POOR HAROLD SUGG

Ends His Life With Poison.

A few months ago Hal Sugg left Greenville for Charlotte to take a position in a cotton mill in that city. Tuesday evening he was brought back home a corpse and his body now rests in Cherry Hill Cemetery.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR of Monday told that his father, Col. I. A. Sugg, left Greenville that morning for Charlotte in response to a telegram stating that Hal was seriously ill. Later it was learned that he was dead and that he had taken his own life. The body was met by a large number of friends at the 7 o'clock train Tuesday evening and taken at once to the cemetery for interment, Messrs. J. G. Moye, W. H. Long, E. E. Griffin, M. R. Eure, W. H. Harrington and W. B. Wilson acting as pall bearers.

The Charlotte News of Monday gave the following particulars of the sad tragedy:

Mr. Hal Sugg, a well known young man of this city, died this morning shortly before 9 o'clock from the effects of poison taken with suicidal intent.

For sometime past Mr. Sugg has made his home with Mrs. Charles Rountree, on East Ninth street. He had, up to a few weeks ago, been employed at the Atherton Mill. Later he had been working for the Alpha Mill.

Friday he intimated that he had lost his position, and in consequence, was exceedingly depressed. A slight accident he received at the Alpha Mill, which caused him the loss of several days last week, seemed to increase his melancholy. After returning home Saturday night, he went direct to his room. Later some of the occupants of the Rountree dwelling heard groans coming from the room the young man occupied. At breakfast time he was called for the morning meal, but sent word that he preferred to sleep, as he felt unwell. One of the household went to Sugg's room about 9 o'clock and found him in a stupor. All efforts to revive him proved futile. A physician was summoned who saw at a glance that the young man was suffering from poison. A stomach pump was brought into service, but still no relief came. Antidotes were administered, but to do no avail.

Sugg lingered between life and death all of yesterday and last night, at the hour named above, death came as a relief.

Deceased has been a resident of Charlotte for several months. He was a son of a prominent lawyer, of Greenville, N. C., and was a member of the First North Carolina regiment in the Spanish-American war. A telegram from his father received this morning states that he will arrive in Charlotte tonight and will take charge of the body, probably taking it to Greenville for burial.

One of the young man's friends informs a News reporter that he had been depressed for some time and was subject to such spells. It is also learned that this was the second attempt he had made to end his existence.

Sugg's family are members of the Baptist church.

Just what kind of poison the deceased took has not been ascertained.

Full House.

It is well that court is so near at hand. The jail might have to be enlarged if many more prisoners were sent. Next week's court will no doubt do some thinning out by transferring several of them to the penitentiary.

 The Tunis Lumber Co. has gone into the hands of a receiver.

H. C. Lewis has made an assignment.

The news from the lower part of this county (on the North side,) and from Hyde in regard to crop prospects is distressing.

W. H. Wilkinson, of Leechville, D. M. Windley and Jordan Wilkinson, of Belhaven, were here last week.

Our County Commissioners have forbidden the riding of bicycles on the bridge at this place. Is the bridge a public highway? and are bicycles vehicles? That the order is timely few doubt, as boys, negroes and fools had caused horses to be frightened on several occasions by reckless riding.

Master John Bonner, who has been in Philadelphia for some months past, returned on the 8th. That his parents and many friends were glad to see him goes without saying.

The Eureka Lumber Co. and the E. M. Short Lumber Co. are thoroughly overhauling their dry kilns.

Chas. Powell, engineer of steamer May Russell, is getting out again.

Is it supposed that the business of A. S. Kelly & Co. will be continued, at least for awhile.

The Atlantic Coast Line is grading Main street at the railroad crossing and filling in with stone.

Our Superintendent of street, J. G. Chauncey, is determined to make this a "dry town," judging from the number of tiles he is putting in.

We have it dusty on our streets, the shells are ground into an impalpable dust, and don't the ladies catch it in trying to keep the house clean?

Rev. J. D. Waters, who held so successful a meeting at Athens

Chapel recently, began one at Old Ford on the 8th inst.

Sheriff Hodges has more regular boarders than any other hotel in town.

