NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Apr. 11th.

Mrs. J. R. Cooper is quite sick. A. G. Cox went to Raleigh yesterday morning.

Dr. O'Hagan and son Charles were in town yesterday.

Miss Alice Trip is spending a few days with her sister here.

R. H. Hunsucker has quite an inflamed hand from a spider bite.

The improvements on A. G. Cox's residence are going on rapidly.

At Dixon & Hooks' is the place to buy fine cigars, and they are fixed up all O. K. to show them too.

We are glad to see our young minister, J. B. Jackson out again after about two weeks sickness. He will return to Kinston in a few days.

T. F. Winstead arrived Monday night to begin trimming for Hunsucker Cge. Co. Come around and see one of their buggies finished up.

Lets don't let the furniture factory question drop, but keep it agitated until we get the factory. It can be done with a little work.

A. G. Cox has a good farm known as the Fred White farm for sale. Any one wishing to purchase may apply at once. Terms easy.

Our school has been very thin for the past few weeks on account of sickness, but we hope that the old pupils will return as soon as possible.

DONT FORGET:—that we are headquarters for tobacco trucks, and that as soon as the Cotton Planter and Fertilizer Distributer rush is over with, the cart and wagon business will start up again. We have some wheels ready for sale on hand now.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Bud Joe has quite a scar over his eye. He was sitting on the front porch asleep Sunday afternoon when he lost his balance and fell out doors, the chair on top. He certainly must have been dreaming about the girls. He said it came very near breaking his neck, and that he said d—three times before he struck the ground.

Proud Parent—"My boy's learning to play the cornet." Neighbor sadly—"So I hear.

PACTOLUS ITEMS

PACTOLUS, N. C., April 10, 1900.

Dr. C. M. Jones, of Grimesland, was here Thursday.

J. F. Davenport went over to Greenville Friday.

B. B. Satterthwaite went over to Greenville Thursday to attend court.

C. E. Bradley will soon have his store completed.

E. L. Braxton went down to Washington Monday.

J. J. Satterthwaite and wife spent Monday in Washington.

R. R. Fleming is looking for the machinery for his mill every day.

Farmers are feeling good in this section, hoping to receive a reward next fall. Ten cent cotton.

Some one asked the question the other day, on the street. "Who will be our next Sheriff. Answer, Why of course R. W. King. He is the strongest man in the county.

What Pleased Him.

Miss Ellen Terry recently wrote to a London newspaper as follows.

"We played The Merchant of Venice one Christmas day in America, and I gave a pass to a nice, kind, old colored waiter who attended me at my hotel. After the play I asked him what had struck him most and and live longest in his memory—the pound of flesh?"

"No."

"The running away of Jessica?"

"No."

"The Jew?"

"No."

"What, then?"

"Oh, it certainly pleased me to see all them lovely ladies and gentlemen a-bowing' 'emselves down before the colored gentleman?"

"He meant the Prince of Morocco."—Philadelphia Record.

Ohio G. Barber, president of the Diamond Match Company, has offered to give $100,000 to the Akron (O.) City Hospital, to be used as an endowment fund.

Republicans of Davenport, Ia., elected Fred Heinz Mayor, and a proposition to buy a site for a free public library, which $50,000 was given by Andrew Carnegie, was carried.

End of the Century Book Club.

It remained for Mrs. Mattie Moyer King, whose well earned reputation for artistic planning and execution of entertainment has long been established, to add the charm to the many beautiful receptions given by the End of the Century Book Club during the past winter.

Incontemplation of the delightful evening the members all responded to the roll call with the exception of Mrs. Will Harding, and Mrs. Jordan, who were out of town.

In the literary medley Mrs. Arthur won the prize, a pretty cut glass vase filled with hyacinths. Mrs. R. R. Cotton, the gifted President was the autocrat of the symposium.

The literary topic embraced the first and second crusade. Mrs. Harry Skinner reading the first sketch which displayed considerable historical research, and was pronounced, both instructive and entertaining. Mrs. W. H. Grimes had prepared, and read an exceedingly intricate, yet clearly defined, delineation of the character of Gilbert Ward, the hero of Via Crusis. Mrs. Grimes displayed a remarkable capacity for a clear cut analysis of the many conflicting, yet powerfully chosen elements which Marion Evantord had entrancingly depicted in that picturesque character.

