Can't See How We Do It.

A Raleigh gentleman who is a regular reader of THE EASTERN REFLECTOR (twice-a-week) and compares it with several other papers that he gets, tells us that he thinks it is the best one he sees and he is surprised that we can furnish so good a paper for the price.

No Paper Thursday.

THE REFLECTOR was asked to join the other business houses in closing on election day and cheerfully consented and therefore no issue of THE DAILY REFLECTOR will be published that day. But our force will be on Thursday night and bring out Friday's paper early in the morning with all the election news in it. The semi-weekly will be mailed Wednesday evening, a day earlier than usual.

Of course the telegraph office will have to be kept open Thursday.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., July 28.

L. H. White is quite sick today. W. J. Clark and H. J. Smith attended the picnic at Grindool yesterday.

Scott Dixon is improving rapidly. We learn that George Venters, of Calico, lost a barn of tobacco last week by fire.

We are glad to have Henry Wynne, of Grindool, in our midst. He began school Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Smith spent Friday afternoon with Misses Annie and Wessie White.

F. S. Dan spent yesterday here. B. F. Ormond, of Ayden, was here yesterday.

Disappeared

A little thing that has disappeared from view, but which was common enough a few years ago, was the little tin sign the insurance company stuck over your door when you had your home insured. By this means every house that was insured was made the standing advertisement of an insurance company. No one sees those little tin signs any more. The insurance companies long since discovered that the money they cost brought better returns when judiciously invested in newspaper and magazine advertising. And there never was any good reason why a man's house should be made the advertisement of an insurance company.—Unidentified Exchange.

Two Classes.

There are people who believe that advertising is a speculation, and there are others who insist that it is an investment. They are both right from their different standpoints. The discrepancy is accounted for by the different ways they advertise. Some merchants go into advertising as they buy a ticket in a lottery—with the idea that if they are lucky they may win a prize. Others put their money in advertising as they invest in real estate, mining stocks or government securities—with the firm faith that they can make a good percentage on their investment if they do it judiciously and with proper preparation and forethought. The latter class seldom fail.—Wichita (Kan.) Eagle.

Suspicion is the assassin of love.

ALL WILL CLOSE.

No Business on Election Day.

There will be no business done in Greenville on election day, except voting early and late, but everybody will close up and give the day to working for the success of White Supremacy and the Democratic ticket.

Mayor J. G. Moye made a canvass of the business houses and offices for the signature of all who were willing to close, and not a single one whom he called on refused to sign. As the law compels the bar rooms to close he did not call on any of them. Below is the list which the Mayor handed us to publish.

We the undersigned merchants and business men of Greenville, N. C., will close our places of business on August 2nd, 1900, election day:

TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1900.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket Thursday.

You had just as well be in the procession and vote the Democratic ticket and for the Amendment Thursday, and then get ready for the big jubilee that is going to follow.

White man, don't let indifference cause you to stay away from the polls Thursday. Go there and perform the duty you owe your home, your race, your county and your State.

No white man should let any petty prejudice or spite cause him to "scratch" his ticket Thursday. Vote the whole thing straight through. Some of these days the situation may turn when you would not like to see yourself or some friend scratched off the ticket.

Sunday's Charlotte Observer had a brief special from nearly every county in the State giving a forecast of the election Thursday. The summary places the Democratic majority in the State at from 40,000 to 50,000. We hope the Observer's figures will be verified as the outlook indicates.

Between the Democratic and fusion tickets in Pitt county no white man should hesitate a minute. If you favor good government and White Supremacy you will vote the white man's ticket. On the other hand if you want to encourage corruption in office, viciousness and negro domination, you can do so by voting the fusion ticket. White men, the two are before you and you must soon make your choice. Go to the ballot box on Thursday, and may God help you to do your duty.

Marion Butler, Cy Thompson, Holton and their gang are dying hard. They see overwhelming defeat staring them in the face, and pretend to be keeping up the fight, yet in reality they are just blowing in order to let themselves out of next Thursday's Democratic landslide as easy as possible. And here at home, notwithstanding there is 1,500 registered white majority against them, they have brought out a mixed ticket just for the fun of seeing it buried so deep under the white men's ballots that it will never see daylight again. All they will be able to do is to add one more lie to the campaign stock and say the "Democrats stole the election."

