What is Your Guess?

There are only five more days in which you can guess at the population of Greenville. Each subscriber to THE REFLECTOR is entitled to one guess. Remember the one guessing nearest the number gets a year's subscription to THE DAILY REFLECTOR or THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

Cut out the blank in another column of the paper, fill in the number, sign your name and bring or send it to THE REFLECTOR office.

Take Warning.

Census takers who make themselves officious in discussing politics while engaged in the discharge of their official duties, are subject to removal. Some of the census takers in this county had better take warning.

One More in Limbo.

Arthur Forbes, a negro boy, who works for J. L. Starkey & Bro., was arrested this afternoon and taken before Justice of the Peace W. H. Long, charged with stealing a pistol from J. L. Starkey's safe.

It seems that the negro, Forbes, stole the pistol about ten days ago and sold it to another negro, who in turn carried it back and tried to sell it to Mr. Starkey. He recognized the pistol and upon inquiring of the negro found he had gotten it from Arthur Forbes. The latter was bound over to September court by the Justice of the Peace.

TOWN MATTERS.

Meeting of Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen held their regular monthly meeting Monday night and had business to keep them in session until past midnight.

J. T. Smith, Chief Police and S. D. King, Assistant Police, who had been appointed temporarily by Mayor Moye, were elected unanimously for the remainder of the fiscal year.

The Street Committee reported that the sidewalks in front of the Dancy and Bernard property had been laid by the town. The expense incurred in building the sidewalks was ordered charged up against the property in the taxes for the coming tax year and to be collected accordingly.

The Street Committee also reported that material had been purchased for the culvert across Evans street at the Academy branch, and they were waiting for a superintendent to construct the work.

The Committee was authorized to purchase a street sprinkler of 450 gallons capacity, and also to take out the 18 inch tiling across Dickinson avenue near the Gorman factory and replace it with 24-inch.

The Lights and Wells Committee and Market House Committee both reported everything in their charge in good condition.

It was ordered that no more money be expended upon any public wells except those located at Five Points, near Wooten's drug store, near the Court House, near the Market House and in Cherry Hill Cemetery.

The report of the Cemetery Committee was received with the thanks of the Board for the excellent condition the cemetery is in.

The Finance committee reported $1,368 on hand.

The Chief and Assistant Police both made reports that were commended.

The annual report of the Tax Collector was presented and referred to the Finance Committee.

The Registrars and Poll Holders of the election held in the several wards of the town on the 4th inst. made their reports and the result declared.

A committee was appointed to make settlement with the former Chief and Assistant Police and report at a meeting to be held on the 29th.

Accounts amounting to $948.74 were allowed and ordered paid.

The Board adjourned to meet again on the 29th at which time the business for the fiscal year will be closed.

Ratification in Greene.

There will be a grand Democratic rally and ratification meeting in Snow Hill on Saturday, 16th inst. Hon R. B. Glenn and Hon Claude Kitchen will address the meeting. A brass band will furnish music and there will be 200 in the horse-back procession.

Potatoes.

FRIDAY, JUNE, 8 1900.

Dr. R. T. Vann, of Scotland Neck, has been elected President of the Baptist Female University at Raleigh. It is fortunate that such a man as he has been selected for this position. Under his direction the University will go on to great success.

The Democrats of Chatham county have nominated Maj. H. A. London, editor of the Pittsboro Record, as their candidate for the State Senate. They could not have selected a better man. From the nominations made over the State the indications are that the next Legislature will be without a parallel for ability.

The Christian Herald, of New York, under whose auspices the India famine relief work is being conducted, has requested THE REFLECTOR to receive subscriptions to the fund from any persons in this section who wish to contribute to the relief of the starving millions of that stricken country. Any subscriptions left at THE REFLECTOR office will be acknowledged and properly forwarded.

The only dangerous weapon that Arthur Hamel, of Holyoke, Mass., carries, is a three-foot snake, which he totes around under his shirt bosom. This weapon is always loaded. Arthur was taken to the lock-up a few days ago and when asked if he had any weapons produced his snake, which perched upon his shoulder and struck at the cops who came near him. He shares his bed and board with the snake.—Wilmington Star.

John L. Sullivan, ex-puncher, refuses to pay an artist the $125 charged for painting his portrait. The artist forgot to paint his hair gray, and as that is about the only thing about John that would command respect, he feels injured and refuses to pay.—Wilmington Star.

Make It Draw.

A mercantile business which is not given the assistance of advertising is like a stove without an outlet for the smoke. It won't draw. As the generality of merchants are in business for profit, and not for rest or recreation, it is necessary for them to advertise daily so that their business announcements will draw to them the custom they want.—Philadelphia Record.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Miss Ruth Ward Harriss becomes the Bride of Mr. J. A. Ricks.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Ward Harriss, one of Wilmington's most charming and popular young society ladies, to Mr. John Addison Ricks, of Greenville, N. C., was solemnized at the First Presbyterian church at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning in the presence of a very large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Rev. E. E. Lane, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church officiating.

