. Mr. Small was selected to call up the bill, which is a privilege seldom accorded to a new member and is a great compliment to Mr. Small. He explained the bill with much clearness and force, briefly and to the point and though the bill was assailed with much bitterness by Messrs. Berry and Wheeler, of Kentucky, after an hour's parliamentary battle, Mr. Small landed his bill passed.

It is a measure of much interest to Eastern North Carolina, as Mr. Small explained. Under the present law applicants for positions of master, mate, pilot or engineer have to make answer to certain questions, involving their capacity and qualifications to hold the position applied for. These answers form, to a great extent, the basis for their license by the United States officers. It has developed that many unscrupulous men set forth as facts, such as length of service with some one, knowledge of streams and harbors, etc., what are not facts. The measure passed with Mr. Small's guidance, makes false statements of facts punishable by imprisonment of three years or fine of $500.

Killed at Play.

A sad tragedy occurred in Washington Wednesday. Two youths, John Cordon and John Williams, were together on the street. Cordon struck Williams in play, when Williams threw an open knife at Cordon. The blade of the knife struck Cordon in the leg, severing an artery, and he bled to death from the wound a few hours later. Cordon was 18 years of age and Williams 16, both of them belonging to prominent families.

A Sermon to Girls

Rev. Dr. S. Reese Murray, pastor of Wesley Chapel, Methodist Episcopal church, preached yesterday morning a special sermon to the girls of his congregation, his text being "Keep yourself in the love of God." He said in part:

"Now I want to tell you that you cannot be a home-maker, an upbuilder of life, if you grow up as boys ordinarily do. You are of finer fibre and will be more easily injured by bad traits than they. I believe these are some of the traits; Suspicion, prejudice, unsympathetic speech, tale-bearing—to say no more. True womanliness is inconsistent with these traits, and the basis of that womanliness is love, sympathy and consideration for all with whom they come in contact.

"It has been said that a mighty change has come over men in these last years, and that women are responsible for their loss of religion. If true, such an indictment is awful. Alas, it is too true in many instances! Many a home has love but a selfish love that excludes God. The home is a snug nest, but it is not paradise. Ah, the woman that puts God out of her home will have many a heart-breaking experience. No refinement nor wealth, no culture nor natural grace, or even mere goodness, will take the place of the life which comes with the love of God."—Baltimore Sun.

NOTICE.

This is to state that the firm of Drs. O'Hagan & Laughinghouse has not been dissolved. The only change made is, that for the better convenience of our patrons we have established a downtown office.

Dr. O'Hagan will occupy the old stand. Dr. Laughinghouse will occupy the new office situated on Fourth street, just behind Frank Wilson's clothing store in the Perkins block of buildings where the old post office used to be.
