WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 21.

As an evidence of the fact that it has been no idle boast on our part of the notoriety attained by the goods manufactured by the different factories of our town they are now selling in seven different States, viz: Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Texas and Mississippi. Who dare the assertion that this is not a coming town. Every indication and all the encouragement necessary unmistakably point that way and we are more fully realizing it every day.

Winterville had a very deserted appearance last Sunday, owing to many of our people going either to Black Jack, Hancocks or Bethany to attend church.

There was right much excitement in town yesterday on account of the Township Constable chasing a man who had made way with some mortgaged property. The officer got left.

Miss Carrie Wesson went to Grifton Saturday on a visit to friends and returned Monday.

Miss Mollie Bryan has accepted the position as school teacher in a school at Hanrahan.

Numbers of people from the country come here after the mineral water said to be the best in the State, and carry it away in vesels for drinking purposes.

The members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. gave an oyster supper last evening complimentary to the gentlemen from Greenville who came to organize the lodge. The supper was prepared by Mrs. C. A. Fair, Mrs. L. L. Kittrell, Mrs. J. D. Cox, Misses Carrie Wesson, Bessie and Hattie Nichols and others.

The following gentlemen came down from Greenville and organized an Jr. O. U. A. M. lodge last night: J. B. Jarvis, H. A. Timberlake, B. E. Patrick, S. D. King, J. I. Smith, W. P. Edwards, A. D. Johnston, John Horne, J. H. Hester, John Cheek and Ashley Wilson. After completing their work they partook of an oyster supper, then left for their homes. Those of our people who had the good fortune to meet them are very much pleased with them and would be glad to have them call again. We will give you more particulars in our next.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

Serious Shooting.

"Dock" Clark, of Contentnea township, formerly of Greenville township, was shot Tuesday afternoon by Constable McLawhorn. Clark was at Mr. R. R. Cotten's Southwood farm, near Falkland, when the Constable tried to arrest him. Clark ran and the officer fired on him with a gun hitting him in the left leg above the middle of the thigh, breaking the thigh bone. Dr. Laughinghouse, who attended the injured man says about a dozen buck shot went in his thigh. Clark is in a serious condition.

JR. O. U. A. M.

Winterville Council.

John Horne, H. A. Timberlake, J. I. Smith, A. D. Johnston, J. B. Jarvis, A. J. Wilson, J. H. Cheek, Wash. Edwards, B. E. Patrick and S. D. King, members of Acme Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Greenville, went to Winterville Tuesday night to institute a lodge in that town. The lodge was instituted with the following officers:

- Dr. B. T. Cox, J. P. C.
- C. A. Fair, Councillor.
- J. W. Sparks, Vice-Councillor.
- J. W. Harper, Warden.
- W. C. Vincent, Rec. Secretary.
- John Jarrold, Assistant R. S.
- H. T. Smith, Conductor.
- B. F. Manning, Financial Sec.
- L. L. Kittrell, Treasurer.
- W. B. Nobles, Chaplain.
- J. W. Vincent, Inside Sentinel.
- J. R. Smith, Outside Sentinel.

After the work of instituting the lodge had been completed a very pleasant repast was served. At this spread the following toasts were responded to: J. B. Jarvis, "Virtue, Liberty and Patriotism." A. D. Johnston, "The Visiting Brethren." C. A. Fair, "The Home Brethren."

The boys tells us they had a most pleasant trip to Winterville and were shown every courtesy there.

Die.

Last evening, Nov. 20, at twenty minutes to eight o'clock, death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cheek, and released from suffering their infant son, little Bruce Chamberlain Cheek, who had for several days been lying in the fatal grasp of meningitis. A fragile child, too delicate for earth's rough ways, and so the Good Shepherd came and called him to Himself. Services were conducted at the home this morning by Rev. J. N. Booth, and the body was carried to Raleigh for interment. Go to thy rest fair child! Go to thy dreamless bed, Gentle and meek and mild, With blessings on thy head. Before thy heart could learn In waywardness to stray; Before thy feet could turn The dark and downward way. Ere sin could wound thy breast, Or sorrow wake the tear; Rise to thy home of rest, In your celestial sphere!

