WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 28. The thieves have struck us at last and that too like a cyclone. For the last two nights robbery has been committed among us, an occurrence so unusual our people are amazed and hardly know what to do. There is no clue to the perpetrators and all are very much wrought up over these occurrences. The only and best remedy for such is about six feet of hemp from a good stout limb of a tree.

Claude Chapman of Calico was here yesterday.

J. H. C. Dixon of Clay Root was here yesterday prospecting and we think it quite likely he may locate among us.

Miss Hattie Kittrell went to Grifton last Friday on a visit to friends and returned Monday.

Mrs. L. L. Kittrell and Miss Carrie Wesson spent yesterday in Greenville on a shopping expedition.

Mrs. J. D. Cox went to Greenville Monday and returned the same day.

Mr. A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

Mr. Hines and his dogs were at a great disadvantage in both of the robbery cases here. The first time a terrific storm broke them off and on the second occasion the track was several hours old, as well as a high wind prevailing all through the night and morning which made it utterly impossible for them to accomplish anything.

Thanksgiving Services.

There will be Thanksgiving services in the Baptist and Methodist churches tomorrow.

The service in the Baptist church will be held at 11 o'clock A. M. with sermon by Rev. J. N. Booth. Collection for Thomasville orphanage.

Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church on Thursday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, will consist of appropriate music, including a solo by Mrs. Grimes, reading of the first Thanksgiving Proclamation issued in 1789 by George Washington, and brief addresses by J. L. Fleming and Rev. N. M. Watson, and a collection for the Twentieth Century Fund. The public is cordially invited to attend.

When a person knows that he has true friends, he should be just, liberal and considerate towards them. It is often the abuse which friendship receives that suddenly culminates in its termination. Those who have steadfast and true friends will be found to be those who love them for their personal worth, instead of valuing them for what they may reap from them in a commercial way. When we place certain valuation upon another's friendship we cater to the vulgar side of our nature and can expect an early cessation of harmonious brotherhood.—Greensboro Record.

Military Company.

There will be a meeting of the Greenville Light Infantry Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Every member be present. Business of importance, election of officers, issuing uniforms, etc.

Commanding Officer

REPEAL THE LAW

Grimesland, N. C., Nov. 27, 1900. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Last winter the farmers of Pitt county held a mass meeting in Greenville to protest against the unreasonable advance of fertilizers and to take steps to protect themselves if they could. They were in earnest and apparently determined but nothing further was done. High prices continued and farmers paid them.

Is there any relief? Yes. If nothing more can be done this will help us some.

Last spring Pitt county farmers paid in some instances ($16.00) sixteen dollars a ton for acid phosphate that was offered in wholesale lots in the early winter at less than ($7.00) a ton, etc.

The North Carolina Fertilizer laws section 9, in its requirements for brands sold in this State say they shall contain "soluble and precipitated phosphoric acid which shall not be less than eight per cent. soluble potassa, which shall not be less than one per cent. ammonia, which shall not be less than two per cent, etc."

The law here creates a demand for this phosphoric acid whether the soil demands it or not.

There are hundreds of thousands of acres in North Carolina to which are applied goods in which phosphoric acid, though so largely predominating, is the least needed chemical ingredient.

I know some of our most successful farmers who after repeatedly testing acid phosphate on their soil would not now put it on their land if given to them free. Yet half at least of the fertilizer they use in acid phosphate, though in combined form, as the law requires its use. Under the present law the farmer cannot get brands containing less than eight per cent. phosphoric acid even to experiment with. The law forces the farmer to buy about eleven hundred pounds of acid phosphate to each ton of the average fertilizer he uses whether he needs it or not, and even if he don't want it, thus creating an unnatural demand for acid phosphate. The change of this law would save the farmers of North Carolina hundreds of thousands of dollars which the State now compels them to donate to Fertilizer companies. Let this law be repealed.

J. BRYAN GRIMES.

Attention is called to the land sale by Harry Skinner Commissioner.

IMPORTANT LAND SALE.

By virtue of the power contained and invested in me by a decree entered at Sept term 1900 of Pitt Superior Court, in the case entitled S. T. Hooker against E. S. Dixon and others, as appears on record in the Clerk's office of the Superior Court in Judgement Docket No. 13, action 136 new Docket No. 10 pages 35, 36 and 37. As Trustee and Commissioner named therein, I will expose to public sale, before the court House door in Greenville, on Monday the 18th day of January 1901 (being Monday the 1st day of January term 1901 of Pitt Superior Court) the following described tract of land to wit: one tract of land, situate in the county of Pitt, Chicod township, adjoining the lands of James H. Wells, W. L. Clark, Robert Dixon and others' being the land whereon the said E. S. Dixon resides, situate on the north side of Cedar swamp and being known as the land purchased by E. S. Dixon from H. A. Paramore, and decided to said Dixon by his father John S. Dixon and Grene Paromere, containing in the whole one hundred and fifty acres. The identical land conveyed James Galloway in trust, as appears in Book D. 5, page 268, and O. Hooker. Oct. 8th 1893. Terms cash.

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 28, 1900.

In a communication elsewhere in this paper Mr. J. Bryan Grimes calls attention to a law existing in North Carolina that is a great injustice to the farmers of the State. It is known that certain fertilizer companies control nearly the entire phosphate output of the country, and by some means this law got through the Legislature requiring a certain percent of their goods to be placed in all fertilizers, thus forcing the use upon the farmers. The law should be repealed as early as possible, and every farmer aided by every newspaper in the State, should so agitate the matter that the coming Legislature will act on it.

Mind Your Own Business a Good Political Rule.

Money is being subscribed in Massachusetts to test the constitutionality of the election laws in Louisiana and North Carolina by which, it is alleged, most of the negroes are disfranchised. And of course the Massachusetts people have a right to spend their money that way if they feel like it. This incident will not, however, tend to break the solid South to any great extent. It is a good rule in politics as in other things to mind your own business.—Chicago Chronicle.

Helping Honesty.

A New York savings bank has asked three of its Clerks to resign because they "played the races." Betting on races like speculating in stocks, is regarded by the banks as calculated to produce a habit of mind and financial exigencies unfavorable to trustworthiness: The clerks in question had been under surveillance, had been found to have been the "sporting habit," and suffered dismissal in the interest of the stockholders and depositors of the bank. Nothing is said against their record, Presumably they are as honest and highminded as their employers. Confessedly a man may speculate, bet, gamble, keep fast horses and live expensively and still be honest. Nevertheless, it will be generally conceded that he is under exceptional temptations to get money in exceptional ways when things go wrong with him, and a bank may perhaps, with justice take the position that it prefers clerks whose mode of life does not subject them to exceptional temptations.—Baltimore Sun.

Every little girl thinks she would like to grow up and marry a man who keeps a candy store.

To England in Two Days.

"Fast electric ships crossing the ocean at more than a mile a minute, will go from New York to Liverpool in two days," writes John Elfreth Watkins, Jr., of "What May Happen in the Next Hundred Years," in the December Ladies' Home Journal. "The bodies of these ships will be built above the waves. They will be supported upon runners, somewhat like those of the sleigh. These runners will be very buoyant. Upon their under sides will be apertures expelling jets of air. In this way a film of air will be kept between them and the water's surface. This film, together with the small surface of the runners, will reduce friction against the waves to the smallest possible degree. Propellers turned by electricity will screw themselves through both the water beneath and the air above. Ships with cabins artificially cooled will be entirely fire-proof. In storm they dive below the water and there await fair weather."

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., NOV. 23.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

WELBEE'S
Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.
