Near Monroe a little child was swinging in a common rope swing. In some way the child got the rope around its neck, and falling off the seat was strangled to death.

Love after marriage is about as much like it was before as the colored vegetables you see in the seed catalogues are like the ones you raise in your own back yard.—New York Press.

Mr. Manning Not Dead.

Sheriff Kinsey, of Craven county, came up this morning from New Berne to take the prisoners, John and Nile Manning, who are wanted for shooting Mr. John Manning last Thursday night near Vanceboro, back with him.

Sheriff Kinsey says that Mr. John Manning did not die from the effects of the shot as was first reported. He is still in a critical condition, however, but there are chances of his getting well again. The prisoners will be given a trial when they reach New Berne.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1900.

It is certainly gratifying that there is so large attendance of members at the adjourned session of the Legislature which meet in Raleigh Tuesday. When the roll was called there were many more than the necessary quorum present. When it is considered that these men are there entirely at their own expense, it shows the interest they feel in the important matters that confront the people of North Carolina. It is not thought that any new legislation at all will be considered at this special session.

Maj. E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, who is one of the delegates at large from this State to the National Democratic convention, is being mentioned as the proper man to select as National Committeeman for North Carolina. Surely no better man than he could be selected, and none would give more general satisfaction the State over. When the delegates were being chosen at the State convention, Maj. Hale received by far the largest vote of any other delegate. He is the right man for National Committeeman.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11 1900

The administration is worrying over the news from China. The revolution of the "Boxers" threatens to expose Mr. McKinley's imperialistic programme concerning China in advance of the Presidential election, which is just what he is anxious to avoid. In their anxiety to allay public suspicion at home, members of administration have been doing some word juggling that would be amusing if the matters involved were not too serious to laugh about. For instance official statements to the press from the State Department have emphasized the alleged instructions to our minister at Peking, and to Rear Admiral Kempff, our Naval Commander in Chinese waters, to act in concert with European powers for the protection of foreigners and their property but not to join a combination of the powers for any purpose. Our representatives over there must be clever indeed if they can act in concert with the European powers without combining with them.

A marked feature of the political situation is the genuine scare of republican leaders over threestates which they have heretofore been claiming as certain to cast their electoral votes for McKinley.

These states are New York, Indiana, and Illinois. In New York

with Croker to look after greater New York, and Hill to look after other portions of the state, pulling loyally together, the republicans realize that the state will be doubtful. In Indiana, the state ticket nominated by the democrats, headed by Hon. John W. Kern, is so strong that Indian Republicans have notified the leaders of the party that the state is in danger. In Illinois, the tide has been running anti-republican for some time, and appeals for help are being received in Washington. This scare is so bad that prominent republicans are saying that it is useless to consider candidates from other states for the second place on the McKinley ticket; that he must be taken from one of those threestates and must be a man who will add strength to the ticket. Mr. McKinley has gone out of his way to make friends with Senator Mason, of Illinois, who was anti-administration during the recent session of Congress, and has succeeded in getting Mason to promise to take the stump for him. As Mason isn't the sort of a man who can be won over by jollying, it is likely that he has received some definite and iron-clad promises of future patronage.

Secretary Long has advertised for bids for furnishing armor plate for battleships, under the cowardly law forced through Congress the last thing before adjournment, making Mr. Long do what the republicans of Congress were ashamed to do—agree to the prices of armor set by the armor trust, which will necessarily be the only bidder to respond to the advertisement. True, the law gives Mr. Long authority to reject the bids if he considers the price too high, and to use the $4,000,000 carried by the act, for the establishment of a government plant to make armor plate, but if he acted upon that authority, the republican leaders who engineered the cowardly makeshift would throw a few fits; they are figuring on a heavy campaign contribution from the armor trust.

GRAND LODGE G. S. AND D. S.

(Reported by H. J. Ellis.)

State Grand Lodge No. 10 of the I. O. of G. S. and D. S. met in Ark of the Covenant Lodge No. 114 at 10 o'clock, A. M., June 12th.

The G. C., L. H. G. Jones called the meeting to order and the choir sang "Blest be the tie that binds."

Rev. L. B. Williams, G. P. conducted devotional exercises and prayed that the Lord would send His blessings upon the delegates and the G. S. generally.

The choir sang "Must Jesus bear the cross alone," sister S. J. Walker, one of North Carolina's best organists presiding at the organ.

The G. C. then appointed the various committees. The committee on time reported that we meet at 9:30 A. M., adjourn for dinner at 12:30, meet 2 P. M. adjourn 5 P. M., meet 8 P. M. adjourn at will.

The G. C. ordered the roll of officers called, all present except four.

Sister Mary E. Moore read quite an interesting letter from Queen Esther lodge, Wilmington. She was the first member of the order in the State, having been a member 31 years.

The W. C. asked the delegates to the G. L. to be governed by L. P. & T. He ordered the Deputies to report immediately.

The hour of adjournment having arrived the G. L. adjournment to 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Grand Lodge was called to order at 2 P. M. by Grand Chief L. H. G. Jones. After singing by choir, prayer was offered by the G. P., L. B. Williams.

