CHERRY FOLEY

Pretty Afternoon Marriage

Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock in the Methodist church was witnessed a beautiful marriage, Mr. Monchia Cherry and Miss Annie Foley being made man and wife by Rev. N. M. Watson.

The chancel and approaches were tastily decorated with palms and other plants, and the darkened windows and lighted lamps filled the church with a sombre light that lent beauty to the scene.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry presided at the organ and played the wedding march.

The ushers were Dr. Charles Laughinghouse, Messrs. R. H. Man, R. M. Moye and J. L. Horne.

The bride entered with her sister, Miss Julia Foley, who was maid of honor, and the groom with Mr. L. E. Griffin as best man.

After the impressive ceremony they received the congratulations of many friends in the vestibule of the church and then drove to the depot and left on the evening train for Kinston enroute to Morehead City.

THE REFLECTOR joins in extending best wishes to the happy couple.

HEARD AND SEEN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., June 25 1900
The Christian Sunday school had their annual picnic on the 22nd.

The fourteen negroes that were drowned in Pungo river on the 17th were not drowned at all. It was some one else's boat that was found capsized.

Mr. S. W. Wilkinson, of Pante-go, made 100 barrels of prime potatoes per acre. No fish in this.

Mrs. Bettie Mahoney has returned after a protracted visit to friends.

Mr. Smith Paul was married at Grimesland last week to Miss Edwards.

A merry-go-round man shot at a negro last week, and did not hit him but hit the tax payers of the county, as the parties are bound over for appearance at court.

Bishop Watson will be at St. Peter's on the 29th at the ordination of Mr. Nat Harding's son, to Elder's orders. Should the young man equal the father his superiors will be few and far between.

JIM NASTIC.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1900.

On China.

Each of the 18 provinces of the Celestial Empire is ruled by a Governor General who is responsible to the Emperor for the entire administration, political, judicial, military and fiscal.

Each providence is sub-divided into departments ruled by prefects and each department into districts, each with a district ruler.

China proper has an area of 1,336,841 square miles with a population, according to a recent estimate, of 386,000,000.

The total area of China and its dependencies amounts to 4,218,401 square miles, and the total population to no less than 402,680,000.

According to the return of the Imperial customs authorities the number of foreigners resident in the open ports of China was 13,421 at the end of the year 1898.

About one half of the total number of foreigners resided at Shanghai. The French municipality at that town entered on the extension of their concession on March 1st, 1899.

Three religions are acknowledged by the Chinese as indigenous and adopted, viz: Confucianism, Buddhism and Taoism.

Large numbers of the Chinese in Middle and Southern China profess and practice all three religions. The bulk of the people, however are Buddhists. There are probably about 30,000,000 Mahometans, chiefly in the northeast and south west.

Roman Catholicism has long had a footing in China, and is estimated to have about 1,000,000 adherents, with 25 bishoprics; besides those of Hanchuria, Tibet, Mongolia and Corea. The number of Protestant adherents is estimated at 60,000.

Most of the aboriginal hill tribes are still nature worshippers, and ethnically are distinct from prevailing Mongoloid population.

Ten Chinese newspapers are published in Shanghai, and the success they have achieved has led to the establishment of others at some of the other treaty ports.

Six Women Bore Her Coffin

Six women acting as pall-bearers excited the curiosity of many persons in East Baltimore this morning. The deceased was Mrs. Louisa Ordakowska, aged 26 years, who had resided at No. 1617 Bank street.

She was a member of a society connected with the Holy Rosary church, and her associates, according to the rules of her organization carried her body.

The pall-bearers were dressed in black, and wore over their shoulders white scarfs, emblematic of the society to which they belonged.—Baltimore Dispatch, 23rd.

A Woman's True Work.

