Happenings in North Carolina.

Mr. W. T. Blackwell, one of Durham's leading citizens, says: "A newspaper is one of the great levers to build up a business or a town. Where would Durham have been today had it not been for printer's ink? She would be right here, an old field, holding the earth together, and of no other use."

Democratic Convention.

A convention of the Democratic Party of Pitt County is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Greenville on Saturday, March 31st, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention to be held in the city of Raleigh on the 11th day of April, 1900, for the nomination of candidates for the various State offices.

Township Primaries will be held on Saturday, March 24th, at 2 o'clock P. M., to appoint delegates to the County Convention.

All persons who are in favor of the white people controlling the State and County governments are invited to participate in these meetings.

By order of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pitt County.

ALEX. L. BLOW,

W. L. BROWN, Chairman.

Secretary.

To Amend the Francaise Amedment.

Democratic State Chairman Simmons says he is satisfied, from the unanimity of opinion of Democratic committeemen and legislators that the Democratic State convention will request the legislature at its adjourning session in June to add to the constitutional amendment such words as will remove all possible doubt as to the section requiring that the fourth and fifth sections should stand or fall together; that the legislature will make a change by a practically unanimous vote. He supposes the Populist legislators will vote for the change, as they voted for the amendment. He declares that "if the Republicans do not vote for it, it will show conclusively all their clamor upon this subject is a subterfuge and fraud." He adds that "there is no legal necessity for any such change, because, as I said before the context of the amendment shows that these two sections are inseparably linked together as one single scheme of suffrage, and undoubtedly the courts would so hold. But we are willing to remove all possible doubt, or suspicion of doubt, or suggestion of doubt, from the mind of every white man. It is the fixed purpose of the Democratic party that no white man, however poor or unlettered he may be, shall under any circumstances whatever, lose his vote, and we wish to make this purpose so plain that the enemies of the amendment will not be able by misrepresentation to muddle the issue."

North Carolina Should Preserve Her Timber

Charleston News and Courier.

The New York Times warmly approves the project for the forest reservation among the Over Hills of Otteray with one amendment. It says: "If North Carolina has come to a realizing sense of the value of forests she has reached a point of which not many of her sister States have yet arrived, and may well be proud of herself. But such elevation and wisdom should involve the development of an independent spirit, and disinclination to ask help in a matter to which she could attend unaided. New York has a forest preserve small but steadily growing in size and value, and she paid for every acre of it out of her own pocket. It is open to all the world on fairly equal terms, so that its pleasures and profits are far from confined to the residents of New York State. North Carolina ought to have a similar preserve, and she ought to get it in the same way."

"We should have an inspector of eggs," mused the King. "What a scramble there would be for that office," remarked the Court Jester.

FARMERS ANTI TRUST MEETING.

PACTOLUS TOWNSHIP.

The meeting was called to order by J. B. Little, who stated that the object was to devise some plan by which farmers and tobacco growers may combine against the fertilizers trusts, which has raised the prices of commercial fertilizers to such enormous prices, and to appoint delegates to a county convention to be held in Greenville on the 10th of Feb. 1900, to organize and form some plan of fighting the fertilizers trusts.

On motion J. B. Little was made permanent chairman and M. T. Spier secretary. A large attendance of the leading farmers of the township was present.

After discussing the situation the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved 1. That we make a reduction of 50 per cent. of the fertilizers used in former years, unless prices are reduced as they were last season.

Resolved 2. That we ask local dealers to buy or contract according to resolution 1, as stated above.

Resolved 3. That we ask all farmers in the county and throughout the State to aid and assist us in carrying out these resolutions.

Resolved 4. That we request county papers which favor these proceedings to publish the same.

On motion the following delegates were appointed to the Farmers Anti Trust Meeting to meet on the 10th inst. in Greenville: D. H. James, W. G. Mizzelle, M. T. Spier, J. R. Barnhill and H. M. Jones. M. T. SPIER, Sec.

Charming Singer.

Miss Beatrice Carpenter, with the Alba Heywood Company, is the kind of singer the public delights to listen to and honor. Her voice is sweet and sympathetic to a degree, her articulation as distinct as though speaking, so that at no time does one lose a word of the story. Her two years as understudy to Jessie Bartlett Davis of the Bostonian Opera Co., [the most successful contralto in America] has thoroughly schooled Miss Carpenter in the art of Ballade singing, until there are but few that can equal her. These qualifications, combined with her personal charms and beauty, will surely bring to her the highest artistic successes. Miss Carpenter will be heard here on the evening of Thursday Feb. 8th, with the Alba Heywood Company.

Thermometers are about as low as they will be this winter, and yet you don't see any on the bargain counters.

Truth, says the old adage, lies at the bottom of the well. That sounds all right, but why should truth lie under any circumstances?

If you examine the giggling girl closely you will generally find that she has a gold tooth, through which floats her silvery laughter.