Mrs. Fordie Harding read an interestingly arranged sketch of Eleanor of Aquitaine as she appears in Via Crusis. That is as the wife of Louis the Seventh of France, but feeling that the history of beautiful wicked women, was hardly begun in Crawford's book. Mrs. Harding gave the club interesting glimpses of the salient episodes of her long life as Queen of England and wife of Henry Plantagenet, with the dark tragedy of ill fated "Fair Rosalind."

Mrs. Jarvis gave a brief critical synopsis of Via Crusis, as a book, contrasting it with Scott's Talisman, in which Elenoir's son Richard, The Lion Hearted is so immortally depicted in history and stone.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with Easter Lillies and red carnations, with yards of trailing Smilax. The light from many candles shed a mellow glow over the room and table decorated with exquisite laces, cut glass and silver.

The hostess was assisted in serving delicacies by her sister Miss Nannie Moyer of Kinston, and her two little daughters, the Messes. Mattie Moyer and, Annie King.

A good Candidate.

Hon. George F. Parrott, Senator of Lenoir county, was unanimously indorsed by his county for Commissioners, of Agriculture. He is a successful farmer and a life long Democrat, and would fill the office with credit, to himself and great satisfaction to all. He would add strength to our State ticket.

Convince the Public.

ARE YOU Looking for Money

If so, we are..

Ready, with the best value in Men's Clothing you ever clapped eyes or fingers on. No matter if you paid some tailor $35 you couldn't secure any more satisfaction, any better fit or style, or absolute worth than in these $10, $12.50 and $15 suits of ours. Our clothing appeals directly to the men who know the value of being well dressed at moderate cost. Of course you're not limited to these $10, $12.50 and $15 lines. We spread an array of Men's Clothing at $5, $7.50, $10, $12.50 and $15.

You will be best suited where the best clothing is—that's here. None dispute quality with our store. The other fellows compete with us in low prices, but they're out of the race with quality for the low price. Trade at our store and save repentance.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1900

A woman in Rochester, N. Y., Catherine Meyer, Wednesday, killed her two children, a girl of three and a boy a year old, by throwing them into a cistern under the kitchen floor, and then committed suicide by jumping in herself. Crazy? Of course. But what made her so? The story was told in a tragic little note which the woman left for her relatives, which said that she owed a grocery bill of $1.06, and that the grocer refused to trust her for any more supplies. This seems a trivial cause for such desperate action, but, reader, have you ever been hungry? asks the Boston Traveler. Have you ever experienced the feeling of not knowing where your next meal was to come from? And worse still, have you felt your powerlessness to secure food for the little ones dependent upon you? Not Well, until you have felt these things do not presume to judge Catherine Meyer. The debt of $1.06 stood like an inaccessible mountain before the frantic woman. Think of it, Andrew Carnegie! Think of it, John D. Rockefeller! Think of it, millionaires and plutocrats! You give your thousands for libraries and universities. What do you do for the Catherine Meyers?

True Heroism.

The Charleston News and Courier tells a pathetic story of Stephen Moore, in that city last week, and whose obsequies could have scarcely been more impressive had he borne a commission and rendered some service of conspicuous gallantry. He was one of three brothers, two of whom fell in battle for the South, and the third himself, came out of it with his eyes forever darkened to the light of the world. But Stephen Moore was of heroic build, and since the war he has cheerfully accepted pain physical privation, and with unwearied energy and industry, labored for his own support. "Although his comrades," says the News and Courier, "were ready always to care for him, he would not accept their willing aid, but as it supplemented his own effort. Working with his own hands at a toil for which the thoughtfulness of his Confederate friends had equipped him, he was led by the hand through the streets to attend himself to the disposal of the fruits of his labor, bearing everywhere a smiling face and honored everywhere as an upright man and conscientious Christian."—Charlotte News.

Near Auburn, Ind., Ves Steel was shot and killed by William Davis, who resented his attentions to Mrs. Davis.

