Tobacco Department.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

TOBACCO CROP SHORT.

Much has been written and said about the crop of Eastern North Carolina. There have been many different opinions expressed as to the shortage in acreage and condition. My own opinion has been that the acreage was not cut more than 25 per cent. and primarily I do not think that the intent of the farmers was to reduce more than that but when planting time came on many farmers were short in plants and as cotton at this time was selling at a fair price there was a very notable indifference and on their part to secure plants so many who had intended planting tobacco put their land in cotton. The punier section of tobacco growing in the east, that is east of Wilson and Rocky Mount has not this year 25 per cent. of a crop as compared with last year on account of scarcity of plants. I know a farm where last year there was fifty acres in tobacco this year there is seven and while as a matter of course this condition does not exist over any great section of the east yet the shortage is much greater than many at one time thought it would be. Now as to the condition it is simply bad. I have been connected with the tobacco business now about ten years and I have never known as poor conditions as have existed for the last 40 days. The crop was late to begin with there was little rain to grow the crop and it grew up spindling and small. About the time curing commenced the flea bugs put in their appearance and have worked havoc in many sections.

There will be in Pitt and adjoining counties this year lots of tobacco standing on the hill the 1st of September, a sight that has not been seen in this section in many years if ever. I was astonished to travel through the country last week and find so much tobacco that had scarcely been touched, and I am told that in Greene county it is even worse than it is here. I think that the color this year will be better than it has been in some time, or at least the first curings will be, for there has been no rains to interfere with the curing and fill the tobacco with sap, this causing it to splotch. In the whole the condition in the east is the worst I ever saw.

Lynching in Rutherford.

Charlotte, N. C., August 28.—A negro was lynched at Forest City, N. C., this morning, for the murder of a white man named Flack. Threats were also made to lynch a negro woman who had taken the gun to the murderer and a mob went in search of her. The trouble arose over the theft of some peaches by the negro.

A small negro boys was painfully cut in the face and on his hands yesterday afternoon by the explosion of a bottle of root beer which he was trying to open. The bottle burst into hundreds of pieces and the glass penetrated his skin in many places. He bled profusely for a short while, but the flow was soon checked and he started for home.—Wilmington Star.

The damage done by that Akron, Ohio, mob, which smashed and burned things because it couldn't find the negro it was hunting is estimated at $1,000,000, and the city records were all destroyed too.—Wilmington Star.

Four men broke into the office of the South Chicago Bottling Works Ninety-sixth street and Exchange avenue, early yesterday morning, and stole the safe, weighing 100 pounds. After carting it a mile out on the prairie they broke it open to find two 2-cent postage stamps.—Greensboro Record.

In nothing else as in the words we habitually use in the common talk of daily life do we show so plainly our degree of refinement, our culture or the lack of it, and the plane on which our thoughts move. It is therefore worth our while, do you not see, to take some pains with our conversation, not in such a way as to make us seem stiff and pedantic, but to recognize the fact that here, as in other departments of life and learning, it is training that tells in results.—September Ladies' Home Journal.

Gossip may be friendly and neighborly. I like the word because it conveys a suggestion of good news or good comment, but it is no longer gossip when it ceases to deal with pleasant happenings and love wishes and becomes critical or censorious or lapses into slander. The most unworthy talk in the world is that which is carried on in whispers and semi-confidences, and which retails the unfortunate errors of people whom we know. Never to say an unkind thing, never to imply an unfriendly thing even by our silence are rules which we should make and to which we should scrupulously adhere.—Margaret E. Sangster, in the September Ladies' Home Journal.

The distance that lends enchantment is not distance of manner.

A Card From F. M. Simmons.

Raleigh, N. C., August 28.—Democratic State Chairman Simmons today issued the following: "To Democratic Voters of North Carolina: "More than a year ago, in reply to a letter written to me by the editor of The Asheville Citizen, inquiring whether I would be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Marion Butler, I stated I was a candidate and would be profoundly grateful to the voters of my party if they should see fit to elect me to that exalted position.

