The interest in the meeting at the Methodist church continues to grow each service. Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Weldon, arrived Monday evening and preached a strong sermon Monday night and made an excellent talk at the service this morning.

There will be services each morning at 9 o'clock and each evening at 8. All Christians should pray and work earnestly for the meeting.

Election at Ayden.

Ayden, N. C. May 8th—The election here yesterday passed off very quietly until about 4 o'clock when it was found that another ticket was being made up by the Fusionists. But the result proved of no good to them. The Democratic ticket was elected by a good majority, with J. A. Harington for Mayor. Harington's majority was 19 over O. C. Nobles, who who was run and endorsed by the Fusionist. C. L. Patrick and A. C. Nobles were also defeated by a good majority. Ayden is again all right.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Ayden, N. C., May 8th—Yesterday was one of the quietest election days Ayden has ever had. The regular Democratic ticket was elected by a majority of nineteen over the black and tan and general mixture ticket. We have some awful smart Alecks in this town who think they ought to run it, but their plan to rush their ticket just at the close of day sloped over and left them out in the cold. Sad to think of.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Political and General News and Gossip From the State Capital.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 7, 1900.

While the Republican State Convention was in session here last Wednesday, Senator Pritchard sat beside the writer, near the newspaper reporters' table, and I had opportunity to talk with him at all stages of the game. Some newspaper correspondent had started a rumor that the Senator was to be "prevailed on" to accept the gubernatorial nomination of his party, "in order to defeat the amendment."

There was at no time any basis for the rumor, but I mentioned the subject to see what the Senator would say. "Oh, I couldn't afford to accept either the nomination or the office," said he. "Were I the Governor, I would be required to remain in Raleigh all the time; my law practice (from which I was just beginning to realize a nice income when elected to the Senate) would go to wreck, and at the end of the four years' term I would be left high and dry on the shoals of poverty—for the salary of the Governor of North Carolina is not sufficient to admit of saving any of it. But for that matter," he added, "a Senator can save nothing from his salary, either; but I manage to do considerable law practice while Senator, and am not confined to the halls of legislation every day in the year. When I accept a public office it must have a salary attached sufficient to justify me in doing so, pecuniarily."

"You would be surprised," continued the Senator, without any prompting, "to know of the large number of lawyers, both Republican and Democratic, who have insisted that I should take the U. S. Judgeship for the western district. But I shall not do so."

Are you not of the judicial temperament, Senator?

"No, sir; the position wouldn't suit me at all. I wouldn't like it. Besides, I shouldn't care to relinquish three years in the U. S. Senate for the judicial ermine."

WHITEST STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION EVER HELD.

It was a "lily-white" affair, as nearly as it could be made—only about 20 of the 240 delegates being negroes, or "colored." All the balance were "plain" as to complexion, and the great majority were office holders. Had Senator

Pritchard fully succeeded in his plans, there would not have been a negro delegate in the convention. As it was, his orders in this respect were pretty faithfully carried out. Of course this was only a temporary ruse, chiefly for the benefit of the western voters, and the next convention will again be as black-and-tan affair (with a majority of negro delegates) as any of the predecessors of this one. The negroes are "keeping out of sight" during this campaign (only till election day, however, when they will all show up) in order to carry out the game of false pretences introduced by the Republican managers. It will not work, as the ruse is so plain an idiot can see through its purposes. All the nominations were made by "acclamation," and there is not a candidate on the ticket who at heart entertains the slightest hope of election.

WHY NO STATE "FUSION" SO FAR.

The one and only reason there has been no "fusion" between the Pops. and Reps. on the State ticket to date, is because both parties recognize that it would be hopeless to attempt to defeat the Democrats this year. Knowing defeat is certain, they adopt such plans as they think will most contribute to mislead the "common people," and enable them to more successfully misrepresent the amendment, the attempt to defeat which is the chief end and aim of both of the opposition parties this year. When it comes to legislative and county and congressional candidates, there will be "fusion" in many counties and several districts.

THE VANCE STATUE.

The granite-and-cement base and pedestal upon which the bronze statue of Zebulon Baird Vance is to be placed this summer in Capitol Park here, have been completed and are now ready to receive the splendid counterfeit of that best beloved of North Carolinians. The statute, it is now known definitely, will be delivered here in ample time for the unveiling ceremonies to be observed on July 4th as contemplated. It is believed that one of the greatest crowds ever gathered in North Carolina on such an occasion will assemble here that date.

