WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 11.
OBITUARY.

Lula, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Manning, of Winterville, died July 8th, 1900, aged 15 months. Only we who have known the same sorrow recognize its depths. The angel of death has born away, oh, so many precious little ones, from loving hearts and left desolate many homes. God grant that to all such sorrowing ones the words of inspiration may fall with soothing sweetness "I shall go to her but she shall not return to me."

There was an angel band in Heaven
That was not quite complete,
So God took our darling Lula,
To fill the vacant seat.
This lovely bud, so young and fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In paradise would bloom.

Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care;
The open bud to heaven conveyed
And bade it blossom there.
Darling Lula, she has left us,
Left us, yes, for evermore,
But we hope to meet our loved one,
On that bright and happy shore.

Through all pain at time she'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth,
And when the angels called her home,
She smiled farewell to earth.
Dear little hands we miss them so
All through the day wherever I go,
All through the night how lonely it seems
For no little hands to wake me out of my dreams.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
We must forever part.
Dearest loved one we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy heavenly face.

The child of our love and affection,
We have laid to her long last rest,
When God made his choice it was cast
On the treasure we prized the best.
As like the snowflake spotless,
That falls to its source the sea,
Ere the world has defiled her spirit
We gave her back Lord to Thee.

Unprecedented Offer.

Everybody knows that the subscription price of The Ladies Home Journal is $1 a year, and the price of the Saturday Evening Post is $2.50 a year, making $3.50 for both. For a limited time you can get them both a year for just $2, a little more than half price. If you are already a subscriber for the Journal you can have the Post for $1. Hand your order to D. J. Whichard or J. B. Harding and it will have prompt attention. Take advantage of this offer before it is withdrawn.

They Stand The Test.

That is what Every Pair of

Dutchess' Pants

Is guaranteed to do. Can you imagine a severer test than to tie one leg of a pair of pants to the ceiling and swing a keg of nails weighing 110 pounds to the other leg? That is the test seen in our window and hundreds of people have looked in wonder.

Dutchess' Pants

are built to stand any kind of service and a guarantee goes with every pair—10 cents if a button pulls off or $1 if they rip. Get the best when you buy and be sure you get the Dutchess! None genuine without the name on the button.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1900.

Thursday of next week, 19th, the Congressional convention for this district meets in Elizabeth City. As the time is so close to the August election there will probably not be as large attendance as if the date had been a few weeks later. However, there is hardly a doubt that Hon. John H. Small will be renominated. Really there should not be a vote cast against him in the Convention, but his nomination should be made by acclamation. He ably represents the district and should be returned to Congress.

A Massachusetts judge has decided that a bicycle is a machine, other judges have decided that it is a vehicle, baggage and several other things, and one has decided that it is a weapon. The bike seems to have considerable difficulty in establishing its legal status, as the judges have considerable difficulty in arriving at the true inwardness of this hummer.—Wilmington Star.

If they would call it a merry-go-round they might get something near right.

The destruction of $2,000,000 worth of oil belonging to the Standard Oil Company in the Bayonne fire is a matter of no great moment to that corporation. Probably the loss will in a large measure be made good by giving increased value to the stock of oil in hand. In that case the consumer will bear the burden. The tendency of all forms of accidental loss by fire or flood involving the destruction of property to distribute themselves makes of every such loss a serious public misfortune.—Philadelphia Record.

Designing men—opponents of the constitutional amendment—are saying that if it is adopted by the people this year the next action of the legislature will be to pass a law disfranchising the illiterate white men. This is false in every respect. The constitution would have to be again amended to effect such a purpose, and before this could be done the act would have to pass the legislature by a vote of three-fifths of its members and would then have to be ratified by the votes of the people. A legislature will not be elected in North Carolina in which three-fifths of the members will vote for an amendment to disfranchise any white man. And if such an amendment should pass the people would defeat it at the ballot box by an overwhelming majority.—Lumberton Robesonian.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Negroes Registering Rapidly and in Large Numbers.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 10, 1900.

