Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye disposed of three cases during the past week as follows:

Samuel Gibbs and Samuel F. Early, disorderly conduct, Early not guilty, Gibbs guilty, fined $2.50 and costs, amount $6.22.

Matt Cobb, disorderly conduct guilty, fined $2 and cost amount $4.60.

R. A. Nichols, selling whiskey on Sunday. From the evidence it was shown that Mr. Nichols went to his bar Sunday and got some whiskey for a sick child, whose parent was unable to get a doctor's certificate as the attending physician was out of town. The case was dismissed.

No New Trial for Powers.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 23.—After considering the affidavits submitted by both sides and hearing argument Judge Cantrill to-day overruled the motion for a new trial in the Powers case.

Those of our citizens who have passed over the bridge road recently say the shore and the river is covered with small fish dead, and the stench arising from those washed ashore is just terrible. An old fisherman says they are fresh water fish, and their death is caused from the water in the river being so salt.—Washington Messenger.

The North Carolina Confederate Veterans' Association met at Raleigh Wednesday night in annual session, Major-General Julian S. Carr presiding. He was unanimously re-elected, and Francis M. Parker, Wm. L. London, J. G. Hall and James M. Ray were re-elected brigadier-generals. It was stated that the hospital at the Soldiers' Home would be completed in October, but that there was no money to pay for furniture. General Carr thereupon said he would defray all the cost of equipment.

All the chances are that a just verdict was rendered in the conviction of Caleb Powers, formerly Secretary of State of Kentucky, of complicity in the assassination of Governor Goebel. The shooting took place from his office, from which he was conveniently absent at the time. His own testimony indiscriminated him, and it is hardly probable that a mistake has been made. Meantime ex-Governor Taylor is still absent from the State and in a State the Governor of which refuses to honor a requisition for him. His flight and continued absence under such circumstances is a confession of guilt. He is, of course, as guilty as Powers.—Charlotte Observer.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.
 RALEIGH N. C., August 27th.
 Next week Chairman Simmons and Secretary Pearsall will reopen Democratic headquarters here and begin in earnest the campaign for Bryan and Stevenson. As in the State election Chairman Simmons will put his whole heart and soul into the work and will direct and manage a brilliant campaign and canvass of the State, one which will doubtless be as successful, for all practical purposes, as the great victory of August; even if the majority for Bryans electors is not quite as large as that of Mr. Aycock and the Amendment, it will be as certain as decided, for never was the machinery in better shape and the chief engineer never better qualified or in better heart to compass the defeat of the enemy.

VANCE STATUE.

Though the crowd of visitors at the unveiling of the splendid bronze statue of Vance, last Wednesday, was not as large as expected, it was a representative one, the visitors coming from widely distributed sections of the State, quite a number from other States, and the occasion was a great success. Every one recognized the striking faithful likeness to the original, in both form and feature, as soon as the Statue was unveiled by his two little grand-daughters, Epsy and Ruth Vauce, and it will be a popular object of interest to visitors in all the years to come. And there he stands—North Carolina's greatest and most beloved son, in death as in life the people's idol—God bless his memory.

OFFICIAL VOTE ANNOUNCED.

The official count by the State board of canvassers makes the majority for the Amendment 53,932, out of a total vote of 310,502, the vote for the Amendment being 182,216, and against it 128,275. The total vote is over 26,000 less than that cast in 1898, but the Amendment received 4,718 votes more than the total democratic vote of that year, which was 177,499. Wake county cast a total vote of 10,146, which is 2,000 more than was cast in any other county. Thirty two counties gave majority against the Amendment—only four of them being east of Raleigh, the others nearly all in the western tier of counties. Only two votes in New Hanover and seven in Scotland were cast against it. The board of State canvassers completed their work last Saturday.

A curious feature is that while Turner's majority is the largest of all, he actually did not receive as many votes as Aycock (by 131), or Patterson, or Dixon, or Rogers. But Seawell, his opponent, was badly "scratched," which accounts for the figures. The prohibition candidate for Governor, Mr. Sheets received 358 votes.

MINOR MENTION.

The cotton and other crops throughout the eastern counties especially are said to be in worse condition than in many years, because of the protracted torrid and dry weather of August, the hottest consecutive "spell" in thirty years.

Mr. Bryan's prospects are growing brighter daily, and many former Republicans are announcing that they will support him. In this State ex-Senator Sharpe of Iredell is among the latest of the new converts of prominence. Of course he will carry North Carolina; there is not and has never been any good reason for believing there was even a doubt of this.

Tom Jones, a negro "preacher," is to be hanged here next Friday for the murder of a negress and her three children.

Queer Caper of Lightning.

Lightning cut a queer caper at New Salem last night. Mr. and Mrs. John Frost had just gone to bed when a heavy lightning stroke passed and a bolt struck their house. It came down the chimney into their room, struck the bed, threw Mr. Frost out on the floor and stunned him, burned Mrs. Frost's neck and turned her around in bed. The head of the bed and the rails were splintered. Neither of the occupants were seriously injured.—Philadelphia Times.

