WAREHOUSES CONSOLIDATE

GREENVILLE, N. C., July 2, 1900.
TO THE PUBLIC:

Owing to the very short crop of tobacco this year, and the necessarily heavy expense incurred in running the Warehouse business, in justice to ourselves and our patrons we have consolidated the Farmers and Planters warehouses under one management. One force will do the work of the two houses, thus saving a big expense and placing us, as you will readily see, in a better position to protect the interests of our customers in the sale of their tobacco.

We shall have no drummers employed to annoy you for your tobacco, but will depend upon our own individual efforts on our floors to satisfy you.

We have associated with us in business Mr. A. A. Forbes (Uncle Pig) and with his help and our united efforts we know we can protect your interests better than any firm in Eastern North Carolina.

The low price of tobacco for the last few years has been discouraging to both farmer and warehousemen, and with a view to bettering our own condition and the condition of our patrons we have decided on this course after much mature deliberation. We know it will be to our mutual interests.

Mr. Joyner will have the personal supervision of the Farmers Warehouse, as formerly, and Mr. Ola Forbes will have the personal supervision of the Planters Warehouse, but both of us will look after the interest of customers selling on either floor. Mr. A. A. Forbes (Uncle Pig) will look after both and be a happy go between.

We are glad to say that indications for good prices for the growing crop have not been better in years.

We were the first to engage in the tobacco business in Greenville and with slight exception, until the market was by our own individual efforts placed on a secure basis, we could not get anybody to invest a dollar by way of co-operating to build up the market without gilt edge security. By giving such security we managed to get a prize house built large enough for the accommodation of the American Tobacco Co

But enough of this. We feel that we are entitled to a liberal share of your trade, and we are going to have it if good prices and honest treatment will get it.

Remember, we positively have no drummers to travel the country for us, but shall depend upon you to bring us your tobacco strictly on our merits as warehousemen, and we will do the rest.

Your friends,
O. L. JOYNER,
OLA FORBES,
A. A. FORBES.

Fire in the Country.

We have been informed that the old Marshall house on the old Plank road, about six miles from Greenville and known as "Baltimore" was burned one day this week. Mrs. Dick House was living there at the time but we did not hear whether she saved her household furniture, or how the fire originated.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess! None genuine without the name on the button.

FRIDAY, JULY, 6 1900.

Union county will have no Populist ticket this year. The Populist have united with the Democrats and some of their leaders are making speeches for the amendment.

An Oklahoma woman took advantage of her husband to get a divorce while he was in Cuba hunting up his 28th man, after having killed 27. She had come to the conclusion that it wasn't safe to live with that kind of a fellow.—Wilmington Star.

Six Car Loads of Postal Cards.

Maj. E. H. Shook, superintendent of the government postal card factory at Piedmont, last Saturday made the largest shipment of postal cards ever made in one day in this country. He shipped six cars containing 24,000,000 cards, worth $240,000. One sixth of that amount went to Philadelphia. The demand for postal cards is steadily increasing and additional help has to be hired from time to time to keep up the work. All postal cards used in the United States and its provinces are made at Piedmont from wood.—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegram.

War Cloud Grows Darker.

Shanghai, July 4.—The Chinese authorities have ordered foreign gun boats not to approach the forts or the arsenals on the bank of the Yang Tse. If the orders are ignored the Chinese authorities disclaim all responsibility for results.

London, July 4.—A newsagency here has received a dispatch from Shanghai stating that the city is safe, although an outbreak has been feared for some time. The protecting force is being increased by the daily arrival of troops.

Shanghai, July 4.—News of the German minister's death has caused the greatest excitement among the allied troops and in the fleet at Taku. The foreigners have sworn to exact the penalty for the outrage to the fullest extent.

London, July 5.—The Central News learns that the wires between Chesoo and Shanghai are practically down. Chinese officials refuse to handle news messages and only government dispatches go over the wires. News dispatches are brought from Taku to Chefoo by steamer. A vessel is expected to reach Shanghai from tomorrow night with Taku news up to July 2nd.

London, July 4.—According to a report from Chefoo the body of the German minister, Baron Von Ketteler, was saved after his murder by Chinese. The remains were rescued by German sailors after a desperate effort.—Raleigh Post.

Their Plan.

It is too plain that the plan of the leaders is to land the Populist voter into the Republican camp. The Populist leaders for the sake of the offices and the little money they get therefrom have sold themselves to the Republican leaders, and they are working like beavers to get the honest Populist voter to give his vote and his influence to those men who seek to put this State in the hands of 120,000 negroes and their white allies. Just how any white Populist who has young sons and daughters coming up to manhood and womanhood can so forget himself as to vote for any such things is beyond all comprehension: It is a pity that the white men of Davidson can't see that they have a common interest.

The negroes are standing shoulder to shoulder and will all vote one way. It is manly and shows courage and manhood for a white man to step out from among them and declare he is for white supremacy. Many have done this and it is hoped that others will do likewise. It is only a question of who shall rule. It is not injustice to the negro. It is best for him, and it is best for all. Let all white Republicans and all white Populists remember that they sacrifice none of their principles by voting for the amendment.—Lexington Dispatch.

Horror of Horrors.

