ANOTHER JAIL DELIVERY.

Two White Prisoners Escape.

Monday night about half past 10 o'clock two prisoners, J. W. A. Cahoon and J. W. Harrington, confined in the county jail, broke out and made their escape. Both are white.

The prisoners escaped by unlocking the cell in which they were confined and also the corridor door with wooden keys they had made, and walked out. Elias McLawhorn heard the prisoners going out and called to some one on the street. Mr. W. C. Hines' three blood hounds were secured and an effort made to re-capture the prisoners but they did not run the trail, the dogs being too young, and not sufficiently trained.

In the cell were found several unfinished wooden keys, which they doubtless had been at work on for some time, also a letter addressed to the Sheriff telling him that as Cahoon's father had failed to get his bond, he would have to leave in the manner he did.

Cahoon is the party who forged the names of school committeemen to vouchers over near Bethel and was awaiting trial at September court. Harrington was confined in jail on a peace warrant.

Sheriff Mooring says he had used unusual care in seeing that Cahoon was locked in his cell every night. Of late, he says, the strongest lock had been put on Cahoon's cell and he was kept in his cell both day and night.

CONDITION IN PITT.

What Our Representatives Say.

Sunday's Raleigh News and Observer had brief statements from nearly all the Democratic members of the General Assembly at the recent special session, relative to the political conditions in their respective counties and the prospects of carrying the Amendment.

Below will be found what the Pitt county members said:

Senator F. G. James: "We have a good people and we generally do the right thing in Pitt."

Representative T. H. Barnhill: "The people are very much interested in the campaign out my way, and the more light they get on it the surer they are to vote right. Our county will go Democratic by 350 majority."

Representative W. J. Nichols: "When the Amendment was first submitted there was some division among the white people of our county, but when they learned that no native white man, however poor or illiterate, was to be disfranchised they looked upon the Amendment with more favor."

Nicely Fixed.

Mr. R. T. Evans has displayed commendable enterprise in establishing his photograph gallery on Dickinson avenue. He has put up a convenient building for his business and recently moved into it. The building is two stories. The lower floor has two rooms, one a reception room and the other a finishing room. From the hall between these there is a winding stairway to the second story, where he has a large operating room, splendidly lighted and well equipped. He is nicely fixed for his work.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Work of Legislature—Outline and Complete List of all the Measures Enacted at Extra Session Last Week.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1900.

The white man who is not now satisfied and ready to vote for the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment, is either opposed to white rule, or he hopes to use the negro vote in the future for his selfish ends and personal benefit, or else he is so densely ignorant as to be utterly devoid of and beyond the reach of all reason, and without the pale of patriotism and love of country. I measure these words as I write them, after carefully considering the language and purpose and effect of the Amendment as it stands today, after the changes made by the Legislature last week.

A PATRIOTIC GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Of the present Legislature only about a score of the Representatives are anti-Democrats, and less than a dozen Senators are Republicans or Populists. Most of the latter did not appear in their seats at the extra session just closed; but of the Democrats all were promptly on hand, with only about a dozen exceptions, and of these I have learned that all had best of excuses to explain their absence. Of the 140 Democrats (in round numbers) only two failed to heartily endorse the Amendment and to participate cheerfully in the legislation respecting it and the new Election Law, these two being McNeill, of Brunswick, and Reinhardt, of Lincoln, both members of the House.

That these men should have come to Raleigh, not only without money and without price, but at the expense of valuable time and pecuniary loss, at one of the busiest seasons of the year and applied themselves so assiduously and honestly to the work in hand, not only furnishes uncontradictory proof of their unselfish patriotism and love of their State, but gives to the world the best and most convincing evidence of the righteousness and desirability of the Amendment itself. If it wasn't right and honest and best for the whole people of the State, of every class and condition, these men would not have been here. The evidence is complete and incontrovertible and the vindication of the Amendment overwhelming!

AS TO ANOTHER EXTRA SESSION.

After a three days' work the Legislature "adjourned to meet again July 24th 1900."

It does not necessarily follow, however, that an other extra session will be held, unless it becomes necessary or highly advisable on account of subsequent developments. The Republican Supreme Court, which appears to have taken so much delight in overturning the work of the former session of the General Assembly, remained in session here until the Legislature got ready to adjourn (the longest term it ever held) when the court also journeyed—on the very same day.

The check upon partisan judicial interference which was put by a new provision of the amended Election Law may save the legislators from the necessity of again coming to Raleigh next month.

LIST OF ALL MEASURES PASSED.

The following list includes all the measures (bills, resolutions, etc.,) which succeeded in passing both branches of the General Assembly:

The amended Election Law.

The amended Constitutional Amendment.

Act to pay ex-Railroad Commissioner Beddingfield (turned out of office by Supreme Court) salary due for time he served.