Robbery At Bethel

A telephone message came from Bethel early this morning asking Mr. W. C. Hines to take his blood hounds over there, as several stores in that town had been robbed last night. He left on the morning train with two of his dogs.

We could not learn the particulars of the robbery, only that four or five stores had been entered, the money drawers in each broken open and some goods taken. The dogs readily found the trail of the robber and run it some distance down the railroad to a brick kiln. Here a lot of discarded clothes were found and the dogs could make the trail no further. The robber had evidently changed his outfit, shoes and all, so that the trail might be lost in case he was pursued.

Rev. B. W. Spilman, of Raleigh, has been called to the pastorate of a church in Baltimore.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 21, 1900.

Two of the old cannon which the British took from the French in 1745 and threw into the harbor of Louisbourg have been fished out of the water and sent to Toronto, having been purchased from the finders by the Canadian Government. Each cannon is about nine feet long, and weighs over 3000 pounds.

A new use for the bagpipes has been found by a Scottish Highlander who owns a sheep farm in a mountainous district of California, and is in the habit almost daily of playing his pipes all over the ground. The skirling has had the happy effect of scaring eagles out of the locality, in which birds of prey had formerly done considerable damage by carrying off lambs, and had even attacked grown sheep.

Attorney-General Walser has prepared his report on the criminal trials in this State for the two years ending June 30th last, and has made it public. It shows 16,627 trials and develops the remarkable fact that there were 2,000 fewer than during the previous two years. Of those tried during the past two years 15,345 were males, 1,780 females, 3,925 white, 7,957 negroes, 43 Indians. There were 10,845 convictions. There are four capital crimes in this State; arson, burglary, murder and rape. The number of trials of these was as follows: Arson 21, burglary 21, murder 160 rape 35. Up to the time covered by these statistics there had been a steady increase in crime. For 1891-2 there were 12,006 trials, for 1893-4 there were 13,255, for 1895-6 there were 15,693, and for 1897-8 there were 18,541.

The Atlantic Coast Line.

Richmond, Nov. 19.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company was held at the offices of the company in this city, to-day. President Elliott says the gross earnings and receipts from all sources for the year were $8,715,758.15 and of this amount $7,599,745.56 was received from operating the roads and $1,131,012.59 from other sources. The expenses of maintenance and operation and the taxes paid amounted in the aggregate to $4,568,803.25. The operating expenses were 56.6 per cent, of the gross receipts.

The election of officers resulted as follows: W. G. Elliot, president; H. Walters, first vice president; Alexander Hamilton, second vice president. C. S. Gadsden, third vice president.

Will New Bern Fair Quit?

We see from the Newbern Journal that the fair of last week, while successful as to exhibits, races, etc., did not meet expectations as to attendance and did not make any money.

We copy as follows from The Journal:

"Financially, the fair is not a money maker, and if those who give their time, ability, efforts and financial backing to the fair, are to find a non-appreciative attendance, there is nothing to warrant them in further risking their money, besides throwing valuable time, in keeping up these annual fairs.

"The Newbern fair has served its purpose in exploiting the splendid resources of Eastern Carolina. It has been always an educator to the farmer and mechanic, a source of profitable entertainment to every one.

"It is now time for those who have labored so long and successfully to both consider their own interests, and to judge whether or not as a business proposition the Newbern fair has not fully served its time.

"If it has, and everything should be considered with care, then it is not good business to continue these annual fairs, and some new method of promoting the business interests of this section should be sought for and put into force."

The Free Press is very sorry to learn that the fair is not a financial success. It has certainly been of great benefit to Eastern Carolina—showing to the world the extent and variety of its products and resources.

Among the reasons for the attendance not being up to expectations were a circus in Greenville, Kinston, etc., superior court in Kinston, and it is possible that coming so soon after the election kept some from becoming interested enough to attend. Besides there were two exhibitions this year.