Let all our voters remember that on Thursday, August 2nd, the election will embrace a decision for or against the proposed Constitutional Amendment also for the election of Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Labor and Printing, Corporation Commissioners, and two Judges on the State ticket; and for Senator, Representative, Sheriff, Register of Deeds, Treasurer, Surveyor and Coroner, on the county ticket, and Constables and Magistrates on the township ticket.

This has been a splendid campaign in Pitt county. Through the efforts of Chairman Blow, of the executive committee, our people have had the opportunity of hearing a number of the finest speakers of the State. Then under the direction of Mr. F. C. Harding, organizer of the White Supremacy Clubs, there has been good speaking in every township. The county candidates, too, have added their part to the interest in the canvass they have made. Upon the whole it has been the cleanest campaign we have ever known. Strife and bitterness have been unknown, and it has been a warfare against ignorance and superstition. Good and faithful work has been done from beginning to end, and the fruit of it will be shown Thursday in the handsome majority Pitt county will give for the Democratic ticket and the Amendment.

PRESS MISREPRESENTED.

A recent issue of the Raleigh Progressive Farmer has the following:

"Most of the newspapers of the State are now receiving liberal donations from the campaign funds of some party."

Several papers have very justly taken exception at this misrepresentation of the Progressive Farmer. Fusion papers, and those that sell out to the Republicans like the Asheville Gazette and the Caucasian, may get their support that way, but Democratic papers are not of that class. The Henderson Gold Leaf says on the subject:

"The Gold Leaf is not among them. We have not received a dollar from any campaign fund nor have we the promise of any."

"One gentleman, not a candidate, has had some extra copies of the paper circulated at his expense, but with this exception we have contributed our part to the sum total of campaign work in the cause of White Supremacy and good government without reward or the hope of reward other than the consciousness of duty faithfully performed."

"And we dare say that with few exceptions the same thing may be said of all the other Democratic papers in the State. No, when it comes to receiving liberal or any other kind of donations from campaign funds, the newspapers are not in it. But they ought to be at least to the amount of their actual expenses for the thousands of extra copies of the paper scattered broadcast and cost of additional work done during the campaign."

The Statesville Landmark says:

"The only thing the matter with this statement is that it isn't true. Some of the newspapers—those run purely for campaign purposes—may be and doubtless are receiving aid from the campaign fund, but we believe the great majority of the newspapers of the State, which are run as business enterprises, are dependent upon their own resources, as they always have been. The Landmark, so far as it is concerned, receives no aid from any other source except its legitimate earnings. We think the progressive farmer's statement is a reflection on the newspapers of the State and we for one resent it. Let that paper name those papers that are receiving campaign funds."

The Charlotte Observer says:

"So far from profiting from a campaign, we suspect that the most of the Democratic papers in North Carolina are losers. There has never been one yet that did not cost The Observer a good deal more than it came to."

As for THE REFLECTOR, this paper in its eighteen years career has never received a penny of campaign donation and never expected any. On the other hand there has not been an election in which we did not give away hundreds of copies of the paper, and do much gratuitous work, as well as pay out cold cash itself. Every campaign costs us money and we make no fuss about it. Democratic papers do their work for the party cheerfully.

What They Vote For.

The State Journal, the leading Republican paper east of Winston, which supports the amendment, sums up what the white man votes for who votes against the amendment in a way that will appeal to Republican and independent voters. We quote:

"The white man that votes against the amendment votes to retain the like of George White in Congress, and Isaac Smith in the Legislature, and he endorses the appointment of negro postmasters and negro revenue officers in the east."

"He votes to appoint Lee Person, Cheatham and the various other negroes to lucrative positions in Washington instead of white men."

"He votes for negroes to occupy official positions in State and Federal departments, on a social and political equality with white officials."

"He votes to continue negro majorities in a number of eastern counties."

"He votes to continue the danger of negro rule in the entire east."

"He endorses negro officials in eastern counties."

"He votes to prevent political freedom in the east."

"He votes to continue dishonest election methods."

"He votes to give perpetual control to Democratic politicians."

"He votes for continual Republican defeat."

"He votes to continue the machinery of the Republican party and the Federal patronage in the hands of second class, corrupt and unprincipled political henchmen."

"He votes to drive every honest, intelligent and respectable white Republican of the east out of the party."