Act amending Western Criminal Court District, taking McDowell, Buncombe and Madison counties therefrom, also eliminating Yancey after January 1, 1901, and adding Surry, Haywood, and Burke counties.

Act empowering more definitely the Railroad Commissioners to assess railroad property for taxation purposes.

Act providing pay for services of defunct shell-fish commissioners (the old Democratic board ousted by Supreme Court.)

Act empowering presiding judge of Superior court to issue (or not) liquor licenses in Northampton county, and taking from county commissioners this prerogative.

Incorporation of Clarence Barker Memorial Hospital (a charity for disabled poor people) of Biltmore.

Resolution of enquiry anent Theophilus White's remuneration as shell-fish commissioner, etc.

Also the following bills and resolutions, viz:

To print and distribute (by Commissioner of Labor) 30,000 copies newly amended Election Law, and 200,000 copies of the Amendment.

To repeal chapter 125 private laws of 1895.

To repeal chapter 325 public laws of 1899.

To furnish certain Supreme Court Reports to State University law school.

To submit question of Dispensary or No-Dispensary to the voters of Swain at the coming November election.

To establish stock law in certain portions of Jackson, Bailey and Ferrell townships in Nash county.

To abolish the office of County Treasurer of Henderson county.

To regulate the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors in Macon county.

To establish graded schools in Lexington, N. C.

To pay expenses of funeral of Senator Jackson, etc.

Directing printing report of special investigating committee relative to State Prison Agriculture Department.

To direct the commissioners of Edgecombe county draw a jury list.

To pay clerks and other employees mileage for their attendance upon the present sitting of the General Assembly.

For the relief of certain teachers and the Treasurer of Craven county.

To print Senate and House Journals and Laws.

To amend chapter 18 of the Public Laws of 1899 relating to the Oyster Industry.

To enable the Commissioners of Onslow county to use surplus special tax fund for county purposes. The election of A. C. Miller a director of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Morganton.

TERRIBLE ARRAIGNMENT OF "FUSION" OFFICIALS.

During the session of the Legislature the committee appointed at the last session (composed of Senator Brown of Columbus, and Representatives Gattis, of Orange, and Patterson, of Robeson) to investigate the affairs of the State Prison and the Department of Agriculture, made their report—which covers two years of "fusion" misrule, extravagance, incompetence and corruption. The report is one of the most caustic and terrible arraignments of the fusion officials in charge imaginable—its assertion all being warranted and proved by the facts adduced during the investigation.

LLEWXAM.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18 1900.

If we haven't a sufficient number of troops in the Philippines to keep the Filipinos in subjection, how are we going to be able to send a lot of them to China to help the Europeans whip the Chinese "boxers" into subjection? That is the problem which now confronts Mr. McKinley and his Cabinet. And after this government helps the European government knock out the boxers and set up a new Chinese government, what will come next? That is the problem which may, in the very near future, confront the American people. Are we ready to assume any new responsibilities for the government of more Asiatics? Have we not already more of that sort of thing than is desirable?

The administration was greatly chagrined by the indifference of the people of Washington towards Gen. E. S. Otis, and took especial pains to add attractions to the reception given him by the people of Rochester, N. Y., his home city. Secretary Long sent the full Marine Band, at public expense, and Secretary Root, virtually ordered Gen. Joe Wheeler, now an unassigned Brigadier General in the regular army, to go to Rochester to help add enthusiasm to the occasion. Mr. McKinley has been made to realize, by the indifference of the public toward Gen. Otis, how unpopular his Philippine policy is with the people, and with the realization has come alarm. He knows that the people know that the responsibility for putting Otis in command in the Philippines, and keeping him in command after his unfitness for the position had been shown up, belongs to Wm. McKinley, and he fears that the people will be as indifferent towards him on election day as they have shown themselves to be towards Otis now. The spectre of doubt has become Mr. McKinley's constant companion.

Senor Nicholas Rivero, editor of one of the leading Havana papers, who has been in Washington a few days, thinks there has been wrong-doing in other branches of the Cuban Government as well as in the Post Office branch. He gave the Senate Committee a pointer that should not be overlooked, when he said: "I wish we could have a thorough investigation of the expenditures of money on sanitary and engineering works. Such an investigation might reveal some interesting facts. The reports of fraud in connection with these works are very persistent in Havana, and investigation might show that a great deal of Cuban money has been improperly expended." The democratic Congressional Campaign Committee is sending out a list of trust-controlled goods, which have been as a result raised in price; also a table showing that the farmers of the country are paying one-third more for everything they consume than they were paying when the republican administration assumed power, while they have lost since March 4, 1897, by the decline of prices in farm products, the enormous sum of $2,000,000,000.

He Did Not Speak Here.