We hope that the enterprising business men of New Bern will not allow the fair to stop for lack of financial support.—Kinston Free Press.

The Free Press voices the sentiments of THE REFLECTOR in the above. We certainly hope the fair will not be stopped. More Greenville people attend the New Bern fair every year than go from here to all other fairs combined. The fair helps New Bern and Eastern Carolina and should have such help as will keep it going.

The Contest Abuse.

The probabilities are that we will have a pretty big hatch of contests for seats in the next House of Representatives, the contestant being in nearly every if not every case a republican. Most of these will, as usual come from the South, instituted by men who were beaten and felt pretty sure they would be beaten when they entered the race. They have been encouraged in this by the course pursued by the House committee on elections, which generally finds every pretext it can for reporting in favor of seating the republican contestants, and by the shameless partisan way in which the majority votes in accordance with these reports, frequently in the face of the evidence and the facts and in opposition to all decency and honesty. That was the case several times in this Congress, and has been the case in nearly every Congress in which there was a republican majority.

But partisanship or no partisanship, this contest business has become a shameful and costly abuse, which costs the contestant nothing the people paying the bill in the allowances made to defray expenses. This encourages men who have really no ground on which to contest, and do not always hope to win, but having nothing to do at home take advantage of the opportunity to go to Washington, hang around, see the sights, have a good time, and then pocket money enough out of the Treasury to reimburse them for the money spent. If these allowances were cut off we would have very few contests, and this scandalous abuse would be at an end.—Wilmington Star.

Will Still Remain the Party of the Plain People.

Those who eagerly assume from the late elections that the Democratic party is weak are making a grievous mistake. It has survived the loss of its greatest leaders, from Jefferson to Tilden, and it will survive the defeat of Bryan. It has encountered one opposition party after another—Federalists, Whigs, Know-Nothings and Republicans—and it will still remain the party of the plain people, doing battle against all comers for equal rights and constitutional government. United under wise leadership and upon the restored Jeffersonian platform, as it will be, the indestructible Democratic party will resume its long record of political victories over all elements of opposition.—Philadelphia Record.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.
 I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.
 MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

Mrs. E. J. Monaghan, (nee Miss Etta Belle Clark) of Fayetteville, arrived Tuesday evening to visit her parents.

The Alamance Strike Over.

Durham, Nov. 18.—A special to The Herald from Burlington tonight says that the strike of cotton mill operatives is off. The unions at the Ossippee and Altamahaw Mills have disbanded. Eighty members withdrew from the Union at Burlington, and the most of these have applied to be reinstated in their former positions and given work. The National Textile Union has advised all to go back to work and will not extend any more help. It is considered that the trouble between the mills and the operatives is now at an end and the mill men have won.

Small Postoffices to be Abolished.

The abolishment of the 76,000 fourth-class postoffices and star route postal service will be recommended by Postmaster General Smith in his annual report to Congress. He will urge the rural free delivery throughout the country, and recommend that nearly $4,000,000 be appropriated for the maintenance of the service.

Mr. Smith will point out in his report that the government will be a financial gainer by the general establishment of the rural service. Each star route contractor now receives from $500 to $700 a year for delivering the mail from the railway station to some one-fourth class postoffice. Each fourth-class postmaster also receives 100 per cent. of his sale of postage stamps. The rural free delivery carriers receive $500 a year salary and have to furnish their own horse and vehicle.—Washington Special to Philadelphia Record.

A Smile in Each.

It's hard to tell which a woman enjoys most—trimming her own bonnet or picking her neighbor's to pieces.

The difference between the impetuous sport and the chess player is that one pawns his watch and the other watches his pawn.

"I've quit going to see these modern plays," said the scandalized matron, "the costumes are so shocking." "Yes, indeed," assented her neighbor; "last time I was at the theatre there was scarcely a woman in the audience you could look at without blushing."

"Turkeys are troublesome birds to raise," remarked the star boarder as he helped himself to another drumstick; "they wander away and are hard to find." "That's funny," said the landlady pointedly, "they don't seem to go far."
