RALEIGH, N. C.

Republican Party Responsible for Negro Suffrage.

The Republican party put negro suffrage on us. In the election to decide this question of negro suffrage every negro was allowed to vote to determine whether he should become a voter, while 30,000 of our best white men, (every man who had held an office civil or military, under the Confederacy) was disfranchised and not allowed to vote.

This election lasted for three days. Every election officer was a Republican. They were guarded while holding the election by Federal soldiers; and the ballots, when cast, were taken to South Carolina and counted by a Federal General.

Yet when we right this great wrong against our race and civilization, the party that thrusts the negro upon us as a voter by these infamous methods dares talk about violence, fraud, or unfair election laws.

This party that disfranchised the brave men who fought at Shiloh and Gettysburg, in order to refranchise the negro, hypocritically professes solicitude for the old veterans and audaciously charges that the sons and comrades of these old heroes want to disfranchise them.

In whose interest are the Republicans making this charge? In the interest of the old soldier or the negro?—Fayetteville Observer.

Complimentary to Miss Latham.

The Morehead City correspondent to the Raleigh Post has the following to say which will be of interest to the Greenville people:

One of the most charming sailing parties of the season was given last night by Mr. Steve Upsom, of Athens, Ga., in honor of Miss Louise Latham, one of the prettiest of North Carolina's fair girls. There was a large and happy party on the sharpie and they enjoyed a pleasant sail to picturesque old Fort Macon, Shackelford banks and other places of interest, after which they regaled themselves with choice refreshments. Miss Latham proved a charming entertainer and assisted the host in making it very pleasant for their friends.

TWO FINE SPEECHES

McLean and Pou Charm the Crowd

Neither storms nor threatened storms seem to dampen the ardor of the unterrified Democracy of Pitt county.

When the train bringing Hons. D. H. McLean and J. H. Pou rolled in Thursday evening the sky was covered in inky blackness, thunders were pealing, lightnings flashing, and there was every indication of a big storm. It did not burst upon us, however, and even though it was still threatening a large crowd gathered in the Court House at night to hear the speaking. Many ladies also graced the occasion with their presence.

Mr. McLean spoke first and for an hour thrilled the audience with his eloquence. His speech was a strong one, giving unanswerable argument in favor of the Amendment and why every white man should vote for it. His tribute to the valor and patriotism of the old soldiers who fought to make this a white man's country was grand.

Mr. Pou also spoke about a hour and he just caught the crowd all over. His voice is magnificent for a speaker, and he just talks right along in a way that makes you drink in every word. He said there is no use in mincing words or trying to hide the purport of the Constitutional Amendment—it means that we are going to relieve the negro of the power of the ballot, and we are going to do it next Thursday. He says there are three classes of negroes the Amendment is going to stop from voting—the thief, the poll tax dodger, and those who cannot read and write—and by the time we get through these three classes there will be 100,000 of them who will not step up to the ballot box and kill white men's votes any more.

All through he was interrupted with bursts of applause. In fact both of them were just the kind of speeches that do good and that the people love to hear.

The Osceola Band met the speakers at the depot and also made music in the Court House.

All Who Love the State Will Vote for It.

Republicans and Populists all over the State are daily falling in line with the Democrats in favor of the amendment. They realize that this measure is above party; that it is for the best interests of the whole State—for the best interests of the white people and the colored people, too. In many counties Republicans and Populists nominated for office have declined to be candidates because they favored the amendment. Oh that all white men, regardless of party, would lay aside the narrow prejudice and the blind zeal of the partisan and see this measure as it is—a great blessing for all the people of the Commonwealth; a measure that is designed and that will promote the peace, happiness and prosperity of all classes and conditions. When the amendment is adopted, as it will be, there will be room for liberty of opinion in North Carolina. White men can differ and divide on public questions without endangering the State—without subjecting it to danger from the ignorant and vicious. God speed the day!—Statesville Landmark.

FRIDAY, JULY, 27 1900.

Are you going to be for the white man or the negro next Thursday?

No use talking or mincing matters—after next Thursday this is going to be a white man's State, with its interests controlled by white men.

The Fusionists had just as well keep out of the race in Pitt county and let the thing be unanimous. The Democratic majority will be so large that the effect will be the same.

At Their Tricks.

The News and Observer is able to state positively that the Fusionists have had printed three separate and distinct tickets.

One of them—the Fusion ticket headed by Thompson—is meant to be voted by all good Populists and Republicans.

The other two—a straight Populist and a straight Republican ticket—are meant, to use Butler's and Holton's own alliteration, "for fool folks who are against Fusion."

The Fusion ticket was printed by Barnes and has already been distributed. The straight tickets are now being printed by Uzzell and are not meant to be thoroughly distributed.

They are just a blind, "for fool folks who are against Fusion."

