Not Believed Will Accept.

Washington, D. C., May 11—Mr. Towne, who was nominated by the Populist National convention for Vice President, is well known here. His devotion to silver and the cause of the people against monopolies and imperialism is so great that he will not allow himself to be used as a cat's paw in Buttler's hand for his own selfish purpose. It is not believed that Mr. Towne will accept the nomination. He certainly will not do so if it is embarrassing to Mr. Bryan to whose success he is committed.

Dr. James Again Honored.

The State Dental Association at Greensboro, which has been in session this week, adjourned Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. D. L. James of Greenville, was re-elected Treasurer. The association will meet at Morehead City next year.

POLICE DISMISSED.

Board of Aldermen Remove Two.

Thursday night the Aldermen held an informal caucus to plan some action relative to the police force, numerous complaints of violation of police regulations and failures in performance of duties having been brought to the attention of the members of the Board.

It was decided to hold a special meeting of the Board Friday afternoon to take action. The full Board was present at this meeting.

A motion was made that the Chief of Police, W. B. James, and Assistant Police, W. H. Smith, be both dismissed from further service. After considerable discussion, in which both the policemen took part in their own defense, the motion was adopted by a vote of 4 to 3, one member not voting.

A motion was then made to proceed to the election of other policemen, but after consideration another motion was adopted giving the Mayor authority to appoint temporary officers and the Board adjourned to Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock when another special meeting will be held to elect policemen.

Mayor Moye appointed J. T. Smith and Seba King to serve temporarily.

Attacked by a Cow

Mrs. Adelaide Johnston, who lives across the river, happened to an accident Friday. She had been out to the barn to feed some cattle when one of the cows jumped at her and tried to hook her. Mrs. Johnston was thrown to the ground and bruised some, but not seriously.

The Man Who Shot.

Frankfort, Ky., May 11—Should Jim Howard ask an examining trial on motion for bail, as his friends say he will do on May 23rd, it is expected proof will be brought out to show that Howard fired the shot that killed Goebel. The prosecution is prepared to prove that he is the man.

Jimmie Got Licked.

New York, May 12—The big fight was pulled off at Coney Island last night, beginning at 10:39 o'clock. An immense crowd was present, Jim Corbett stood up before Jeffries for twenty-three rounds, but went down defeated in the twenty-fourth. All the way through to the twenty-third round the fight was rather in Corbett's favor, but at this point fortune favored Jeffries and he came out champion.

The Meeting

Rev. N. M. Watson announced at the Methodist church Friday night that there would be no services there either today or tonight.

Rev. J. D. Budy left this morning for his home in Weldon, where he will preach Sunday, but will return Monday evening and conduct the services during next week. Rev. N. M. Watson will preach Sunday morning and night.

Rev. J. N. Booth also announced that there would be service in the Baptist church Sunday morning but no service that night. He and his congregation would join in the service at night in the Methodist church.

SATURDAY MAY 12, 1900.

A Missouri Congressman is catching it because he franked his dirty linen home as "public documents." Well, that is better than washing it in public.

It is probable that the transport carrying General Otis home, will try to touch at some point in order to give him a chance to forward another of his justly famous dispatches declaring he has just put an end to the war.

The Populist National convention at Sioux Falls, S. D., nominated Bryan and Towne for President and Vice-President by acclamation. The "middle of the road" convention at Cincinnati nominated Barber, of Pennsylvania and Donnelly, of Michigan.

The evidence against the Republicans in Kentucky for the murder of Goebel is simply startling. As it was not produced for purposes of prosecution, but simply to prevent the admission of one of the accused men to bail, it is not to be supposed that it shows anything like the full force of evidence against them.

Thursday Congress decided the contest of Pearson against Crawford from the Ninth North Carolina district, in favor of Pearson, the contestant, by a bare majority of two votes. Thus Republican frauds are continued to be perpetrated. Crawford is the third Democrat who has been unseated for a Republican at this session of Congress.

