HORSE FOUND

But Thief Gets off With Money.

Tuesday night, of last week, John Speight a negro stole a horse from Mr. H. C. Murphey in Goldsboro and came to Marlboro where he borrowed a cart from another party and then came to Greenville and sold both the horse and cart. He sold the horse to Mr. Adrian Savage for $40, the cart to Mr. Ed. Jolley for $4. The negro claimed he was trying to raise money to go to school with.

Wednesday, Chief of Police J. T. Smith received a letter from Mr. Murphey stating that his horse had been stolen and to be on the look out for the thief. Upon going to Mr. Savage's stables, Mr. Smith found that the horse Mr. Savage had bought from the negro was the one stolen from Mr. Murphey, so he wired him immediately that his horse was here.

After selling the horse to Mr. Savage the negro loafed around here until Wednesday morning when he disappeared. Wednesday night the Deputy Sheriff and Chief Police and one or two others went over in the neighborhood of Adams bridge, where they suspected the negro to be, but failed to find him.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

The Democratic campaign in Missouri was opened at Sedalia Tuesday, Adlai E. Stevenson being the principal speaker.

The Wisconsin Democratic State Convention, at Milwaukee, nominated Louis G. Bomrich for Governor.

During a heavy storm at Portsmouth O., four dwellings were struck by lightning, and two were destroyed.

Earl Burnham, 28 years old, shot and killed Mrs. Anna Tyson and wounded her husband at Kansas City, Mo.

After drowning an eighteen-year-old girl, whom he had assaulted, at Pine City, Minn., a laborer named Niaca drowned himself.

The Kentucky Prohibitionists nominated for Governor John D. White, of Manchester, formerly a Republican Congressman.

By the explosion of a sawmill boiler at Glenford, O., Lavigna Dupler, Elza Winegartner and John McLaughlin were killed.

Despite the vigorous protests of friends, 18-year-old Howard G. Case has married Miss Harriet Egerton, forty years of age, at Syracuse, N. Y.

Because he was discharged after 28 years of service, John E. Cassidy, superintendent of a hat factory at Brooklyn, N. Y., committed suicide.

Because she lost money she was saving to send to her mother, eighteen-year-old Katie Moczlar committed suicide at Yonkers, N. Y.

Miss Mary Kramer, while bathing at Manhasset, L. I., rescued Harold and William Banta, two boys, of Baltimore, Md., from drowning.

A blind girl never looks her age. A fool and his money are not parted without payin'. Some people seem to regard work as a contagious disease.

Near Birmingham, N. Y., farmers are digging baked potatoes from their fields. The farms in question adjoin a peat bog, and the peat runs back under the land. Recently the bog took fire from some source, and has been burning ever since. In places the fire has worked back under the potato patches, and the potatoes have been nicely roasted in the ground.

Dr. R. W. Wooten's house at Coahoma was burned yesterday. During the wind storm yesterday afternoon sparks from a tobacco barn set the woods on fire near the house, and sparks from the woods set the house on fire. In a little while it was seen that it would be useless to attempt to save the house. By hard work the other buildings were saved from the flames. Had there not been a lack of water in the well on account of drought, the residence would have been saved. Dr. Wooten, who is living at Dover had part of his furniture burned in the building. The residence was valued at $1,500, and was insured for $800.—Kinston Free Press, 21st.

Some intelligent and observing gentlemen were discussing in our presence a few days ago the power of money, and how people generally regard the man who is gifted at money-making alongside the man who is not so gifted. These gentlemen all agreed that the tendency to make money the standard of a man's excellency is growing. Many people who ought to have better sense have come to regard men purely by their power to make money. This is true with many people who stand high in church circles. They forget many nobler qualities when the special gift at money-making is lacking in a man's make-up.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Give the average man a million dollars, and the first thing he'd do would be to wish he had another.

Drought Unabated.

The regular weekly crop report issued Tuesday says:

Notwithstanding some improvement in crop conditions caused by local rains over limited areas, the reports of crop correspondents for the week ending Monday, August 20, 1900, are generally very unfavorable. Thunder showers occurred Monday (13th) and Thursday (15th) nights, with the most abundant precipitation, along the line from Charlotte through Raleigh to Norfolk, Va., but north and south of this line, as well over the majority of counties near the coast and in the mountain section, very little or no precipitation whatever was reported. Moreover, in those counties where temporary, and the soil is now dry all rain did not occur its influence was but temporary, and the soil is now as dry almost as before. The heat has not abated; the mean temperature was again 8 degrees daily above the normal, with maximum from 90 degrees to 100 degrees every day of the week. Practically, therefore, the drought still prevails with almost undiminished intensity, and is extremely distressing over those counties which have received no rain whatever. Plowing for fall crops is impossible; very few turnips have been sown; fodder pulling however has made good headway.

