

ALBEMARLE PRESBYTERY.

In Session With Greenville Church.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Presbytery was called to order at 3 o'clock.

The Evangelists of the Presbytery made report of their work during the summer, showing that the missionary work of the Presbytery is progressing favorably.

Henderson was chosen as the next place of meeting.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

At 8 o'clock there was a sermon by Dr. W. D. Morton from the text found in 2 Cor. 5:14. The sermon was one of exceptional beauty and tenderness, the speaker pointing out Christ's great love for us, and how this love should constrain us to love Him more and to devote our time, our talents, our means, ourselves to His service.

After the sermon the Presbytery held a memorial service for the late Dr. C. M. Payne, of Washington. Many touching tributes were paid to his memory, nearly every member of the Presbytery made some remarks. Memorial resolutions were introduced by Dr. Johnston and adopted, and the service concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Presbytery met at 9:30 o'clock and opened with devotional exercises by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Chairman of Home Missions, Rev. Dr. Morton, made an interesting report showing unusual need for contribution to this great cause, and the pastors and sessions were urged to lay this matter before their churches.

Committee on Orphans Home made report which was adopted, including an overture to the Synod of North Carolina urging that some more systematic method be devised for the regular support of the orphanage.

At 11 a. m. an excellent sermon was preached by Rev. C. N. Wharton from Matt. 11:28.

After the sermon Presbytery heard report of Committee on Minutes of General Assembly. A committee of four was appointed to receive suggestions and criticisms in regard to our new hymn book and forward same to the Hymn Book Committee.

Preaching tonight at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Daniel.

Sheppard Vs. Bernard Affirmed.

The Supreme court yesterday by a percuriam order affirmed the case of Shepherd vs. Bernard from Pitt. This is the suit against little Claud Bernard for destroying the home of Mr. B. S. Sheppard. This case went up for the Supreme court to decide whether or not Mr. Sheppard must give specified times and accusations for the charges. The ruling of the Superior court was that he would, and the Supreme court sustains this decision, and so the chubby little tootsie-wootsie lowered the world's record by several seconds in that famous sprinting match at Greenville, won the first fall in the suit over a ruined home.—Raleigh News & Observer. 17th.

Found Dead in Fireplace.

Burlington, N. C. Oct. 19.—Mrs. Nellie Shepherd, who lived alone in the neighborhood of Brick Church, was found dead in her fire-place last Friday at 4 p. m. This woman had been sick a few weeks ago, but was perfectly well last week. It was thought that she dropped dead in the fire-place about the middle of the week, but was not found till Friday. Mrs. Elizabeth J. Lineberry, who lives about a quarter of a mile from the deceased, was the first to discover her. The crowd that gathered found a dog devouring one of the woman's feet. The foot was placed back on the hearth, and the body lay there until Sunday morning, when her remains were put in a coffin and buried at Mt. Hope.

The Italians have but one disappointment in their new Queen—that she cannot or will not speak Italian. Her language is French; and her foreignness is all the more remarked by the contrast with the domesticity of Queen Margherita, who belonged to the royal house of Savoy by birth as well as by marriage. Queen Elena's memories and personal traditions are Russian, the friends and protectress of her youth having been the Empress mother of Russia.

The withdrawal of Governor Jarvis from the senatorial race makes the selection of a senator a matter of less difficulty. His letter of withdrawal is worthy of the grand old Democrat whose life and labors have been devoted to the furtherance of the interests of his party, and though now out of the race, he will not abate his efforts for its success in the coming election.—Lumberton Robesonian.

A southern Journal thinks that the time has arrived when the newspaper editors of the country should assemble in convention and decide upon whom the "Honorable" shall be bestowed. For itself, it would give that title to Presidents, Cabinet officers, Governors of States, members of Congress, Federal Judges and Judges of the Supreme Courts of States, and bar it to members of county courts, grand jurors and deputy coroners.

Times change; several years ago the business man took his pen in hand and now some of them take their typewriter in arms.—Boyce's Hustler.

OUR NOMINEES

National Ticket.

For President:
WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
 of Nebraska.

For Vice-President:
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
 of Illinois.

For Presidential Elector, 1st Dist.
CHARLES L. ABERNETHY, of Carteret.

