Pythian Banquet.

The Pythians of Tar River Lodge No. 93 K. of P. have fixed the date of their annual banquet for Tuesday, June 5th at the Opera House. This social feature of the Pythians is much to be commended and those who have been present heretofore have been delighted at what they saw, heard and palated. Tar River Lodge is one of the very best and most flourishing lodges in this jurisdiction. Several of the ladies of the town have consented to take part in this enjoyable occasion.

POSTED.

We hereby warn all persons from entering upon any of our lands along Grindle Creek for the purpose of fishing with nets or hunting. Any one so trespassing will be prosecuted according to law.

Annual Picnic.

The Masons of Greenville Lodge No 284, decided at their regular meeting Monday night to have their annual picnic. The picnic of one year ago will long be remembered as one of the bright and enjoyable occasions in the history of the fraternity. This one promises to eclipse any of the kind ever given before. The date has not been decided on as yet, but will be announced later.

Initiation Postponed.

On account of the meeting now going on in the Baptist church the degree will not be conferred upon the two candidates from the Odd Fellows Lodge at Ayden to-night, as was stated Monday, but will be postponed until Tuesday, June 5th.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, it hath pleased God to call from our midst, Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M., our most excellent and worthy brother Jacob Joyner, from Labor to Rest, Tuesday morning the 8th day of May, 1900, who has for many years been a member of our ancient order, and who by his upright life and exemplary conduct as a friend, father, and citizen, has united the esteem, not only of his brethren, but the entire community, in which he had lived for seventy years.

Now therefore be it resolved,

1st. That we extend to his family the sympathy of the members of this Lodge, and pray that the consolation of the God whom our brother worshipped may bearound and about them in their bereavement.

2nd. That in memory of our departed brother the members of the Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days, and that these be spread upon a separate page of the minutes of the Lodge, copy be sent to the family of our departed brother and copies to the Greenville papers and Orphan's Friend for publication.

Off to Gold Fields.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 15 1900.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I am yet in Seattle, and have been sight seeing for ten days. I reached here on the 4th from our little Georgia city, Thomasville, and guess my REFLECTOR is on the way to me to Nome, Alaska, as I wrote you to mail it there. I expect to leave here on the 10th.

This city is full of people bound for Alaska, most of them heading for Cape Nome. There is nothing here to discourage a man from going to Nome, as all who have been and returned are going back again and their wives and friends with them. From what I have seen the reports that have come out from there are true. I will reach there about the 10th of June if I have good luck. Keep my paper coming to me out there, as I dearly love to read the news from old Pitt county. I still claim it as my home, although it has been twelve long years since I left there to make my way for better or worse.

I will keep you posted on the Nome doings, as I know the boys will like to have a few words from me now and then.

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1900.

The United States continue to be progressive in all the word implies. Not satisfied to remain on our own shores and enjoy our own possessions and emoluments, we have reached out across seas to annex and gobble up other lands and other Nations. Among "our folks" now are some of all classes, shades, character and nationalities. We have expanded until we have not only got the folks, but their plagues and diseases come along with them. We have annexed the yellow fever, and the leprosy, and the latest addition is the genuine bubonic plague. It is said to have come over and got in to San Francisco, as many as six deaths having occurred there from the plague. Steps are being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

There is a minister of Kinston who says he never has to buy an umbrella. Enough and more are left in church for his and the sexton's use.—Kinston Free Press.

We are of the opinion that neither the minister nor the sexton has any legal or moral right to make use of umbrellas left in church.

The Father of 41 Children.

Levi Bresson, who lives in a little town of Foster, has brokeu the American record of paternity, and is the happiest father in the State of Rhode Island.

When he awoke this morning he found that he had become the father of a boy, his forty-first child. Thirty-six of his children are living in 15 different States of the Union and in the Canadian provinces. The present Mrs. Bresson is Levi's third wife.

