OUR RALEIGH LETTER

The Party And The Primary.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Sept. 24.

Is it best for and conducive to the longevity of the Democratic party to permanently adopt the primary plan generally in making nominations for office hereafter?

Within a week I would have answered that question unhesitatingly in the affirmative. I am not now prepared to reply it in the negative. But, in view of the unpleasant and deplorable result already reached in the Senatorial contest, because of the assaults of Democrats upon the very head and front of our own party, as witnessed in the false "charges" circulated by some against Mr. Simmons—I say it "should give us pause!"

Let us look more carefully and consider more thoroughly this proposition, after the Senatorship is settled, before we get any deeper into a "plan" which bids fair to prove a cutthroat one wherein men of the same political blood and household seek to destroy each other.

How long can a party last under such conditions, if they become general, I ask you?

Democrats cannot afford to abuse each other and if this sort of thing is to be one of the results, we had better stop and carefully consider the matter again before we adopt "legalized primaries" or go any further into the primary business. I have just read several editorials in South Carolina papers expressing disgust of the plan in that State after a faithful trial. But they may not represent the prevailing sentiment there.

WHO CAN VOTE FOR SENATOR.

I explained the resolution of Major Hale recently adopted by the State Committee in these letters several weeks ago, defining who can vote under it and the resolution adopted by the State Convention in April, and stated that the two combined would have the effect of making pretty much every white man east of Raleigh eligible. But it appears there is still uncertainty troubling some voters and newspapers. So it should be stated again:

Any elector who voted for Aycock and the Amendment (no matter who he votes for in the November election) can vote in the Primary for Senator, under the decision of the State Committee. This provision as it stood would have barred out Populists who will vote for Mr. Bryan's electors, while it would (and does still) admit "gold Democrats" who will not vote Mr. Bryan, even though they vote for Mr. McKinley. So Maj Hale introduced a resolution (adopted by the committee) to make Populists and others who vote for Bryan in November eligible to vote for Senator also, even though they voted against Aycock and the Amendment. As matters now stand, and will stand on election day, the only voters who cannot participate in the Senatorial primary are those who voted against Aycock and the Amendment and will also vote against Bryan and Stevenson.

It is now hinted that there may be another entry in the Senatorial race besides Gov. Jarvis, whose candidacy has just been announced.

CONVENTION OF MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROADERS.

"Provisional Chairman" J. P. Sossaman, of Charlotte, has called a State convention of Middle-of-the-Road Pops to meet in Raleigh October 11 to nominate Barker and Donnelly Electors. In the call Mr. Sossaman states that National Chairman Joe Parker and candidate Barker "will probably be present to address the Convention." It is not stated that Butler will be on hand, nor is any thing said about the approval of Marse Mark Hanna of the plan.

But your uncle Mark ought to send a bouquet if he doesn't. One with a loud financial odor and set in a dollar-mark decorated miniature "bar", would prove very handsomely ornamental, not to say suggestive.

WAIT FOR 12-CENT COTTON.

The temporary curtailment of production by Southern mills which has just begun has effected a slight temporary depression in the price of raw cotton. Our farmers should not mistake this action and begin rushing their cotton to market. Such a course would only tend to further depress prices. But let them hold on to every bale they can, and in a very short time a reaction will take place and the price go bounding up again to higher figures than the staple has yet reached this year. It is bound to do it. The cotton is not in the country in sufficient quantity to supply the demand that will come, and the cotton growers have the game won and will certainly receive 11 or 12 cents for all their product if they only play their cards right. Those who unnecessarily sell for less than eleven cents will be kicking themselves sore in less than two months.

A GREAT STATE FAIR.

Four weeks hence the annual State Fair will be held in this city lasting the entire week this year. Secretary Pogue has been industriously at work for some time getting together the largest number of the finest attractions ever offered the people of the State on such an occasion. Among the new features will be the lighting of the grounds at night brilliantly by electricity and the exhibition of that magnificent pyrotechnical attraction "Paine's Fireworks" on the fairgrounds. The largest and best "Midway" ever seen here will exhibit on the grounds this year, a large variety of "shows" and amusements being included. The racing will be exceptionally fine, while the fair exhibits proper have never been equalled. From the Vanderbilt estate in Buncombe county alone will be brought a medium size fair, but these magnificent specimens will not compete for any of the many valuable prizes offered. Let every body get ready to come!

This week the North Carolina editors have their excursion to Niagara Falls, starting on the 26th. Quite a large party will go on the trip. THE REFLECTOR had hoped to be along with them, but find that we have to deny ourselves that pleasure.

