COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Proceedings of October Meeting.

The Board of County Commissioners at their October meeting, besides issuing the usual pauper orders, and allowing and paying claims against the county, transacted the following business:

O. W. Harrington was appointed a committee to look after bridge across Chicod creek near W. H. and J. B. Galloway's.

The sum of $10 was appropriated to J. A. Williams to lay out the Black Jack and Clay Root road. Charlotte Anderson was added to the pauper list to receive $1 per month.

L. A. Letchworth's pauper allowance was reduced to $2 per month.

Tom Williams was added to the pauper list to receive $1.50 per month.

A petition was presented from citizens of Falkland township asking for a public road from a point near B. P. Smith's to near W. F. Moseley's, across the lands of B. P. Smith, J. T. Corbett, W. C. Moore, R. R. Cotten, I. N. Moore and A. M. Wooten.

The following jurors were drawn for December court:

First week—M. M. Ewell, C. E. Fleming, B. A. Tripp, Z. V. Hooker, W. B. Greene, Lunford Fleming, Wiley Brown, W. G. Gurganus, Alfred Moore, W. C. Jackson, Sr., J. B. Whitehurst, Allen Jackson, B. F. Wooten, D. M. Edwards, J. C. Cook, Josephus Moye, Ivy Smith and D. H. Allen.
Second Week—W. A. Teel, Ed Dixon, Sam Flake, Elisha Laug, C. M. Ross, C. E. Johnson, H. B. Harris, A. F. Pittman, W. R. Horne, W. E. Barnhill, C. T. Kirtrell, Joseph Cox, D. J. Bibb, A. B. King, W. H. Garriss, S. T. Ross, C. L. Barrett, J. H. Cobb.

Several delinquents were allowed to list taxes for 1900.

MARKET REPORTS.

A Feature That Will Help Our Readers.

Today THE REFLECTOR begins giving its readers market reports as prepared specially for this paper and wired daily by Messrs. J. W. Perry & Co., and Cobb Bros. & Co., of Norfolk. The former firm sends us the Norfolk spot markets on cotton and peanuts, and the latter firm furnishes New York and Liverpool future option markets.

We have had these reports in contemplation for sometime and have been at work on the arrangements for them, but as a private telegraph code had to be prepared we have just got everything completed for beginning the quotations today.

Of course these telegraph reports cost something, both in money and labor, but we wanted our readers to have the benefit of them. We hope they in turn will show their appreciation by giving us a liberal patronage. We ask your subscriptions, advertising and job printing, and the more you help THE REFLECTOR in these lines the better can the paper serve you in every way.

"The road to success," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "has lots of grass growing in the ruts."

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Oct. 3rd.,

Any and every one who is in need of a first class cart, wagon, cart wheels or cart saddles and back bands, if he will call on the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., can be satisfied both as to quality and prices. The demand for the goods they manufacture has made it necessary for them not only to increase their capital stock but to add to their force of employes and each individual member of this firm feels a just pride in the success of their undertaking. With their motto "honesty is the best policy" they can never do else than succeed.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co., is not only compelled to supply a large demand for their work here at home, but are constantly receiving orders by telegram from a distance for their buggies, which naturally takes wherever seen and used. They are not only beauties but very durable.

Our town was honored on last Saturday morning by the arrival of two charming Misses, one at the home of H. M. Dixon and the other at the home of Elbert Smith. We presume they will remain with us a while. We sincerely hope their stay among us may be pleasant.

W. J. Wyatt, J. B. Carroll, Prof. G. E. Lineberry and Elder W. L. Bilbro returned from the Union meeting at Spring Garden last Sunday. They report a very pleasant time as well as a good meeting.

The Winterville Cigar Co. is increasing the force of its hands. Their patronage demand it.

The High school is still booming. Five new boarders came in Monday and several pupils from the surrounding country.

A. G. Cox is still paying highest cash prices for cotton seed.

J. E. Green, who has been on a visit near Williamston, returned Monday.

Peyton Mayo who has been attending the depot left for Ayden the same evening.

Master Bennit Sheppard was in to see us yesterday. He has grown to be quite a man since we last saw him.

Attention Daughters of Confederacy.

A full attendance of Singletary Chapter Daughter of Confederacy, is urgently requested by the President on Friday evening, Oct. 5th, at the residence of Mrs. Charles Harvey. Business of importance has to be voted on by the Chapter and a report submitted for the State Convention which meets in Raleigh on Wednesday next.

MRS. JARVIS, President.
MISS LOUISE LATHAM, Secretary.

There are 8,000 people in Galveston who are homeless, and help is still needed in that city.

The mine owners in the Pennsylvania district where the strike prevails, have agreed to give the miners a 10 per cent advance in wages. The miners will hold a convention to consider the proposition.

The North Carolina car "City of Charlotte" that contained agricultural exhibits of this State and has been taken nearly all over the United States, was destroyed by fire at Kingston, Ohio, on Monday. The loss is estimated at about $18,000.

Mr. Bryan is making a tour of the west in a special car, from the platform of which he speaks to the great crowds who go to hear him. He spoke for six hours Monday. His speeches always make him friends and his prospects of election as President grow brighter every day.

