STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

The Republicans of the eighth district have nominated E. Spencer Blackburn for Congress.

Mr. Levin Ross, one of four county's oldest citizens, and who resides near Edward, had the misfortune to lose his residence, kitchen, smokehouse and about sixty stocks of bees early yesterday morning by fire. The origin of the fire is unknown.—Washington Messenger.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy are raising a fund for the erection of a monument to Jefferson Davis in Richmond, Va. Special efforts in this direction are to be made on or about Davis' birthday, the anniversary of which will come on Sunday, June 3rd.

COUNTY CONVENTION

Largely gathering of Democrats.

The Democratic county convention was held here today, a large attendance being present.

The convention was called to order by Alex. L. Blow, chairman of the county executive committee, who referred to the glorious achievements of the party two years ago and said he knew from the large and enthusiastic primaries of Saturday that North Carolina would continue to be controlled by white men.

The roll of delegates was called, every township having a full representation.

A motion was offered to select one delegate from each township as a committee on permanent organization, but this was by another motion tabled.

F. G. James and A. L. Blow were placed in nomination for Chairman, the ballot resulting in Blow 118, James 11.

W. L. Brown was elected secretary, D. J. Whichard and H. T. King assistants.

A motion to begin the nominations with Sheriff was lost.

For the State Senate F. G. James and W. R. Williams were placed in nomination. The first ballot resulted as follows: James 77, Williams 43, F. C. Harding 1. The nomination of James was made unanimous.

For House of Representatives names of R. R. Cotten, S. A. Gainer, T. H. Barnhill, W. J. Nichols, I. K. Wethington, C. L. Barrett and F. McLahorn were presented.

The motion was adopted that the vote be for one Representative at the time.

The first ballot was as follows: Cotten 10, Gainer 12, Barnhill 34, Nichols 44, Wethington 6, Barrett 11, McLahorn 8.

Second ballot: Nichols 104, Barnhill 4, Barrett 8, Cotten 6, Gainer 4, Wethington 1. The nomination of Nichols was made unanimous.

Third ballot: Barnhill 100, Cotten 4, Gainer 14, Barrett 8. The nomination of Barnhill was made unanimous.

For Register of Deeds T. R. Moore was nominated by acclamation.

For Treasurer J. B. Cherry was nominated by acclamation.

For Coroner Dr. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse was nominated by acclamation.

For Surveyor J. D. Cox was nominated by acclamation.

For County Commissioners the names of R. L. Davis, C. J. Tucker, J. J. Satterthwaite, J. M. Cox, Jesse L. Smith and W. G. Little were present.

First ballot: Davis 36, Tucker 39, Satterthwaite 11, Cox 25, Little 16.

Second ballot: Tucker 71, Davis 54, Satterthwaite 3, Little 8, Cox 1.

Third ballot: Tucker 107, Cox 20. Tucker declared nominated as one Commissioner.

Fourth ballot: Davis 29, Little 34, Satterthwaite 5, Cox 58, Horne 1.

Fifth ballot: Davis 104, Cox 23, Davis was declared nominee for second Commissioner.

Sixth ballot: Little 94, Satter-

SATURDAY MAY 19, 1900.

The money wasted up-to-date in the Philippine war would build the Nicaraguan canal and operate it for years to come.

"The war will end in a month," has been the confident prediction from Manila for two years, and from South Africa for six months. Unfortunately the enemy does not see it in the same light.

Now that the ice trusts has really gotten to work, the meaning of the trusts is being rapidly brought home to the people, and will continue to be brought home with every day of the summer.

Rev. J. E. White has declined the Presidency of the Baptist Female University at Raleigh, to which he was recently elected. His reason is that there is already such heavy demand upon his time.

The Census Supervisor of the district embracing Augusta, Ga., has appointed fourteen negro enumerators for that city, three of them being women. The people are indignant over the appointment and say they will not submit to being interrogated by the negroes.

Mark Hanna stood to his guns, but the other Republican members of the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic canals weakened the other day and permitted the Democrats to report the Nicaraguan bill favorably to the Senate. Now Senator Morgan says that he will force it through at this session. It is to be hoped that he will.

The Republicans seem to have about withdrawn their opposition to the South's practically disfranchising the negro by means of property and educational qualifications. Indeed, they could not cling to their former position so long as they refuse to grant citizenship and the suffrage to the Porto Ricans and the Filipinos on the ground that they are not fitted for them.

Dr. C. D. McIver is out in a statement in which he says he is not a candidate for the Presidency of the University, and does not want to be considered in connection with it. He says he has been working on the other side of the house for fifteen years and is not yet ready to move over. "When you educate a man you educate a citizen, and when you educate a woman you educate a family," says Dr. McIver, "and for that reason I do not care to leave the field in which I have so long been engaged."

The Africanders are undoubtedly superior to the Cubans in every respect and Spain's claim over them was far better than Britain's over the Transvaal. Yet Congress passed all sorts of resolutions of sympathy for the Cubans and finally went to war for their sake, while it will not even vote on resolutions for the Boers. Must we wait until the latter are ground down and starved as were the Cubans before we declare ourselves in their favor?

We often hear Republican opponents of the amendment say they would support the amendment if it disfranchised all negroes, but as the educated negroes will still be allowed to vote they oppose it. These Republicans, who are usually office holders or office-seekers, are not honest in this. Their real objection to the amendment is because it will disfranchise such a large percentage of the negro vote upon which they can count at all elections with absolute confidence, and they would oppose the amendment still more frantically if it had been possible to have drawn it to disfranchise all negroes. If it is adopted, more than seventy-five per cent. of the negroes in North Carolina will have voted their last time, and this is what is making the Republican politician sorrowful.—Statesville Mascot.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, secretary of the State board of health, says that during last month, as the reports made to him officially show, there were no less than 606 cases of smallpox in North Carolina. He says the epidemic began January 12, 1898, at Wilmington. The disease was carried there by a negro train hand from South Carolina. Up to May 1, 1899, there had been only 616 cases. The great number in April past shows in a startling way the increase.