Z. Habourn has commenced preparation for building a store on his home lot, corner Gladden and Second streets.

BETHEL ITEMS

BETHEL, N. C. Sept. 11, 1900.

John Tyson, from near Greenville came over Sept. 10, to begin school with Prof. Z. D. McWhorter.

Oscar Case, from Alabama, began school with Prof. Z. D. McWhorter, Sept. 5th. We are glad to know that his reputation as a teacher has drawn scholars from other States.

Prof. Z. D. McWhorter has been so that he could not walk very well but we are glad to know that he has improved.

W. K. Davenport and wife, from Edgecombe county are here on business.

Hurrah for Bethel High School. Our teacher informed us today that he had over 100 pupils on roll.

A protracted meeting was commenced in the Methodist church yesterday. May their meeting be crowned with success.

Miss Lillie Barnhill, of Greenville, and Miss Lina Jenkins, of Tarboro, were out driving yesterday afternoon when their horse became frightened and ran away. We are glad to know that neither of the ladies were hurt.

Nearly all of our young people were out of town Sunday attending the yearly meetings at Cross Roads and Briery Swamp. Your humble reporter went to the latter place and, thanks to the hospitable family of our Sheriff, he had a fine time. They all reported a nice time and expressed regrets that the day was not twice as long. May the time soon come when we may enjoy another such feast.

Rev. W. A. Ayers has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church here, and will leave for Hertford Thursday. He has done much good in our midst and has distinguished himself as an able preacher and a true Christian. We regret to see him leave as he holds a warm spot in the hearts of our people. May his efforts in his new field be crowned with success.

Mr. Editor please inform the weather man that we Bethel folks are needing some rain, and if he will send us just a little, we will love him as long as he lives.

Mrs. E. J. Grimes and Mrs. Wm. Staton left here today to attend the burial of Willis R. Whichard.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept., 12th.

Miss Hattie D. Wood, of Charlottesville, Va., arrived on Saturday evening's train. She will have charge of the music department of the Winterville High School. The citizens of Winterville and surrounding country extend her a cordial welcome and all of us wish her stay among us may be so pleasant as to cause her to wish to remain with us always.

What is the difficulty with a young man who after seating his best young lady in his buggy, gets up also, only to find his horse still hitched to the post? He says it is not moonshine, but wont explain. Can you tell Mr. Editor? [Yes. He is in love.—ED.]

Our market is beginning to loom up. Friend Simon Moye is the right man in the right place. A good market man and a warm admirer of the fair sex. We all bet on Simon being first-class in everything.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co. rolled out in the last two days five as pretty buggies as we ever saw. Their work cannot be excelled. For like the A. G. Cox Mtg. Co's. wagons they are put up of the best material and finished by the most skilled workmen.

Capt. R. Williams, of Greenville was a welcome visitor here yesterday. Dick is well-known among our people and all are delighted to have him come among us.

We deeply sympathize with our townsman Mr. I. A. Sugg, in the loss of his brother Hal, who died in Charlotte Monday. Ike left yesterday for Greenville in order to be present at the funeral. We knew Hal well. He was a good boy and we sincerely mourn his death.

The Missionary Baptists are conducting a protracted meeting at Ayden this week. Mr. A. G. Cox, always kind and accomodating, nearly every evening has team hitched to wagons and free of charge carries all who wish to attend. And many of our people avail themselves of the opportunity thus afforded them.

Cotton sold on our market yesterday at 10½

The Sheriff of Pratt county, Kan., recently allowed a man who had been convicted of selling liquor without a license to remain with his family instead of serving his time in jail. At the expiration of the term the prisoner's wife sued the Sheriff for the price of board and lodging for her spouse. She was awarded judgement for $21.60, but the Sheriff has appealed to the District Court.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

Unusual Stealing.

When folks make up their minds to steal any way they sometimes steal some very peculiar things. For instance we understand that a night or two ago somebody stole all the pumps out in tobacco town. They did not pull up the pipes, however.

And a merchant who sells sewing machines tells us a man went in and wanted a shuttle. He was looking about a machine and while the merchant's back was turned actually stole the shuttle out of it.

No, Maude, dear, pugilists do not travel in box cars.

A fellow may be regarded as the glass of fashion, and still be broke.