To the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, with a chorus composed of Mrs. F. A. Muse, Miss Maie O'Connor, Mr. C. H. Cooper and Mr. H. K. Holden, and Miss Anna Sprunt as organist, the ushers, attired in Prince Albert coats, with silk hats, marched up the centre aisle as follows: Mr. John Van B. Metts with Mr. Bellamy Harriss, and Mr. Geo. H. Howell with Dr. R. J. Price. Miss Charlotte Fenuell, as flower girl, and Misses Eugenia and Josephine Harriss, nieces of the bride, ribbon girls, followed, and they were prettily dressed in white organdies and carried bouquets of daisies and maiden hair ferns. The bride, who was beautifully gowned in a pure white organdie, with a crepe 'de chene hat, and carrying an exquisite bouquet of brides' roses, then followed leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Geo. Harriss. The groom attended by his best man, Mr. Herbert A. White, of Greenville, entered the church from the side door and met the bride at the chancel, where the solemn rites of matrimony were conducted by Rev. Mr. Lane. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Geo. Harriss.

After the ceremony was performed, the bridal party passed down the aisle to the music of Mendelson's wedding march. The church was magnificently decorated in a wealth of palms, ferns, vines and flowers, and presented a scene exquisitely beautiful. The elaborate decorations were made by Mr. C. F. W. Rehder, the florist.

The bridal party repaired from the church to the residence of Mr. George Harriss, on Market street, where quite a number of friends gathered to extend hearty congratulations and best wishes to the very popular young couple. The bride and groom left on the 9:35 o'clock train over the Atlantic Coast line for an extended trip to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and other large Northern cities. A large party of friends assembled at the station to see them off. The bride's traveling dress was a very handsome gray tailor-made gown, with hat to match.

Miss Harriss is a daughter of the late George Harriss and is one of Wilmington's most accomplished young society ladies. The groom is a very prominent and successful man of Greenville, N. C., where they will make their future home after returning from their bridal tour.—Wilmington Star, 7th.

There are two armies now in the field, one the army of white supremacy, fighting to keep the poor uneducated white man above the negro. The other army is the army of black supremacy. The officers in this army are white men generally, the rank and file is black and tan. They are fighting to pull the whites down to the level of the blacks. They can't pull the negro up to the level of the whites, hence they must pull the whites down to the level of the blacks.—Lexington Dispatch.

Opportunities in the South.

The opportunities to engage in fruit and vegetable growing in the South were recently emphasized by B. E. Copeland of Georgia in an interview with a New York publication.

"An asparagus bed, properly prepared and cared for," said Mr. Copeland, "will last a lifetime and will yield a profit after the second year of from $600 to $1,000 an acre. The farmer who is located out of the reach of the large cities, and he is legion, thinks he is prohibited from raising this remunerative vegetable, as he has no market. This difficulty is easily overcome if he will interest himself and his neighbors in a canning factory. The process of canning asparagus is very simple, and so with all other vegetables and fruits.

"The market for canned asparagus has never been supplied, consequently it brings a very high price, so that the wealthy class only can afford to indulge in it. The canned article is nearly, if not quite as good, if properly canned, as that cooked fresh from the garden.

"If the farmer or capitalist would only realize the opportunities they are overlooking in this direction there would spring up in the South many factories for the preservation of all kinds of vegetables and fruits and it would be but a few years before we would have a wealthy farming community."—Manufacturer's Record.

What to Pray For.

For those who need a little direction as to the object for which they should pray we give the following in the order which they occur in the New Testament.

For the Holy Spirit in our own hearts.

For the coming of Christ's kingdom.

For our own temporal and spiritual necessities.

For laborers in God's harvest field.

That we may be ready at Christ's coming.

For ministers of the Gospel.

For rulers and all in authority.

For those who are sick, and those who have sinned.

For the coming of our Lord.—Weldon News.

The man who opposes the amendment says in substance that he wants to pull the poor uneducated white man down to the level of a negro. If the uneducated whites follow such leadership and cast their lot with the African we will only receive the scorn and contempt of the other states where the white people have decided that a white man is white and that a black man is black.—Lexington Dispatch.

In 1795 the University of North Carolina was opened. It was closed by the republicans in 1870, but was reopened 1885, Monday the quarter-centennial of the reopening was celebrated in handsome style. The university has more than 600 students—nearly all from North Carolina—and it is thus a truly representative institution. Tuesday was senior class day. At 9 o'clock the senior class of fifty members formed in a cap and gown marched to Gerard hall for prayers. The senior class day exercises followed. Then followed reunions of the classes of '80, '90 and '96, with addresses respectively by Locke Craig, of Asheville; Victor S. Bryant, of Durham, and J. O. Carr, of Durham.