A very strange thing occurred at Johnson's store last Saturday night. One of the large electric burner lamp chimneys became so hot as to melt and change its shape and yet did not break. The heat must have been great and the chimney must have been of extra good glass.—Warrenton Record.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18, 1900.

How the Cuban scandal stands may be judged by the following extract from a speech made by Senator Bacon, in favor of his resolution for a Congressional investigation of all receipts and expenditures in Cuba since it passed under American control. "Within the past week the fact has been disclosed—a fact that brings the blush of shame to the cheek of every American citizen—that trusted officials in Cuba have misappropriated large amounts belonging to the people of Cuba. Nobody knows how large these amounts are. At first it was stated they were $30,000; next it was said it would amount to $75,000, and it is estimated the amount will aggregate $400,000. At first only one man was involved in the difficulty. Now there are many—so many that it is estimated it may amount to a conspiracy.

Mr. Clark, of Montana, stirred up the Senatorial menagerie by his clever scheme of resigning his seat in the Senate and being immediately appointed to the vacancy by the Lieutenant-Governor, who was acting Governor, and the roaring is still going on. It is doubtful whether Mr. Clark will be seated.

Senator Hale is not an admirer of imperialism, although he has not said much in public against the McKinley imperial policy. This week he made the following remarks in the Senate: "The history of colonial possessions, from the days of the Romans to the present time, is a history of robbery, pecculation, extravagance, wrong doing in high quarters, and corruption broad and large. I do not think that the examples of today are going to show that the American people are to be exempt from the monstrous evils which always have attended a colonial policy. The jaunty way in which the American people have embarked in the enterprise of colonial possessions have certainly received a rebuke in what has been seen to happen during the last few months."

Senator, Butler, of North Carolina denies that he has resigned or has any intention of resigning as chairman of the Populist National committee. He said he was elected chairman contrary to his wishes and for the knowledge that he would for the present be unable to give his entire time to the duties of the position, and that it was at his request that Mr. J. H. Edmiston, of Nebraska, has been made vice-chairman of the committee.

The trick of the republican members of the house Judiciary committee, in making the proposed anti-trust amendment to the Constitution infringe as heavily upon the rights of the States, that it would be opposed by every democratic member of the committee, was so transparent that it is surprising that such astute politicians as the republican members of that committee should have resorted to it. But the case is desperate. They know the people as a whole regard the democratic party as an enemy and the friends of trusts, and their object in fixing up this amendment so as to be certain that it would be opposed by democrats was to try to fool the people into the belief that the democrats were opposed to anti-trust legislation. It is becoming more difficult all the time to fool its people, and such tricks as this will not do it.

Is the nominee of the Rads. for superintendent of public instructions, the same fellow who left his chair in a college some years ago to make stump speeches for the black Radical gang? If so, he is a fine fellow indeed to have charge of the public schools of a great state. They call him Prof. English, but can he write it and speak it? Who would like to have him superintending the education of democratic children? White children, mind you.—Wilmington Messenger.

When Lincoln was elected the popular vote was less than 5,900,000. When Garfield was elected the popular vote was a little less than 10,000,000. At the election of the coming fall it is estimated that there will be cast a total popular vote of not less than 15,000,000. It has been only forty years since the Lincoln election. In that time the voting strength of the country has been multiplied by three.—Savannah News.

Object Lesson

The tobacco trust bought the tobacco factory of David Scotten and closed it in order to restrict production. Thousands of persons were thrown out of work, and the hardship resulting is felt among the tradesmen as well. There is apparently no intention ever to open the factory again. Many of its hands are too old to learn another trade and now face starvation.—Detroit special to N. Y. Journal.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., NOV. 23.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McLREE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

Almost a Flood

Some people are saying they never saw it rain harder than on Friday afternoon. That it was a heavy downpour is no mistake. For sometime it came down in torrents and the town was generally flooded. The streets and drains overflowed, bridges were floated, and water went into a number of the stores. Dickinson avenue was literally cut in two where the sewer crosses it near the Gorman factory. The town will be put to considerable expense repairing the damage done the streets.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?
 Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?
 Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

HEARD AND SEEN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., May 18.

Where are the corporate lines? When taxes are to be collected they include much territory; but judging from the ground covered by the street sprinkler, they extend from Gladden to Market on Main street, and a part of Market street.

Dr. D. T. Tayloe has been ill and confined to his house for several days.

The Gazette, or some one of its informants is away off. "Belhaven and Chocowinity precincts are consolidated and the polling place is Carrows old Mill," the distance between the two is not less than twenty-five miles air line.

Miss Lida Wilkinson and Mrs. Herr, of Belhaven, and Mrs. Augustus Latham, of Washington, left on Friday for Courtland, Va.

The steamer New Bern is on the route from Neuse river landings to Belhaven, during the truck season, and it is retorted that the potatoes from Aurora section will go via Belhaven. Should such be, Belhaven will be the busy place for the next few weeks. There is shipped from there monthly two to two and a half million feet of lumber regularly; and 75,000 to 100,000 barrels of potatoes added to that with other freights will keep some one busy.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Fulford returned from their extended bridal trip on the evening of the 16th. Mrs. N. S. Goddard tendered them a reception at the residence of Mrs. N. S. Fulford on the evening of the 17th.

Mr. Jewells large residence on east 2nd street is about completed.

There are thirteen steamers that belong to Washington and they are generally all here on Sunday.

There are ten secret orders here, if not more. JIM NASTIC.