"My reply to The Citizen was not only published in that paper, but generally copied by the press throughout the State. This declaration, together with the general understanding that I was a candidate, I had supposed would preclude the necessity of any further announcement of my candidacy, but letters of inquiry upon this subject recently received would seem to make it proper for me to again make the announcement of my candidacy before the primaries to be held November 8th.

As chairman of the democratic executive committee, my first duty will be to the party, and from now until the election in November I shall devote my time almost exclusively to the work of aiding the election of Bryan and Stevenson and the democratic nominees for congress. I shall, therefore, have but little time to devote to the promotion of my interests. After the campaign is thoroughly organized, I may be able to make a few speeches, but they will be made for the party and its nominees.

"In these circumstances, I commit my cause to my friends and supporters in the different counties and precincts with entire confidence that they will not permit it to suffer from neglect either in the canvass or at the polls. If their efforts are in vain, I shall be none the less appreciative. If they are rewarded with success, I cannot better attest my gratitude than by bringing to the discharge of the duties that will devolve upon me all the virtues of head and heart I may possess."

The Stork's Visits to the White House

The only child born in the White House to a President of the United States during his term of office is Esther Cleveland, who was born September 9, 1893. Nine other children have been borne in the White House; Julia Dent Grant, born in the closing days of her grandfather's second term; two grandchildren of President Tyler; four children of Colonel Andrew Jackson Donelson, born during the Jackson administration; Mary Louise Adams, granddaughter of John Quincy Adams, born in 1829; James Madison Landolph, born during the second term of his maternal grandfather.—September Ladies' Home Journal.

The tendency of people to make use of the advertising columns of newspapers is a result of the progress of civilization. Even the woman who wants a servant no longer hangs over the back fence to ask the housemaid next door to find one for her, but advertises her need. The time is coming when a business establishment of any kind that shall not consider the convenience of the public enough to use the advertising columns of newspapers will be regarded as belonging to the old horse-car period.—Philadelphia Record.

The Church's Hospitality

"Every church should have a committee of ladies able and willing to call upon newcomers in the congregation," writes "A Minister's Wife," in the September Ladies' Home Journal. "These ladies should be attractive personally and socially, and the minister's wife may or may not be a member of this committee; she should not be its chairman. The committee should be organized quietly by the minister, should remain as nearly unknown as possible, and should never be referred to from the pulpit nor in any church publication. If it is, half of its efficacy will depart. There should be a committee on hospitality in every church—particularly if the church is large—whose business it is to welcome the visiting clergyman, the lecturer, the evangelist, and provide for him suitable entertainment elsewhere than at the minister's house unless the minister has expressed a wish to receive and entertain such a guest."

Epidemic of Assassination

Dingress, W. Va., Aug. 25.—Logan county is in a turmoil of excitement. Court has just adjourned and there is no probability of a grand jury in two months to stop the epidemic of assassination which seems to be sweeping over the country.

Within twenty-four hours three men have been waylaid and shot on the head-waters of Island creek. Ira Ellis was shot and dangerously wounded Thursday night, from ambush. About the same hour Louis Elmore was fired upon and his horse shot from under him. At 11 o'clock yesterday, Rev. Millard Stafford was waylaid on the head-waters of Guyan by two persons who attempted to kill him. He was shot in the left side and arm, but will recover. No arrests have been made, though the officers are leaving no stone unturned to discover the assassins. No cause can be assigned for the lawlessness.

Yellow Fever Record at Havana During the Month of August.

Washington, August 28.—The surgeon general of the Marine Hospital Service to-day received a telegram from the chief quarantine officer of Cuba, at Havana, stating that during the month of August, up to the 26th, there have been 204 cases of yellow fever reported at Havana and 34 deaths. Many of the cases were mild. There were 11 new cases on the 27th.

On account of the mildness of the cases and the irregular duration, the surgeon general has wired the various quarantine stations on the Atlantic and Gulf coast to use particular care to detect such cases.