Shadows and Effects.

You have seen the effects of the shadow thrown over North Carolina by the eclipse of the sun how dark, dreary and gloomy it made things look. Now don't forget what a black shadow would be thrown over the grand, good old State by the defeat of the constitutional amendment. This shadow would be permanent and never could be wiped off. Elect the straight Democratic ticket and a brightness and vitality will follow with prosperity to all of our people which was never equalled before. It will make you feel like praising, worshiping Almighty God for all time, and rejoicing in the grand victory.—Greensboro Record.

"Taking Texas as a whole," said a citizen of that State to a New York Tribune reporter the other day, "the outlook is for a yield of wheat, cotton and corn this year will break all records. The wheat crop especially will be enormous. But it is when the census returns are tabulated that Texas will give the country a surprise. Our increase of population in the last decade will show a bigger percentage of gain, probably, than has been made by any State in the Union. My own belief is that the enumerators' figures will give a total of quite 4,000,000 souls, some well informed people believe that this limit may be exceeded."

It is Up to Butler.

The last issue of Marion Butler's Caucasian says: "On Tuesday the Caucasians received subscriptions from three prominent Democrats of Robeson county who say they are done, for life, with the Democratic party because they see it is not honest and is trying to take their vote from them." We don't believe a word of this. Not a single prominent Democrat in Robeson county has renounced the party and all are earnest advocates of the amendment. Let the Caucasian name its men. The Robesonian is authorized to give $5 reward if they are Democrats of prominence.—Lumberton Robesonian.

One thousand, eight hundred and fifty men is the price, not counting the money spent, which this country has already paid for the land grab in the Philippines and we haven't seen the end yet.—Wilmington Star.

An Economical Buyer of Shoes

is the woman who recognizes the fact that it is true economy to purchase nothing but the highest grade shoes for her own wear, as well as for the children. We will fit mamma and the misses, as well as the boys and girls, with elegant, durable and comfortable shoes at prices that no one can touch, when quality is considered.

There's Great Comfort

a foot where our shoes are worn. They adjust themselves to what they cover so easily, yieldingly and coolly that they meet all the conditions of ideal foot wear. You walk into pleasure when you step into a pair of these stylish twins for the house and street. Soles, heels, points and uppers, all reflect the mode admirably.

ALMOST A FIRE.

Somebody Doing Dangerous Work.

An attempt was made Thursday night about 8:30 o'clock to burn the feed room belonging to B. F. Tyson, just back of R. A. Nichols' bar.

A quantity of oil and gasoline was poured on the sill and under the side of the house and then set on fire. Mr. J. F. King, who was sitting across the street in front of his stables, saw the flash when the oil ignited, and picking up a bucket of water went around back of the feed room and put it out.

There is no doubt as to its being the work of an incendiary as oil was found on the ground and on some lumber lying near at the corner of the house.

It is fortunate that the fire was seen before it had gotten beyond control, as all the houses in that vicinity are old wooden buildings and would have made a very large fire.

The alarm was given but the fire was put out before the engine was pulled out of the engine house.

Change in Train Schedule.

A change in the time table on the A. & N. C. railroad goes into effect June 10th. The regular mail will leave Goldsboro at 5:30 p. m., and arrive at New Bern at 7:30 and Morehead at 8:52.

The morning mail during the trucking season will continue to leave Morehead at 6:35, and here at 8:00 o'clock. Sunday this train will leave Morehead 30 minutes later, at 7:05.

The change in the evening train is made to secure through connections at Goldsboro with the west, the train on the Southern arriving at Goldsboro at 5:10 p. m.—New Bern Journal.

Speakers.

The Democratic county candidates will speak at Black Jack, Friday 22nd, at Burney's, Saturday, 23rd and at Lang's school house, Saturday, 30th.

There will be a big barbecue and picnic at Winterville on Friday 29th. Hon. R. B. Glenn will speak and the Osceola band will furnish music.

A Smile in Each.

It's high time for fly time. Commerce doesn't follow the flag in a barroom.

The man who bets seems never to get old enough to know better. Why do we refer to servent girls as domestic, when most of them are foreign.

It stands to reason that the man who follows the races should not be ahead of them.

Most women can stand broken English in a servent better than they can stand broken china.

No, Maude, dear, we have never heard that women who take the starvation cure are not allowed to wear Eton jackets.

Assistant Editor—"Here's a story about a wedding on a railroad train." Editor—"Well, head it 'Another Railroad Tie-Up' and put it in with the strikes."

A testimonial for a hair restorer is often a bald lie.

A man may be a brilliant raconteur before his marriage, but afterward he is often but a reflex of his bright children.

Life is like a crowded street car. The people with push are the ones who move up front.

An observant waiter says its the tipsy fellow who usually gives the tip. That seems feasible.

Most men can express an opinion but the opinions of some men are heavy enough to be sent as freight.
