HEARD AND SEEN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., June 16. On Sunday 10th inst. the crew of the steamer W. F. Taylor killed a bear. The steamer was going up Neuse river near the mouth and found the bear crossing.

Mrs. Lucie Latham, of Pantego, passed through town enroute for her old home near Grifton, where she expects to spend the summer.

On the afternoon of the 14th the old "hospital" took fire and was almost entirely burned down, the building was old and the loss was perhaps $300, if insured do not know

Miss Julia Jordan of this place, and Mr. Alman Hart, of Tarboro, were married at St. Peters on the evening of the 14th at 10 o'clock. They left on the morning train for Niagara, New York and other cities.

The Methodist Sunday school had their annual picnic on the 13th and the Baptist on the 14th. Both went down the river and spent the day along the shore.

Hot and dry, the Main and Market streets sprinkler is very much in evidence on those streets. Those living elsewhere can get the benefit if they will go on those streets.

We are glad to learn of the improvement of Dr. W. J. Bullock, of Belhaven, who has been seriously ill for some days.

I have heard that 8,000 barrels of potatoes are shipped from Belhaven per day. The story may be fishy, but I expect not.

Dr. H. Snell, our excellent dentist has returned from a re-union of the graduating class which graduated from Roanoke College about 20 years since.

A boarder in a certain hotel in Eastern North Carolina went in an unoccupied room recently to take a bath as his own room was being cleaned up, but did not bathe, the bill presented for lodging was only fifty cents for being in the room perhaps 10 minutes. The bill has not yet been paid.

Rumor has it that there will be a steamer on from here to Ocracoke this summer and that ample provision has been made for guests.

General Manager King, of the Norfolk & Southern was at Belhaven a day or two since and ordered lumber to be moved. The mill men will rejoice if this be true, for there is perhaps more than four million feet in stock there.

Mrs. Capt. D. M. Roberts is visiting her parents at Belhaven. JIM NASTIC.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye disposed of two cases during the past week.

Louis Washington, jumping on and off the passenger train and loitering around the depot, guilty, fine one penny and cost, amounting to $2.96.

Henry C. Kinsaul, intoxication, guilty, fined one penny and cost amounting to $2.46.

Potatoes.

Below are quotations by wire on potatoes today.

Philadelphia: $1.50 $1.75 to $2.25.

Providence: $1.50 to $2. Boston: $1.75 $2.00 $2.25 to $2.50.

Pittsburg $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.25. Baltimore: $1.50 to $2.25.

MONDAY, JUNE 18, 1900.

The object of the Constitutional Amendment is to place the government of North Carolina in the hands of white men and keep it there forever. Is it not strange, then, that any white man can be opposed to it?

There is work for every white man to do between now and the August election. If you have neighbors who are not clear on the Constitutional Amendment go to them and explain it so they may understand that it is best for them, best for their home and best for their State that the amendment be adopted. And see that everybody in your neighborhood registers. An entire new registration will be made, and no man can vote unless he registers. It matters not how old he is, nor how many times he has registered and voted in the past, he must register this year to be able to vote. The books open June 28th and continue for twenty days not counting Sundays.

A peculiarly outrageous attempt to assess Government clerks for the benefit of the Republican campaign fund has just come to light in Washington. It was designed to compel the clerks and other employees of Congress to pay over to the fund one-half of the extra month's salaries voted to them just before adjournment. The voting of this money, which this year amounted to some $80,000, is a national scandal at the best. It is a gitt pure and simple without any excuse and is always fought by the more conscientious members but is always carried over their heads. Never before, however, has the party which voted it, turned around and demanded that half of it should be turned over for political uses. A few days ago the Republican employees of Congress received letters inviting them to call on Mr. Schrader, who was assistant secretary of the Congressional Committee in the last campaign. When the employees called they were asked for campaign contributions and any inquiries as to amounts, were answered with the suggestion that half of their extra month's pay would be acceptable, but that contributions would be voluntary and the giver could fix any other amount. The amounts given ran all the way from $5 to $10 up—in one instance to a whole month's salary. Many employees learning from others the purposes of the note sent them did not call, so that the total contributed was much smaller than expected. It has since turned out that before the enactment of the appropriation for the extra month's salary, the employees of the House were given to understand that they would be expected to turn some proportion of the amount over to the campaign committee for political purposes. This makes the scandal attaching to the appropriation all the more flagrant, and now that the assessment has become a public matter, the Republican managers who were concerned in it are busy with explanations.

