Protracted Meeting.

Services will be held in the Methodist church Friday night preparatory to the protracted meeting to begin in that church Sunday. Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Weldon, will be here to conduct the meeting.

Merit and Publicity.

Merit alone cannot insure the sale of commodities. Their good qualities must be made public, and their owner must make himself known in order that he may be able to transact a desired volume of business. Advertising will do all this; for it is the function of an advertisement to proclaim merit and to command publicity.—Philadelphia Record.

Go Early.

A member of the Board of Aldermen has requested The Reflector to call particular attention to the meeting of the Board tonight, and to ask every member to be on hand early. There will be a great deal of business to transact at this meeting, and work should begin as early as possible.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Ticket Nominated—Pritchard Boomed for Vice-President—Russell Not Once Mentioned—The Negro Ignored

Raleigh, N. C., May 3rd.—The Republican State convention here yesterday was a "lily white" affair. Very few negroes occupied seats as delegates. The "brother in black" was pretty generally ignored and was set down on when he demanded recognition. Federal office holders composed and controlled the convention. Everything was done by acclamation with few exceptions.

The ticket named is as follows: Governor, ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, of Guilford; Lieutenant Governor, Claudius Dockery, of Rockingham; Auditor, Thomas S. Rollins, of Buncombe; Treasurer, L. L. Jenkins, of Gaston; Secretary of State, J. F. Parrott, of Lenoir; Superintendent of Public Instruction, N. C. English, of Randolph, (the Populist nominee for that office); Attorney General, Zeb Vance Walsler, of Davidson; Commissioner Labor and Printing, Thomas Malloy, of Randolph; Commissioner Agriculture, Abner Alexander, of Tyrrell; Corporation Commissioner, C. A. Reynolds, of Forsyth, chairman, and J. A. Franks of Swain; Electors at Large, A. H. Price, of Rowan and J. R. McReary, of Davidson; Delegates to National convention, Senator J. C. Pritchard, Col. Jas. E. Boyd, Col. Charles McNamee and Collector E. C. Duncan.

Attorney General Zeb Vance Walsler presided over the convention. Governor Russell did not attend and his name was not so much as mentioned in the proceedings.

The Vice-President boom of Senator Pritchard was launched during the day. The convention instructed the delegates to the National convention to vote for William McKinley for President and for J. C. Pritchard for Vice-President.

IS IT WISE TO CHANGE?

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Is it well to make a change in the Legislative ticket as now constituted? If the gentlemen who now are the Representatives of Pitt county are willing and desirous to accept the renomination why should there be a change? Of course no man has a title to office for but one term. The Legislature of 1901 will be the most important in a quarter of a century; requiring wisdom and patriotism. Experience is necessary also, therefore is it wise to make a change? This is the people's business and they should thoroughly consider the great interest that devolves upon the next Legislature and the results that are expected and will follow. There is no doubt of the Amendment being carried and much legislation will be done of a new character, and every county in the State should do its very best to send its best representative men to make the changes in the laws that are to be for the government of the two great white parties that will then exist. Let the people settle it wisely. "SENEX."

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1900.

The Democratic nominees are in the Eastern portion of the State this week. Monday they had a great gathering at Fayetteville, and from the Observer we get the two following items that will be interesting to the folks here at home:

Among the conspicuous figures in yesterday's demonstration was Hon. Dan Hugh McLean, standing in the centre of the grand stand leading the cheering on the appearance of his successful opponent before the State Convention, J. Bryan Grimes.

That splendid young man, J. Bryan Grimes, tells an amusing incident that happened during his speech yesterday and which, he says, came near disconcerting him. He had just well started, he says, doing very well he thought, when some old veteran at the foot of the stand said quite audibly, "Young man, you will have to get a move on you to beat Dan Hugh."

The man who asserts that there is no danger of negro domination with the record of the past ten years before his eyes, is either blind or a knave. It is written in the laws of the state that the negro needs to be restrained. No other interpretation can be given to the legislation of the two republican legislatures giving property-holders the privilege of having additional county commissioners appointed. Such a thing was never heard of under a democratic administration. The populists in their state platform acknowledge that there is danger of negro rule and offer two remedies, to-wit, to make the negro's color a disqualification for office and (2) to provide a different system of county government for the east.—Webster's Weekly.

