Another Robbery

Some one broke into W. L. Forbes bar Wednesday night and stole one dollar and twenty cents from the money drawer and a box of cigars and four watches from the show case. The party entered the bar by boring several holes with a brace and bit in the rear window and cutting a hole large enough to run their arm through and unfasten the bolt. The brace was left on the out side and the bit found inside the door. The thief went out the side door leaving it partly open. It was found that the brace and bit was stolen from T. L. Hancock's tool chest while he was at work Wednesday. Mr. Forbes suspects two negroes who were loafing around the back way Wednesday evening.

H. W. Holcombe,	Flooring.

Going Higher.

The band stand list has climbed some higher today, and one subscriber says he will give the flooring for it. A few more good subscriptions will bring the amount up to enough to build it. Hurry up, folks, so you can enjoy the music of the band before summer is over.

A head on collision between two freight trains occurred Monday near Morganton on the Southern railway. One man was killed and five others injured.

Girls Advised to Marry Country Boys.

The Columbia, Mo., Herald advises girls to marry country boys. "The wise girl," says the Herald, "sets her cap for the country boy." It continues.

"True, he wears overalls and has brown hands and his feet are in his way when he walks. But he is worth a dozen of the town duds with their white fingers and high collars and unpaid laundry bills. And take a country boy who will stay in the country. He is a free man. The town boy is a slave. He works all his life at a meagre salary and spends that in ways not always commendable. There are town sweethearts who are worth something. There are some who do not expect to have their wives to support them by keeping boarders. There are some who do not loaf on the streets Sundays and stay up late at nights. These are town fellows almost equal to the boys from the backwoods. But beware of the other kind. Stick to the country sweethearts and stay stuck."

Fatal Shooting

Marianna, Fla., August 14.—At Haskins' turpentine distillery, three miles from here, Walter Rossin and Charlie Rullock, negroes, became involved in a quarrel and the former shot and killed the latter. William Haskins, a young white man, attempted to arrest Rossin. The negro fired at Haskins, putting a ball in each of his arms. Haskins then fired at Rossin and dropped him dead in his tracks.

The Country Editor.

Presently we will hear of the rewards and honors that are to go to the man whose services to the party won the magnificent victory. The workers ought to receive the honors for we believe that "the horse that pulls the plow ought to have the fodder."

But—when that time comes, we venture to say that the foremost workers in the fight were the country editors. They not only worked as hard and as effectively as any, but they spent more money for the party than any other class of men in the State in proportion to their ability. If the Democratic organization in North Carolina paid the papers for the publications of all appointment and all other notices, the country editors would all have bank accounts now. The North Carolina editors, city and country, never think of receiving pay for such publications, but gladly surrender their columns to the party of which they belong.

All honor to the faithful workers who do their work in their humble sanctums, and public recognition of their unselfish labors!—News & Observer.

Attempt at Robbery

Faison, N. C., August 14th.—An attempt to rob the store of B. B. Witherington, Esq., was made this morning at 1 o'clock but the parties were frightened off by the approach of our night watchman who had been on duty since the attempt to burn the town on election eve night, 1st. Detective "Hurricane" Branch, of Suffolk, was wired far at once and at this writing his bloodhounds are trailing the tracks of the two men who were seen running from the store by the watchman.

Unable to force an opening through a back window, the robbers attempted to cut through a back door with an axe which in their hurry to escape was left in the door. The tracks and weather are fine and we hope to catch the thieves, who were either black or blacked their faces for the occasion. Every effort will be made to catch them.

Suprised Chairman Daniels.

This afternoon at four o'clock a big surprise was given Chairman C. C. Daniels, of the Democratic Executive committee. He was invited to Mr. J. R. Uzzell's office, where a number of his friends awaited him, and then Mr. Henry Blount in his most exquisite style made a speech to him, presenting him with a dozen handsome solid silver forks and spoons, engraved on one side "C. C. D." and on the other "August 2, 1900." These were from his friends and admirers in compliments to his vigorous and earnest work in the late campaign. Mr. Daniels made a modest and appropriate response and then everybody complimented him and admired the handsome present he had received.—Wilson News.