The plan is to distribute a few of the straight tickets at places where it is known positively that there are Populists or Republicans who will not vote a Fusion ticket, and might, unless they can get a straight ticket, support the Democratic nominees.

Such a ticket, however, will be offered them by the managers only as a last resort, all Republicans and Populists alike being urged to vote Fusion.

"You can easily see," explained a Republican yesterday, "that we will gain much by this arrangement. If a Populist votes a straight Populist ticket he votes for at least half of the names on the Fusion ticket. If a Republican votes a straight Republican ticket, he likewise votes half the Fusion ticket. Of course we'd much rather he'd take the whole pill, but if he won't—why then we give him half, and anybody in the State but a Democrat can vote one of those three tickets. See?"—Raleigh News & Observer.

The best course for white men to pursue is to have nothing to do with the black-and-tan mixed tickets, but go to the ballot box next Thursday and vote the straight Democratic ticket and for the Amendment.

Why he Supports the Amendment.

Mr. J. Z. Green, editor of our "Our Home," the leading Populist paper in North Carolina, writes as follows in his paper this week: "If the amendment is not carried this year the race question will be the issue two years from now. If some solution is not put into effect then it will be the issue in the following campaign and on and on until it is eliminated. No reform can come until the negro question is removed from politics. We, as a Populist, have heard enough of the racket and we'll be glad when the 2nd day of August comes so we can cast our ballot to remove this question and elevate politics to a higher and more decent plane. We can understand how Republican leaders who make merchandise of the negro votes and who ride him into office can, through selfish motives, oppose the amendment, but we can't understand why any Populists can oppose it, unless he has been misled by the Fusion pictures and literature sent out by the Fusion managers. Let's get above prejudice and act independently, and in such a way as to bring about better political conditions."

Those who favor the amendment do not seek to mislead anyone. The amendment is only intended to get rid of the nigger in politics. They do not mislead the nigger. They tell him that it is meant to get him out of politics. But those who oppose it have resorted to every conceivable misrepresentation. They have said that it would make men pay poll tax till they were sixty years of age, when they knew they were making false statements. They have said that it would disfranchise white men when they knew it would not. Their object is to scare poor white men and they know it. Their object is to get poor white men to go with niggers and they know it. They are not sincere and they know it. Their hope lies in fooling and misleading white men and they know it. They are fighting for a bad thing and they know it. They can't win and they know it.—Lexington Dispatch.

A Belled Buzzard from Cuba.

Almost every year some one sees a buzzard in some part of the county with a bell attached to it. The one this year was found last week at the McAllister place, near Mt. Pleasant, by Mr. D. M. Blackwelder. Mr. Blackwelder says that the bird was on the ground and seemed unable to fly. Around its neck was attached a small brass bell with the following inscription on it:

"H. B., Havana, Cuba, Jan. 6, 1879." The date will to many tend to make it incredible, but probably buzzards are like goats—never known to die a natural death.—Concord Standard.

How to Pack Eggs for Long Keeping.

The yolk of the egg spoils much quicker than the white. For this reason it is important that the yolk should be surrounded with a layer of the white. If the egg is placed on the side or large end the heavy yolk will settle to the bottom and come in contact with the shell, which admits the air. If it is placed on the small end it will always have a layer of white between it and the shell. Eggs absorb odors easily, therefore only odorless materials should be used when packing them.—August Ladies' Home Journal.

Tell one of these fusion doctors that the amendment says a poor white man is better than a nigger he will tell you it is unconstitutional. Tell him this is a white man's State he will say unconstitutional. Tell him that white men ought to stand together he will say unconstitutional. Tell him that the whites bear the burdens of taxation and he says unconstitutional. Tell him some white men think a negro unfit to vote he will say unconstitutional. Tell him that a white man is better than a nigger and he will say unconstitutional.—Lexington Dispatch.

The Negro Party

Sometime the Black-and-Tan leaders get very squeamish and object to being call "the Negro party." Why should they object when the negro furnishes three-fourths of the membership of the party, taking the State as a whole? In some counties, as in Buncombe, the whites outnumber the negroes in the Republican party, but there the Republican party is dependent upon the negro for success. In other counties, as in Halifax the whole party is composed of negroes. There are in round numbers 4,500 Republicans in Halifax county. Of this number 4,405 are negroes. In a recent Republican convention held in Halifax there were 250 negroes present and how many white men? Exactly one white man—B. S. Lewis, he is a revenue officer. A telegram was read from Holton directing them not to nominate a ticket but to appoint a committee that could later name a ticket.

It is to put an end to the danger of further rule by the negro party that the Amendment will be adopted.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Penniless Girl at College.

