Honor Roll

For the month of October the honor roll of Masonic Hall school contains the names of Bessie Keel and Mai Schultz. Others would have reached the honor roll but for the fact that their grades were lowered by absence marks and demerits. We congratulate the fortunate ones; it is an honor of which to be proud because it is an honor not easily won. We also call attention of parents to the importance of having their children at school every day and promptly on time.

GOVERNOR JARVIS IS NOT SUPPORTING EITHER.

Seeing conflicting reports as to Governor Jarvis' position in the Senatorial contest. THE REFLECTOR called on him today and requested a statement from him; and the following interview we think makes plain his position.

REFLECTOR—Governor, we see it reported by a correspondent from Greensboro that you are supporting General Carr for Senator and by another correspondent from Goldsboro that you are supporting Mr. Simmons. Which is correct?

Governor Jarvis—Neither statement is correct. They are both good citizens. They have rendered valuable service to their party and to their State. They are both men of character and ability. Either is worthy of my support but I am not supporting either. Men who know neither have asked me to advise them how to vote. I have declined to advise them. While I have tried to do each justice when asked about them, I have not taken sides for either and I shall not. I formed this resolution when I withdrew and I shall keep it. If to forget that both have antagonized me in my ambitions, and to speak kindly and truthfully of them and their services, has helped either or both then, to that extent I have supported the one helped, and I do not regret it. I shall continue to speak kindly of each but I shall not attempt to influence a vote for either. Any statement that I am taking sides for either is unauthorized and untrue.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Oct. 31st.

An honest man though adversity may overtake him will eventually rise equal to the emergency. Like the truth, "you may bury it deep down in the bowels of the earth. Yet so mighty and powerful is its grandeur and glory, it will rise above the surface." So with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. In its infancy it had to contend with difficulties and trials innumerable, still by ever adhering to their motto, "Honest dealings and substantial work guaranteed," today they realize it is the best policy, from the fact success has crowned their every effort and their pride lies in the mammoth factory they have built and the high reputation they have attained abroad for honesty and good work.

Carlos Harris has finished painting the residence of Dr. B. T. Cox. The workmanship reflects much credit upon those who did it. Dr. Cox has a pretty home and he must feel proud of it.

J. L. Fleming and G. B. King entertained our people Monday evening with two splendid speeches upon the political issues of the day. They both were at their best, and the fact they had a large and appreciative audience, composed largely of ladies, those who know Jim and Buck, readily realize they needed no higher incentive. The fact is they done us all good.

Miss Rosa Cox came home from the Baptist Female College last Wednesday evening to make a short visit. Everyone was glad to see her.

J. R. Cooper and wife and E. A. Cooper left yesterday morning to attend the Weldon fair.

The Winterville High School building is so crowded with pupils that Prof. Lineberry says if they keep coming in at the same rate new arrangements will have to be made until our college building is completed. We indeed have a fine school and one to be proud of.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed. Hurrah for Simmons!

The Hunsucker Carriage Co. has just received another line of harness which they invite the public to call and examine.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

A Republican Trick.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Oct. 30, 1900.

I have just learned from sources not to be doubted that the Republican and fusion Populist "leaders" (all of whom are so anxious to see Chairman Simmons defeated at the primary next Tuesday have decided upon a new line of action.

A number of them have been in Raleigh during the last few days, and on Saturday last a conference was held, at which were present the visiting Rep-Pop leaders and local Republicans, "and others."

An exchange of views between them is said to have had a very depressing effect upon the congregation, in that the prospects of Mr. Simmons' success were shown to be entirely too bright to suit them and their purposes.

It was also agreed that they and their followers had made a mistake in so plainly and conspicuously advertising their preference for Gen. Carr, and their determination to assist in his selection at the primary.

It was agreed that all the Republicans and McKinley Populists present should return to their homes and immediately announce a "change of heart." That they should declare loudly and frequently that they are no longer advocates of Gen. Carr's election, but have "for reasons good and sufficient to them" decided that Mr. Simmons is the best man for the place, adding that they will "qualify" themselves and vote for him at the primary.

Of course it was understood that none would do this in reality, but that all will vote against Mr. Simmons when the time comes, on the evening of the day of the primary, after the Democrats have about all voted.

The idea of Republicans and fusion Populists supporting F. M. Simmons, in reality, for any office is so unreal and utterly ridiculous that most people will see through the sham without assistance from any one.

But there may be some who possibly might be tempted to give credence to the imposition which they seek to practice upon them, and to such, Mr. Editor, you will render a service by exposing this latest scheme of the enemies of the Democratic party.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.
I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.

MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

Alvord, the teller of the First National Bank of New York, who stole $700,000 of the bank's funds, has been captured in Boston.

The unlucky 13 is heard from again. The engineer of a passenger train of that number on the Southern railway thought he smelled a hot box and leaning out of his engine was struck by a mail car near the track and killed.

New York has been the scene of another awful fire. Tarrant's drug store, a seven story building caught on fire and a large quantity of chemicals in it caused several terrific explosions. The drug store and several adjoining buildings were blown to atoms and many people were buried in the ruins.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

Washington, Oct. 29.—The State Department to-day issued the following: "By the President of the United States of America.

"A PROCLAMATION.

"It has pleased Almighty God to bring our nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country, through all its extent has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant countries and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been marvelously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiment of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people; therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all people of the United States at home or abroad, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed time and harvest; for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies, and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation; and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways. In witness I have heretofore set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one of the Independence of the United States the 125th.

[Signed] "William McKinley.
By the President:
"John Hay, Secretary of State."

There is a growing demand in this State for a reformatory for young criminals. Undoubtedly there is need of it and the subject will doubtless have the considerate attention of the next General Assembly. To build and equip such an institution and to provide means of employment for its inmates are the additional expenses to be met—they must be fed and clothed in the penitentiary. It is to be hoped that the General Assembly can see its way clear to appropriate the sum necessary, but it is to be borne in mind that in addition to the friends of the reformatory, there are others. Many interests, some of them highly deserving, will be clamoring for appropriations, and the prudent legislator cannot vote away money without knowing where it is to come from, let the object be never so meritorious. We should think that a reformatory could be provided at an expense which the State can stand, without inflicting injury to any other institution or interest, existing or prospective, for it need not be large nor expensively constructed. Certainly one is much needed and to the fact no class of our people is more keenly alive than the gentlemen who compose the newly-elected Legislature.—Charlotte Observer.

PREPARED FOR WORK.

Equipped With Keys for Entering Houses.

A colored man named Daniel Williams, who has been about this section for awhile, has been watched with suspicion by the police as being a bad character. He was believed to be the party who has been breaking into the neighboring country stores. Tuesday night Chief of Police Smith arrested the man and sent for Mr. W. C. Hines, who had also been on his track, to identify him. Williams gave them the slip and both men shot at him, but he got away. This morning a search warrant was obtained and officers went to the room where Williams had been staying and took charge of his trunk. In this trunk they found a large bunch of keys of various sizes and shapes and a file that the negro had been using to work on keys. Several suits of clothing, some of them new, and other wearing apparel were also in the trunk. Some of the articles were identified as goods that had been in stores recently broken into. The negro is no doubt a tough character.