Fitzsimmons and Sharkey to Fight August 25th.

New York, Aug. 14.—Bob Fitzsimmons and Tom Sharkey met this afternoon and agreed to fight August 25, before the Coney Island Sporting Club, for a purse of $25,000. Charley White is to be the referee.

"People who boast that they are of 'the first families,'" says the Manayunk Philosopher, "should remember that Adam and Eve, the very first family, had no ancestors."

Almost a Riot at Danville

Danville, Va., August 13.—As Mr. Ferguson Ringgold, of this county, was driving up Craighead street in his buggy today his bridle reins were roughly grasped by a negro named James Williams. A word or two passed when Mr. Ferguson pulled a revolver and fired at the negro's head. The ball sped wide, however, striking another negro some distance away. A large crowd of negroes were on the streets from three excursions, from Richmond, Lynchburg and High Point, and great excitement reigned while the police carried off Ferguson. At one time it looked like a riot would break out. Ferguson had a preliminary hearing tonight. His bail was fixed at $250.

My Grandfather's Trunk.

The company being seated in a circle, somebody begins by saying, for instance:

No. 1. "I pack my grandfather's trunk with a pair of spectacles."

No. 2. "I pack my grandfather's trunk with a pair of spectacles and a silk hat."

No. 3. "I pack my grandfather's trunk with a pair of spectacles a silk hat and a dime novel." And so on, each person repeating all the articles already mentioned, besides adding a new one.

If any one fails to repeat the list correctly, he drops out of the game which is continued until the contents of the trunk are unanimously declared too numerous to remember.

It is surprising how many persons loosely regard their financial obligations. They seem to feel like all that they can keep from paying out is clear gain. But such is not the case to the individual who follows such a course, to say nothing of the general convenience or convenience of the public.

For instance if Mr. A. owes Mr. B five dollars and fails to pay it when he can, Mr. B is perhaps compelled to disappoint Mr. C who in turn disappoints Mr. D and so on around the circle—to a number almost beyond calculation. The truth is, when one man pays his just debt he may thereby make it possible for a dozen others to do likewise.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A Word With the Boys.

Boys seldom realize the value of the evening hours. If profitably employed the spare hours at the command of every boy and girl would render them intelligent and equip them for a life of usefulness. If these spare hours are wasted, the opportunity for securing an equipment for life may never return. Increasing years mean increasing duties, and exacting demands upon one's time. The boy spends an hour of each evening lounging idly on street corners wastes in the course of a year, 365 hours, which, if applied to study would acquaint him with the rudiments of the familiar sciences. If, in addition to wasting an hour each evening he spends 10 cents for cigars, which is usually the case, the amount thus worse than wasted would pay for ten of the leading periodicals in the country.

Boys, think of these things. Think of how much time and money you are wasting, and for what? The gratification afforded by a lounge on the corner, or a cigar, is not only temporary, but positively hurtful. You cannot indulge in them without seriously injuring yourself. You acquire idle and wasteful habits, which will cling to you with each succeeding year. You may in after life shake them off, but the probabilities are that the habits thus formed in early life will remain with you till your dying day. Bewarned, then, in time, and resolve that, as the hour spent in idleness is gone forever, you will improve each passing one, and thereby fit yourself for usefulness and happiness.

Increased Activity Among the Filipinos in the Visayas Islands—Several Engagements in Luzon.

Manila, Aug. 12.—Reports from the Visayas islands show that there has been increased activity among the insurgents there during the last six weeks. The American losses in the Island of Panay last month were greater than in any month since January last.

General Mojica, in Layaite, and General Luban, in Samar, are harassing the garrisons, shooting into the towns during daylight and ambushing small parties, firing and then retreating upon the larger bodies. The rebels possess an ample supply of ammunition and are organized to a considerable degree.

The American's have garrisoned three towns on Samar island, two of which shelter a tenth of the original inhabitants who suffer from the continual "sniping" of the rebels from the surrounding hills. The third is without any native inhabitants, the rebel outposts, a mile away, preventing their return to their homes.
