VIRGINIA DARE.

Portrait of Monument on Roanoke Island.

In 1896 on the site of old Fort Raleigh on Roanoke Island, there was erected a monument to Virginia Dare, the first white child born on American soil. This monument contains the following inscription:

"On this site, in July-August, 1585, (O. S.), colonists, sent out from England by Sir Walter Raleigh, built a fort, called by them 'The New Fort in Virginia.' These colonists were the first settlers of the English race in America. They returned to England in July, 1586, with Sir Francis Drake. Near this place was born, on the 18th of August, 1587, Virginia Dare, the first child of English parents born in America—daughter of Ananias Dare and Eleanor White, his wife, members of another band of colonists sent out by Sir Walter Raleigh in 1587. On Sunday, August 20, 1587, Virginia Dare was baptized. Manteo, the friendly Chief of the Hatteras Indians, had been baptized on the Sunday preceding. These baptisms are the first known celebrations of a Christian Sacrament in the territory of the thirteen original United States."

The above is called to mind by a beautiful picture of this monument that is on exhibition at the store of Zeno Moore & Bros. Mr. G. C. Moore spent last winter and spring at East Lake, in Dare county, and while in that section frequently visited Roanoke Island. One of these visits he was accompanied by a photographer who took a picture of the monument for Mr. Moore. He brought it home with him, and recently sent it north to have it enlarged and framed. Besides the beauty of the picture, it is worth going to see for its historic interest.

South Carolina's Cotton Crop.

By October 15 there will practically not be a bale of cotton left in the fields in South Carolina. It will be practically over one-half a crop. However, allowing for the extra costs of harvesting and marketing, this year's yield is worth to the farmers a full crop at about seven cents. If it were not for the fact that the corn, potatoes and pea crops have been so seriously damaged the farmers would be jubilant. As it is they have more cash in hand than for many years, and are paying old debts. They say they see daylight ahead; that even with a 12,000,000 bale crop next year cotton cannot sell below 8 cents. With the organization of cotton growers and the warehouse system they hope to keep the price at about that figure.

All reports from the south go to show that the people of this section of the country are enjoying such prosperity as they have not known for many years. No better evidence of the south's growth could be wanted than the increased earning of the railroads from week to week. The only possible danger now is that the high price of cotton may have the effect more or less to retard the cotton mill industry.—Columbia Special to N. Y. Sun.

Missinaries Killed in China

New York, October 9.—A complete list of Protestant missionaries believed to have been killed from the beginning of Boxer movement to September 5th, has been received by the American Bible Society, from Rev. John R. Hykes, D. D., its agent in Shanghai. The list contains the names of 178 people, very few, if any, of whom will escape. Of these 99 are men, 73 women (41 married and 32 single) and 39 children.

In the above total there are the following Americans: Twenty-five men, 24 women (16 married and 8 single) and 20 children, total 99 Americans.

Total killed, about whose death there cannot be any question are 11 men, 9 married women, 13 single women, 13 children total 43.

Of these killed the Americans are 3 men, 1 married woman, single women, 3 children, total 13.

Of those in Tai Yuen who were unquestionably massacred July 9th, 10 were men, 6 married women, 4 single women, 7 children; total 30, all British.

There are still some missionaries in the provinces of Kan Suh and Kwo Chow who have not been heard from for some time, but there is good reason to hope that they will get to places of safety.

OVER THE COUNTRY

President W. V. Powell, of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, has been suspended from office by a special convention of the grand division of that organization in session at St. Louis. Powell is the man who engineered the strike among the operators on the Southern Railway last spring.

A money order clerk in one of the branch postoffices in New York city has been arrested for forging and raising money orders.

Twelve hundred building trades men have struck at Saettle, Wash. and work on thirty six large buildings has stopped.

All the electric plants at Terre Haute, Ind., are tied up by a strike.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

The North Carolina Peanut Company, at Weldon, has been chartered, capital $50,000.

Grand Secretary John C. Drewry of the Grand Lodge of Masons, reports that there now 312 subordinate lodges in this State, and the total membership is 14,000.

High Point had an election Monday on the question of issuing $50,000 bonds for the construction of a system of water works. The proposition was carried by a vote of 657 to 22.

Rev. Dr. Ivey, editor of The Raleigh Christian Advocate, says that of all the preachers in the North Carolina M. E. Conference in 1857, only one is now living—Rev. Dr. Levi Branson, of Raleigh.

Hog cholera is reported to be on the increase in this county. Last week Sam Jenkins lost three, making thirty he has lost during the past summer. Asa Williams and Henry Mayo also have had heavy losses from this epidemic.—Tarboro Southerner.

Governor-elect Aycock notifies the state committee that, to his deep regret, he is unable to make any more speeches in the national campaign. His physicians positively forbid it, and says it will be fully a month before he is well and strong. He had a severe attack of malaria fever. He made two speeches and then his physician interfered.

Died on the Train.

Raleigh Times, 8th: The Seaboard Air Line through train from the north arrived here at 4:06 this morning with a corpse in a seat bearing a ticket from Carrsville, Va., to Wadesboro, N. C. The man had bought his ticket so he made the trip as safely dead as he would have done alive.

