RESOLUTIONS

of Helena Rebekah Lodge Relative to the Death of Miss Sarah Hooker.

Resolved, that in the premature death of our young sister, Miss Sarah Hooker, Helena Rebekah Lodge has lost one of its most loyal, helpful and promising members; that each member of this lodge feels a personal loss in the death of her from whom each obtained a kind word and a pleasant smile; that we extend to the bereaved family our tenderest sympathy, and beg of them the sweet, sad privilege of mingling our tears with theirs in their sorrow for their lost loved one.

Insanity Did not Go.

An amusing case came up before Justice of the Peace W. H. Long Friday evening. J. W. Harrington, who some time ago purchased a buggy from the Pitt County Buggy Co., sold the buggy under mortgage. Mr. Cobb, of the Pitt County Buggy Co., had Mr. Harrington arrested and brought here for trial.

As soon as he was arrested he feigned sickness and had to be brought here on a bed in a wagon. On trial he pretended to be crazy and a doctor was sent for who examined him and pronounced him sane. He was bound over to court, and as soon as Mr. R. Greene stood his bond he seemed to gain his right mind again and to get well immediately.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

A selfish girl is not necessarily a fish woman.

This life is the one to watch—the other is a continuation of this.

Strange that young men should be sowing "wild oats" when they are on tares.

When Adam told an ancient joke no man ever told him that he had heard it before.

Its a curious woman who won't overlook any crime if it is committed in the name of love.

Every town is full of people who knew something was going to happen—after it has happened.

The devil never complains of his environment but keeps steadily at work with the greatest of energy.

Down in old North Carolina when a man takes his whiskey straight, they never call him a corn-dodger.

Dewey he will never do, for Bryan is the man; McKinley will never win again, his Bliss has fled the land.

Woman will work and worry in order to become the wearer of some man's name, and then beg a divorce court to give back her maiden name.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Moye had six cases up before him since last report.

B. E. Parham, pursuing the vocation of tobacco buyer without license, decision reserved

B. E. Parham, keeping boarding house without license, guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

Marion Perkins, riotous and disorderly conduct, guilty, fined $5 and cost amounting to $9 15.

William Corey, drunk and disorderly, guilty, fined one penny and cost, amounting to $1.86.

Jesse Hopkins, indecent exposure of person, judgment suspended.

Fred Cox and H. C. Kinsaul, riotous and disorderly conduct and using profane language, both fined $1.00 and cost, amounting to $6.50 each.

Fell and Injured Himself.

Dr. J. D. Hufham of Henderson hurt himself quite painfully during a recent visit to this city. Dr. Hufham was here Friday and left that day for Goldsboro. While on his way to the union depot to board the train he slipped on the pavement and fell sustaining and injury from which he suffered much pain. He continued his journey, however and at last accounts had nearly recovered.—Raleigh Post.

Seven Springs Company.

G. F. Smith, D. B. Shaw, Theodore Box and others yesterday filed incorporation papers with the Secretary of State for the Seven Springs Company.

The main place of business will be LaGrange, with such distributing throughout the State as the company may hereafter select.

The company is capitalized at $3,000 and is empowered to conduct a hotel and recreation grounds, maintain hunting and fishing preserves, buy and sell real estate, mineral water and grain and other commodities.—Raleigh Post.

ARE YOU READY TO HELP?

Recently we have been spoken to several times about taking the afternoon press dispatches for THE REFLECTOR. There is nothing that would please us better than to be able to do this, and if the people will do their part we are ready to do ours. Two years ago when the war with Spain commenced we took the dispatches for three months and lost money by so doing. True the patronage of the paper has grown some since then, but it is not yet large enough to justify taking the dispatches regularly.

We will say this, however. There are enough people right here in Greenville who read THE REFLECTOR every day without paying for it to enable us to take the dispatches if they would become paying subscribers. Let these become patrons of the paper, give us even one hundred more subscribers than we now have, and we will give you the press dispatches. Anyone wanting to become a subscriber on this condition can give his name either to the editor or local editor, or send it to the office.

