CROSS ROADS AGAIN.

Another Robbery Reported over There.

Parker's Cross Roads, about one and a half miles north of Greenville, is becoming famous for robberies and attempted robberies. Mr D. T. House lives there and carries on a general merchantile business. Several times lately there have been reports of somebody breaking into his store or house and once he fired several shots at the intruders.

Saturday night a messenger came over to town for Mr. W. C. Hines to take his blood hounds and go to the Cross Roads at once, as there had been another robbery. The way that the story of this robbery goes is that Mr. House was in the bar room of the store waiting on a customer and heard something rattling in the main store room. He went in the latter room and found that the whole money drawer had been pulled out from under the counter and the drawer and contents taken away. The drawer contained the day's sales, said to be about $50.

Mr. Hines went out with his hounds and struck a trail. The dogs run the trail around a circuit of about five miles through fields and woods and when they came out were right back at the store from where they started. At some places where the ground was soft tracks of two persons could be plainly seen.

Mrs. Henry Sheppard Dead.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon death invaded another home in our community and robbed it of a devoted wife and mother. At that hour Mrs. Ada Estelle Sheppard, wife of Mr. Henry Sheppard, passed peacefully away. She had been in poor health for many months, and during the present summer had suffered intensely. She held on bravely to life, regretting to be taken from her loved ones, but the ravages of disease could not be checked, and the ties of love were broken.

Mrs. Sheppard was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sutton. She was born May 12th, 1859, making her a few months more than 41 years old. On November 29th, 1876, she was married to Mr. Henry Sheppard. The husband add three children—Miss Lina, Hugh and Henry, Jr.—survive her. Besides her parents, she also leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Ragsdale and Mrs. D. J. Whichard.

Her life was one of devotion to her home and friends; nay more, she was even self-sacrificing to an unusual degree, giving many of her best years in almost unceasing ministrations to others. Deeds of kindness marked her pathway, and she had a host of friends who will sadly miss her.

The burial will take place Tuesday afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

The Great Congressional Convention at Raleigh Last Week and the Result.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Sept. 10.

During the last few days the Democrats of the Fourth and Eighth Congressional Districts have put up two very "heavy-weights" as their standard bearers—Hon. Edwin W. Pou of Johnston and Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Forsyth—gentlemen who not only are immense in avoirdupois but intellectually the peers of any representative North Carolina, or any State, has sent to the national legislature in many years. Their combined weight will exceed 500 pounds, and in stature their height will reach in the neighborhood of twelve and a-half feet—fine physical specimens of North Carolina manhood. But, in "taking their measure," regard should also be had for their unbounded love of their State and its people, and the qualifications which they possess in such eminent degree to serve their constituency. It was a hard and a long-drawn-out contest in the convention here last Thursday—the most stubbornly contested one within the recollection of the people of the Raleigh district. But no mistake was made in selecting the nominee, for "Ed." Pou is one of the very brightest young men in the State and will by his course and career in Congress reflect the highest credit upon the district and the State.

The friends of Congressman Atwater stuck to him for 110 ballots, Mr. Pou being nominated on the 111th ballot at one o'clock a. m., on the morning of Friday, the convention having been in continuous session (with a short recess for supper) since noon of Thursday. On the final ballot Mr. Pou received 185 votes, Mr. W. C. Hammer, of Randolph 90, Capt. W. B.

Shaw, of Vance 26, and Mr. Atwater 26. Vance would have changed its vote to Hammer if it would have nominated him, but Mr. Pou already having 20 votes more than enough to nominate him it was not done. The vote was made unanimous, on motion of Mr. Hammer, and he and the other defeated candidates, including Mr. Atwater, pledged the nominee their hearty support.

Mr. Atwater never received as many as 100 votes on any ballot, 165 being necessary to a choice, and more than two-thirds of the delegates were determined to nominate a "straight Democrat."

The Randolph candidate—who by the way, is the editor of the Asheboro Courier, as well as a lawyer of fine ability, and chairman of his county committee—made a splendid run, and made many friends personally among the delegates from other counties to most of whom he was a stranger until that day. I have heard many compliments paid our brother "knight of the pencil," and, being a young man, I hazard nothing in predicting that deserved honours will come to him in the future.

In Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Forsyth, the State will send to Congress (in preference to declaimer Spencer Blackburn) one of her truest sons and ablest men. The writer has known him well for many years and I never knew or heard aught but good of him. It is encouraging to realize that we are to be represented at the national capital next year and thereafter by two such splendid representative men as Pou and Buxton.

THE NATIONAL CANVASS.

The democrats have now nominated their candidates in every congressional district, and they are: Small, Claud Kitchen, Thomas, Pou, W. W. Kitchen, Bellamy, Klutz, Buxton, Crawford—all but three having already served in Congress, and a fine body of men they make. Let's elect them all.