At Carrsville a negro boarded the train, apparently well, and took a seat in the second class car. In a short time the captain went around collecting tickets. He asked the negro, who was sitting bolt upright for his ticket and receiving no reply shook him when to his amazement he found that the man was dead. The ticket found on his person was duly punched and the corpse held down the seat until the train reached Raleigh when it was removed from the passenger coach and stretched out in the baggage car to be carried on to Wadesboro. There was nothing on the body to identify it.

Unique Badges.

Some of Hon. F. M. Simmons' loyal adherents and supporters here, have adopted a unique badge as the emblem of their choice for United States Senator. It is a full grown per "simmon" pinned on the lappel of the coat. We venture the prediction that it is not only original, but if worn by all of Simmons' supporters here the demand on the crop will be heavy, but they do not want any "simmon-bier."—Shelby Aurora.

The United States has bought a little island within a few yards of the town of Beaufort, and on it will establish a biological laboratory. It is said that as much as $10,000 will be expended there.—Raleigh Advocate.

The annual meeting of the Confederate Veterans' Association of North Carolina takes place in Raleigh Wednesday October 24th next at 8 o'clock p. m. Subjects of importance to the welfare of the veterans will be especially considered.

The Battleship Texas is about to be passed upon by a board of survey at Norfolk, to determine whether it is worth while to spend any more money on this obsolete type of ship. If the overhauling can be brought into reasonable limits, it is probable that it will be authorized, but if the sum required is large the vessel practically will retire from service.

In the contest for the senatorship little is said of the ability of the various candidates for the office they are seeking. All have done good work for the party and will perhaps continue to do so, but this fact alone does not qualify them for the office. Many men who have done valuable work for their party would cut a poor figure in the United States Senate.—Durham Herald.

The Herald possibly overlooks the fact that in Governor Jarvis' letter something was said about fitness and qualification for the duties of Senator because of past experience. Of course he was not expected to herald and praise his own ability, but coming down to that point, Gov. Jarvis is really the only man in the field whose experience and fitness show that he has the ability to enter at once upon the duties of the office.

The Errors of Society.

The dark blots that divorce makes in society are too easily seen and too sad to write much about, so I will give only a few incidents of the absurd and humiliating positions in which people may be placed: I once occupied a seat on the grand stand at the Newport Casino during a tennis match. After I had been in my seat a short time, a man I knew, once divorced, but remarried, came in with his new wife and occupied the two seats on my left, and a few moments later the woman from whom he had been divorced, and who had also remarried came in with her new husband and sat directly on my right. Whether the ticket agent arranged this for a joke I am not prepared to say, but all went well until I grew tired of the game and got up, leaving the four in a straight row, which made an interesting picture for a few moments. The four soon realized however, what people were staring and smiling at, and looking daggers at one another immediately arose and disappeared in the crowd. The incident amused the lads and misses very much.

A lady I know very well in New York, who was giving a dinner-party, told me she always dreaded the arranging of her guests at her tables, least she put people together whom the "law had set apart," as she put it. "It would be perfectly dreadful to seat a gentleman beside a lady to whom he is paying alimony."—Rev. Bradin Hamilton in November Smart set.

Will Bring Suit.

R. T. Yardly, representing the Angostoria company, of Baltimore arrived on the A. & B. freight train during the storm last night. The train stopped at a crossing instead of the station.

Mr. Yardly not knowing the way to the hotel went to a nearby house to inquire the way. After crossing the grove to Main street, he walked into the ditch, which was swollen to the depth of several feet, spraining his ankle and ruining his samples and clothes. This morning he consulted a lawyer and entered suit against the town and also the railroad for failing to take him to the station.—Tarboro Southern.

Twenty-three white people in North Carolina in each hundred beyond nine years of age are illiterate—cannot read and write. Governor-elect Aycock has let it be understood that the prime aim of his administration will be to give North Carolina an adequate public school system. If he shall, our debt will be immeasurable. The people ought now to be telling their representatives to help him in every way. The percentage of white illiterates in the State is greater than in any other Southern State—the greatest, we think in the Union. But the percentage of colored illiterates is less than in four or five other States, being 60 to 100.—Biblical Recorder.

The farmers of Scotland county have organized a Farmers' Protective Association with D. Stuart as president. The Laurinburg Exchange says that primarily the main object of the association is to guarantee the farmer full compensation for his farm products and keep him in close touch with the markets. The idea is a capital one and will doubtless be of great benefit to the farmers—if they can keep the politicians and the worthless beats out who desire to use it for selfish ends.—Statesville Landmark.

A correspondent of the Charlotte Observer tells that just before the August election the clerk of the court of Polk county, a Republican, received $300 of the campaign funds to be used for the party's good. He sent for one of his lieutenants and gave him $15, intending to distribute the money in this way, but soon after this lieutenant left the clerk found that the whole sum was missing. A hue and cry was raised and the Democrats were charged with the theft. Now it is said that the clerk has evidence that his lieutenant swiped the funds and that he will have him arrested.

It is charged that a number of wholesale clothing manufacturing firms in Chicago subscribed to the Hanna campaign fund and then recouped themselves by reducing the wages of their tailors $2 a week. Such sacrifices as this will doubtless be remembered by Hanna when congress again grinds out a grist of special laws favoring the few and robbing the many.—Kinston Free Press.