Mrs. Bresson No. 1 was seven times the mother of twins. Mrs. Bresson No. 2 was the mother of three sets of triplets and once the mother of twins, between three single children. His present wife has borne twins once and 11 single children.

Bresson is 65 years old. Of the 36 living children 33 have large families of their own. Eight of his grandchildren have families, too. Bresson owns a farm of a hundred acres and has never employed any one in cultivating it except his own descendants.—Philadelphia Record.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21, 1900.

Unless Mr. McKinley stopped his ears, he heard the enthusiastic cheers given to the Boer envoys and the voices of the Senators and Representatives, who spoke in behalf of the two republics now engaged in a death grapple with the world's mightiest empire, to an audience which the largest theatre in Washington would not hold. The speakers at that reception pointed out the fact that from all over this country there was a demand that this government should save the lives of those little republics, which all the world knows could be done by a word from McKinley to the British government, and yet that word remains unspoken. Instead, the mouthpieces of the administration are saying, "hush! we know that England intends to wipe out those republics, but it is none of our business; we have promised to remain neutral and we must not say a word." A President who is afraid of England, is a novelty in this country, and a decidedly unpleasant one too. But the remedy lies in the hands of the people. Next November they can elect a President whose first act will be a dissolution of the partnership between the greatest republic and the greatest land grabbing empire on earth, and if present signs are not misleading, they will do it.

Hon. J. D. Campau, Michigan's member of the Democrat National Committee, has been in Washington to consult with Chairman Jones, on the work of the campaign. He is confident that Michigan will go democratic this year. Speaking of the matter, he said: Even the republicans in Michigan admit that the democrats have reason to feel encouraged. The opposition is in bad shape. The republicans have given a very bad state administration. It cannot all be laid at the door of Pingree, because the legislature was as bad as the officers he appointed. If there was ever a reason for turning the governing party out, it exists in Michigan. It is not a matter of politics, but of common sense with regard to the interests of the State. The democrats will have the united party with a strong organization to put up a good fight."

A number of democratic Senators and Representatives have launched a boom for Representative McClellan, of New York, a son of "Little Mac," the democratic candidate for President in 1864, as Vice President on the ticket with Col. Bryan, and are pushing it actively.

Secretary Root's second reply to a Senate resolution, asking for a detailed report of receipts and expenditures under our military government in Cuba, was only a little more satisfactory than the first. The details are still lacking but the report makes it plain that the charge of extravagant expenditures in Cuba is well founded. For instance, the civil salary list of the Cuban government for last year, exclusive of $1,377,000 paid on what the report calls the "labor pay roll" was $4,330,587. Adding these totals together and more than one-third of the total receipts—$16,000,000 are shown to have been paid out for civil salaries, not to mention the cost of the Military Establishment, which is, of course, paid by the U. S. Government. How long could a political party remain in control of one of our states which spent one-third of the state's receipts for salaries?

The Clark case has become badly complicated. Mr. Clark resigned and was appointed to fill the vacancy by the acting Governor of Montana. Gov. Smith denounced that appointment as fraudulent and appointed ex-Congressman Martin Maginnis. The vacancy is likely to continue until the Montana legislature elects another Senator.

The republicans in Congress are afraid to adopt either of the resolutions offered by the democrats in the Senate and House for a Congressional investigation of the Cuban stealings. The total of those stealings, already known, and the number of officials already implicated makes the republicans fear that an investigation participated in by a few fearless democrats might trace some of the stealings to Washington an implicate bigger officials than those now known to have been in the conspiracy at the Cuban end of the line.

Peanut Butter.