The Republicans have begun their risky game of attempting to intimidate and bulldoze Democratic registrars for refusing to register illegal negro men as voters, as indicated in this correspondence a week or two ago. And the first "arrest" was made at Winston last Friday (Lieut. Gov. Reynold's home), at the instance of declaimer Spence Blackburn, assistant United States District Attorney. The best lawyers here state that the registrars have a perfect right under the new election law, to be exacting in their requirements for a full and legal identification of the man demanding to register. Too many negroes without a local habitation and a name that "sticks" from one State to another, have been voting illegally in North Carolina, and the democrats have the law and the grit to stop this sort of business. No harm will come to this registrar nor to any other who does his full duty on this matter.

But it should again be remembered that it is the desperate and devilish white office-holding "leaders" who are instigating the negroes to take this step—that of swearing out warrants against white registrars. And they are the fellows chiefly to be held responsible, if trouble comes.

NEGROES ARE ALL REGISTERING.

An examination of the registration books of this city and reports from a number of other points, show that the negroes will all vote this year—all of them who are legally entitled to do so. Some of the ex-convicts and South Carolina importations of 1898, who got their names on the registration books of that year, by the aid of the "fusion" registrars, will not vote, however; nor will a number of negro boys from 18 to 20 years, whom the fusionists will try to vote. But the great bulk of 120,000 negro voters of the State will vote three weeks hence, and they are registering in a hurry—much more active and anxious to do so than the whites appear to be so far. Of course all of them will vote against the Amendment—the very best of reasons why every self-respecting white man should vote for it.

They not only are applying promptly to register, but they go to the registrar well schooled and unusually glib and ready to "answer" every question put to them under the provisions of the new election law. This fully shows that they have been taught by the white fusionists and local negro bosses before going into the voting precinct to register. It is stated that their "lessons" are taught them, here in Raleigh, at the negro "lodges" and other secret orders (of which there are scores of them here), and even at the churches and Sunday-schools.

MINOR MENTION.

The bronze statue of the late Zebulon Baird Vance has arrived in Raleigh earlier than it was anticipated, and is now stored away in the State Arsenal building, where it will remain till August 22, when the unveiling exercises take place in the Capitol Park here. It is a splendid counterpart of "the great Commoner."

Cotton is bringing ten cents in New York at last, and the recent destructive floods and heavy rains in the more southern cotton-growing states lead to the belief that a high price will be maintained throughout the next season. At any rate farmers will be wise not to bargain away any of their growing crops less than a stiff figure, delivered in whatever month may be offered.

Local Pride.

A writer in one of our exchanges the Germantown Independent-Gazette, says:

Local pride, if nothing else, should induce us to stand by our home paper, and the man who from sheer indifference fails to support his home paper, is wanting in local pride. I am ambitious enough to want my town to be the equal of her sisters in point of intelligence, enterprise and wealth; and without a good, sound, healthy and enterprising paper, this intelligence and enterprise must be wanting. Again, I am ambitious enough to want my home paper to be equal of any other local paper and without a liberal patronage from the citizens this cannot be. The home paper should make its weekly visits to every family in its territory. We can not afford to assume the responsibility of rearing a family without providing all legitimate means for education. A good newspaper is a splendid educator, and our children will eagerly read it when they are slow to read anything else, and in the course of twelve months they will have done a vast amount of reading that otherwise would have been neglected.

I knew a man with a large family of children well educated and the man was poor, and being asked how he managed to educate his children he replied: "I kept them well supplied with good newspapers and other literature, and sent them to school what I could, and they educated themselves." The newspapers help to create a thirst for knowledge. There are children today wellnigh grown that do not know the world is much larger than their father's farm or their own neighborhood. The newspaper enlarges the idea of our own. I know of no place where we can invest a dollar or two that will yield us such large returns as in our home paper.