Cotton is holding out well only on stiff clay lands; all other crops have unquestionably deteriorated very much; the rain of the 16th caused some improvement in places a large number of correspondents state that cotton bolls are very small and are opening prematurely and lint from such cotton cannot fail to be short and inferior in quality; fresh blossoms are not forming and shedding continues. All reports agree that the cotton crop in the State, once the most promising crop in the state, has been materially cut short by the drought. Picking has commenced and the first new bales have been marketed.

Young corn throughout the sections where showers occurred this week may yield a fair crop under future favorable conditions, but generally the corn crop is now very poor; much fodder has dried up completely before the ears have matured. Tobacco is ripening very fast, and the late crop is not good; cutting and curing have advanced steadily. Peanuts, sweet potatoes and rice do not seem to be doing well, though refreshed by showers here and there. Gardens are practically worthless. Summer apples have been sun-scalded and have dropped considerably; winter apples also are poor, and on the whole the apple crop is inferior through many counties west of the Blue Ridge report a full and fine crop.

Mr. Jos. H. Wilson has a communication in Sunday's Charlotte Observer calling on the old Whigs and their descendants to get together and form a white Republican party in this State that will command the confidence and respect of all classes. If the negro question was eliminated by the adoption of the constitutional amendment—as many of us who advocate greater liberty of political opinion and action fondly hope and believe—then Mr. Wilson's idea may find root later on when—if the time ever comes—the white people can divide without endangering the Commonwealth. There are unquestionably a good many people in this State who have in recent years remained in the Democratic party almost solely on account of the color line—who are really Republicans on national issues. But what we started out to say is that if the national Republican party ever hopes to become really respectable in the South it must change its style of doing business. It must in this section eliminate the negro from prominence in party councils and from office holding, and it must also eliminate its scurrily white leaders who have, by their association with the negro, become as offensive, if not more so than he is. Whenever the national Republican party does this it may gain some accessions in the South. Until it changes its ways in regard to the South and its people, its increase in membership in this section will be small—at least for many years to come.—Statesville Landmark.

Valentine Turns to Bryan.

John J. Valentine, president of the wells-Fargo Express Company, who was a strong supporter of President McKinley and a heavy contributor to the McKinley-Hanna campaign fund four years ago, has declared for Bryan.

A letter from him dated at San Francisco was given at Democratic national headquarters, in which he said:

Believing that, between the claim of freedom that all men are entitled to equal political rights and the dogma of tyranny that might makes right there is no middle ground, I favor the indorsement of Bryan and Stevenson and straight support of the Democratic nominees."

As head of one of the greatest express corporations of the country and employer of thousands of men in the Western, Middle Western and Pacific Coast States, President Valentine is considered by Democratic leaders a factor in the campaign, and his declaration for the Democratic nominee is expected to have considerable effect.

They are either playing a game or the Republican managers are scared. From private sources it has recently come to our knowledge that in New York the Republicans are alarmed for Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and that they have hope of North Carolina. This is an indication of how political calculations may be at fault. The Republicans have no more chance to carry North Carolina in November than the Democrats to carry Ohio—which is to say, none at all. The prognostications of the politicians are not worth much just yet.—Charlotte Observer.

Profits of Advertising

There seems to be an implied agreement among persons engaged in certain lines of business to avoid the appearance of competition, and thus escape the expense of advertising. Being without experience, they do not know that the wresting of trade from rival establishments is not the only effect of the publication of business announcements. One of the results of advertising is to increase the total volume of trade. Most people have to be frequently reminded of their own needs and duties. The cost of judicious advertising is small compared with the profits.—Philadelphia Record.

Russia's Big Loan.

London, August 22.—It is reported in Odessa, according to a dispatch to The Daily Express, that in consequence of the strain upon Russia's financial resources, owing to the Chinese campaign, a specially accredited representative of the Russian minister of finance M. De Witte, has concluded, or is about to conclude, "an arrangement with a syndicate of all the great insurance companies in the United States" for a loan of 300,000,000 roubles.

The great markets like New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been searched for Bargains and we have them. We are going to sell for less money than anybody else. Why? Because we buy more goods than any other store in town and get larger discounts; and we sell for the smallest possible margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business and no rents to pay.

Lighting a Cigar With Ice.

The Albany Journal tells how a patent lawyer, who is naturally an ingenious man, supplied the place of a match in an unusual and unexpected manner.

He was consulting with a brother lawyer, and in the course of the talk the second man took a cigar from his pocket. Then he looked for a match, but none was forthcoming.

"Never mind," said the first man. A piece of ice will do equally well."

Lawyer No. 2 laughed, but No. 1 lifted the cover from the water cooler, took out a piece of clear ice about an inch thick, whittled it, into the shape of a disk, and with the palms of his hands melted its two sides convex, thus giving the form of a double convex lens or burning glass. With it he focused the sun's rays on the end of the cigar and set it on fire.—Wilmington Messenger.