Those who are already subscribers of the paper can help along in this by persuading those who borrow of them to become subscribers. Do a little talking in this respect and you will soon be reading the dispatches every afternoon.

We are not contented with THE REFLECTOR as it is, but at the same time it is doing all the patronage will justify. Give us your support—in subscriptions, advertising and job printing—and we can give you a better paper. Let every one who is ready to help get the press dispatches indicate it. Are you ready to help?

Raced 3000 Miles to Wed.

Chicago, Ill., April 13.—Seraphy Stefanowicz and Annie Prulgonski raced over three thousand miles from Telchus, Austria, to Chicago, for the double purpose of avoiding Michael Salenski, a Justice of the Peace in the town of Telchus, and to be married.

The Justice was also in love with the young lady and had sworn to make her his bride. He followed them to America and is now said to be in Chicago, searching for the couple and ignorant of their wedding to-day before Justice Dooley. After Lent another ceremony will be performed.

The Press Ignored

The convention, like all similar bodies, did not show appreciation of the editors and owners of newspapers. Two worthy members of the State Press Association, Messrs. London and Britt, were candidates for offices they were well equipped for, but they failed of election. This shows a conspicuous indifference to the voice of the Press. When editors learn to be more independent of party aspirants and self-appointed leaders they will be more highly regarded and will not be so often ignored. As this is written by one who never wanted anything in his life from a party or a politician, and who never wore any man's collar, he cannot be suspected of being gangrened by disappointment or indulging in a repast of "sour grapes." The Press is potential everywhere outside of North Carolina.—Wilmington Messenger.

Another newspaper man, Mr. Varner, was given the nomination for the office to which Mr. Britt aspired, but all the same the words of the Messenger are very applicable. The Press is much in demand when any work is wanted, but when position is asked for one of its most prominent representatives it is ignored. Like the Messenger, this writer, having never been a seeker of political favors, can express himself as he pleases. Some day the politicians may have the fun of seeing if they can run a campaign without the aid of the Press.

Since writing the above we find the following on the same subject in the Statesville Landmark:

The Democratic State convention wasn't very partial to editor-candidates. Col. Person, of Burke, and Mr. London, of Chatham, who are able and honorable members of the profession, wanted to be Auditor and Treasurer, respectfully, but they were set aside. Maybe the politicians could run a campaign all right without the aid of newspapers, but it would be mighty interesting to see them try it. The convention at the end threw a crumb to the newspaper folks in the nomination of Mr. Varner, of Lexington, for Commissioner of Labor and Printing. Maybe, after the amendment is adopted, editors and other folks, too, can afford to be more independent without endangering the State's welfare. Should that happy time come some of them will have a few scores to settle and some of the politicians that these same newspapers have made will be known no more forever. This is not written in any spirit of ill feeling but as a simple statement of facts and as a prediction. This explanation is thrown in for the benefit of intelligent people and not for fools.

Big Price Paid for a Vase.

New York, April 13.—At the sale today of the "Oriental objects" belonging to William Churchill Oastler $3250 was paid for a medium-sized blue and white vase of the K'Ang-Hsi period. The price is a record one for a specimen of Chinese blue and white porcelain other than of the Hawthorn pattern.

Still another Commission! The latest is a Commission (to consist of three members) to revise and codify the laws of Puerto Rico. But what does Puerto Rico need of a code of laws when she has been so graciously endowed with the Foraker bill and a splendid carpetbag government?—Philadelphia Record.

North Carolina Agriculture Products.

The Secretary of Agriculture has submitted to Congress a statement of the production, consumption and exportation of raw cotton, etc., for a series of years. For North Carolina it shows:

Tables are also given for ten years of the number of horses, mules, milch cows, oxen and other cattle, sheep and hogs on hand.