Mr. E. Victor Cox of this county is making speeches in the western part of the State for the Constitutional Amendment. The Elkin correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says of his speech in Elkin:

Mr. E. V. Cox, of Pitt county, who is a straight-out Republican, spoke in the academy here last night for the amendment. He had a fairly good crowd and his speech was timely and well delivered. Coming as it did from a Republican and portraying the conditions of the eastern counties, as it exists under the domination of negro rule and government, it weakens the Republicans and strengthens the Democrats.

Concerning the Poll Tax.

The Federal office-holders who are going around making speeches in opposition to the proposed Constitutional Amendment are howling themselves hoarse over the poll tax provision. They make the false claim that if the amendment is ratified many thousand white men will be disfranchised on account of failure to pay their poll tax by March first of the year in which they propose to vote.

This argument is one of the most absurd ones yet advanced by scheming Radical politicians. They know full well that the poll tax provision will catch only the negroes who do all in their power to evade the payment of this poll tax, and that is why the Republicans are laying so much stress on this clause. They know that the poll tax provision will eliminate a few more thousand of their ebony-hued voters.

Sheriff Ellington, than whom there is no better sheriff in the State, says that of every 20 of the insolvent list, 19 are negroes. Mr. Raper, a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Wilson county, says that in his county 39 of every 40 insolvents are negroes.

The Constitutional Amendment was framed to get the negro out of politics and its object is to eliminate every one possible without interfering with the franchise of the white man. That is why the poll tax provision was put in and unless the negro pays his poll tax better than heretofore many thousand of his race will be disfranchised under that provision.—Smithfield Herald.

What the Word Boxer Means.

The Boxers are called in the Chinese language, as we learn from a contemporary, I Ho Twan Whei, interpreted, The Righteous Peace-Fist Society, which indicates that they were organized, primarily, to resist in pugilistic style what they conceived to be wrongs done in the name of right.—North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Negro Suffrage Proven a Failure.

The elimination of a negro as a political factor in North Carolina, which will be done by the vote cast in the election in August, means the correction of the suffrage granted the negro, which in his hands has proven a failure.

Among dispassionate persons, North or South, there is no difference of opinion on this question of negro suffrage, that the unqualified extension of elective franchise to the negro voter, upon the same terms exercised by whites, has proven a practical and dismal failure.

That the white people of the South have been the chief sufferers needs no argument, and now having been the sufferers, knowing the negro characteristics so well, the correction and elimination of the negro as a political factor, a force which has ruled the South, and thwarted any expression of its political opinions, unsettled its social development, hindered its commercial progress, this correction and elimination of the negro can best come through the agency of the white people of the South.

In North Carolina the constitutional amendment, to be voted upon in August, is the means provided.

Its constitutionality has been passed upon, and its provisions are found to be just to the negro, giving privileges to the negroes who are entitled to them, and barring from suffrage those negroes who are a menace to every interest, so long as they have the franchise in their possession.

It has been the practice of other sections to make light of the complaint coming from the thickly populated negro portions of Eastern Carolina, that the ignorant negro was a menace and a burden to the whites, while he had his franchise.

But now that the negro is crowding into other sections, there is no further talk of that kind, for it is discovered by experience how dangerous is this ignorant negro vote.

