WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., August 18
To be able to supply the demand for our Hunsucker buggies it would be necessary to have Honeysuckle vines and one vine wouldn't do the business either, for the factory is just rolling them out daily. It is impossible to even so much as keep one as a show for the simple reason they go as fast as they are made.

There was right much excitement on our streets the other day owing to a run away. Mr. Ed. Dail's horse run away, run into a cart, tore it all to pieces scattered, a buggy right and left besides frightening a number of women and children. The damage was soon repaired however at the shops of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. and Mr. Dail went his way serenely happy.

Quite a number of visitors the past week. W. F. Wyatt, of Raleigh, who is on a visit to his brother; Jarvis Sugg, of Washington; Miss Lucy Jenkins, of Bethel, who is visiting Mrs. W. M. Dixon and Miss Charlotte Dixon; Prof. Lineberry, principal of our school for the coming season who is here making all necessary arrangements for the opening of his school and a host of others.

Miss Sadie Brown, of Vanceboro, who has been visiting the family of Dr. B. T. Cox for the past week, returned to her home yesterday. She is a very popular young lady and made many, many friends while here.

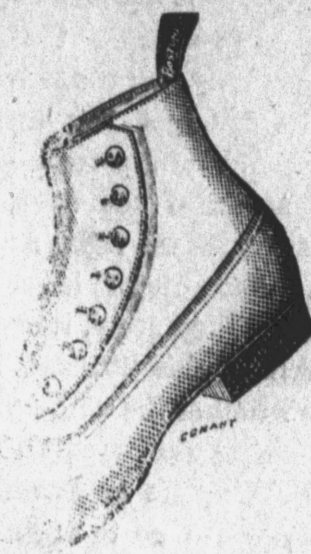

B. F. Manning left for the northern markets last Monday to purchase his fall and winter goods. B. F. buys cheap, but good goods, sells cheap and always holds to his friends. He keeps on the right side and his goods are always in popular demand. Look out for him!

Miss Blanch McGlohon, of Vanceboro, who has been on a visit here returned to her home yesterday. 'Tis sad, but the best of friends must part.

Miss Hilda Cox is visiting relatives here.

Mr. W. L. Powell, who is the superintendent of Hon. J. Bryan Grimes' farm, near town tells us of one of the most dastardly deeds that have been committed in this vicinity for a long time. A white family who reside on the farm by the name of Price sent two little girls to a pump, situated some distance in the field, to get some water. The girls staying longer than their mother thought they ought to, she became uneasy, and requested Leonard Williams, a white lad, to go and look for them. While on his way, and near the pump, two negroes arose out of the woods, armed with a gun, and deliberately shot at him, one shot passing near his ear, while two other grazed him on the side which made a considerable bruise. After the shooting was done the negroes hollowed out: "We've got him, we've got him!" and then ran. There is no clue as yet to their identity. The little girls returned with the water unmolested.—Washington Messenger.

THE REFLECTOR is in receipt of a letter from Congressman John H. Small in which he says he has decided to attempt the establishment of rural free delivery service in one or two counties in this district and has selected Pitt county as probably most favorably situated for the institution of such a service. Mr. Small also sent to several of our people a pamphlet giving information on the rural free delivery service that they might become informed about the workings of the system. Experiments have been made in nearly all the States and in most instances proved highly successful. THE REFLECTOR believes it would be a successful venture in Pitt county, and hopes our people will co-operate with Congressman Small in securing it. For the people in the country to be able to have their mail delivered to them at their homes is a convenience worth working for. Mr. Small will gladly send a copy of the pamphlet to all who desire it.

Presently we will hear of the rewards and honor that are to go to the man whose services to the party won the magnificent victory. The workers ought to receive the honors for we believe that "the horse that pulls the plow ought to have the fodder."

But—when the time comes, we venture to say that the foremost workers in this fight were the country editors. They not only worked as hard and as effectually as any, but they spent more money for the party than any other class in the State in proportion to their ability.—News and Observer.

While this is true and will generally be acknowledged when party service is expected, yet there are no class that whoop or howl for the party that are abused more and thanked less than are the press.—Winston Journal.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 17 1900.

The Administration's keep-it-dark policy has been turned on the Chinese news this week. Everybody in Washington knows that important news was received from Minister Conger—so important that Mr. McKinley returned a day ahead of the time he had appointed, but what it was is merely guesswork, and Assistant Secretary Adeo actually had the nerve to say that he thought the newspaper men should refrain from guessing at the nature of the news, lest it might be guessed right and harm done. According to latest advices from the allied army, it should be at Pekin by this time and able to prove whether the Chinese government means war or peace—whether the foreigners in Pekin are to be allowed to go to their friends or are to be kept as hostages by the Chinese government. When the facts have been given by the press dispatches the administration will probably give out the official news, unless it is calculated to reflect on Mr. McKinley or his wobbling policy.

"In the six National elections since Grant was President", said Col. J. B. Cleaver, of Tennessee, "the democrats have had a plurality of the popular vote four times and the republicans but twice. Garfield had a plurality in 1880, although it amounted to but 7,000 votes, and McKinley in 1896. In 1876 Tilden had a plurality over Hayes; in 1884 Cleveland over Blaine; in 1888 Cleveland over Harrison, and again in 1892 Cleveland over Harrison. Because McKinley had a plurality of 600,000 four years ago is no reason why Bryan should not have a plurality this year. Greater changes than that have taken place, even years ago when the total vote was much smaller. In 1892 Grant had a plurality of 760,000, and in 1896 Tilden's plurality was 250,000, a change of more than a million votes. When you stop to think that the vote in 1896 was something like 13,600,000, as against 6,400,000 in 1872, more than as much again, it isn't hard to believe that Bryan has a show of wiping out that plurality of 600,000 and himself receiving a plurality of the votes."