Bad Men Bagged.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 28.—Officers here bagged two bad men today. One of them is Frank Lee Craft, arrested on a warrant charging him with stealing $69 in New Bern, and skipping a bond of a hundred dollars for his appearance at trial. He secured work here as a painter, and had been here for several weeks under the name of Charley Johnson. He will be sent to New Bern.

Henry Seals, colored, was arrested for stealing the horse of Mrs. F. W. Boeger, at Whiteville. He sold the stolen animal and waited on the purchaser for part of the money. A letter written over an assumed name, asking for payment led to his detection and arrest.

MASONIC HALL SCHOOL.

Opens Monday September 3rd.

Misses Thornton and Parker will arrive in the city tonight and take charge of The Masonic School Monday morning. The prospect is good for a full school, and in order that there may be as little delay and confusion as possible in getting the schedule of recitations and other minor matters concerning the school adjusted at the earliest moment after the opening. The management earnestly requests all pupils to be promptly on hand Monday morning, the first day and the first hour. This is a good suggestion, and this paper would urge the patrons who contemplate patronizing the school to make an effort to have their children ready to begin school on the first day. This would help the teachers, and be a great advantage to the pupils.

We are glad to announce that every indication points to a full attendance, and the nucleus for a first class permanent school seems now to be assured. A fact which should bring a feeling of satisfaction to every citizen of Greenville, for in the school system of our town rests in a large measure, the future development of our people.

Czar to Seek Loan in France.

Paris, August 28.—With regard to the Czar's rumored visit to Paris, the French press seems firmly persuaded that it is undertaken with a view of raising another Russian loan in Paris.

As evidence of this, the preliminary visit of M. DeWitte, the Russian Minister of Finance, who was here recently, is quoted. The Libre Parole declares it knows for certain that an attempt recently made by Russia to raise a large loan in America failed, and that as money is absolutely necessary to the Russian Government at this moment a determined attempt will be made to raise it in France.

This impression is altogether changing the popular attitude with regard to a France-Russian alliance, and many papers, representing the most diverse opinions, are declaring that France is paying far too high a price for the friendship of her northern neighbor.

At the present juncture this attitude of France is important, for if the France-Russian alliance breaks down the whole face of European politics will be changed.

"The boss gave all hands a picnic Saturday afternoon, with all the beer we could drink," proudly exclaimed a Kensington workman. "Yes," replied a friend; "and I guess he had his hands full."

SEEN AND HEARD IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Aug. 29. It is reported that, Mr. Hugh Paul will go to New York in a few days, to be married.

There is perhaps as much driving (for pleasure) in our town, as in any one of like size, and I expect more dust. We have a street sprinkler, but no one is benefitted by it, except those on Main street, between Market and Gladden street and a small portion of Market street, we are all in town however when the tax-collector comes around.

A gentleman received a call by 'phone recently, that he was wanted at once, and when he went, a bill was presented. I am not informed that he "cussed."

Mrs. S. T. Beckwith came up from Hyde on the 27th (with about a dozen young ladies) en route for Louisburg school.

We are pained to hear of the death of Mrs. W. A. Woolard, (nee Respass) on the morning of the 26th. She leaves several children and a husband to mourn their loss.

Some of us will need to half sole our pants it is so quiet here and dull, only two mills (out of the seven) running.

The water in the river at this place is so salt that sea nettles are abundant.

We spoke of the land in Hyde being on fire, the road is burned in two places and in one place so badly that it is not used and some doubts as to repairing it exists.

The meeting at Athens Chapel resulted in about 50 additions.

James Clark, who has been in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Lumber Co. at Georgetown S. C. has accepted a situation with the Allegany Co. at Belhaven.

Mr. Fulford, of Belhaven, who was with Booth & Co., has located at Washington.

Lying in state—diplomatic communications.

And now the Manayunk Sage rises in his place to ask why the marriage of a rich man's son to a poor girl is called a mesalliance, while the marriage of a rich man's daughter to a disreputable and bankrupt nobleman is termed a social triumph.