"The work of a woman in the world is not to make money, but to make a home; her true business in life is that of wife and mother," writes "An American Mother," on "Is a College Education the Best for Our Girls?" in the July Ladies' Home Journal. "That is true with regard to nine out of ten of these pretty girls who are tipping about now in caps and gowns, and cheerishing the fondest hopes that they may some day be learned Fellows and Deans. They will marry perhaps, or remain single, helpful sisters or aunts. They will have houses to manage, marketing to do, stupid cooks to guide, babies to rear, sick children and men to nurse. Not once in a woman's life perhaps will she be called upon to quote from an Assyrian-Babylonian epic, or to dissect a cat. But three times every day a meal must be cooked under supervision. At any minute, be she cook or countess, she may be called upon to make a poultice for a sick child, to change the sheets under him, to know why the bread is sodden and the meat uneatable, to give medicine intelligently to the baby in her arms. The college be it remembered, takes the girl for four years out of family life in which this kind of training would be given her. Its controllers, in their anxiety to develop her brain as fully as that of a man, forget the woman's life which is inexorable placed before her and do not fit her for its inevitable work."

Knocked Out and Died

Weldon, N. C., June 26.—Messrs. J. W. Sansdury and Robert Council engaged in a friendly boxing contest at Roanoke Rapids last night, which resulted in the death of Sansdury. The men were the best of friends. Council got in a good lick, which took Sansdury in the pit of the stomach and knocked him out. He died in thirty minutes after the blow was given. Before death he stated that Council was in no way to blame; that it was only a meeting for fun. Council is terribly distressed and will have a hearing before the coroner's inquest. The coroner has been sent for, but may not arrive in time to report the result of the inquest today.

Comment is made upon the quietude of the nerves up to this time—only five or six weeks before an election more important to them than any ever held; an election involving their right to vote in future. Of course it is well understood that they have their orders to keep in the background; to abstain from noise and offensiveness; but there are those who think their conduct ominous—that it means a thorough secret organization, for certainly they are not insensible to the importance of the pending election. This much may be said with confidence; that it will not do for the friends of the amendment to risk anything on the chance of negro indifference. Organized or not; holding meetings or not; attending public speakings or not, they can be depended upon to be at the polls on election day, 120,000 of them at that. Let the Democrats remember that the Republicans already have this much the start of them.—Charlotte Observer.

It is said that Wm. Jennings Bryan receives over 200 letters a day. No doubt a large number of these contain a large amount of advice free gratis and for nothing, which he follows—of course.—Wilmington Star.

Will Do It at Their Peril

There is no room to doubt that the Radical bosses will, if they can, precipitate trouble between now and the August election. In their purpose to make race trouble they have two hopes: 1. That it will help them to carry the Legislature; 2. That it will enable the Radicals in the North to again wave the bloody shirt.

From time to time we have printed the incendiary utterances of Fusion orators; the attacks and assaults by vicious negroes who listened to and followed bad advice; and the general bullying tone of the negro, mulatto and white press and speakers. Recently two conspicuous leaders, Lt. Governor Reynolds and Senator Franks, are reported to have made threats that they will secure United States deputy marshals at the polls to arrest any registrars who refuse to register negro voters who cannot legally establish their right to vote.

The time was when Federal marshals had a right at the polls in a Congressional election, but in 1894 the law authorizing their presence was repealed, and there is no law that authorizes their presence at the polls. If they go there at all they go as private citizens. If they attempt to exercise any authority they do so at their peril.

The White Supremacy party proposes to have a fair election and to give every lawful voter his right to vote, but the 15,000 negro boys, dead negroes, imported negroes, and negro convicts will not be permitted to vote this year.

The Fusion bosses may put this in their pipe and smoke it!—Raleigh News and Observer.

A Snake and Catfish Story.

Several days ago, while strolling along the bank of the creek on his place near the city, Mr. J. R. Paul came upon a snake and catfish fighting. The snake had gone into a hole and closed in on the catfish. At first Mr. Paul could see nothing of the snake's head but could only see him tugging away at something. Finally, however, the snake gave a jerk and came out, drawing with him a catfish at least ten inches in length. Once out of the enclosure the fish could fight with all his might. He was doing his best when Mr. Paul interfered, killed the snake and allowed the fish to escape. However Mr. Paul is of the opinion that the fish would have freed himself without aid if left alone long enough.—Charlotte Observer.

No poor white man, no unlettered white man in all North Carolina will be touched or in any way affected by the franchise amendment. It is a lie out of the whole cloth to say otherwise. Pay your poll tax and your right of suffrage will never be interfered with in the least degree. The criminal class will be excluded from the ballot as they ought to be.