Chairman Simmons has been in Washington, D. C., during the last few days, in conference with National Chairman Jones and Congressional Chairman Richardson. The Congressional campaign will now, upon his return, start up in earnest; and in about ten days the regular appointments of a number of fine canvassers, in addition to the work of the electors and congressional candidates, will be announced. Mr. Simmons is very earnest and determined in his work and has the fullest confidence in the ability of the Democrats to carry North Carolina for Bryan and Stevenson by a decided majority. To my mind there has never been the slightest reason to doubt this—unless, for instance, we had a fool chairman like the Republicans that would make a "bad break" in favor of the enemy. On the contrary we've got the finest chairman in the South, admittedly, and so we have no fears.

THE SENATORIAL PRIMARY.

The State Committee at their meeting here decided to invite "all white men who voted for Bryan and Stevenson and all who voted the Democratic State ticket" to participate in the primary for U. S. Senator. This will allow pretty much all the white men of the State east of Goldsboro to do so, omitting only the Republicans and Populists who voted against Aycock and who will vote for McKinley. If they voted the State Democratic ticket, it is not necessary to vote any national ticket to qualify themselves, it would seem.

A board of control of seven members (including friends of each candidate) will canvass the returns, viz., Clement Manly, Charles M. Busbee, H. A. London, E. L.

Travis, A. D. Watts, J. H. Pou and B. S. Royster.

The Democratic county chairmen will regulate matters in their respective counties and appoint two pollholders for each precinct, who shall favor different candidates "when possible."

Big, Broad Papers Have Big, Broad Readers

Nobody is ordering Charity and Children stopped. Therefore what we are saying is not backhanded lick at a living soul. But we are constrained to offer a few feeble remarks upon this subject again because we can do so from an independent standpoint. People ought not to flare up when an editor publishes something they do not believe. A very intelligent gentleman told us not long ago that The New York Sun is a rabid and hateful paper, but he had long been a constant reader and admirer of it. It spoke his mind without fear or favor and this man stood by it for that reason. Many would order it never to darken their doors again, for that very thing. Sometimes an editor has a better point of view than his readers, and they should at least be sure of their ground before they punish him. We heard of an irate father who took his son out of a school because the teacher insisted that he must spell "tater" with a p. And then, dear brother granting that you are right and the editor wrong, you should have with a man who is sometimes compelled to dash off matter with the foreman standing at the door yelling for "copy." Do you think you would always say the right and proper thing under certain circumstances? Never forget that no editor tries to offend, unless he is a fool. He is your friend not your enemy. He may be wrong but he is generally honest; and you can afford to put up with a good deal from an honest man. A big, broad paper is bound to have big, broad readers.

General John Beatty, one of Ohio's veteran soldiers and an old republican is president of a leading bank. Of the Republican platform he speaks in severe contempt. We copy a few sentences taken here and there. He says:

"I think that it is made up of a lot of bad assumptions, a sprinkling of hypocrisy and a good many falsehoods. The wonderful thing about the Philadelphia convention is that Mark Hanna seems to be its dictator. * * Now, in fact, Hanna as an illiterate ass, a political blunder. He simply gets what he buys, rather what the manufacturer buys of him.

"The platform declaration as to the foreign achievements is a lie. * *

"I hope that the ticket will be defeated. I will not vote for the ticket. McKinley is a civil fraud and Roosevelt a military fraud, and the ticket deserves to be beaten."

Cleveland for Bryan.

It is said here that Richard Olney, who was Secretary of State in President Cleveland's cabinet, has gone to visit Mr. Cleveland at the latter's home, Buzzard's Bay, Mass.

A report reached this city from New York to-day that Mr. Cleveland will soon make public a letter in which he will declare for Bryan on the issue of imperialism. The report is believed to have emanated from a former cabinet officer of Mr. Cleveland.

Taken in connection with the attitude of Mr. Olney, who is believed to be for Mr. Bryan, and of former Postmaster General Wilson, who was close to Mr. Cleveland, this report has met ready belief among Mr. Olney's friends here.—Boston Dispatch, 5th.

WALL STREET ALSO HEARS IT.

Wall street men heard a persistent report this afternoon that ex-President Cleveland will give his support to Bryan. It was said that persons who have been confidants of Mr. Cleveland were responsible for it.

According to this report, Mr. Cleveland, who has heretofore declined to make known his preference, will give out for publication within a week an open letter declaring the issue of imperialism is paramount and asking his friends to support Mr. Bryan.—New York Dispatch, 5th.

In Bryan's Favor 4 to 1

James Creelman, in a dispatch to The New York Journal from Chicago, comments as follows on the Labor Day parade there.

Viewed from a cold-blooded political stand point, aside from its beautiful and impressive symbolism, the great labor demonstration in Chicago Monday was a startling revelation of Mr. Bryan's political strength. It was not when Mr. Bryan and Governor Roosevelt spoke that the political inclination of the individuals composing the great multitudes could be judged, for an American crowd is prone to cheer effective utterances of orator regardless of party considerations. But I sat within 10 feet of Mr. Bryan and Governor Roosevelt when they reviewed the 25,000 men.