The Summer Session of the University, just closing, has been well attended and excellent work has been done. This session includes the Teachers' School, the Summer Term and the Summer Law School. The total number in attendance has been 145.

The prospects for the coming session are most encouraging. There have been an unusual number of applications for rooms and everything points to a large attendance. The Carr Dormitory stands ready for occupation and the exterior work upon the Alumni Building is practically complete. The filter, engine, etc. for the water works have come and work upon this will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Examinations for entrance will begin on September 12th and continue's three days. The fall registration of students will be held on September 13, 14 and 15th.

Laziness is the cause of much of the dire want seen among our people. If anyone will take the pains to look into the lives of those who are suffering a lack of the creature comforts of life he will find in most cases reason enough for it in idled-away time. In our country and climate the rewards of well-used time are always ample to earn needed comforts. The idler can hardly look for pity. Why should the toiler feel called on to give of his hard earnings to feed and clothe the man who will not work. May he not think with good reason that to do so is to say it is right to lead a lazy life. Pains, it may truly be said, are a just penalty for so black a vice. He who will not work when he can should not look for food and other comforts from them who do so. This vice is baser than most men seem to see it. It ought to be looked upon as being far more disgraceful and degrading than it is usually regarded. We are not combating the scriptural teaching about considering the poor. We would only point out the vice of laziness.—Rev. P. R. Law in Lumberton Robesonian

The negroes will never prove their claim to being good and law abiding citizens as long as they harbor and shield the criminal class of their race from the penalty of their wrong doing. Let one of them violate the law and instead of trying to apprehend and bring him to justice the very contrary is the practice among them. This fact has been demonstrated anew in the case of Mack Johnson, the chicken thief and desperado, who was shot by Mr. Alex Barnes Saturday night. Wounded as he is and needing the services of a doctor he has been aided and protected in keeping out of the way of the officers of the law, but for which he would have been captured ere this.

Boys Must not Smoke Cigarettes

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Hereafter no boy who smokes cigarettes will be employed in the Chicago Postoffice. Formerly the rule was merely that boys employed in the postoffice could not smoke during working hours. After a conference yesterday between Postmaster Gordon, Geo. W. Hubbard, Lacey Stewart, and W. E. Roberts it was decided that all cigarette smoking by the boys in the office must cease, and that no boys who had ever been addicted to the habit could get a place in the future.

Said He Would Kill Bryan.

Omaha, Neb., August 25—William M. Williams, a Welshman, employed in a smelter here, announced, it is said, to one of his fellow-workmen today that he intended to kill William J. Bryan when he came to attend the Jacksonian picnic this afternoon. The police were notified, and immediately arrested Williams, but as the charge against the prisoner could not be verified, they released him from custody, as they had reason to believe that the information denouncing Williams was purely malicious.

Hurtful Hypocrites.

Its enough to give anybody the bots to read the infamous rot coming from Northern doodlefunks in their dotage about the wrongs of the colored people in the South, when these hypocrites will shoot a colored man with hardly any provocation. In New York and Chicago last week infuriated mobs tried to kill every negro who showed his head upon the street, and could hardly be restrained by large forces of police. Race hatred is stronger in the North than it is in the South. And here in Virginia we are spending thousands of dollars yearly educating the negro for slaughter in the Northern and Western markets. Nice scheme, isn't it?—Orange Va., Observer.

Goods Selling Like Wild Fire!

The great markets like New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been searched for Bargains and we have them. We are going to sell for less money than anybody else. Why? Because we buy more goods than any other store in town and get larger discounts; and we sell for the smallest possible margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business and no rents to pay.

A summer girl is lovely,
Upon her hammock throne;
and
A summer girl is something
You'd better let alone.

Time cuts down all,
Both great and small,
Except a pensioned soldier,
They do not die,
But multiply
As fast as they grow older.

It is the ill wind which blows the physicians the most good.

The preferred creditor is the one who waits longest for his pay.

The more the advocates of imperialism talk the less they know.

There are people who talk so straight they lean forward.

Even the best temperance man begins life with milk and ends it with a bier.

The plutocrat's last expiring breath is "Give me gold or give me death."

Some people are never "buried in thought," because they haven't got soil enough.

Some people are so polite that they apologize to the engine for getting on its train.

The thermometer is a full graduate now, having taken the highest degrees this summer.

People go to the summer resorts for change, but they don't bring back any—in their pockets.

Now they are making a new kind of glue which is warranted to even mend the break of day."

The prettiest clasp in the world is the clasp of a lovely girl's plump dimpled arms around a fellow's neck.

Every man is artist enough to draw his own conclusions—and a pension if he ever served a day in the Union army.

We never outgrow our juvenile contempt for the person who runs and tells.

Marriage is often a failure, but seldom for the benefit of creditors.

Clothing may give a fellow an air of refinement but it's all put on.