For Congress, 1st Dist.,
JOHN H. SMALL,
 of Beaufort.

W. J. Bryan has been speaking in New York city this week and the city gave him a great ovation. Bryan's popularity increases everywhere.

We do not remember to have seen a campaign so quiet as the present one. The people seem to be taking no interest in the coming election. This indifference is inexcusable, it is dangerous to the cause of Democracy and good government. We have both a President and a Congressman to elect on the 6th of November. Pitt county should give a large majority for our nominees for these offices. All the Republicans, white and black, are going to be at the polls voting for their side, and Democrats cannot afford to stay at home.

One Sister Failed.

A number of people who went out to Boston's bridge Sunday afternoon to a colored baptism were treated to something new. There were seven candidates for baptism but only six of them were baptized. The seventh one went into the water but when it began to rise up around her waist her heart failed her and in lusty tones she cried, "Let'n me out!" "Let'n me out!" and as no words of the elder could quiet her she was allowed to wade out, much to the distress of her brethren and sisters, who chided her on her lack of faith. But they say that some of the speculators were much amused at the timid sisters evident fright when the cold waters began to rise about her.—Statesville Landmark.

Governor Mount, of Indiana, has received a deed to 16 acres of land around the grave of the mother of President Lincoln, in Spencer county, Ind.

Expelled From the Church for Voting the Democratic Ticket.

A short time after the August election the deacons and a few members of the Shiloh colored Baptist church which is just over the line in Vance county, expelled Ben Person, a colored school teacher of this county, from the church for voting the Democratic ticket. The records of the church show that this was the charge upon which Person was expelled. Under section 41 of the election law, members of the church—13 in number—who participated in the "expelling" proceedings were indicted last week in the Superior Court of Vance county. We learn that Judge Starbuck, a Republican Judge, "quashed" the bill of indictment on the grounds that the charge was "too broad." The section under which these "regulators" of men's consciences were indicted reads as follows: "That any person who shall discharge from employment, withdraw patronage from, or otherwise injure, threaten oppress, or attempt to intimidate, any qualified voter of this State, because of the vote such voter may not have cast in any election, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." The prosecution appealed to the Supreme Court.—Louisburg Times.

It is a serious mistake to close our eyes to the truth. Governor Jarvis, in his remark to the Greensboro correspondent of The Post, in reply to the enquiry as to National politics in this State, told a truth when he replied: "Dead in this State, and but for the senatorial primary we would not know a campaign was going on." This blunt statement of the truth carries its own argument. We have believed that this seeming apathy was not a lack of interest in the great issues involved, but owing to other causes growing out of demands upon the people by their private affairs, but which would release them before the election and certainly on the day of the election. We think there are evidences that we are correct. If not, then Governor Jarvis' statement is of stupendous importance.

We have not expected Mr. Bryan would receive anything like the vote given Mr. Aycock or the amendment. Certainly a very large number of our citizens voted for both of the latter who will not vote for the former. Many Republicans, and Populists, too voted with us in August whom we know will either not vote at all or certainly will not vote with us next month. Still we have had no reason to doubt a reasonable majority for our ticket in November, nor can we unless the fact stated by Governor Jarvis has a much deeper significance as to the real condition than we have heretofore believed.

If the people—we mean, of course, our Democratic people—are "dead" from actual indifference to the result of the contest, then we must sound the alarm that the Democratic electoral ticket of this state, as well as several members of Congress, are in serious danger. It behooves Democrats generally, and county committeemen specially to get to work. The people must be aroused. The enemy is neither dead nor asleep; we may rest assured of that. Take Mr. Aycock's vote as all our own—182,000—the Republican vote was 128,000, leaving 53,000 majority. This looks as if it would be hard to overcome. To overcome it means an average of over 265 votes from the Democratic to the Republican party in each county, or a stay at home vote of over 50,000 voters who voted in August. The middle-of-the-road Populists have to be reckoned. This is an unknown quantity. If they are as strong as the leaders of that organization claim, they will poll some 25,000 or 30,000 votes against Mr. Bryan. All, or quite all, voted for Mr. Aycock in August. This loss, if it actually occurs, reduces very materially the basis upon which our strength was calculated above. And add to this the weakness in our party referred to by Governor Jarvis, and our friends may realize the real situation that confronts them.