"He votes for the running of all Republican conventions in the east by negroes."

"He votes for negroism instead of Anglo-Saxonism."

"He votes for ignorance instead of intelligence."

"He votes a curse on his posterity."

"He votes to doom, blight and curse one-half of the State."

"He votes to kindle the fires of bloodshed, racial war, hatred and prejudice."

"He votes to endanger the noble motherhood and fair womanhood of the State."

"He votes to give unbridled reign to political and individual passions and debased lust of the ignorant insolent and vicious negro of the east."

Pritchard's Organ Imitates Manly.

The Asheville Register, the Republican organ controlled by Pritchard, imitates Manly and slanders the white men of the State. The Register says:

"But why does the desire to eliminate, ignorance extend only to the negro? If ignorance is a constant menace to the State, certainly it ought to be wholly eradicated and not stop at the least offensive part. The ignorance which disturbs the peace in this State is found among the whites in the Democratic party, and not among the negroes. If the negro is unfit for the ballot by reason of his lack of learning, certainly the white man who is equally as ignorant is also unfit for the ballot. No amount of sophistry can destroy the force of this argument."

The Democrats deny this statement and believe that the uneducated white man is better than the negro, and they have put it in the fundamental law that all white men shall vote in North Carolina while no negro shall vote unless he can show himself qualified.

The Radicals say that the negro is as good as the uneducated white man; the Democrats deny this and say the white man is more intelligent and better qualified to vote than the negro.

Which is right.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Making More Trade.

Almost every business can be stimulated by persistent advertising. A large proportion of mankind is disposed to do without many things until attention has been called to their needs. The advertiser not only gets a larger share of the business that is being done but he also increases a volume of trade.—Philadelphia Record.

Growing

The subscription list of THE REFLECTOR both daily and semi-weekly, grows steadily. The white people who have regard for news and honesty are learning that they can find it in no other secular paper published in the county. Our readers can read and they appreciate something to read.

Masonic Hall School.

The Board of Trustees for the school to be opened at Masonic Hall will meet sometime this week and elect teachers, and prepare some definite statements concerning the school for the public. There is no scarcity of good material from which to select the teachers; the corresponding secretary already has in hand a number of applications. The public may rest assured that it is the determined purpose of the trustees to secure the very best talent for the school, both in discipline and teaching.

The Masonic Lodge is to be congratulated on having begun a work so universally approved by the general public. It seems to be the happy and fortunate solution of a chaotic problem whereby Greenville may have some better school facilities; and to besure this is a consummation most earnestly to be desired. Let the ball roll on until every child in town from the richest to the poorest shall have abundant opportunity for mental discipline and culture.

A good school for small boys; a high grade school for girls—including music, art, elocution and aesthetic sciences; an academy for boys equal to the very best; and eventually all these emerged into a graded school.

All hands to the wheel till these things are accomplished.

Money talks when you drop a nickel into a phonograph.

Galloway-Proctor.

Married in the M. E. Church at Grimesland N. C. July 24th, Mr. W. Scott Galloway to Miss Ella Proctor, Rev. R. A. Bruton officiating.

This was a beautiful wedding and taken together with the popularity of the contracting parties made it a great day in the social circle of our village. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens, ferns and cut flowers.

The following couples were in attendance and entered the church in reversed order: A. G. Dudley with Miss Sophia O'Brien, J. P. Pollard with Miss Lizzina Moore, M. H. Tucker with Miss Mamie Galloway, J. R. Proctor with Miss Helen Galloway, D. G. Moore with Miss Daisy Carman, M. M. Galloway with Miss May Galloway. Following these came the bride accompanied by Miss Mamie Tucker. The groom entered the rear door in company with John W. Mayo, best man, and met the bride at the altar, under a nuptial arch and a large marriage bell where a beautiful ceremony made them one.

After many warm congratulations by many friends reparation was made to the residence of Mr. W. E. Tucker where a private reception was held, complimentary to the bride and groom and their attendants and many friends. Mrs. Tucker had prepared a sumptuous feast of sweets, fancy ices, and fruits and the wee hours of morning had already come ere the last guest said good night.

The presents were many and handsome and space forbids an enumeration of them here.

This happy pair enters their new life with the sincerest and best wishes of their many friends and of this occasion an evening pleasantly spent let us lay away in the treasury of our remembrance.