Talk about corporations not having souls, look at the railroads, express and telegraph companies in time of great public calamity. The Seaboard Air Line and the Southern Railway, the Southern Express company and the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies offer to handle free of charge all food supplies, money, etc., for the relief of the Galveston flood sufferers. And similar ones throughout the the country do the same. As to corporations being without souls depend altogether upon what kind of a corporation it is—the men behind the corporation rather. Certainly all of them are not and even those that have the greatest appearance of such are usually quick to show their better nature in time of urgent need in the presence of suffering and distress. Corporations in themselves are not necessarily bad. On the contrary some of them are very good and beneficent in purpose.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Other instances might also be mentioned that shows the magnanimity of some corporations. When Greenville had a great fire in May of last year the Atlantic Coast Line extended a rebate of twenty-five percent on all material coming over its line to be used in rebuilding the burned district, and this rebate came in as a nice contribution. Now we see that the same offer has been extended to our neighbor town, Washington, to help recover from the great fire there.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.

Mr. McKinley's fellow imperialist, the Emperor of Germany, not having a slumping political campaign in his hands, has notified his American imitator that he must fish, cut bait, or get out of the Chinese boat. Mr. McKinley found this notification in the shape of the demand of the German Emperor that the Chinese officials who instigated the attacks on foreigners shall be punished before Germany will participate in negotiations with China, when he paid Washington one of his periodical visits this week, and with it was a communication asking in diplomatic language what he was going to do about it. There was a hurrying and scurrying, and with the assistance of some of the Assistant Secretaries and these members of the Cabinet who are not on the stump or taking things easy away from their offices in reply to Germany's communication was concocted and sent off. It was not made public, but there was little doubt that it was a plea for delay enough to carry the matter beyond the election. It is plain enough that Germany means to make war on China, and now that Count Walderssee, the German Commander-in-Chief, is on the ground, the Kaiser wants to know whether Mr. McKinley is going to help him or not, and Mr. McKinley wants to find out whether he is going to be re-elected before giving a positive reply. If re-elected, he may consider that an endorsement of imperialism and conclude to add a slice of China to his imperial domain.

Boss Hanna and his crowd, including Mr. McKinley, have lost no opportunity to humiliate Senator Foraker for several years past but this week Mr. McKinley sent for Senator Foraker and begged him to put his shoulder to the McKinley wheel in Ohio. Nothing could tell the story of Mr. McKinley's fright in plainer terms.

Major Daniel O'Driscoll, who was previous to the administration an ardent republican, was one of the speakers at a meeting held under the auspices of the Central Bryan and Stevenson Club, this week. He said: "Before the Republican party became the party of conquest and imperialism it stood for all that any patriotic American could wish for, but since it had at its head such men as President McKinley and Senator Hanna not only are the old men turning away but they are followed by the young men. A party that will not keep promises is not a party to tie to. As a sample of these non-kept promises we have but to point to the natives of Porto Ricco. Do you wonder that these Porto Ricans sigh for the return of the Spanish rule? I don't.

Democrats around the Congressional Committee headquarters are delighted with the Chicago speech of Boss Hanna, in which he so far lost his head as to say: "I believe that there is not a trust in the entire United States. They believe that this assertion on the part of Hanna will be worth many thousand votes to Bryan and Stevenson and the democratic candidates for Congress, because it is so manifestly false that it will disgust intelligent men who have heretofore voted the republican ticket. To say that there isn't a trust in the United States when there isn't a family in the country which doesn't know and feel by the surest test, increase in its living expenses, of the existence of numerous trusts it is as ridiculous to say that black is white. Therepublican platform recognizes the existence of trusts, as did the letters of acceptance of Mr. McKinley and Mr. Roosevelt, but Hanna says there are no trusts. After making such an assertion, Mr. Hanna cannot expect the people to believe anything he says about other issues of the campaign. If Hanna can only be kept talking in that strain, the election of Bryan and Stevenson can be made unanimous. Mr. McKinley is being urged by many to try to muzzle Hanna.

Representative Fitzpatrick, of Kentucky, who was in Washington this week, said of political conditions in his state: "This talk that the Republicans are going to carry Kentucky for Mr. McKinley and the State ticket is most amusing. Why, there never was a time when the democrats of Kentucky were in better fighting trim. We'll give Bryan a regular old-fashioned democratic majority, and we'll elect Beckham governor, too." Of the general outlook Mr. Fitzpatrick said: "Republicans admit to me in private conversation that Bryan is growing in strength every day. Very few republicans have I met who say that McKinley will carry Maryland or Delaware or West Virginia. Nearly all of the influential democrats and independents who supported McKinley in 1896 are for Bryan this year on the paramount issue of imperialism and militarism. Just think of it, according to the present rates of expense for our army it will require $150,000,000 for its support for this fiscal year, and there is no reduction of the army in sight. If the policy of imperialism is to be continued, what will the army cost? As a conservative man, I give it as my opinion that Bryan will be elected by a large majority as Cleveland received in 1892."

