WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept., 8th.
Mrs. C. F. Fair has bought out the millinery store of Mrs. J. D. Cox and will conduct a fashionable millinery during the coming season. She will at all times have on hand the latest patterns. In fact everything kept in this special line can be found at her place of business. All the ladies are cordially invited to call and examine her goods as she feels sure that she can satisfy even the taste of the most fastidious. Trimming hats a specialty.

We regret exceedingly having in our last items overlooked the departure of Misses Rosa and Laura Cox, for Raleigh. They will enter the fall session of the Raleigh Female Baptist College. They will be sadly missed here at home, yet we all wish their stay in the Capital city may be both pleasant and profitable.

G. W. Parker cut his hand right severely with some glass last Sunday, but we are glad to say that he is very much improved now.

To look at the show window of Mr. B. F. Manning one would think R. D. (Bo.) Cherry was around. It is very pretty and displays nice taste on the part of Josh and Ed who can get there too.

Miss Lucy Jenkins, of Bethel, who has been visiting Mrs. W. M. Dixon, left for her home yesterday.

Business has been increasing so rapidly that some of the factories have to work far into the night.

It is almost a daily occurrence for the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. to ship wagons to other states. They have a reputation far and wide for their wagons and carts. And well they may, they are very particular in regard to the construction and use nothing but the very best material in their make up. They have for their maxim "Honesty is the best policy." Such men as these are bound to succeed. You can't down an honest man nor a working man, try when you will.

Yesterday evening three beautiful young Misses paid our office window a most pleasant and welcome visit. In their buoyancy and sweetness they reminded us of the happy past when we too were young and happy but alas! old Mother Time has payed havoc with our curly locks and handsome face. The girls say handsome yet, we don't know, but of one thing they can rest assured our heart is just as young and tender as ever.

What is going to happen? A week has passed without the perpetration of an outrage on a negro in any northern city! It is about time for the northern press to begin on the south again.

Six thousand new offices are officially stated to have been created by the last Congress and about seven millions additional have been appropriated to pay these and the expenses of the commissions of President McKinley. Imperialism comes high.

Pension Commissioner Evans has discovered that he is pensionable under the law for defective hearing. He didn't know that his hearing was defective until a doctor accidentally discovered it, but nevertheless our lovely laws will give him $6 a month. There is no telling where this thing is going to stop. The first thing we know McKinley will be drawing a pension for his weak spine, due, of course, to his experience in the army.

The Congressional convention of the fourth district, held in Raleigh Thursday nominated E. W. Pou, of Johnson county, for Congress. A warm contest for the nomination preceded the convention, and once Mr. Pou withdrew from the race. At the convention 113 ballots were taken before the choice fell on any one.

The eighth district convention held at Lenoir nominated J. C. Buxton, of Forsyth, for Congress, and W. S. Pearson, of Pitt for Elector.

Talk is cheap, but a good parrot comes high.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 7 1900.

Mr. McKinley is still in Washington, but instead of devoting his time to Chinese matters, he is hard at work studying up schemes to help his waning political fortunes and to head off the stampede of Republicans to Bryan, which confidential reports have caused him to fear. He will send four members of the cabinet on the stump. Postmaster General Smith has already gone to Maine and from there will go on an extended speaking tour, including West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas and any other States where there is a demand for his services. Secretary Wilson will stump in agricultural sections. Attorney General Griggs will not make a long trip, but will speak wherever Hanna desires, and Secretary Root will make a few speeches, mostly in the big cities. Mr. McKinley's personal task is to try to answer in his letter of acceptance some of the broadsides fired at the administration by Col. Bryan in his speeches, and he recognizes that it is a difficult one. Secretary Gage is not a speaker, but he was ordered to write the answer to the recent letter of Hon. Carl Schurz, which tore up Mr. Gage's recent attempt to create a financial scare so effectively, and as soon as he finished the task he went away for a month's vacation. The contents of Mr. Gage's last letter may be summed up as "what I said first, I say last."

Senator Blackburn spent several days in Washington this week. He has no doubts of the result in Kentucky. He said of democratic prospects: "Mr. Bryan will carry the state by a large majority. Mr. Beckham will also be elected. There is already a movement on foot to flood Kentucky in November with United States deputy marshals. It has been talked over by the republicans and the plans will be carried out. We have but one United States district in Kentucky, and Judge Evans presides over the court. He and I have long been warm personal friends. We served together in the State legislature, and there has never been anything to mar the pleasant social relations between us. But in politics Judge Evans is a bitter and narrow partisan. The law allowing deputy marshals at the polls was repealed eight years ago, but last year Judge Evans claimed authority for appointing them, and he will do so again this year."

The Inestimable Blessings of Good Roads.