Peanut butter has become an important commercial product, and it is calculated that but for the large quantity used—upwards of 2,000,000 pounds—the enormous crop of 1899, aggregating 4,500,000 bushels of twenty-two pounds each would long ago have forced prices so low as to render the business of cleaning the nuts unprofitable. There are ten manufacturers of peanut butter in this country, the principal ones being Purity Nut Fruit Company, New York; Van Pragg & Co., New York; Fulton Mills Company, Fulton, N. Y.; Battle Creek Company, Battle Creek, Mich., and Sanitos Food Company, Chicago, Ill. The pure product is said to contain more nutriment than veal, beef, flour, milk and many other articles of daily consumption. It is used in sandwiches, soups, fillings, dressings, and sauces. The product is made by grinding the nuts very fine and reducing the mass to a pasty substance, a portion, at least, of the large amount of oil contained being removed. Salt is added for flavoring, and the result is a hygienic and nourishing compound.

In an interview with a representative of the New York Journal of Commerce, the New York agent of one of the peanut butter makers said:

"Peanut butter is rapidly coming to the front as an article of common use. The largest makers are located in the South and West, and at the present rate of increase it is safe to assume that within a few years the bulk of a much larger annual production of peanuts will be consumed in the manufacture of the product. It is estimated at the present time that there are upwards of $10,500,000 worth of peanuts used in this country every year. Considering that the peanut is not a staple this consumption is enormous. There are four grades, the first three, known as fancy, fancy hand-picked, and No. 1s, are sold to vendors, and the fourth to confectioners for making burnt almonds and cheap candies. It is estimated that confectioners use fully 50 per cent. of the crop the remainder going into consumption through vendors and in butter. Owing to the short crop in 1898, we imported a small quantity of peanuts from Africa, but this year the production has been so large that in some sections the stock has been difficult to market at a profit. The bulk of the crop is produced in Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina. On the market what are known as Spanish nuts, used chiefly in the confectionery trade, are grown principally in Tennessee and Virginia.

"The demand for peanut butter is growing steadily, but the product has had to contend with many setbacks since its introduction two years ago. Many of the manufacturers who started in the business during the first few months brought the product into disfavor by using inferior nuts and cheap ingredients. This practice resulted in the turning out of a very inferior article, which turned rancid and unfit for food in a short while. Grocers who bought largely of the poor stuff had to throw it away or sell it for wagon grease. The effect of this unscrupulous manufacture was felt in all quarters, and reduced the business of the honest producers materially. There is, however, a good demand for a first-class article, and the withdrawal of the cheap product from the market has stimulated sales to a great extent. There is a large business in salted peanuts, the manufacture being in many respects similar to that used in almonds."—American Grocer.

The Mistake of two Experts.

The President has granted a pardon in the case of Wm. Broughton, who was convicted in March, 1900, in the northern district of Georgia, of sending an obscene letter through the mails. He was sentenced to a term of five years in the penitentiary.

It appears that after Broughton's imprisonment the obscene letters continued to be sent and later on a man named Mitchell, the true culprit, was convicted of writing the letter for which Broughton was imprisoned. In his letter to the President, Attorney General Griggs comments upon the fact that Broughton's conviction was secured upon the testimony of two experts in handwriting, who declared the writing was Broughton's.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE the new policies of the Bankers. The Life, Limited Payment Life and Endowment policies contain all the up-to-date features, many of which are original.

Good Things.

Did you ever look for the "good things" in your life insurance policy? Unless it was in the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York, you probably found side issues labelled "Grace" "Incontestability," "Loans," and the like, made prominent as "good things." Of course we have these features, too, for the "Bankers" is nothing if not progressive; but—

Did you ever see a policy with which the Company keeps an Individual Account?

Or one in which all earnings are guaranteed to the policy-holder?
Or one which guaranteed both reserve and surplus if surrendered?
Or one which gives all withdrawable surplus at death, in addition to face of policy?

Or one, in fact, which treats the policy-holder with absolute equity, confiscating no portion of the net premiums, and allowing a policy-holder to control his own money at all times, as far as is consistent with a conservative system which embraces the best points of banking and insurance?

If you have never seen any of these "good things," investigate the new policies of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of the City of New York.

Who are its officers and directors? Among them are many of the best known men in New York financial circles.