Around the appointment being made for Adams to speak at Parmele, there is an interesting story. The making of the appointment for Adams in this part of the State was left to Claude Bernard. Adams preferred the appointment of that day should be Greenville instead Parmele, but Bernard objected, and represented to Adams it would be unsafe for him to speak in Greenville. Our informant states Bernard is in such bad repute in Greenville, his old home, and has so little influence in the vicinity he was ashamed to parade his unpopularity before Adams, and made the above statement to keep Adams from speaking in Greenville. We believe since Adams has spoken in Greenville and was given a respectful hearing, regardless of the representation of McKinley's district attorney.—Washington Messenger.

Advertising Brings Customers.

The people are shy of dealing at a mercantile establishment of which they know nothing and the proprietor of which appears to be disinclined to give them desired information. They prefer to deal with a merchant who by daily advertising makes himself, his store and its contents known to everybody. Advertising always brings customers to the merchant who wants them.—Philadelphia Record.

Carpenters commenced work this morning repairing the county bridge. W. G. Leggett is superintending the work.

I have just received a new lot of Hyman's sweet and sour pickles in all size bottles and also in kegs. Try them. J. S. TUNSTALL.

The Board of County Commissioners of Wichita county, Kan., has just abolished the poor-house, there being no more paupers in the county. One old soldier is the only dependent person in the county, and he is being cared for by popular subscription; hence the county may be said to be pauperless. Ten years ago there were over five hundred paupers in Wichita county, but the crops have been so large since that everybody has made plenty of money. No tramps are allowed to remain idle in the county. They must work or leave.

AN Economical Buyer of Shoes is the woman who recognizes the fact that it is true economy to purchase nothing but the highest grade shoes for her own wear, as well as for the children. We will fit mamma and the misses, as well as the boys and girls, with elegant, durable and comfortable shoes at prices that no one can touch, when quality is considered.

Correct.

North Carolina has too many worthless dogs, and also a superabundance of legislators without the backbone to put a tax on the brutes.—Mt. Olive Advertiser.

Potatoes.

Below are quotations by wire on potatoes today.
 Baltimore: $1.75 to $2.
 Pittsburg $1.75, $2, $2.25.
 New York: Gluted. $1.50, $1.75 to $2.
 Newark, N. J.: $1.75 to $2.
 Philadelphia: $1.50 $1.75, $2 to $2.25.
 Boston: $1.75 to $2.25.
 Providence: $1.75 to $2.25.

Hard to Find.

A gruff old bachelor was heard to remark the other day: "Once I was young and I am old, and I've never seen a girl unfaithful to her mother that ever came to be worth a one-eyed button to her husband. It isn't a guess. It isn't exactly in the Bible, but it is written large and awful enough in the miserable life of a misfit home. I'm talking for the boy this time. If one of you boys ever come across a girl with her face full of roses who says as you come to the door, 'I can't go for thirty minutes, for the dishes are not yet washed,' you wait for that girl. You sit right down on the door step and wait for her, 'cause some other fellow may come along and carry her off, and right there you have lost an angel. Wait for her and stick to her like a burr to a mule's tail."

In Legal Terms.

"If I were to give you an orange," said Judge Foote of Topeka, "I would simply say, I give you the orange," "but should the transaction be entrusted to a lawyer to put in writing he would adopt this form: 'I hereby give, grant and convey to you all my interest, right, title and advantage of and in said orange, together with its rind, skin, juice, pulp and pits; and all rights and advantage therein, with full power to bite, suck, or otherwise eat the same, or give away with or without the rind, skin, juice, pulp or pits, anything hereinbefore or in any other deed or deeds, instruments of any nature or kind whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.'"—Kansas City Journal.

The Herald says a Durham man who is supposed to be a millionaire, listed his tax and gave in his cash on a person as 33 cents.

An Honest Confession.

A leading Republican was talking privately to us the other day and said as for himself he wished that every negro in the State was excluded from the polls; that they ought not to vote now, neither should the right ever have been given them. But said he, "if we pass this new law the Republican party will be dead in North Carolina for twenty years, and we men who are the leaders can't afford that." Not a question of what is best for the State, but a low, selfish desire to hold office and that at the expense of the whole Commonwealth.—Elkin Times.

A Smile in Each.

Even the man who is his own best friend sometimes gets left. A tree is always rooted to the spot, and yet it leaves every spring. It's the man with an elastic conscience who stretches the truth. No, Maude, dear, the Japanese do not play golf in their tea gardens. The reason poets wear long hair is probably because there is no short cut to fame. The prisoner at the bar may plead guilty to a charge, but when it comes to paying a fine he can't have that charged. Silence may be golden, but golden hair is usually loud. It's funny that our oldest photos make us look youngest. It's hard for a man who discovers triplets at home to believe his census.

Granville county Democrats have nominated ex-Judge A. W. Graham and W. H. P. Jenkins for the House.