We are the Fourth Naval Power in the World

The report which Representative Foss submitted to the house with the naval appropriation bill is a comprehensive and artistic composition, filled with information concerning our own and the other navies of the world, and shows the result of his visit to Europe last Summer. According to Mr. Foss we stood No 20 in the list of naval powers 17 years ago. Since then we have spent for new ships $98,529,529.85, and the vessels now will cost $62,570,610.23. We now rank fourth among the naval powers of the world—England first, France second, Russia third, the United States fourth and Germany fifth. We are ahead of Germany to day only by 2,230 tons—a cruiser about the size of the Atlanta. Another interesting fact in the report of Mr Foss is that 88 per cent. of the whole number of the officers and seamen in our navy are citizens of the United States, while 65 percent of the remainder have taken out their first papers. Of the other enlisten men 75 per cent. are citizens, and of the apprentices over 71 per cent. are native born.—Chicago Record.

Live Mouse in an Egg

As the result of an April fool joke, Edith Walrach, of Camden, who is visiting friends here, is said to be dying. Miss Walrach is 19 years of age, and a sprightly young lady of very nervous temperament. She came to this city a week ago to visit friends, and in the family where she is stopping is a young man very fond of practical joking. He and Miss Walrach were fast friends, and he determined to have some sport at her expense at the breakfast table. Procuring a small live mouse he fastened it in an egg, covering the opening with plaster of Paris. This was brought in with the breakfast, and when Miss Walrach broke the shell the liberated mouse made its escape. She gave a scream and fainted away. On being restored a spasm occurred and during the day she had three nervous fits. The physician who was called pronounced the case one of acute hysteria brought on by a sudden fright.—Binghampton, N. Y., Dispatch, 1st.

George Magill, formerly a prosperous banker, was sentenced to imprisonment and to pay a fine of $3,027.40 for receiving deposits after he knew his bank, the Avenue Savings, of Chicago, Ill., was insolvent.

A Scarcity of Sailors.

Washington, April 9.—The difficulty in securing a sufficient number of sailors to man the battleships and other naval craft which are being turned out by our shipbuilders, has led to the renewal in some quarters of the suggestion that Watson's squadron be withdrawn from the Philippines, to make up the complements of the new ships at home. It is stated at the Navy Department, however, that no action in that direction has been determined upon, and in view of the expected arrival on the Asiatic station within a fortnight, of Admirals Remy and Kempff, and the ensuing division of the naval force on the station into two squadrons, it is not contemplated that any change will be made.

The navy Department officials realize that for the purposes for which the navy is now employed in the Philippines, small light draft gun-boats are more valuable than big battleships and monitors with their numerous crews. Still conditions in the East are so unsettled as to make a withdrawal of any portion of the large United States force doubtful at this time, in view of the possibility of wholesale demands for protection of American interests from points on the mainland of Asia. This possibility has influenced the Navy Department in the disposition of the ships in the East, though it is also possible that Admiral Watson himself has seen fit to give the necessary orders without instructions from Washington. It has been arranged that an American warship will be at hand for some time to come at no less than three properly distributed points on the mainland, which will serve as stations or refuge in case they are needed. Thus, at Hong Kong there are now two vessels and they will be from time to time relieved by others needing repairs. At Foo Chow, opposite Formosa, and about half way up the coast of China, the Yorktown will spend some time in dry dock. The Castine is undergoing repairs further north at Shanghai, and the Wheeling is lying in the mouth of the river at Takwas sentinel for the northern provinces.—Charlotte Observer.

Shot himself While Asleep.

Chicago, April 9.—A verdict of death by an accidental wound was decided on to day the coroner's jury in the case of Captain Louis Ostheim, of the First United States Artillery, who was found dead last night in his apartments at the Auditorium Annex. He had been in ill health since returning from the Philippines and had been suffering from insomnia.

The revolver with which Captain Ostheim shot himself had been purchased by him for self-protection Saturday, as he carried a large amount of money with him. It is the theory of his friends that the captain awoke Sunday morning in one of his nightmares and shot himself, not knowing what he was doing.—Charlotte Observer.

Asylum Officers Are Not Suppliants.

Referring to the lack of hospital room for the insane of the State, the Wilmington Messenger, concluding a sympathetic and well considered editorial, says:

"The people of good hearts and much human sympathy must move in this matter. The insane should be carefully and generously provided for. All philanthropists, and all who love Christ and their fellowmen must act and see to it that the unfortunate insane shall not be longer neglected but protected and helped."