Imperialism is having its way in Cuba, where a trusted postal official has been arrested for robbing the mails of something less than $100,000. Perhaps the sort of honesty that cannot stand temptation is not the best kind, but it is certainly better than none at all. The question now is whether the United States will make Cuba and the Philippines honest or whether they will make the United States corrupt—and whether it is worth while to test the question.

Secretary Hay is in despair. He sprung the Turkish demand business just before the Ecumenical council met and reaped his reward. But now he must make good and doesn't now just how to do so. Addul sits and smiles and waits. To close the American embassy would be childish and would have no effect. To send a fleet, would be to go counter to nine-tenths of the country and risk European complications into the bargain. "Splendid diplomacy" is therefore in trouble once more.

The utterly farcical character of Captain Chadwick's reprimand for slandering Schley is found in the orders issued to him the very next day directing him to report at Newport for special duty during the coming summer. This means that he will have a pleasant summer and nothing to do. Like Egan, who received six years vacation on full pay for slandering Miles, Captain Chadwick has learned that it pays to attack those out of favor with the administration.

It is charged against women that they cannot keep a secret, the implication being, of course, that men can. Yet the United States Senate never holds an executive session but that its secret deliberations are published broadcast over the land in the morning papers the next day. The latest instance is the publication of the proceedings of the Senate's executive sessions of Thursday and Wednesday, when the War Department secret regarding a new armor-piercing shell was discussed. The secret was "given away" in the papers the next day. In England this would never happen. In the first place, the English newspaper man is not the persistent hustler the American newspaper man is, and then, perhaps, the English statesman is more secretive than his American brother.—Charlotte Observer.

Dawson City has reached the climax of its career and is now on the decline. Merchants are closing out their stocks preparatory to their return to the States, and "to rent" signs are becoming more frequent. After the homeward rush of the miners in May and June, little will be left of the famous city that sprang up in a day or two and is disappearing about as rapidly.

No, Maude, dear, the old-fashioned girls who used spinning wheels were not all spinsters.

Even the woman who wants to vote is not pleased to discover hair growing on her upper lip.

Ladies' Hats Removed in Church

Women attending services at the First Presbyterian church, Camden, last night, removed their hats in accordance with the expressed desire of the Rev. Dr. Fishburn, their pastor. The effect was pleasing, especially to the men, though it left to the feminine members of the congregation the perplexing problem of how to arrange their hair becomingly and yet wear their hats to the church.

This is believed by the fair sex to be an unsolvable problem, and in consequence many of them were late in arriving in their accustomed places.

There was a question as to whether or not the hats should be taken off in the vestibule before entering the auditorium, but most of the hats were paraded down the aisles before being removed.

Hand mirrors were taken out and furtive glances frequently taken to see how much the hair was disarranged.

On the whole the hats were removed cheerfully. Many of the women expressed their gratitude that Dr. Fishburn did not make the request before Easter.—Philadelphia North American 7th.

Harnett at the Top.

We see from the Raleigh papers that the chairman of the Executive Committee of Harnett county, has funds in hand to pay all the expenses of their representative at the extra term of the Legislature which meets in June. Harnett is the first county in the State to take this step and all other counties should fall in line, for it would not be right to let even one of that noble body pay his own expense. The Democrats of Harnett are always ready to do the square thing by those who are faithful to the cause of good government. No other county in the State has made more rapid progress along the line of education, morals and good government, than Harnett during the past two years. We have led in many instances and now our county proposes to lead with a big majority in August for the amendment against negro office holding and negro suffrage.—Dunn Democratic Banner.

One of the most interesting features of the Confederate reunion at Louisville next month will be a detachment of Cherokee Indians who will serve under Gen. Geo. H. Thomas. The Indians now live in North Carolina, and will attend the reunion as the guests of the delegates from the State.

Unusual Effect of Prayer.

"This Christian Science business is a great thing," remarked the conversational conductor the other day as he helped an elderly female off the car.

