Nothing to Eat

Ayden, N. C., Sept. 7th 1900.—Ayden hungry! Reduced to fat pork, corn bread, biscuit and coffee. Not a ham nor a piece of bacon of any description to be had for love or money. Chickens and eggs scarce as hen's teeth. One could hardly believe, situated as Ayden is, surrounded with the best farming lands in the county, that there would be any scarcity of meat and vegetables, but there is nothing of the kind to be had in the vicinity. If there is any in the county for sale we want it. Here is the place to get your money for it. Bring along your sweet potatoes, old field peas, late roasting ears, or anything.

PLAN FOR PRIMARY.

At a meeting of the Democratic State committee held in Raleigh Wednesday night, R. D. Reid, of Rockingham, presided. Provision was made for holding a senatorial primary in November, when the national election takes place. The following was adopted:

"Whereas, The Democratic organization of North Carolina is part of the national Democratic organization and this committee is custodian of the interest of said organization in North Carolina, and,

"Whereas, this committee is instructed to make provision for holding a primary on the first Tuesday of next November for the election of a United States Senator by the Democratic voters of the State, as well as by those who have voted the Democratic ticket in the State election, and,

"Whereas, it is the duty of this committee, as well as its earnest desire to stimulate as far as possible voting for Bryan and Stevenson and for the Democratic congressional candidates, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the term 'Democratic voter' in the resolution of the State convention shall be construed to include all white and Croatan electors who voted in the November election for the Democratic presidential electors and for the Democratic candidates for Congress, as well as all white and Croatan electors who voted the Democratic ticket last August; that we hereby extend invitation to every voter in North Carolina not already so entitled to qualify himself for voting in said senatorial primary by casting his ballot on that day for the Democratic presidential and congressional tickets."

Immediately after adoption of the resolution describing electors for the primaries Committeeman Means offered the following resolution, which, on motion of H. A. London, was tabled by unanimous vote of the committee, except Col. Means.

"Resolved, That the insertion of the word 'white' in the resolution about the primaries shall not be construed to mean any justification of raising again the race issue in this State, which we affirm again as we did in the last campaign, has been settled in North Carolina."

The following, offered by S. A. Ashe, was adopted:

"Resolved, That the State executive committee shall at a meeting prior to the election in November, appoint a sub-committee of seven of its members on which the several senatorial aspirants shall have representatives who shall constitute a board to whom duplicate county returns shall be sent by the county chairman by registered mail and said board shall meet at Raleigh, November 20th, and canvass the returns and announce the result."

The following were appointed to compose this sub-committee: J. S. Manning, C. M. Busbee, H. A. London, E. L. Travis, A. D. Watts, J. H. Pou, B. S. Royster. The committee adopted the plan of holding the senatorial primary by which it will be held under supervision of Democratic poll-holders appointed by the county executive committee. The plan thus adopted is that offered by A. D. Watts, of Iredell. The following offered by Heriot Clarkson, was adopted:

"Resolved, first, That the chairman of this committee appoint a committee of five, including himself, to prepare a primary system to be participated in by the white voters of North Carolina, with plans, rules, regulations for government and conduct thereby and report the same to a meeting of this committee hereafter to be called by the said chairman.

"Resolved, second, That said committee prepare a bill to be submitted to the next Legislature with a view of legalizing and regulating said primaries."

Can't Remember His Name

In the White Plains Hospital is a man who does not know what his name is, although he argues lucidly on the currency question; who does not know where his home is, although he can name nearly all of the prominent cities of the United State; who is absolutely ignorant of nearly all of the events of his life, although he writes romances with consecutive plots; who can count up to one hundred, but cannot add, multiply subtract or divide; who cannot conceive that twenty-five objects are more than five objects, although he remembers that his trade as a marble-cutter he had one hundred chisels and can describe their dimensions in inches.

Surgeons that have examined him say that in all their readings they have not encountered as strange a case. They say that there is some injury to his brain, causing the most remarkable result in twisting his memory. He is supposed to be the victim of a stroke of lightning.