We had a talk with a gentleman not long since who lives ten miles from Charlotte on one of the magnificent roads leading out from the city, from five to twelve miles, like the spokes of a great wheel. He told us that before the road was completed the people in his neighborhood dreaded the fall hauling to town more than any other part of the year's work. Then the great question was to find teams to pull a bale or two of cotton through the mud to town; now the trouble is to find wagons strong enough to hold up as much as a pair of "rabbit" mules, as he calls them, can pull. To be sure these roads were built at an enormous expense to the county, even with the advantage of convict labor, but they have paid a thousand fold. The city of Charlotte could have afforded to have built the roads for the benefit to the trade of the town; and the farmers after all are the ones most greatly blessed by them. They are worth more to town than any trunkline railroad in the world would be; and they make life in the country so much brighter and happier. Along with the other blessings that will come to North Carolina within the first quarter of the new century we earnestly hope the improvement in country roads will be among the best sign of civilization and progress will be able to ride through a neighborhood in a trot without danger of a broken bone.

Every town in the State ought to take special pride in the roads leading into it from every direction.—Charity and Children.

A Paradise for Squirrels.

At Mr. Albert Miller's, in Davie county, squirrels are very plentiful. They can be seen on the trees in the yard, and over the building almost any time. They have eaten up about ten bushels of Mr. Miller's corn this year and at one time sometime ago he counted fifteen squirrels making for his corn crib. It was more than he could stand and he got after them with his gun and killed two at one shot. His corn cribs are favorite resorts for the squirrels of the settlement. This place seems to be a paradise for squirrels and beats anything for this animal that we have ever seen before.—Salisbury Truth-Index.

Whites Defend a Negro.

Macon, Ga., September 6.—Twenty one of the representative business and professional men of Wilkinson county came into Macon today to see that a negro, Napoleon Anderson, did not like friends if the United States commissioner should bind him over on a charge of interfering with United States officers. Anderson has taken out a warrant of larceny against two revenue officers passing through the country, charging them with stealing cane. The officers gave bond and then arrested the negro, saying he had sought to interfere with the discharge of their duties. The white men of the county rose up in arms and refused with force, to allow the negro to be taken away without the due process of law. The officers gave up the negro and came to Macon, obtaining warrants for many of the white citizens. These citizens came in today and brought the negro with them and announced that the negro had lived an exemplary life in their midst, every dollar in the county would be used to see that he was not imposed on.

The cases will all be heard next week.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through

The Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

BOLD ROBBERY.

Two Men Arrested for the Crime.

Lafayette Cox has a room in the Greenville warehouse and stays in the building at night as a guard and to receive any tobacco that farmers arrive with during the night. Friday night he was awakened by a noise and saw two men in his bed room, one of them white and the other colored. As soon as the men discovered that Cox was awake they began talking about tobacco and intimated that they had a load outside. Cox started to get up to see about it when one of them asked if he had any whiskey, and upon getting a negative answer said "then you need not get up, we will go somewhere else." The men then left the building.

When Cox got up early this morning his pants were missing with something over $33 dollars in money in the pockets, and he at once concluded that the visitors to his room during the night had taken them. He reported the matter to Chief of Police and a search was started. He identified Charles Barrett, white, and John Curtis, colored, as the two men who were in his room. Barrett was noticed spending money freely this morning and was arrested. Curtis tried to get away and hid down in the railroad ravine, but W. C. Hines' blood hounds were put on the track and caught him.

Barrett and Curtis were seen together several times during last night.

They were given a preliminary trial this afternoon before Justice H. Harding and were placed under $200 justified bond for appearance at next term of Court. In default of bond both were committed to jail.

Fix the Bridges.

We have been requested to call the attention of overseers of the county roads to the condition of bridges along the public roads. In some places they are so bad that farmers coming to town with loads of tobacco and produce, find it very difficult to cross them. They should be looked after.

PAID OUT $14,000.

The Bank's Record for One Day.

A good size tobacco break now and then sets some of the little two and three warehouse markets by the ear, and it is amusing to hear them sing out that they are going to sell more than any other market, and so forth. There are six warehouses in Greenville, and Friday all of them were nearly full. The sale started at 9 o'clock and lasted all day. It was not only the biggest day of the season so far, but counted by dollars it was up to if not a little ahead of any day the market has ever had. We are not going to reckon the day by pounds, but some idea of what the day was can be judged by the statement of Mr. J. L. Little, cashier of the Bank of Greenville, who tells us his bank paid out about $14,000 Friday. If that don't look like Greenville is selling tobacco we don't know what does.

THROWN FROM BUGGY.

Collision with Telephone Pole

Miss Bettie Hooker has a very handsome buggy and drive horse. Friday evening she was out driving alone, and at a time when she happened not to be giving careful attention to guiding the horse her buggy collided with a telephone pole. Miss Hooker was thrown out of the buggy and it frightened her so badly that she fainted, but fortunately she was not injured.

The accident occurred in front of the residence of Mr. R. M. Starkey, where the young lady was carried, and she soon sufficiently recovered to be taken home.

One shaft of the buggy was broken and the front axle slightly bent. The horse was perfectly gentle and stopped still as soon as the collision occurred.

Military.

At the meeting of the Greenville Light Infantry on Friday afternoon E. E. Griffin was elected Second Lieutenant of the company. There were three other candidates in the field and Mr. Griffin was elected after several ballots had been taken. One of the candidates withdrew during the contest. New guns and uniforms for the company are expected soon.

Looking at other people work makes some people tired.