The amendment is all right. It will in the end prove a great blessing to North Carolina. It will advance civilization, it will increase education, it will attract capital, it will set in motion many enterprises that will be of much service to the poorer classes, it will establish on firm foundations the reign of law and honest and good government. So do not be afraid of the amendment. It is in fact the honest, industrious poor man's friend. With white supremacy, which means white man's government, there will be just and economical rule and a better feeling between the races.—Wilmington Messenger.

Cost of Dispatches.

London newspapers are "pointing with pride" to the enormous expense they were put to in the matter of war telegrams in South Africa. For example the Morning Post paid $1,750 for one of Mr. Winston Churchill's telegrams not long since, and its friends chuckled accordingly. If the esteemed Post regards this as a large bill for one telegram, it would doubtless be staggered by the amounts paid by American newspapers for dispatches from the front during the war with Spain. We have in mind one dispatch that cost the New York Herald $7,000, and there were several others received by other journals that were not much cheaper.—New York Commercial.

Websters Weekly gives the following encouraging evidence of the prosperity of its former friends: "An encouraging sign of substantial progress in the quality of agricultural machinery the farmers are buying. They are using drills, sulkey plows, disc harrows, mowers, binders, etc., in their work—i. e., the wide awake ones are—and are thus saving money. It has been no uncommon sight the past week or two to see a farmer driving out of town seated on a reaper and binder."

Li Hung Chang says the way to settle the Chinese racket is to cut off the heads of the Boxer leaders. But they seem to have some difficulty in persuading these leaders to come in to have their heads chopped off. They are curious fellows.—Wilmington Star.

Notice.

To the citizens of Greenville:

You are hereby notified that the law in regard to stock running at large in the corporate limits of the town of Greenville will be rigidly enforced without regard to any excuses or circumstances.

Respectfully,
 J. G. MOYE, Mayor.

Arrested for Robbery

Mr. Jos. McLawhorn, Constable for Contentnea township, brought Sam Cobb, a negro, from Ayden this morning and put him in jail for breaking into three houses Tuesday and stealing some clothing and other things. Cobb, in company with another negro, robbed the houses, but the other negro escaped. Cobb was caught the night after the robbery and given a hearing before a Magistrate and bound over to court and in default of a thousand dollar bond was brought here this morning and put in jail.

Telephone Change.

Mr. F. C. Toepelman, General Superintendent of the Carolina & Virginia Telephone Company, and Mr. J. H. Bridgers, attorney, both of Henderson, came here Wednesday afternoon to complete the transfer of the Greenville Telephone Exchange to the Carolina & Virginia company. The new company takes charge of the exchange here on the first of July. Mr. W. S. Atkins will continue as Manager of the exchange until other engagements he has call for all his time. Mr. Toepelman tells us the new company will soon put in a much larger switch board and add other improvements to the exchange.

Smiled on Us

You could not keep him out of a printing office even if the "devil" himself armed with an antiquated paste brush should stand guard at the threshold. And having many years to his credit as a knight of the "tripod" in which he disclosed the beauties as well as digged into the hardships of editorial life, it is only the natural thing that he should drop in to "bask in the sunshine of the sanctum" whenever he comes around. So there was genuine pleasure when the big-bodied, bigger hearted (and we like to have said handsome) Henry Blount brought his smiling presence into THE REFLECTOR office this morning and gave us just a foretaste of the bottle of "chow chow" he will fling open in the opera house tonight. He is all the time making somebody happy.

To The Public.

We would call your attention to the fact that it is against the ordinances of the town of Greenville for any person to in any way interfere with the fireman or the fire apparatus when they are at a fire, unless you are directed to do so by the Chief of the Fire Department or the Foreman of one of the companies. After fires there are often complaints about persons having been in the way or interfered with the firemen in their duties, and this notice is to guard you against the repetition of such cause of complaint. The fireman have duties that they are under obligations to perform, and any interference with them or their apparatus hinders the performance of such duties.

J. G. MOYE, Mayor.
 A. J. GRIFFIN,
 Chief Fire Department.