The man was found lying unconscious, with his feet in a pool of water, during a terrific thunderstorm on August 6. No sign of a bruise was found on him, save a slight abrasion of the right cheek, caused doubtless by a fall.

He is a powerful, handsome man seemingly about 30 years old. He is five feet 11 inches in height, weighs 220 pounds, and is superbly proportioned. His hair is dark brown, with just a suspicion of curl; he has a heavy brown mustache, his eyes are blue and his features regular. His teeth are perfect.

When the stranger was asked his name a puzzled look came to his eyes.

"My name," he said, "is William P.—"

That was as far as he got for weeks. A few days ago he decided that his name was William P. Carter, but yesterday he concluded that Carter was wrong. He said that it did not sound like his name nor did it look like it written.

By dint of careful, patient questioning the stranger was made to say that he was born in Chicago. He remembers that he was a worker in marble and repaired some of the statuary at the World's Fair.

He writes romances in which his characters are natural, but do odd things. Those who have read his stories say that in figuring out unexpected denouements he is nothing short of a genius.

He is familiar with the works of most of the standard authors, and quotes passages from them for hours to the surprised men who occupy his ward.—New York Sun, 4th.

Lafayette Kissed a Belle.

"Lafayette's stay in Alexandria, Virginia, upon his return visit to America, was a succession of fetes, opening with a civic and military parade," writes Mrs. Thaddeus Horton, in the September Ladies' Home Journal. "The event to which every one looked forward with delight—the grand ball. It was held in the double drawing-rooms of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cazenore, which, after English fashion, occupied the second floor. The apartments were richly decorated and were thronged with the elite of Virginia society and many notable guests from Washington City and elsewhere. Lafayette stood in the rear drawing-room and received with the mayor of Alexandria, who introduced the guests to him. During the presentations a young lady from middle Virginia, a great belle, came up, and on being introduced asked Lafayette to kiss her, which he immediately did. Everybody was shocked at such an exhibition of immodesty on her part, and wondered how the general could be so undignified as to comply with her request. Nothing else was talked of the entire evening but this remarkable occurrence. The ladies all thought it quite shameful and a disgrace to the occasion and blamed both the girl and the marquis. The gentleman, however, thought Lafayette excusable under the circumstances."

Arthur Sewall Dead.

Bath, Me., Sept. 5.—Arthur Sewall, vice presidential candidate on the Democratic ticket with Mr. Bryan four years ago, died at his summer home, Small Point, about 12 miles from this city, at 8:15 this morning of apoplexy, the stroke having having been sustained last Sunday. He was 64 years of age. Mr. Sewall had not been in good health for some time, although he was not considered to be seriously ill. He had been advised by his physician to rest, as early as last June, and he attended the Democratic national convention in July against the advice of his doctor. He appeared to have suffered no ill effects from the journey, however, and was passing the summer chiefly at Small Point when the fatal stroke seized him. The unconsciousness which followed the attack continued until death came.

Arthur Sewall was born in Bath in 1845. His father for years was prominent as a ship-builder and the son fitted himself for the trade. The firm of Arthur Sewall & Company was formed and the corporation now controls one of the largest of American sailing fleets. Mr. Sewall also was one of the prominent railroad men of New England. For nine years he was president of the Maine Central, and he was president of the Eastern Railroad until it was absorbed by the Boston & Maine. For many years he was the Maine representative on the Democratic committee. Mr. Sewall is survived by two sons, Harold M. Sewall, who was stationed by the government at Hawaii, and Wm. D. Sewall, who is in business in Bath.

Olney Comes Out for Bryan.

New York, Sept. 5.—The World prints a letter from Richmond Olney, Secretary of State during the Cleveland administration, in which he declares his intentions of supporting Mr. Bryan for President. After saying that Mr. Bryan is hardly the candidate he should choose if he had his way in the matter, and that he entirely dissented from parts of the Kansas City platform, Mr. Olney says:

"Be it admitted that the Democratic party, its platform and its candidate are open to much just criticism, yet all things considered, would not its triumph be the best outcome of the political presidential contest?"

