The Meeting

The meeting at the Methodist church is still in progress. Services are held every day at 9 a. m. and at 8 p. m. Mr. Bundy will return this afternoon and conduct the services tonight. The services this morning at 9 o'clock were led by Mr. Booth, and were especially interesting, helpful and instructive to christian people. These services are all well attended, and christian people should utilize the opportunity for personal work.

MONDAY, MAY 14, 1900.

A bar keeper came out of his place of business on Sunday afternoon, about two weeks ago, and remarked to a gentleman standing there that he had done a good business that day, better he said than on Saturday. What do the law abiding people of Greenville think of such a condition of things? Who is to blame? Where is the responsibility? And yet there are some good people of this town who throw their influence against any movement that attempts to close up these law defying, Sabbath desecrating dens.

With such enthusiastic primaries as were held at all precincts in the county, Saturday afternoon, it can be truly said that the Democrats of Pitt are awake to the importance of the issues before them, and are determined to do their full duty. The Greenville primary was the largest we ever saw here. The secretary of the Contentnea primary writes that over three hundred were present, and so far as heard from record breaking attendance was noticed at the other precincts. Let this enthusiasm keep up. Turn out a large crowd at the county convention next Saturday.

A Historic Point in Favor of Mr Bryan.

Four times has the occupant of the White House been a candidate for re-election against the man whom he defeated four years before, and never yet has the President been successful in the second contest. In 1800 John Adams defeated Thomas Jefferson, but in 1804 Jefferson defeated Adams. John Quincy Adams defeated Andrew Jackson, but four years later Jackson defeated Adams. Martin Van Buren defeated William Henry Harrison, but four years later Harrison defeated Van Buren. Benjamin Harrison defeated Grover Cleveland in 1888, but in 1892 Cleveland defeated Harrison. In 1896 William McKinley defeated William J. Bryan. Every indication points to the fact that these men will be the opposing candidates in 1900. And the indications are that the history given above will repeat itself in this same year of 1900.—Omaha (Neb.) World Herald.

THE REFLECTOR thanks David C. James and Charlie O. James for an invitation to the commencement exercises of Oak Ridge Institute May 20th to 22nd.

Two Fanatics Still Fasting

Toomer and Shiver, the two negroes who are in jail with Percy, the Creole, are still fasting. They have been in jail fifteen days and not a crumb of food has passed the lips of either of them.

A Messenger reporter was allowed to see them yesterday, and they were found reclining on blankets in their cell, hardly able to sit up. When asked about eating, they replied that they were not hungry and would continue to fast until their appetites came to them.

Percy, the religious fanatic, is allowed to walk around in jail. He fasted only six days and is now eating three hearty meals a day and would take a lunch between each if it were offered to him.

He said that he had received a message from the High Spirit telling him that he would die on the 26th instant. He says he will begin to waste away in flesh on the 26th.

When asked about his belief in heaven, he said he would have to die three times before he could enter the heavenly portals. He says he will come back to this earth after his first two deaths, but purer in body and soul each time, and that the third death would relieve him of these worldly sufferings and he would at last reach heaven.

Percy speaks Spanish and French very fluently for one of his kind and uses very good English.

He and two other negroes who are in jail with him, will be tried at the June term of the criminal court for being accessories to the death of the woman who fasted unto death as a result of their teachings.—Wilmington Messenger.

Education of the Negro

Much attention has been attracted by an address on "The Education of the Negro" by Charles Dudley Warner, before the American Social Science Association in Washington City last Monday evening. He took position against the higher education of the negro, saying that this had but spoiled him where it had been undertaken, but that what is needed by the race in the line of education is manual training—training in the arts, and mechanics, in handiwork. The Washington Post observes that "considering the fact that Mr. Warner has spent his life in the North and chiefly in pursuits that involved little or no contact with the negro, the conclusions he has reached are truly wonderful in their intelligence and accuracy."

But while it is true that Mr. Warner's life has been spent in the North he has been a frequent visitor to the South and when here has been a careful student of social and race conditions. From these observations and his study he has reached exactly the Southern conclusion regarding the education of the negro. Whether it is agreeable or not, we may all, North and South, just as well see, as it is, the fact that there is scant room anywhere in the country for the negro with the university education. Here and there is one who is filling the place—it may be well—as a preacher, doctor or lawyer, but such instances are few and far between. The duty of the South towards the black is to provide him with the facilities for the acquisition of a rudimentary education, and after that the opportunity to make a good agriculturist, mechanic or artisan of himself. That is all that is due him—that is all that is really good for him.—Charlotte Observer.

"Mendsall" mends everything and will stand hot water. 10 cents a bottle at Reflector Book Store.

Why not Unseat Them All.

Mr. Richmond Pearson, of North Carolina, is now a member of the House of Representatives, having been graciously permitted yesterday to take the seat to which the Hon. William T. Crawford was elected in 1898. Mr. Pearson, we find on reference to the Congressional Directory, was in both the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congress, but he seems to have lain fallow until his nephew, Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, distinguished himself at Santiago, and by a sort of reverse English made the Pearson name illustrious also. In such circumstances Mr. Pearson concluded to run for Congress again and being defeated, to contest the seat of his successful opponent. The latter being a Southern Democrat, was, of course, compelled to give way.