The people in the North also are feeling the negro burden, and with the thousands of negroes constantly moving into northern states, that section must soon feel that the negro burden is theirs, and they must settle it, as the South has and will do, by the best and safest method is, and in the interest of the white people, and yet without injury to the negro.—New Bern Journal.

Business Follows the Advertisement.

Through the assertion that "commerce follows the flag" is the subject of perpetual argument, it cannot be denied that business follows the advertisement. Business is hard headed, unsentimental and even unpatriotic; for it knows no flag and no country. It finds a market wherever there are consumers, and obtains customers wherever people read advertisements. Every merchant who advertises gets an immediate return for the money he invests in publicity.—Philadelphia Record.

Young Croker, of New York, paid $5,000 for an English bull dog, and may now pride himself on being the owner of the ugliest dog in America.—Wilmington Star.

When Miss Helen Gould travels they have to send detectives with her to keep the cranks and beggars away. She ought to buy young Croker's bull dog.—Wilmington Star.

North Carolina Post Offices Moving Upward.

Washington, June 14.—The Postmaster General has issued an order making Raleigh a first class post-office July 1 next. This is done because her postal receipts have increased and is substantial evidence of her commercial progress. Other offices advanced from the second to first class are Charlotte and Winston-Salem. At each of these offices the postmaster will receive $3,000 or over. This makes with Wilmington four first-class offices in the State. The advances or increases are: Asheville, $2,700 to $2,800; Concord, $1,700 to $1,800; Gastonia, $1,500 to $1,600; Henderson, $1,600 to $1,700; High Point, $1,800 to $1,900; Littleton, $1,000 to $1,100; Marion, $1,100 to $1,200; Newton, $1,000 to $1,100; Salisbury, $2,000 to $2,100; Shelby, $1,300 to $1,400; Washington, $1,700 to $1,800; Wilson, $1,800 to $1,900; Biltmore, $1,000 to $1,100; Durham, $2,400 to $2,500; Goldsboro, $2,000 to $2,300; Hendersonville, $1,400 to $1,500; Laurinburg, $1,100 to $1,300; Louisburg, $1,100 to $1,300; Monroe, $1,400 to $1,500; Raleigh, $2,800, to $3,000; Sanford, $1,000 to $1,100; Wadesboro, $1,100 to $1,200; Waynesville, $1,200 to $1,300; Winston-Salem, $2,900 to $3,000; Charlotte, $2,900 to $3,100; Fayetteville, $1,900 to $2,000; Greenville, $1,400 to $1,500; Hickory, $1,600 to $1,700; Lincolnton, $1,100 to $1,200; Mount Airy, $1,500 to $1,600; Rockingham, $1,200 to $1,400; Scotland Neck, $1,100 to $1,300; Warrenton, $1,000 to $1,100; Weldon, $1,100 to $1,400. Fayetteville is advanced from third to second class. Statesville is relegated from second to third class—the only office in the State to show a decrease.

A New York merchant, who had an income of $50,000, shot himself a few days ago because of despondency. He was probably depressed with the thought that he might never be as rich as Rockefeller.—Wilmington Star.

For printing criticisms upon the army, all the editorial staff of the Voce de Mexico were sent to prison for six months at the City of Mexico.

Shooting on the Road.

A shooting affair occurred near Piney Grove church, about seven miles from Greenville, Saturday evening, between Mr. Bill Elks and a negro named Clayton Barrow. From what we can learn both parties had been to Greenville and were returning home when Mr. Elks passed Barrow and another negro, who made some insulting remarks about him. Mr. Elks got out of his buggy and went back to see what the negro meant by the insulting language. The negro jumped out of the wagon and fired his pistol twice at Mr. Elks who in turn drew his pistol and fired five times at Barrow. Neither party received a wound. One of the bullets came so close to the negro as to tear his pants leg but did not hit his leg.

The negro was arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace J. H. Manning for trial. He was bound over to court and brought to Greenville Saturday evening and placed in jail.