While the various committees were out Rev. Paschall, of Raleigh, Rev. A. P. Walker, of Greenville and Cato Waddell addressed the body.

Bro. H. J. Ellis introduced sister Mary E. Moore, the peerless colored female orator, whose remarks were both wise and instructive.

Bro. J. H. King, of New Bern, said some encouraging words, Sister Emma Howard, of Washington, told that the order there was in a prosperous condition, Rev. R. W. Norman, of Roper, grew eloquent as he told of the work on his field, and Bro. R. C. Greene, of Kinston, made a talk that showed him to be a Samaritan indeed.

Sister Amanda Battle, of Goldsboro, sang "Come we that love the Lord."

Bro. Joseph Moore, of Hookerton, arose to say a few words about Greene county, but the hour of adjournment had arrived.

NIGHT SESSION.

Lodge called to order at 8 o'clock by D. G. C., Gaston Hicks, who ordered password in 2nd degree taken up. Paayer was offered by the G. P.

The G. C. made his report, which was said to be the best that had been read in years. Bro. Cuffey moved that the report be referred to the proper committee.

Rev. W. J. Moore, D. D. moved that a vote of thanks be tendered the G. C. for his grand report. Bro. J. H. King and many other distinguished brethren made remarks upon the report. All favored purchasing a press.

Sister Mary W. Steward, of Winston, spoke in behalf of the sisters of Western North Carolina.

Sister Mary E. Moore was called for but asked to be excused from speaking at that time.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until Wednesday morning.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Grand Lodge was called to order at 9:30 A. M. by the G. C. The password of the 3rd degree was taken up. Music by the choir and prayer by the G. P.

Reports of deputies being in order several of the deputies made their reports. Among some of the most important was that of Bro. Cato Waddell, of Wilmington, which was so pleasing that the G. C. led "Amazing Grace." The reports occupied the morning session and at 12:30 recess was taken for dinner.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

McElree's Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable.

And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

To The Ladies.

You are cordially invited to inspect a thing of beauty and a joy forever in the shape of a cook stove. There will be on exhibition at the office of Mr. H. A. White, on next Thursday, June 14th, from 9 to 11 o'clock A. M., a Puritan Wickless Blue Flame Oil Stove. Burns kerosene, and only cost about one cent an hour to operate. The finest baker on earth. No smoke, no heated room, absolutely safe and odorless, a stove the servants can use. We wish every lady to call a few minutes, whether they wish to buy or not.

Surgeon-General Wyman has received a cablegram from Dr. Havelburg, the representative of the service in Rio Janeiro, saying that there have been 106 cases since May 6 and 31 deaths. Dr. Havelburg does not specify the epidemic to which he refers, but Dr. Wyman says he has no doubt that it is plague.

A new cyclone story is vouched for by The Minneapolis Better Way. It is that a cow which was picketed on a rope was picked up by the cyclone and carried up the length of her rope—about sixty feet—where she remained until the storm had passed, when she quietly climbed down the rope and resumed her grazing.

A New York and St. Paul man recently had an hour's chat over the telephone which cost them $120, or $2 a minute. That was a case where talk wasn't cheap.

Mr. George McGowan, a Confederate soldier died at his home a few miles from Greenville Tuesday with paralysis. He was about eighty years of age and had suffered from a stroke of paralysis for some time. His remains will be buried this afternoon on Mr. John McLawhorn's place.

Mr. Ed Smith, son of the late John M. Smith died Tuesday with consumption. He leaves a wife and one child. The remains will be buried this afternoon at Red Banks church about five miles from Greenville.

Mrs. J. A. Sutton died at her home near Greenville Tuesday night with pneumonia. She had been an invalid for a long time. Sometime ago she took a treatment at the hospital in Baltimore and improved very much after her return home until she was taken with pneumonia and died Tuesday night. The remains will be buried this afternoon at Red Banks church below Greenville.

Colored Boy Drowned.

John Norcott, a colored boy about 16 years old, was drowned this afternoon while in swimming with another colored boy near the county bridge. Norcott was in water over his head when he gave out and called to the other boy to save him. The other boy tried to save him but in doing so came near losing his own life, as Norcott caught him by the head and both went under. The body of Norcott was gotten out after he had been under the water several minutes and Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse sent for, who worked on the boy for some time trying to resuscitate him but failed.

Passed us by.

S. B. Adams, Republican nominee for Governor, J. R. McCrary, Republican nominee for Elector at Large and W. A. Stencil came Tuesday evening through the country from Aiden where they spoke Tuesday. We have been informed that there was a very slim crowd to hear them, composed of negroes, and a few Democrats who went to hear them through curiosity. They did not speak in Greenville Tuesday night but left this morning for Parmele where they were to speak today.

Bet and Wager.

"What's the difference between a bet and a wager?" asked the man who thinks there are too many words in the English language.
"A bet," said the friend who always wears a dress coat after 6 o'clock, "is something you make with a man, which has to be paid, no matter who loses. A wager is something more refined. It's made with a woman and is not considered collectable unless she wins."—Washington Star.