Judge A. C. Avery suggests that the Senatorial primary be called off until the first Tuesday in December. He says that interest in the Presidential and Congressional elections is overshadowed by the interest in the Senatorial question and he thinks Mr. Bryan and the Democratic nominees for Congress will suffer if the voting for them and the Senators comes at the same time.

No, Maude, dear, we have never heard that the hut of the Eskimo was always decorated with a frieze.

Better to tell the Truth.

The Washington Post is entirely right in its declaration that there is no reason, in either morals or political expediency, why the administration should persist in its efforts to deceive and mislead the American people with regard to the condition of affairs in the Philippines. It is not succeeding and the effect is worse than if the whole truth was confessed. The report if the Philippine commission was flatly contradicted by Associated Press dispatches from Manila which appeared in the same papers, along side of it, and since then still worse reports have been received. The administration has all the while, in the face of perfectly well known facts, persisted in giving out stories to the effect that the war is practically over and the islands are being rapidly pacified, and accompanying these or following on their heels are reports of engagements in which the American troops are worsted, and which show a high degree of insurgent activity and organization. These come from MacArthur and other generals in the field, and are conclusive as to the facts. There would be a shadow of excuse—though the immorality would not be lessened—if the fables with which the White House and the War Department furnish the people fooled anybody or subserved any good purpose; but they do neither, and thus for every reason it were better if the simple truth about the situation in the Philippines were told.—Charlotte Observer.

Origin of "Dixie's Land."

The original song, "Dixie's Land," was composed in 1855 by Daniel Emmet as a "walk-around" for Bryant's minstrels. Mr. Emmet frequently heard the performers in a circus make the remark "I wish I was in Dixie," as soon as the Northern climate began to be too severe for the tent life which they followed. This expression suggested the song, "Dixie's Land" and was speedily carried to all parts of the Union by numerous bands and wandering minstrels. In the fall Mrs. John Wood sang it in New Orleans in the burlesque of "Pocahontas," and before a week had passed the whole city had taken it up. A New Orleans publisher saw possibilities in the music, and without the authority of the composer had the air harmonized and rearranged, issuing it with words embodying the strong Southern feeling then existing in New Orleans.—October Ladies' Home Journal.

Robbed of $120.

Miss Lizzie Lawrence, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lawrence, who lives at 900 South Tryon street, discovered Sunday that she had been robbed of $120 in gold.

This money, together with $40 in silver and bills had been placed in a box in a closet in Miss Lawrence's room. About ten days ago she missed the key to the box and diligent search has not enabled her to find it. Sunday she picked up the box and found that the top had been wrenched off and that the $120 in gold had been taken. The $40 in silver and bills were not stolen.

The matter has been reported to the police, who are at work on the case.—Charlotte Observer.

Capt. Hawks' Mother Dead.

Mrs. Julia A. Hawks, mother of Capt. G. D. Hawks, of Kinston, died yesterday morning, at 8:12 o'clock, at her home in Petersburg Va. Mrs. Hawks was about 74 years of age. She had been in feeble health for several years—her death, however, was not expected so soon. She leaves four children—two sons and two daughters, and a host of relatives and friends, to mourn their loss. Capt. Hawks left yesterday afternoon for Petersburg.—Kinston Free Press.

The News has received a copy of the Greenville REFLECTOR containing the announcement of Hon. T. J. Jarvis of his candidacy for the United States Senate. The article is too lengthy for reproduction in our columns but we give a synopsis of it elsewhere. He has been a hard worker for Democracy and his ability, patriotism and the service he has rendered the people of North Carolina will draw to his support a large vote throughout the State.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boone, Iowa, Dec. 14.
 No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.
 MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

Our Second Trip North was a Great Success in

BARGAIN FINDING,

And These Bargains Are Yours For The Asking.

The great markets like New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have been searched for Bargains and we have them. We are going to sell for less money than anybody else. Why? Because we buy more goods than any other store in town and get larger discounts; and we sell for the smallest possible margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business and no rents to pay.

Gone to Work Roads.

An officer from Tarboro took eight prisoners from here this morning to work on the roads of Edgecombe county. All these prisoners were sentenced at the last term of Pitt Superior court.

Purchase Taxes.

All merchants and dealers are required by law to give in their purchases for the year, to the Register of Deeds, during the first ten days of October. Register of Deeds T. R. Moore is now ready to receive these lists for Pitt County, and if you have not already given it to him it should be attended to at once.

The Way to Help.

When THE REFLECTOR helps you you should help THE REFLECTOR. That is the way to enable the paper to serve you better and be a credit to your town. Don't be a borrower and read the paper somebody else pays for, but give us your subscription. We want your advertising and job printing too. All these help to give you a better paper.

Two Brothers Fight.

We learn that on Thursday at Griston two brothers, Messrs. Buck Bland and Kit Bland, became involved in a fight, and the former cut the latter so badly that it is not thought he can live. He received three terrible cuts, one in the abdomen, one in the back and one under the chin. The cause of trouble between the brothers was not learned. It was a tragedy much to be regretted.