Mr. Olney then criticises the policy of the McKinley administration regarding the Philippines and thinks that the country will soon find itself in the toils of a Chinese problem even more costly and menacing than the Philippines problem itself.

Old Wood Burner Back.

Instead of keeping the good coal burner engine over here, as a number of our business people requested, the railroad company have had the smoke stack of the old wood burner greased up and sent it back on the run. There were some cheap looking folks about the depot Thursday evening when the old engine came back. This is about the best paying branch on the Coast Line system and it gets about the poorest equipment. It seems that any of the old cars or engines are good enough to run over here.

A CALL TO DEMOCRATS.
Bryan and Stevenson Club Will be Organized in Every Precinct in North Carolina on Sept. 15th. State Convention on Sept. 26th.

Recently the Honorable William J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate for President; the Honorable Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for Vice-President; Honorable James K. Jones, Chairman Democratic National Committee, and the Honorable William R. Hearst, President National Democratic Clubs, issued the following, to-wit:

To the Democrats of the United States:

In order that the fight for the rescue of the country from Republican policies may be carried on everywhere with vigor and earnestness, we urge all citizens throughout the United States, who are willing to meet in their respective committees on Saturday afternoon or evening, September 1st, 1900, for the purpose of organizing city or precinct Democratic clubs, where such clubs have not already been organized. These organizations being Democratic, should avoid ostentation and extravagance. The fight must be carried on by American citizens in behalf of American principles, and there should be no delay in perfecting club organizations. When a club is organized, the secretary should at once send to W. R. Hearst, President of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, No 1370 Broadway, New York City, the name of the club, roster of officers, date of organization and number of members.

W. J. BRYAN,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
JAMES K. JONES,
Ch'm. Dem. Nat'l. Com.
WM. R. HEARST.

Pres. Nat'l. Ass'n Dem. Clubs.

On account of the election recently held in this State, as well as the shortness of the time, the undersigned do not deem it advisable to undertake the organization of clubs in this State before the middle of September, and, after conference, recommend Friday, 14th day of September (at night) as the time for the organization of clubs in the towns and cities, and Saturday, the 15th day of September, as the day for their organization in the country precincts, and request that on those dates meetings be held in the several precincts of the State for the purpose of organizing clubs in accordance with the suggestion contained in the call above set out.

There are in North Carolina about one thousand White Supremacy Clubs. It is recommended that wherever these clubs now exist, that they meet on the one or the other of the days above mentioned, and that they be organized for the present National campaign into Bryan and Stevenson clubs, under the same general plan of organization under which they have heretofore operated. In addition to the precinct clubs heretofore mentioned, it is recommended that there be organized in every county a county club, to be composed exclusively of the chairman of the several precinct clubs, and that the chairman of the County Executive Committee shall be ex-officio chairman of the county club.

For the purpose of appointing delegates at large to the convention of the National Association of clubs to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., on October 3rd, for the purpose of holding a great mass meeting in the State's capitol to ratify the nomination of Bryan and Stevenson, and for the transaction of other business connected with club work in the State, a State convention of the Democratic clubs is hereby called to convene in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 26th of September, and each precinct club is hereby requested, at its first meeting, to select delegates to this convention and elect one delegate for every ten members to the National Convention. Each club shall be entitled to one delegate to the conventions for every ten and fraction over five names on the club roster.

When a club is organized, the secretary is requested to at once send to Hon. W. R. Hearst, President National Association Democratic Clubs, No. 1370 Broadway, New York City, and F. M. Simmons, Chairman of State Executive Committee, Raleigh, N. C., name of the club, roster of officers, date of organization, and number of members.

Farmers Lead.

One of the most prominent farmers of the county tells us that he followed the tobacco sale closely through every house Thursday, and that prices on all grades run fully a cent a pound higher on the floor of the Farmers warehouse than on any other. The man who said this is as good a judge of tobacco as there is in the county, and he had no interest whatever in making this statement but only gave facts just as he found them.