If there ever was a greater fake of a census than the present one it is not on record. That is according to all accounts and the kicks that come from a majority of the cities whose population has been made public. Whether this slipshod and unsatisfactory work was due to incompetence or a prearranged plan to "doctor" the report for political effect or otherwise we are not prepared to say.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Populists Mentioned in the Bible.

In conversation this morning a gentlemen of infinite jest and most excellent fancy remarked that the first intimation ever heard of the Populist party was to be found in 1 Samuel, 22:2, "And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them; and there were with him about four thousand men." The gentlemen added that they had increased in number since that time.—Greensboro Telegram.

"Gall of the Earth."

The faculty of the Chattanooga Medical college is now making experiments with the weed known as "Gall of the Earth," with which a mountaineer recently cured himself of a mad dog bite, and by which he cured others suffering from snake-bite. It is sometimes known as the "rattlesnake master." The weed is now being transplanted for cultivation and experiment. It is now in bloom and bears a small white flower. The horticultural department of Clemson College, Charleston S. C. is also experimenting with it.—Scientific American.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

Its the fashion to pull ears these days—of corn.

Life has many lessons, but the easiest of them all is learning to love.

It is a little singular that a man will bolt a ticket that he cannot swallow.

Truth never uses perfume, while falsehood often smells sweeter than a rose.

Some men often have to talk for their virtues, but their vices speak for themselves.

Nothing succeeds like success, or a woman who has made up her mind to make a man marry her.

This would be a happy world if people were always as pleasant as they are when having their pictures taken.

The summer trade is over, and the ice cream man is sad, but there is compensation—the oyster man is glad.

The arguments of most people would have more weight if the parity could be maintained between the brain and the tongue.

The "paramount issue" in every home is how the old man is going to raise enough to pay for the new fall millinery.

Welcomed Where?

The New York Press, speaking of colored Congressman White's purpose to immigrate from North Carolina with 50,000 of his people, says: "He would be welcomed eisewhere, we know."

The Atlanta Constitution wants the Press to kindly indicate where? It says certainly not in New York, where it requires a platoon of 800 policemen to guard twenty-two colored men walking home.

Not in New Jersey, where "man-hunts" have been the order of the day during the past week.

Not in Chicago, which has had the rope out twice for unoffending colored men within a month.

Not in Panzor Virden, where colored men were shot dead by platoons for asking for work.

Not in Ohio, where Washington, Urbana and Akron display the hangman's noose.

Not in Boston, where there is no work for a negro to do.

Where, then, must the negro go to find this proffered welcome?

Notice.

My father, Moses Sutton, colored, who is not of good mind, wandered away from my home at Ayden, where he stayed, on Tuesday afternoon, September 18th, and I have been unable to learn his whereabouts. He is about 60 years old, has grey chin whiskers, dark complexion, and had on a Prince Albert coat when he left. I will appreciate anyone detaining him and sending me word, or giving me any information that will lead to finding him.

YOUNG LADY SHOT.

A Discarded Lover seeks Revenge—Another Man Also Wounded,

Special to Reflector.

Williamston, N. C., 23.—Miss Jennie Moore, daughter of the late Hon. James E. Moore, and Mr. Roland Hobbs, son of Mr. A. J. Hobbs, Clerk of the Superior Court of Martin county, were shot by Mr. Jos. B. Bennett, son of ex-Register of Deeds W. H. Bennett, Saturday night about 9:30 o'clock.

Young Bennett and Miss Moore had been engaged to marry for about three years. Bennett went to Norfolk a month ago and returned to Williamston Saturday morning. He went around to see Miss Moore and during their interview they had a falling out and Bennett left.

In the afternoon Miss Moore went to the home of a married sister and remained until after tea, Mr. Hobbs accompanying her home in the evening. About 9:30 Bennett went back to the Moore residence and secreting himself near the house made a noise to attract attention of the occupants. Miss Moore and Mr. Hobbs were both in the parlor and hearing the noise they went to the front door, the lady remarking that she expected it was a cow in the yard. Bennett being near the porch heard the remark and said "it is no cow, it is me, d—n you," and fired at them four times in quick succession. Miss Moore was shot through the left lung and Mr. Hobbs through the right hip. The doctors think the young lady will die but the young man will recover.

All the parties connected with this tragedy are of leading families of Williamston. Immediately after his dastardly deed Bennett left for parts unknown.