The case herein is truly stated. This matter is one for the legislature—the representatives of the people. The Observer feels warranted in saying for the State Hospital at Morganton—whose territory embraces a good deal more than half of the State and in whose district there are 300 to 500 lunatics who should be there who are not there—that its management is tired of going before legislative committees and begging for appropriations which are necessary in order to discharge what may be called "our plain duty." Those appearing before these committees are put in the attitude of suppliants for personal favor, whereas, what they are doing is at personal sacrifice and without compensation. So far as the State Hospital at Morganton is concerned, its needs will hereafter be presented with dignity before the legislature and after that its members may reckon with their constituents.—Charlotte Observer.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.
Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

WINE OF CARDUI

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—depondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

The apartment house that doesn't pay is a flat failure.

It's peculiar that pointed remarks are apt to be blunt.

"When a fellow has much work to do," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "he can find time by not losing it.

"I wish you would do something for my husband," said the anxious wife; "he seems to be worrying about money." "Don't be alarmed, madam," returned the doctor, reassuringly; "I'll relieve him of that.

Runaway Accident.

Just after the balloon ascension Tuesday evening Misses Irma Cobb and Nel Skinner were out driving when their horse became frightened at the falling balloon and ran into a tree near Savage's stables breaking the buggy. Neither of the young ladies were hurt however, as both jumped out before the buggy struck the tree.

Mr. Teets on hearing of the accident went around to see Mr. Cobb and offered to pay all the damages.

A Series of Services.

The Pastor of the Methodist church announced last Sunday that a series of services would begin on the 1st Sunday in May. Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Weldon, will arrive on Monday and do most of the preaching. This is something in which the whole community should be interested, for Greenville needs a genuine revival of religion both inside and outside the churches.

Value of a Newspaper.

Mr. R. H. Edmunds, editor of The Manufacturer's Record, in reviewing the industrial development of the South, says such places as Birmingham, Atlanta and Charlotte, were built up by the energy of good newspapers. The people helped the newspapers and they helped the people. Their interests are identical.—Durham Sun.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

The difference between a widow and girl is that the widow never feels her nose get cold when she sees the man she is in love with.

A woman who is too near-sighted to see when the buttons are off her husband's mackintosh can often read mighty fine print bargain advertisements.

When a woman is in love it changes her whole nature so that until after she marries she will let a man put cigar ashes on the roots of her pet palm and not faint away.

A woman whose husband smokes all over the house whenever he feels like it will get on a smoking car and look so at the men who are smoking that two or three of them of them will get off.—New York Press.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

Said Pasha the Attraction.

The Herald Square Opera Company of New York, en route for the New Bern Fair arrived here on the boat today.

The selection for tonight's performance is "Said Pasha" an Oriental comic opera which has just had a remarkable run of 1,000 nights in New York and London.

The costumes and settings are typical of the Far East in which the scenes are laid. The Opera is full of bright catchy music, solos, duets, quartets and beautiful ensemble numbers, plenty of good wholesome fun, sparkling wit and mirth, dances, etc.

This is the largest company that has ever visited the city and judgment from the crowded theatres in all the large cities visited and the enthusiastic press notices from Norfolk, Richmond and Raleigh the company's one of the finest ever seen in this section.

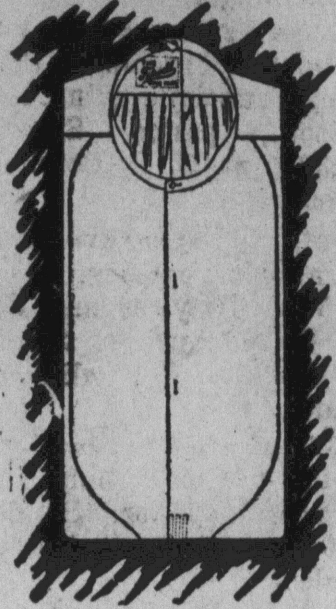

Balloon Ascension.

A good crowd was here Tuesday to witness the balloon ascension at Teets Bros. Show, which occurred that evening about five o'clock. The first attempt proved a failure, the parachute breaking loose from the balloon before it had risen more than ten feet from the ground. They secured the balloon after it descended and inflated it the second time, the man going up this time several hundred feet and coming down near Smith & Hooker's stables, while the balloon floated over near the Baptist church.

The show gives a performance in Grimesland today.

Close-fisted person can be classed together, but the generous man stands a loan.