NUMEROUS NEWS NOTES.

J. D. Murphy, of Buncombe, has been made a member of the State election board, to succeed Attorney General Gilmer, resigned.

The Federal "patronage" office holding in North Carolina, all of which is controlled by Senator Pritchard, is said to amount to a million or more dollars in salaries.

It is reported to me on good authority that Rev. J. E. White, of Raleigh, at present Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Missions of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, and a particularly able, affable and handsome gentleman, has virtually been decided upon as president of the Baptist Female University here, to succeed Prof. Blasingame, resigned. Mr. White is a native North Carolinian and a capitol man for the place.

The Republicans will probably nominate J. R. Joyce of Reidsville, as their candidate for Congress in the Fifth District.

The U. S. Senate has passed the bill appropriating $80,000 for a public building at Durham.

The Chinese minister to the United States has been invited to attend the meeting of the Southern Cotton Spinners' Association at Charlotte this week (May 10 and 11), to whose people our mill men now sell and desire to sell more of their products, in the orient.

The Republicans formally open their campaign at Winston, May 15, when Senator Pritchard, gubernatorial nominee Spencer B. Adams and other State candidates will speak.

Carolina cotton-seed oil men are concerned over the threatened passage of a measure by Congress known as the "Grout bill," and delegations are going to Washington to protest against its passage.

The new board of public school directors in the various counties, appointed under the act of the last Legislature, will go into office on the first Monday in July, according to an opinion just given by Attorney-General Walsler to Superintendent of Instruction Mebane.

Congress appropriates $15,000 for the completion of the U. S. building at Winston, for post official and other government purposes.

One more State convention is yet to be "pulled off,"—that of the Prohibitionists, who meet at Salisbury May 22.

The May crop report of the State Department of Agriculture will state that there is an increase of twenty per cent. in cotton acreage in North Carolina this year.

The summer session of the Tennessee Peabody Normal Institute will be held at Asheville this year.

LLEWELYN.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7, 1900.

The Porto Rican law has already had to be remedied by additional Congressional legislation, and the Hawaiian law will have to be. The latter failed to provide for a collector of Internal revenue, or for an extension of the U. S. Postal laws, and Secretary Gage has informed the Cabinet that he does not consider the authority given him by the law sufficient to justify the payment of the Hawaiian public debt. The country will not forget that the Republicans are responsible for this and other slipshod legislation, forced through Congress under the party whip and spur.

Senator Butler of North Carolina, Chairman of the populist National Committee, before leaving Washington to attend the Sioux Falls Convention, declared that the Convention would nominate Col. Bryan for President by acclamation, and would adopt the platform of '96, with the new declarations to meet our foreign problems and the trust question. Of trusts, Senator Butler said: "The people's party has always been against trusts, and we believe the three greatest trusts relate to money, transportation and the transmission of intelligence. People who control these trusts can control the government, and we will, therefore suggest that these three great factors in the nation's development should be under governmental control."

Democrats would ask nothing better than that Secretary Long, who seems just now to be the favorite candidate, should be nominated on the McKinley ticket for Vice President. Mr. Long's attitude in the Schley-Sampson controversy has been such that he would materially weaken the ticket.

The decision of U. S. Judge Lochren, at St. Paul, Minn., that the U. S. Constitution was extended to Porto Rico on the day that the terms of the treaty of peace with Spain went into effect, has greatly disturbed administration circles, for shadowing, as it does, a similar decision on the part of the U. S. Supreme court when an opportunity is offered. If the power and influence of the administration can prevent it, no opportunity will be given the Supreme court to pass on the question until after the Presidential election.

Representative Dick, of Ohio, otherwise known as Boss Hanna's man Friday, has gone to Cincinnati, where the middle-of-the-road populists will hold their national convention this week, and there are good reasons for the belief that he expects to play a leading part in controlling the action of the convention. Senators have been publicly saying for some time that Hanna's agents were offering free transportation and hotel expenses to delegates to that convention from various sections of the country. It is Hanna's intention that this convention shall nominate a ticket of its own in opposition to that nominated at Sioux Falls, which he relies upon to help the republicans carry several states by splitting the populist vote, and Dick has been sent to see that the intention is carried out.