As the procession swept past I carefully watched the men who cheered for Mr. Bryan and those who hurrahed for Governor Roosevelt or Mr. McKinley. I am speaking conservatively when I say that four out of every five men in that magnificently representative procession cheered for Mr. Bryan. It was a good test and a fair test.

Value to The Market.

FALKLAND, N. C. Sept. 7th 1900.
MR. EDITOR:

As a tobacco producer, and in behalf of the tobacco farmers generally, I can truly state that it is pleasing to see that Mr. O. L. Joyner has taken charge of the "tobacco column" in THE REFLECTOR again. As in the past it will be eagerly read. The tobacco raisers have confidence in the sincerity and accuracy of the statements made by Mr. Joyner relative to the tobacco market. He throws out no bewildering inducements, or exaggerating enticements to deceive. Facts plain facts, are what the farmer needs now. He gets taffy enough from the tobacco drummers.

There are many very clever men on the tobacco trade in Greenville, reliable and courteous; yet among them all it cannot be invidious to claim that O. L. Joyner has been the leading individual by his insertions to attract, to direct, to enthuse, to build up and permanently establish a tobacco market in Greenville second to none in the State. W. R. W.

The Republicans are certainly in a delightful mess in the first district. Their State committee has officially declared that Isaac Meekings is not the nominee and ordered that another convention be held. Meekings is here and says: "I fail to see how the State committee can take down or put up a candidate when the district has a committee of its own and until I see it's right I shall continue to stay in the field as the regular nominee. The majority of the district committee will refuse to authorize Dr. Abbott or any one else to call a new convention."

Goods Selling Like Wild Fire!

The great markets like New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been searched for Bargains and we have them. We are going to sell for less money than anybody else. Why? Because we buy more goods than any other store in town and get larger discounts; and we sell for the smallest possible margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business and no rents to pay.

HIGGS & TAFT.

Messrs. Higgs & Taft,
Greenville, N. C.

Gentlemen:
We wish to thank you for your order of a complete carload of our Stoves and Ranges. The "Great White Enamel Line" is evidently in favor with the Greenville people and if the demand increases, as it has in the past, we may expect to send you a train load in the near future.

A good cook is the best judge of a stove or range and we must believe that from the intelligence shown in selecting their cooking and heating apparatus, the housewives of Pitt County know that Buck's Stoves and Ranges are best for every purpose, and we believe that they cannot be fooled into buying "Cheap John" goods that have only the recommendation of cheap first cost.

Don't forget to impress upon your customers that our 5 year and 15 year guarantee is made in good faith and you may back it with your own reputation. Wishing you an abundant fall and winter trade, we remain, Yours truly,
BUCK STOVE & RANGE CO.

SUPPOSED POISONING

Woman Dies Under Mysterious Circumstances.

Mrs. W. H. Mizelle, formerly Miss Pennie Bullock, of Oakley, died mysteriously on last Thursday morning. Her body was exhumed Saturday and the Coroner held a post mortem examination. It is supposed from circumstantial evidence that she was poisoned by her husband.

The jury brought in a verdict that the deceased came to her death by causes unknown to them, but ordered that her stomach and liver be sent to the State chemist for a chemical examination to see whether or not she was poisoned.

Mr. Mizelle had been to Dr. Warren and questioned him previously as to whether or not she had consumption, and Dr. Warren told him that she never had any of the symptoms of that disease. Mr. Mizelle insisted that she did have consumption and that he was afraid to stay with her, as he feared she had it and was liable to drop dead any time. She had been apparently well up to Thursday. It is said Mr. Mizelle had been mistreating his wife for several months and on last Wednesday went to Washington to get her some medicine. Thursday morning Mrs. Mizelle had a hard chill and he gave her some medicine and went off and left her. When he returned later she was dead and wanting to bury her soon as possible he had her buried Friday morning.

Mr. Mizelle left Saturday morning for Ocracoke on a pleasure trip, knowing that his wife's body would be taken up for an examination. The woman's stomach has been sent to Raleigh to the State Chemist.

Don't Let Them go Back.

The Osceola Band has delivered the new instruments they received a week ago back to the express office. We learn that the reason of this is that when subscriptions asked for that such little encouragement was received that the boys see no hope of paying for their instruments. We are sorry that this is the case and it should not be necessary for them to surrender the instruments for this reason. They deserve better.

An Octogenarian.

Mr. John F. Whichard, of Carolina township, one of the three old men of that township whose names we mentioned sometime since, was in town today and gave THE REFLECTOR a call. He has passed his 79th milestone in life and is now in his 80th year. He says he gets along fairly well for a man of his age. In his younger days he was a great fisher and hunter, but of late years has not engaged much in those sports. This was his first visit to Greenville in more than a year.