For the year 1899 the number of horses on hand in North Carolina is stated at 148,164; mules, 112,512; milch cows, 243,298; oxen and other cattle 274,843; sheep, 235,260; and hogs number not given.

The Agricultural Department gives the condition of winter wheat in North Carolina at 91 per cent. and of rye at 84 per cent.

Hundred Thousand Dollars in Fowls.

It may prove a matter of surprise to know that Mississippi has a one-hundred-thousand-dollar poultry farm. Here is the proof:

"The second largest poultry farm in the United States," says The Bay Waveland Commercial Pamphlet, "is located fifteen miles from Bay St. Louis; 5,000 laying hens ply their avocation, 1,500 ducks and as many turkeys are a portion of the enterprise. Twenty to thirty 600 and 800 incubators are in constant use. This alone demonstrates the success of the poultry enterprise."

Commenting, The Sea Coast Echo says: "When the pamphlet in question was being prepared it was a rule to make no exaggerations, and no statement that could not be fully substantiated upon investigation. The poultry farm located at Bryant's on the Louisville & Nashville line was established some few years ago at a cost of $100,000. It is one of the greatest and most interesting poultry farms found anywhere. Imagine a place where eggs are gathered daily by whellbarrows full!"—New Orleans Picayune.

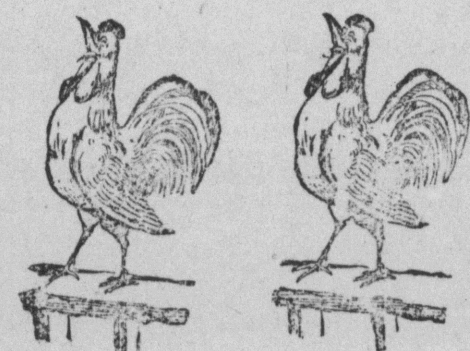

The nomination of Mr. Bryan Grimes, of Pitt, for Secretary of State, will delight every old soldier in this section who knew the young man's gallant father, Col. Bryan Grimes. They were for the son because they knew the father was tried and true and we believe that the son is in every way worthy of the sire.—Statesville Landmark.

There's a flower for every frown, a smile for every sorrow; dark may be the present day, but magnificent will be the morrow.

Senator-elect Blackburn sized up the political outlook thusly: "In my Congressional experience of 25 years I have never known a Congress in the control of either party that made as many political blunders. If we can't wipe out the republicans in November on the blunders made thus far by the Fifty sixth Congress we ought to go out of business. They have made up the issues of imperialism, militarism and trusts exactly to our liking. Indeed, if they had deliberately started in to make a good job of it for us they could not have done better. Having these facts in mind I feel certain that the republican managers will hasten the close of the session, and welcome the day when they can breath easy again so far as Congress is concerned. For this reason I do not believe any effort will be made to force the ship subsidy bill through. The republicans are not locking for more trouble unless they have gone crazy; and I don't believe they have."

There was a time when a man who was hard up tried to hide it, but so many are in that condition now that it is impossible to hide it; and yet these be the days of prosperity—bearing McKinley's Mark

BEAVER DAM TOWNSHIP.
 April 14, 1900.

War Scenes.

An entertainment will be given tonight at the opera house, by the Edison Motion Picture Co, giving Admiral Dewey's reception at New York City, the land and naval parades in detail and war and comic pictures.

This promises to give the people an evening of rare entertainment. Mr. C. E. Lyndall, formerly a member of Gilmore's Famous Band will also entertain the audience with a selection of cornet solos. This entertainment is given under the auspices of the King's Daughters. Admission 10, 20 and 30 cents.

This is Easter Monday. In many places it is regarded as a holiday.

Our prediction that Easter Sunday would have bad weather did not come true. The weather was fine and the new hats had a good chance to show themselves. They were things of beauty, too.

A SPRING GREETING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called, "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as they are in price, and we perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy, but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most-cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