London, July 4.—Advices from China are most alarming. The situation has reached a crisis that is appalling and today's dispatches are filled with horrible details of the slaughter of foreigners. A dispatch from Shanghai via Hong Kong says that not a foreigner is left alive in the city of Peking, according to Chinese reports. These declare that the ammunition of the foreign marines guarding the foreigners failed, and General Tussig's troop's rushed into the British legation buildings, in which all the foreigners and the legation forces had sought refuge. The foreign guards fought to the end, and fell battling desperately to save those entrusted to their care. Those in the legation, already worn out with long fatigue and hunger, could afford but little resistance. Men, women and children, the Chinese reports say, were put to the sword.

While these reports are indefinite in source, there is good reason from what is known of the situation in Peking seven days ago to believe them.

Mr. G. E. Wagoner, a highly respected citizen of Hanes post-office, this county, while on the road to Winston-Salem one day last week met a crowd of negroes in the northern part of the county in the road coming this way. Mr. Wagoner says they halted him, surrounded his wagon, cursed and abused him for everything they could think of. They called him "a poor white devil" and all kinds of vile names. The negroes were armed with pistols and razors and Mr. Wagoner was afraid to open his mouth and had to submit to their abuse.

Unless the amendment is passed the white people of the State may expect to be insulted and literally run over by the colored people who will feel their importance if they down the whites in this fight.—Lexington Dispatch.

A German professor has discovered that the yawn is not only a comforter but a promoter of health two very good reasons why people should yawn and that the yawn producing orator is not such a bad fellow after all.—Wilmington Star.

Vice Versa.

The Chinese do everything backward. They exactly reverse the usual order of civilization.

Note first that the Chinese compass points to the South instead of the North.

The men wear skirts and the women trousers.

The men wear their hair long and the women wear it short.

The men carry on dressmaking and the women carry burdens.

The spoken language of China is not written, and the written language is not spoken.

Books are read backward, and what we call footnotes are inserted at the top of the page.

The Chinese surname comes first instead of last.

The Chinese shake their own hand instead of the hands of these they greet.

The Chinese dress in white at funerals and in mourning at weddings, while old women always serve as bridesmaids.

The Chinese launch their vessels sideways, and mount their horses from the offside.

The Chinese begin dinner with dessert and end with soup and fish.—Union Signal.

Some Backwood's Philosophy.

July brings de peach en de watermelon; whar'fo', let de sunshine en de worl' blaze!

No matter fer de hot weather in dis worl' ef we kin des git ice enough to cool us in de next.

A han'full er happiness beats a bushel er trouble, but some folks is powerful fond er big measures.

W'en de rain make deriver rise, sometimes de fattest fish in it git stranded whar you kin ketch 'em easy.

Dey's lots er happiness in de worl' ef folks knowed whar to find it. De trouble is, dey mos' inginrully looks too high.

Dey's lots er trouble in dis worl', but fer all dat it'z ez bright ez a torchlight percession w'en de winnin' canderdate is gwine in.

De rain falls on de jest en urjest—de only trouble is, de jest gits drowned ez frequent ez what the unjest does. En dat's whar we falls ter doubtin'.—Lexington Dispatch.

Record of Republican Steals.

Up to this date the record of Republican steals in Cuba—admitted by the government—is as follows:

Surcharged stamps ordered discharged, but sold by Neely, $400,000.

Estimated embezzlement of C. F. W. Neely, aided by Reeves $100,000.

Waste, as shown by Bristows reductions to date, $42,000.

Rathbone's "per diem," in addition to salary of $6,500, $1,700.

Director's house rent paid out of Cuban revenues, $3,000.

Furnishings of house, unwarranted, $2,500.

Miscellaneous expenditures, not legitimate, $24,772.43.

Total known thefts, $573,972.43.—New York Verdict.

Six States hold elections before that of November. These are North Carolina, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Maine and Vermont, and none of them will afford any indication of the drift of national politics. The four first named will go Democratic, as usual, and the two last named will go Republican, as usual, and a variation in majorities either way will signify nothing. Those who have been thinking that State elections prior to the national election might afford some pointer as to the latter will be disappointed.—Charlotte Observer.

Hip Broken.

Mr. Marshall Manning, who lives on Mr. J. H. Cobb's place, at Ballard's Cross Roads, had his hip broken in two places and came near losing his life by a falling limb of a tree Wednesday. He is engineer on a tram road Mr. Cobb has had built to get some logs out of the woods near his place, and Wednesday he was feeling very bad and lay down under a tree to rest and cool. While Mr. Manning was lying under the tree one of the limbs broke off and fell on him, breaking his hip in two places. He was in such a position that the limb would have struck him on the head had he not seen it falling and moved in time to avoid it.

"Why don't you go to work?" asked the man who had been held up. "You surely look strong enough." "I am not as strong as I look," replied the beggar. "Why, I can't even raise ten cents."

Express Office Down Town.

The Southern Express Company have acceded to the continued requests of the people of Greenville to establish an express office down town convenient to the business houses. Mr. J. J. Crosswell, the very clever Route Agent of the company over this division, spent Thursday night in Greenville looking into the matter, and while here arranged with D. J. Whichard to take charge of the down town office. After the change, which is expected to be made sometime during this month, the express office will be in the same building with THE REFLECTOR and the telegraph office.