The Company's record has been unequalled for economical management, safe investments, equitable dealings with its policy-holders and low cost of Insurance Protection.

CANDIDATES ALL.

Some for One Thing, Some for Another.

W. T. Lee is sick.

Mrs. E. B. Higgs is quite sick.

D. D. Haskett went to Kinston Monday evening.

C. W. Priddy came Monday evening from Norfolk.

Miss Pattie Skinner left this morning for Tarboro.

L. McCullen returned Monday evening from Richmond.

Mrs. Letitia Dupree, of Edgecombe county, is visiting relatives here.

Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse left this morning, for Tarboro to attend the State Medical convention.

Miss Lena Hines, after spending a few days here with Miss Martha Dudley, left Monday afternoon for her home in Ayden.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan left this morning for Tarboro to attend the State Medical Society which is in session there this week.

Dr. J. C. Greene, who has been studying medicine in the Medical College in Virginia, came Monday evening from Tarboro, where he has just passed the examination before the Medical Board.

Big Fire at Danville.

A telegram from Danville, Va., brings information that Acree's, Hodnett's and the Banner warehouses were destroyed by fire this morning. Mr. G. B. Hughes was one of the proprietors of the Banner warehouse.

"Uncle Joe" Burgess Dead.

Mr. J. J. Burgess, of Norfolk, died Friday of last week, in the 68th year of his age. Mr. Burgess was well known in Greenville, having spent much of his time here some years ago, and among our people are many friends who learn of his death with sorrow.

The Meeting.

The meeting in the Baptist church being conducted by Rev. J. E. Hutson is both interesting and well attended. No services are held in the morning but are held each night at 8:15 o'clock. The subject for tonight's discussion is "Religious Feeling." Let every one come out and attend these meetings.

Scrap.

A lively scrap occurred this afternoon between Charles Braxton and Charlie Barrett. Both had been indulging too freely in corn juice, which resulted in Braxton getting a lick on the shoulder with a bottle of liquor. Both were placed in the guard house until they could sober up some.

Picket or Pettigrew.

We are indebted to Mr. E. E. Hilliard, of the Scotland Neck Commonwealth, for a copy of this very interesting book. It has been revised and enlarged by Capt. W. R. Bond. The first edition of this work was published twelve years ago when it attracted much interest and all were soon sold. This revised edition should be even more popular. The printing was done in the Commonwealth office at Scotland Neck and it is indeed creditable. The price of the book is 25 cents, and orders for it should be sent to W. L. L. Hall, Scotland Neck N. C.

"Mendsall" mends everything and will stand hot water. 10 cents a bottle at Reflector Book Store.

The taking of the census begins Friday of next week. Tomorrow THE REFLECTOR is going to start you to guessing at the population of Greenville.

A Smile in Each.

Some men are born great, other men acquire greatness, and still others go into the grate business.

Some people never talk about their neighbors because they are too busy talking about themselves.

The man who builds castles in the air should next invent an air-ship.

When a poor young man asks an heiress for her hand, and she consents, he carries off the palm.

Harduppe—"Say, old man, can you let me have $13 until Friday?" Wigwag—"Can't do it, old chap. I'm superstitious."

Even the fool sometimes boasts of being a self-made man.

It seems queer that the highest priced gowns are usually the lowest.

With the coming of the new woman we may look for the father-in-law joke.

No, Maude dear, it doesn't take a deaf and dumb detective to go on a still hunt.

Usually the man who makes a fool of himself has merely anticipated the intentions of his fellow-men.

It has been noticed that the people who have such a horror of an ocean voyage are usually the ones who can't afford it.

The photographer believes in taking things as they come.

Even the egotist doesn't believe that he is fully appreciated.

The man who drinks beer to get his courage up usually finds that his courage is all froth.

May be the reason women all talk at once when they get together is because they are afraid somebody will hear what they are saying.

A negro convict in the Virginia penitentiary at Richmond, cut the throat of a fellow convict. The wounded man died in a short while.