"An idle is the devil's worship." It is undoubtedly a truism that is applicable to many places. Get into a crowd of loafers of the professional kind, and all manner of good is condemned and the names of good men and women handled in such a reckless and scurrilous way that slanders are created and allowed to go uncorrected, regarded perhaps as the truth by some one who has heard but was not familiar with the object under conversation. These loafers' "joints" neither spare ministers of the Gospel, Christian ladies nor anyone else. No name is too good, no yarn too bad. Indifferent as to their own morals, they try to tear down those of others who endeavor to live aright and they gain disciples for their own ranks by poisoning the minds of those who would and should yield to a better influence. The young man is made to feel that he is doing the right thing by lounging around some of the "down-town hang-outs" instead of filling a pew at the church or Sunday-school. There is but one result; it is too easily seen.—Stanly Enterprise.

Any one who will read a certified copy of the proposed amendment and then say it will disfranchise the poor white men prefers to lie rather than tell the truth. That's all there is in it.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?

Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?

Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

A Mad Dog's Rampage.

Mr. J. W. Smith, Superintendent of the County Home, tells us that a mad dog went through that section Saturday. The rabid animal bit about half dozen other dogs and a number of hogs and geese. He also made an attack on Mrs. Meekin Weathington and tore her dress, but fortunately did not bite her. Mr. Weathington shot and killed the dog. Several of the bitten animals and geese have since been killed.

Mr. Jacob Joyner Dead.

At three o'clock this morning at the home of his son, Mr. O. L. Joyner, Mr. Jacob Joyner died of apoplexy. Mr. Joyner had been in poor health for several months, and was a great sufferer from rheumatism. Some time in January while hunting in the low grounds of Tar river, he accidentally slipped from a log into a slough, and in the fall broke his leg. Since then he has been unable to walk without his crutches and most of the time he has been confined to his room.

Mr. Joyner was seventy four years old and was a native of Pitt county. He was kind and indulgent, yet correct and just in all his dealings. He lived life well and full and that strength of character which marks an honest man, was in him a principal virtue. He leaves three sons, O. L. Joyner, Benj. Joyner, Dr. C. C. Joyner and two daughters Mrs. W. J. Thigpen and Miss Sudie Joyner.

His remains will be interred in the family burying ground near Farmville, Wednesday afternoon, with Masonic honors.

Advertisements Which Advise.

The adage that "nothing succeeds like success" can be well matched by a new apothegm to the effect that "nothing advertises like advertising." The business man who advertises persistently and with sufficient originality to make his announcements interesting to the public eventually becomes so well known that the mere mention of his name will recall to the minds of hearers the kind of business in which he is engaged and the location of his establishment.—Philadelphia Record.

Announcement.

Many are the needs that confront you with the advent of Spring. It is concerning these requirements and how they may be secured with satisfaction and economy that we wish to speak. Our new line is now ready. We present the latest and best Spring goods at a scale of uniformly low figures—so low, in fact, that they may be truthfully called "price concessions." These goods are fully as attractive in style and quality as they are in price, and we are perfectly confident that they will appeal to your best judgment as a careful buyer in every way. This is a conservative statement regarding facts which can be easily substantiated any time you visit our store. Our great desire is to have you call and see our new Spring line. It will speak for itself—the quality and style will be apparent and the price will present its own argument. In extending this invitation we are not urging you to become a buyer on the strength of our statements but to become a visitor. We do not ask you to buy; but bring your experience and best judgment with you and compare our reasonable attractions with your most cherished memories of cheap buying—we'll leave the rest to your own inclination. Our stock is of the practical, popular kind, that shows in a marked degree the evidences of a careful and judicious selection from the best markets. Variety, new novelties, and a thorough up-to-date quality in all things is everywhere apparent. Our Spring goods are marked for quick selling. It is a time for you to decide quickly as to whether you shall select from our full assortment of fresh, desirable styles, or take chances on perfect satisfaction a little later on, when stocks of necessity, must be more or less broken. We should prefer to see you today or tomorrow; later in the season we should be very likely to please you but now we are certain to do so. Remember, such opportunities do not have to wait long for new comers. A look will convince you these are no idle words—will you call and give it? Yours respectfully,