German Cable Being Laid.

Berlin, May 1.—The work on the cable between Emdea, Germany, and New York began today. The German government has given the company a sufficient guarantee to warrant the work and the contract has been let to a London company. The cable will reach New York by August 1.

Cream of the Press.

In the event the amendment is adopted no white man who can now vote will be disfranchised, it makes no difference whether he can ever read or write. Now white men, dont listen to the lies of those who are trying to fool you along this line.—Louisburg Times.

Lumber Mill to be Shut Down.

A telegram from Norfolk says that the North Carolina Yellow Pine Lumber Association will meet there on May 3rd and is expected by the trade that a shutdown of twenty mills may be ordered. It is stated that the cut of the mills in the association, which aggregates one half million feet daily, has been piled up in the yards for several months, and that to relieve the overproduction a curtailment of production will probably be resorted to. The industry for a year has been very profitable and much money has been made. The decreased demand is attributed to strikes in the building trade East and West, the advance in the price of builders' hardware and other materials used in house construction. The marking up of these materials, the scarcity of labor and the increased cost of labor, has deterred many from building who meant to do so. The fact that the combination has repeatedly advanced the price of yellow pine, it is believed, has also been a factor in retarding the sale of the product. Whether there will be a general shut-down or some other measure taken to cut down production will not be definitely known until the meeting occurs, but a shut-down is now contemplated.

The Populist platform declares that the negro should not be allowed to hold office, but if this had been a law five years ago Butler and the others would never have been heard of.—Durham Herald.

This is true and the more shame to Marion Butler and the Pop. office-holders for kicking the stone by which they climbed into place and power; and the outrageous part of it is that they impudently propose to allow these negroes to keep on voting so that they can reap the benefit, but want them disfranchised so far as holding office is concerned. In other words, these Pops. want the negro to work for them but they want him forever debarred from getting any pie. We could have some respect for the Republicans if they opposed the disfranchisement of the negro out of gratitude to him for his vote ever since the civil war, but they do not. All they want is the negro's vote and then they are done with him. They do not oppose the amendment because it disfranchises the negro. Not one of their speakers, so far as we have heard or read has had the nerve to do this, but they make the false plea that white men will be disfranchised. Not one of them has had the nerve to say that the negro is as good as a white man and should be allowed to vote. They dare not do it.—Statesville Landmark.

The Abuse of Injunctions.

People are becoming to believe there is no limit to this injunction business when a United States circuit court judge issues an order, upon application of a tobacco manufacturer, restraining the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and his collectors from carrying out the order for the seizure of all packages of smoking tobacco, fine-cut chewing tobacco and cigarets containing premium coupons. They want to know where the injunction lightning will hit next? They are wondering if the circuit courts will not undertake to restrain Congress from enacting a measure hurtful to some business interests and stay the President from executing the law? "The injunction is the thing!"—Southern Tobacco Journal.

Condemns Education.

The Populist platform condemns the last legislature for its "extravagant appropriations." As every other expense of the legislature was less than that of the fusion legislature, the "extravagant appropriation" must necessarily refer to the $100,000 extra appropriation for the public schools made by the last legislature. It is to be regretted that any party would condemn such commendable efforts to educate our poor children. Everybody should encourage rather than condemn all such efforts to educate our people.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

As an evidence of what North Carolina has done and is doing in the way of developing its cotton manufacturing industry, Mr. J. H. McAden, of Charlotte is quoted as saying that he can stand in his office in that city and "telephone seventy-five cotton mills within a radius of fifty miles." There are, it is added, "probably one hundred and twenty mills, representing a capital of more than $100,000,000 within a radius of one hundred miles of the city." Some of them, of course are in South Carolina, but the fact does not change the proposition.—Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

If that Philadelphia woman who attempted suicide because she was growing bald had read the papers she would not have tried to get away with herself for such an insufficient reason as that. She would have bought some of that never-failing hair-propelling stuff and revelled in a luxuriant top growth that would have made the circus Caucasian girl green with envy. Some Philadelphia woman are so behind the times.—Wilmington Star.

An Unknown Steamship Run Ashore off Hatteras.