Then it is a great mistake that people make in subscribing for a paper abroad to the neglect of the home paper. It is simply enriching others while we impoverish ourselves. It is about equal to saying, we have little or no home pride. I have no word to utter against subscribing to papers abroad if we first take our home paper. The first two papers for us to read is our home and church papers, then as many more as our inclinations dictate. But one says, "I can get a larger paper with much more reading matter for the same price abroad than home." That may be true, but you can not afford to be without your home news. Your local pride is at stake and you cannot afford to sacrifice that. Another says, "My neighbor takes the home paper, and I read it." Well, that is just stinginess to the core, if we are able to subscribe for a paper.

Some people excuse themselves by saying the editor is of different politics, and therefore we will not take his paper. I insist that is not a valid excuse, and that we ought to read the home paper for the sake of our home news. If my home paper was of different politics from mine, I would still subscribe to and read it as a home enterprise and agree to disagree with the editor as to politics.

In conclusion, I suggest we all should feel it our duty to aid the editor in making a good home paper by sending him items of news from our neighborhood, and those competent or accustomed to writing, contribute now and then to the columns of the paper. We should feel that it is our paper and that in some measure we are responsible for its success.

Feeling is beginning to run quite high about the Constitutional Amendment, and it is said the negroes are, in some cases, making threats. The negroes appear to be playing a double part. They give it out publicly—that is those who do any talking—that they take no sort of interest in the amendment, and want the white people to settle that question. But such talk is suspicious, to say the least. The negroes will no doubt attempt to the very last man to register and vote.

It has been agreed that newspaper subscriptions are an infallible test of a man's honesty. They will sooner or later discover the man: If he is dishonest he will cheat the printer some way—declare he has paid when he has not—sent money in the mails which was lost—will take the paper and not pay for it on the ground that he never subscribed for it—or move off and leave it coming to the office he left. Thousands of alleged christians are dishonest in this particular, at least, and the printer's book will tell fearful tales at the final judgment.—Press & Printer.

Open Air Concert.

The Osceola Band turned their Tuesday night practice into an open air concert in the Academy grove, and the people for several blocks around had the benefit of their excellent music.

An exchange prints the following marriage ceremony, which was said by a Tennessee squire, a short time ago:

"Wilt thou take her for thy pard; for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes; make the fire every day and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and mother, Aunt Jemima and Uncle John, three sisters and a brother?" And his face grew pale and blank; it was too late to jilt; as through the floor he sank, he said: "I wilt."

Isn't it strange that the fool who rocks the boat is never the one who gets drowned?

Shooting at Stokes.

We learn today that Mr. William Bryant was shot Saturday night near Stokes, by Mr. James Whitehurst.

It seems that Mr. Bryant went to see Mr. Whitehurst's daughter Saturday night and while there picked up a bucket of water and poured it all over the floor. Mr. Whitehurst ordered him out of the house and while Mr. Bryant was getting out Mr. Whitehurst got his gun and came to the door and fired at Mr. Bryant after he had gotten some distance from the house. The gun was loaded with buck shot and part of the load took effect in Mr. Bryant's leg, one shot passing entirely through his leg. The wound did not, however, prevent him from continuing to run.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

And enlightened Charlotte, the "Queen City" of North Carolina, is harboring two Mormon Elders within her borders and listening to their pernicious doctrine.

Sixteen prisoners escaped jail at Goldsboro Sunday night. One played off sick and obtained the privilege of the corridor. He secured a piece of iron and made a hole for the crowd to get out.

Two Durham boys, brothers, were playing with a pistol—supposed as usual to be empty. The thing went off and one of the boys got the bullet in the head.

They Are the Best.

Tuesday Mr. Jesse Barnhill was in Greenville on his annual visit. "Uncle Jesse" comes to town about once a year, and just as regularly as he comes he gives THE REFLECTOR a call and carries his subscription forward another year. He is now 79 years old, but loses none of his interest in the news of the day or in the welfare of his county and State. He always has something good to say and it is a pleasure to talk with him.

Mr. Barnhill, Mr. John F. Whichard and Mr. Simon Nobles are all very near the same age, there being but a few months between them, and all live near enough together in Carolina township to be considered neighbors. Their next birthday will bring them all to four score years. You might search North Carolina over without finding three better men or truer Democrats than these. We hope there are yet many peaceful years for them.