What astonishes us in the conduct of the Republican majority in the House in election contests, is its extreme moderation in the presence of a great temptation. It having been demonstrated time and again during the last six years that a Southern Democrat has no right to a seat in Congress to which a Southern Republican lays claim, why not take all the Southern seats? Why leave a single Democrat to boast of a Congressional salary of five thousand dollars when hungry Republicans, black and white, abound in Southern poor houses who would set up a claim for the asking?

It is not necessary to make out a case. The Elections Committee will attend to that, as they did yesterday, and in the Wise contest, which was settled some weeks ago in favor of a man who had been beaten by six thousand votes. The Republican majority always follows the committees. It knows and wants to know no better.—Washington City Times.

Making Opportunity.

No merchant who must be the architect of his own fortune can afford to reject any assistance which would promise success in his business. Furthermore, he must not be content to wait for opportunity but must make it. This he can do by advertising; for advertisements bring opportunity to those who seek it, and success to those who earnestly desire it.—Philadelphia Record.

FOR COMMISSIONER.

EDITOR REFLECTOR: If any of the Board of County Commissioners should decline to be re-nominated I beg to name a man from Pactolus who is a successful farmer, honest and square in all of his dealings, a good Democrat, has the prosperity of his country at heart, is entitled to the esteem and respect of all people, a careful, good business man, and will poll as many votes as any other candidate. His name is J. R. Barnhill.

DEMOCRAT.

There is a large cat "farm"—"ranch" would hardly be the proper term—in Lincoln county, Oregon, and the residents in the vicinity have obtained the consent of the Post Office Department to the christening of their post office by the name of Angora. The first postmaster of Angora, singularly enough, is Thomas Tom.

Congressman DeArmond, of Missouri, will deliver the literary address at the approaching commencement of the State Normal and Industrial College in Greensboro. Congressman John H. Small, of the first district, will deliver one on the educational needs of the State.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee held in Greenville on the 14th day of April, 1900, a convention for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the Legislature and the various county offices and for the appointment of delegates to the First Congressional District Democratic convention, was called to meet in the Court House, in Greenville, at 12 o'clock M., on Saturday, May 19th, 1900.

Every Merchant Should Advertise

Advertising is as necessary to the small merchant as to the great one. The man with a small store wants to increase its business, just as the owner of a large merchantile establishment must maintain its prestige. Business always goes to the advertiser at the expense of the non advertiser. That being the case, the most important reason why all merchants should advertise is obvious.—Philadelphia Record.

Honors to Greenville

Miss Tessie Evans, a daughter of Mrs. A. M. Evans, of this place, who has been for some time at the Odd Fellows Orphanage at Goldsboro, has won the free scholarship for four years to the Greensboro Female College offered in the graded school at Goldsboro.

There are two scholarships given away each year to this school both of which were won this time by pupils from the Odd Fellows Orphanage. The Odd Fellows and Greenville both have cause to feel proud of the honors won by Miss Tessie.

"Let justice be done though the heavens fall." That sentiment never entered the ears of the Republican partisans in the House.

It is evident that if the members should share in the views of the majority report in the Pearson-Crawford contested case, that a great and manifest crime will be perpetrated. That report is false in its findings, for it charges that Pearson was defeated by fraud, bribery, intimidation and blood shed. It is purely partisan and merely mean, and foully false.—Wilmington Messenger.

There will be no fakers in this world when the fools are all dead.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?

Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?

Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

GREENVILLE.

Meeting was called to order by
 A. L. Blow, who was elected chairman, and the editors of town papers elected secretaries.
 L. I. Moore moved that township follow usual custom and divide to select delegates from each section.

W. L. Brown requested that the motion be withheld until he could offer a resolution. The resolution, which was unanimously adopted,
 was as follows:

Whereas, we believe that merit
 should be recognized in public servants and the same commended therefore be it, resolved: that this primary of Greenville township here assembled heartily endorse the conduct of past campaigns by our most excellent Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee,
 A. L. Blow, Esq., and recommend that he be again selected for this position which he has so admirably filled for more than twenty years.

A. D. Johnston stated that under the plan of organization a primary election could be called for, and as the principal contest before the county convention would be for Sheriff he called for a primary vote
 so that every Democrat present could express a choice, and the vote of the delegation to the County Convention to be for each candidate according to his strength in the primary.

L. I. Moore vigorously opposed the primary election, but the chairman ruled that under the plan of organization when such primary election was called for it should be held. He then appealed from the ruling of the chair, making another speech against the primary election. Speeches in favor of the election and to sustain the chair were made by J. L. Fleming, A.
 D. Johnston, Leonidas Fleming, and W. H. Ragsdale. A vote on the appeal almost unanimously sustained the ruling of the chair.

The election was then held, the result being as follows:

King 77, Harrington 74, Reuss 3,
 Laughinghouse 7, Cobb 6, Forbes
 7, Jones 14, Mason 1, Hooker 2,