The democratic National Campaign Committee is meeting the efforts of the republicans to befog the Porto Rican question by circulating the proclamation issued by Gen. Miles when he took possession of the Island, in which he told the Porto Ricans that the U. S. forces had "come bearing the banner of freedom" and to "bestow upon you the immunities and blessings of the liberal institutions of our government." How well the republican administration and Congress kept the promises of Gen. Miles was shown by the telegraphic news of the present week, stating that a delegation of several hundred starving natives from the interior had visited the Governor begging for bread or work. The Porto Rican chapter is one of the most disgraceful in the record of the republican administration in Congress and the people of this country should not be allowed to forget it, and will not be.

In a letter to a local democratic paper, denying the editorial statement that the negro vote was solid for McKinley, a negro office holder said, "I am in a position to know whereof I speak when I say that Mr. Bryan will poll a larger negro vote than ever was polled by a democratic candidate for President. Mr. Bryan will poll a splendid negro vote in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and West Virginia. These are States where the negro vote is a factor, and where also you need every vote you can get. In New York he will poll 25 per cent. of the colored vote."

Shameless Argument.

Among the campaign documents issued by the Republican managers is the one showing that the total amount paid for pensions during the four years of Grant's first administration aggregated, in round numbers, $116,000,000; during his second administration, $114,000,000, and during the entire term of President Hayes, $145,000,000—a grand total for twelve years of $375,000,000. Next the documents point out that during the three years of Mr. McKinley's administration $420,000,000 has been paid to pensioners.

And these figures the managers exploit with exultation as furnishing an unanswerable argument why the members of the Grand Army of the Republic and the other veterans as the "war for the Union" should support the national Republican ticket.

When we consider how much of the amount paid out for pensions represents robbery of the public, surely the above recourse of the Republican managers is a confession that their party is, indeed, in some straits, says the Richmond Dispatch. It is hard to conceive that anything short of such conditions could prompt the managers to so flagrant, shameless and unblushing a glorification of looting.

The "exhibit" will no doubt catch the votes of the "patriots for pelt"—that is, the vast army of pensioners—but it ought to disgust all really worthy pensioners with the Republican party. It is in truth a gross insult to the latter class.—Raleigh Post.

Some Few "Don't's."

Don't be offended, if after you have "talked in meeting" fifteen minutes, the pastor suggests, "Let us all try to be brief!"

Don't think your pastor omniscient: and if you should chance to be sick forty-eight hours without his calling upon you don't scold.

Don't remain from church for several weeks, and when your pastor calls to see you say, "Why what a stranger you are! I thought you had forgotten me!"

Don't overlook your promises to cheerfully furnish your pastor financial support; and don't forget that he expects of you prompt and hearty fulfillment.

Don't forget that you have personal duties to your pastor and the church which no other can perform.

Don't expect your pastor's wife to be a church and Sunday school missionary except you engage her for that purpose.—Madison in Zion's Advocate.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, God in His divine power and wisdom has removed from our association Mr. G. B. Hughes, who departed this life on the morning of Aug. 7th, 1900, at Chase City, in the State of Virginia, and whereas the Tobacco Board of Trade of Greenville feels deeply his loss, therefore be it resolved,

1st. That we bow in humble submission to the will and providence of our Divine Master, yet at the same time we feel that each member of this Board has lost an intimate friend, one who was always kind, genuine, generous, social, noble and honorable in all his action and dealings with his fellow man; that we shall miss the sunshine of his presence, his wise council and pleasant fellowship.

2nd. That we extend the heartfelt sympathy of this Board to the sorely bereaved widow and friends of the deceased, assuring them that their sorrow is ours, that their grief is mutually shared by us, and that we invoke for them that comfort and consolation which can only come from the remembrance of a life well spent, with the promise of our loving Master that with such all is well.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of the deceased, a copy be spread upon the records of this Board and a copy be sent to THE DAILY REFLECTOR with the request to publish the same.

Pretty Sight.

The centre show window at C. T. Munford's big new store is as pretty as a picture now. It contains a special display of shirts, neckwear and handkerchiefs that is most attractive. R. D. Cherry, who arranged the display, is quite an artist in this line.

STORE BROKEN INTO.

Another Attempt of Burglary.

Another attempt was made Friday night to rob the store of Mr. D. T. House over at Parker's Cross Roads, about a mile from Greenville. Mr. House, who was sleeping in the store, was awakened by the noise and got up and saw a negro in the store. He fired twice at the negro while in the store, the negro ran out the front door and off toward the woods.

Mr. W. C. Hines blood hounds were secured and put on the track. The dogs tracked the negro about a mile and a half from the store to another negro's house, where he left his horse and cart. There the negro rode off in the cart and the dogs were unable to trace him any farther. The negro at whose house the cart was left, said the negro was there about two o'clock and claimed he was going to Whichard's station. The negro is known and it is quite probable he will be caught.