Norfolk, Va., May 1st.—An unknown steamship is in peril off the North Carolina coast some miles north of Cape Hatteras. Information received over the government wire states the vessel struck the bench this morning. The life saving crew from Gull Shoals station hastened to her assistance. At 12:40 o'clock they were preparing to go to her through the surf. The weather is good and unless a storm intervenes the stranded vessel can be floated. Just how she came to strike is a mystery, unless her steering gear became deranged.

Sellers Rendered Harmless.

Burlington, N. C., May 1.—This morning at 2 o'clock a crowd of our citizens, numbering about 150, visited the jail at Graham, and shoving pistols in the face of the jailer, demanded the keys of the jail. Leaving the majority of the crowd on the outside, four or five of the leaders went quietly up to the cell of the negro, Sellers, and performed a surgical operation on him, which ought to have been done when Judge Robinson turned him loose at the last term of court and which will prevent a repetition of his hellish assaults. There was no excitement, and unusual satisfaction is expressed this morning.

A Jury With an Appetite.

A Billville citizen who happened to get on a lock-up-jury, addressed the following note to the Judge:

"We the the jury, bein' hongry an' locked up eight hours without eatin', which has been our regular habit sence we knowed ourselves, respectively find ourselves guilty of wantin' to eat, an' recommend that our sentence of imprisonment be commuted to the liberty of twelve square meals, a-throwin of ourselves on the mercy o' the court for the same, after which we hope to find the defendant guilty."—Atlanta Constitution.

The Baltimore News is taking a lively interest in Southern affairs and now has a staff correspondent on a tour of the South, taking a calm survey of the conditions existing in its principal centers. The letters are meant to give the actual facts about the South. Already some nine letters have been written from various places, filled with interesting facts and attractive matter. In this the News is doing a good work, which should be highly appreciated and bring it in high favor with Southerners.

Some people insist upon hiding their light under a bushel when a thimble would be quite large enough for the purpose.

Special Services.

On next Sunday a series of services will begin at the Methodist church to continue for ten days or two weeks. Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Weldon, will arrive on Monday and do most of the preaching.

At the close of this meeting the pastor of the Baptist church will begin a series of services assisted by Rev. J. E. Hudson, of Richmond.

All are invited to co operate and make these services profitable to the Christian life of our town. Surely the need is great. Let Christian people put the same energy, eagerness and determination into this work that they put into material prosperity, for in the spiritual realm as well as in the secular, we shall reap as we sow.

A preparatory service will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, conducted by brothers Booth and Watson, and all Christian people interested in the spiritual welfare of the community are invited and earnestly requested to attend this first service.

Congressman Levy, of New York, doesn't think it fair to make such discrimination between Presidents and Vice Presidents by paying one $50,000 a year and the other only $8,000. He proposes to even up more by having the Vice President's salary raised to $25,000. Better reduce the other to that and let the V. P.'s remain as it is.—Wilmington Star.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?
Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?
Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

Candidates in Wilmington

Wilmington, N. C., May 3—The entire population was at high pitch of enthusiasm yesterday and last night upon the presence in Wilmington of the Democratic nominees for the State offices. Salutes were fired for the candidates and there was a big torch light procession in their honor. It was the greatest demonstration of the campaign. Aycock almost eclipsed all former records in his magnificent speech.

Greenville on the Move.

Our good neighbor, Greenville, is moving out on new industrial lines. Money has been subscribed for a cotton mill, and the business will be pushed along. Also the news comes that the town is to have a first-class, up-to-date hotel. The Commonwealth congratulates THE REFLECTOR on the satisfaction it must feel at the prospect of these improvements after the earnest efforts it has put forth for them.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A Tribute.

Thomas J. Sheppard died at his home in Carolina township, Pitt county, on the morning of May 2nd, 1900, at the advanced age of 90 years lacking fourteen days. He was born and grew to manhood in Martin county, where he owned property at the time of his death. In early manhood he was married to Miss Clementina Congleton, of Pitt county. They both lived to a respectable old age and both died at the height of their childhood. Mr. Sheppard never had any children. He was a man of great energy, leaves a handsome estate. He was for many years a member of the Methodist church. Peace to his ashes and rest to his soul is the sincere wish of a long friend.

A SPRING GREETING IN A MERRY MOOD.

Good Fortune Smiles

and you ignore rightful advantages if you do not claim the benefits offered in this Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called, "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as you are in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