HIGGS & TAFT.

Messrs. Higgs & Taft,
Greenville, N. C.

Gentlemen:
We wish to thank you for your order of a complete carload of our Stoves and Ranges. The "Great White Enamel Line" is evidently in favor with the Greenville people and if the demand increases, as it has in the past, we may expect to send you a train load in the near future.

A good cook is the best judge of a stove or range and we must believe that from the intelligence shown in selecting their cooking and heating apparatus, the housewives of Pitt County know that Buck's Stoves and Ranges are best for every purpose, and we believe that they cannot be fooled into buying "Cheap John" goods that have only the recommendation of cheap first cost.

Don't forget to impress upon your customers that our 5 year and 15 year guarantee is made in good faith and you may back it with your own reputation. Wishing you an abundant fall and winter trade, we remain, Yours truly,

A Sad Funeral.

The remains of Mrs. Hery Sheppard, who died Monday afternoon, were taken to Cherry Hill Cemetery at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for interment. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. G. James, D. E. House, Harry Skinner, C. O'H. Laughinghouse, R. Hyman and T. R. Moore. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. N. Booth.

A large number of sorrowing relatives and friends gathered about the grave to pay their last mark of respect to the deceased. It was a sad, solemn funeral. Every heart was touched, and there seemed not a dry eye in the vast concourse.

Two songs that were favorites of Mrs. Sheppard, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Good Night" were beautifully sung during the services by Mrs. Walter Grimes, Mrs. Sam White and Messrs. W. F. Burch and R. Hyman.

MR. W. R. WHICHARD DEAD.

A Father in Israel Called to His Reward.

Mr. Willis R. Whichard died at 11 o'clock Monday night at his home in Carolina township. The funeral took place at the family burial ground Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Deceased was 67 years old last March, and to say that there never lived in Pitt county a better man or better citizen than he is but to express the sentiment of every one who knew him. For many years he had been a member of the Primitive Baptist church, and his life was that of an earnest consecrated Christian. He was a diligent student of the Bible, making the study of its sacred pages his daily delight and shaping his life by its teachings. His faith was unwavering, his trust in the Savior was simple and child like, and his dying supplication was "Lord Jesus receive my spirit, I humbly pray."

For the last ten years of his life Mr. Whichard was an invalid. During these years he suffered as almost never man suffered, and it seemed next to impossible for a human being to endure all that he was called upon to pass through. Yet he bore it all with Christian fortitude and resignation, often exclaiming "These light afflictions worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." It was truly an inspiration to sit by his bedside and hear one so afflicted talk of Christ's love and goodness to His children.

Through his years of suffering his devoted wife, children and sister were unceasing in their attentions for his comfort, and in his dying moments, with his family gathered about him, he said loving hands had done all possible for him but they could not stay the hand of death. He was ready for the summons when it came.

Mr. Whichard was truly a good man, a useful citizen, and wherever known was held in highest esteem. He loved his home and loved farm life, and was one of the few men who made a real success tilling the soil. He was one of whom it could be truly said that "he lived at home," and his home was noted far and wide for its hospitality. He had a business capacity seldom surpassed, and could have worn political honors had he desired them, but he had such love for his home and the quiet companionship of the family circle that he allowed nothing to separate him from them.

He leaves a wife, six sons, one daughter and a sister, who have a priceless heritage in the life he lived and the good name he bore. His relations are many, his friends legion, and all will sadly miss him. "Peace to his ashes, and may his memory ever be blessed."

The writer feels that he cannot justly close this tribute without brief mention of his own personal loss in the death of this good man. Being deprived by the wisdom of God of our own father when but a mere boy, he took a father's place to us. He was ever ready to give words of counsel and extend a helping hand when needed. After helping us start upon a business life, he manifested an interest and pride in our making a success of life as if we had been one of his own sons. And since reaching manhood it was always a joy to sit, as it were, at his feet and receive words of counsel.

Horse Drowned.

Monday night a horse belonging to Mr. B. F. Tyson was drowned in a well on his liverystables lot. The well had a high box curb over it through which a wood pump was used. The horse pushed both the box and pump off the well and fell in backwards.

To say that a new broom sweeps clean is rather a sweeping assertion.