Enumerating upward of fifty methods by which a girl can work her way through college, a Cornell graduate writes in the August Ladies' Home Journal: "A college education is possible for any one who is determined to have it. It may happen that the prospective student is obliged to stay at home and work several years before entering, but intensified desire brings compensation. It is not advisable, however, to defer entering until every cent necessary for a four years' course has been earned. Many girls perhaps give up the idea of going at all because they cannot go soon after leaving the high school, but nowadays it is not unusual to find in attendance at universities, open during the summer quarter, teachers, well along in the fifties, who in their youth were denied a college education."

A good deal has been said, and is being said, about the constitutionality of the proposed amendment, and it has been said unnecessarily. The people have been listening to discussions of a question about which they are not concerned and upon which they are not to pass judgment. The Charlotte Observer takes precisely the right view of the question when it says: "There is no need for any voter to worry about the constitutionality of the amendment. It is the duty of all white men to vote for it. As to whether or not it is unconstitutional, let the courts worry about that—that is what they are paid for."

A negro who applied to register in Mecklenburg swore he was born on the 34th day of March and stuck to it. The registrar concluded that he was too much of a freak to register and stuck to it, so he didn't.—Wilmington Star.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Bread is the staff of life, but the roll of fame isn't always satisfactory.

Many a young man finds it easier to get married than to get the furniture.

The pessimist who is always looking for something to rail at can find it in a mirror.—Chicago News.

Mark well the white man who votes for the continuance of negro rule in North Carolina. Take down his name, make it a matter of public record and let it forever stand a witness of his treachery to his race and his country. And let such a man receive the everlasting contempt of all good white men. Let his memory be accursed.—Lumberton Robesonian.

Dr. Cy Thompson advised the Populists in the legislature to vote for the submission of the amendment to the people, and every one but one did. And now Cyrus is "agin" it. He says he didn't investigate it when he said he was in favor of it. Did he advise the Populists in the Legislature to vote for it without investigating it? His plea for stultifying himself discredits his sincerity or his sense.—Wilmington Star.

At every voting place there will be six ballot boxes. One box is for the amendment, one for State officers, one for judges, one for legislators, one for county officers and one for township officers. Let every man be sure to get and vote six different tickets, which read carefully before voting.

THE DUPLIN WAY.

The Trick Did Not Work.

Mr. J. C. Lanier is in receipt of a letter from his brother in Duplin county that tells how things are done over there. Last Saturday a big rally was held at Chinquepin, in that county. The polling place for that precinct was about three miles distant from the speaking, and it being on Saturday the registrar had to have his book at the polling place. It had been suggested that it being the last day for registration and the Democrats all being gathered at the speaking, there might be an attempt by the fusionists to cause the registrar some trouble. To guard against this one or two men and a bicycle courier were asked to stay with the registrar.

And it turned out that this precaution was well taken. While the rally a Chinquepin was at its height a mob of about fifteen Populists and forty negroes appeared at the polling place and demanded of the registrar that he put the names of the negroes on the registration book. About the time this crowd came up the bicycle boy darted off and flashed out of sight. In just six minutes he had reached the place of speaking and gave the alarm. This was enough. Red shirts instantly rushed for their horses and quicker than it can be told seventy-five of them were flying down the road in a dead run. The red shirts were only nine minutes in going from the speaking to the polling place, and no sooner did they come in sight than the last one of the Populists and negroes made tracks for the woods, not a mother's son of them remaining in sight. That was one time when they knew what was best for them.

No, Maude, dear, the cannibal who eats a grass widow could scarcely be called a vegetarian.

SAMBO ON THE AMENDMENT

(BY JAY BEE.)

What's de use of kicking
 Agest de white man's rule?
 Let all dem kick dat want to,
 Dis nigger ain't no fool—
 No suh!

De white man pays de taxes,
 So let him run de mill.
 He's been a doing of it
 And he's gwine to do it still—
 Dat he is!

De trash you been a voting wid
 Ain't never done no good,
 And when de winter snow comes,
 Who is it gives you wood?
 I knows.

Who was it built your school house
 To edicate your kid?
 Twern't none of de trash gang
 You been a voting wid.
 Wns it?

Who built your insane asylum
 And de house for your po'!
 In course 'twas de demicrats,
 Of dat you very well know—
 Don't yer!

You hain't never preciated
 The things dey've done for you,
 So you had'n't oughter kick about
 The things dey are going to do—
 Had yer!

For when de trash gang got in power
 By your own confounded doing,
 Dey was rushing dis ole State of ours
 Rite down de hill of ruin.
 Weren't dey!

Dey axed you den to help 'em
 And save 'em from de wreck
 By voting wid de good folks,
 But you didn't help a speck—
 Did yer!

So now dey are going to fix you
 So you kain't hurt 'em any mo'
 By voting wid de trash gang
 Like you been doing here to fo'.
 Duz yer blame 'em?