"Seein' that woman's false teeth reminded me of it." Do you believe in it?" asked the passenger to whom the observation was addressed. "Do I believe in it? I can't help myself, me friend. I seen a demonstration of it with me own eyes!" "That so?" "Yes sreee. For three nights the woman had a howling toothache, and tried Teeter's Toothache Tablets and Packham's Pain Paralyzer and Grimby's Gum Globules and everything e'se the drug store had, but her teeth were holler and kept achin'. Finally she thought she'd go in for Christian Science, so she got one of them prayin' doctors to come around to the house. They prayed together for two hours and the old woman went to sleep like a baby." "Christian Science treatment was all right, was it?" asked the passenger. "All right? I should say it was!" answered the conversational conductor. "Mebbe you won't believe it, but when she woke up in the mornin' and looked in the glass, every holler tooth in her head—seven of 'em in all—was filled with gold! Move up front, please."—Philadelphia Record.

A Pathetic Reminder

Thirty-eight years ago young Augustus Bliss of Warwick quit cutting brush on his father's farm, hung his scythe on a pine tree and went off to war. The soldier boy never came back, and the scythe has never been taken down from the tree where he hung it, but has become imbedded in the growing pine until it is a fixture. This pathetic reminder of the great civil struggle is a familiar sight to members of the Sheomet Club of this city, as the tree stands near the Club's comfortable quarters in Blissville, a hamlet just across the North Orange line into Warwick. Blissville was a busy centre of small industries, traces of which remain to tell the story of the shifting of the scene of manufacturing from the small county hamlet to large centres. The tree has witnessed all these changes; has seen the mill standing near, slowly falling into decay, the population changing, but still the scythe hangs there, summer and winter, a mute testimonial to the devotion to duty that animated young Bliss.—Springfield Republican.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McREE'S Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

They prescribe a quarter of an hour's vigorous exercise in the morning, skipping ropes. The Rope Skipping Institute may take its place in our cities beside the hot bath establishment and the faith cure hotel.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?

Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?

Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

Bryan and Towne

Sioux Falls, S. D., May 11—It was 2 o'clock, A. M. eastern time when the nomination of Charles A.
 Towne, of Minnesota, was made for Vice-President, against his expressed wish, by the Populist convention. W. J. Bryan had been named as the nominee for President hours before. Towne's nomination was the result of a big political fight between Senator Butler, of North Carolina and Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota on the one side and Senator Allen, of Nebraska and would-be-Senator Simpson, of Kansas on the other. Mr.
 Bryan's wishes in the matter were ignored. By means of proxies Butler was able to force the nomination of a candidate for Vice President.

It is suggested that Butler is paving the way to fusion with Dr.
 Mott and B. F. Keith in order to assure his return to the Senate.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May.. 12th.

Miss Sadie Little is visiting the Misses Wesson.

Moye & Kittrell had a new boiler to come the other day.

Our town election passed off quietly Monday. As we only had one ticket, of course every candidate was elected.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. has a lot of corn and meal on hand for sale, can also furnish fine or coarse hominy.

C. A. Fair goes to Tarboro today.
 He's another witness to the value of our mineral water.

We are glad to note that the issue in so many town elections are between the wet and dry ticket.

 Certainly in getting out our candidates for any office their position on the liquor question should be taken into consideration.

A. G. Cox had a chill Thursday and was quite sick for a while, but is out again now.

If you want 25 cents a hundred for your old iron you had better bring it to Winterville right away, as the price cannot remain the same much longer.

The first shipment of tobacco trucks this season was made yesterday.

If you want the cheapest, latest and best cultivator, see A. G. Cox
 Mfg. Co.

J. E. Green is undoubtedly selling the best truck barrel on the market. It is manufactured at Bethel, is perfectly solid and smooth inside, and the prettiest part about it is that he sells them as cheap as anyone.

The Tar Heel is the wagon for North Carolinians. A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. is laying in material for making a lot of them, for several orders for which are in already.

Four or five more little girls have been added to the roll of hands in the cigar factory. Bud Joe is completely carried away, and says he'll swear there's not a prettier crowd of girls anywhere.

Dan Patrick, of Snow Hill, was in town Wednesday, and proposes to handle Winterville wagons, buggies, &c.

Hunsucker carriage Co. have shipped out several buggies and are receiving orders for more.
 Come around some day and see what they are doing, and give them a little repair job if nothing more.

This is the Presidential bees' busy season.
