FAREWELL SERMON.

Close of Four Years' Ministry.

Rev. N. M. Watson has finished his four years' pastorate of the Methodist church here, and preached his closing sermon Sunday night, a large crowd being out to hear him. He preached an excellent sermon from the topic of entering into the labors of others and reaping where we have not sown.

After the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Watson gave some statistics of his work here. The total number of members received into the church during the four years was 66. He said he did not have the exact figures of losses by removal and death, but thought the total would reach about the same number. The collections from all sources in the four years was as follows: 1897, $1,850.30, 1898, $1,821.00, 1899, $1,800.00, 1900, $2,517.60.

Mr. Watson referred with pleasure to the cordiality with which he had been greeted by all people in Greenville, and said that nowhere had he spent four more delightful years than here. He asked the church to treat his successor as kindly as it had him.

Marriage Licenses

For the last week in November Register of Deeds Moore issued marriage licenses to the following parties.

WHITE.

Joseph F. Barwick and Miss Mamie Gardner.

J. T. Manning and Florence Harris.

Offa Bryant and Sallie Whitehurst.

COLORED.

John Haddock and Talitha Hardv.

Wm. Blow and Mary Washington.

The total number of licenses issued during the month of November was 27, of which 12 were for whites and 15 for colored.

Bishop's Visitation.

This parish greatly enjoyed the visit of Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, Bishop of the Diocese of St. Paul's church Sunday. He preached and administered Holy Communion on Sunday morning, and at the evening service a class of ten persons was confirmed. We are glad to note that the church is making such good progress under the ministry of Rev. F. H. Harding.

Verdict For Gattis.

The Gattis-Kilgo suit that was on trial at Oxford last week, was the topic of interest throughout the State. Rev. J. T. Gattis sued Dr. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, for $100,000 for defamation of character. On Saturday afternoon the jury gave Gattis a verdict for $20,000. Kilgo took an appeal.

Weather Coming.

There have been big frosts for the last three mornings. The weather prophets say this is sure to be followed by falling weather of some kind, so you need not be surprised at seeing rain or snow soon.

The End of the Century Club.

The End of the Century Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Jordan. The president, Mrs. Skinner, being absent, the vice-president, Mrs. Laughinghouse occupied the chair.

The question of magazines for the coming year was discussed and the following ordered to be taken: Atlantic Monthly, Bookman current Literature, Harper's Bazaar, Harper's Monthly, Literary Digest and Review of Reviews.

Mrs. Arthur read an interesting paper concerning some of America's famous women. She told entertainingly of Pochahontas, Mary Rollinson, Mary Washington, Dolly Madison, Susan B. Anthony and Miss Willard. An informal discussion then followed concerning other famous women of America.

The delightful refreshments served by the hostess were thoroughly enjoyed each member of the club.

The next meeting of the Club will be on December the eleventh, Mr. Quinerly, hostess.

To Cure a Child of Stuttering.

The child that stutters must be gently, patiently and persistently corrected, stopped and when he begins to hesitate, made to fill the lungs with air by a deep inhalation, and then to pronounce the difficult syllables until he can do so easily and smoothly. If this course is pursued undeviatingly cure is certain.—December Ladies Home Journal.

Military Officers.

The Greenville Light Infantry held a meeting Friday afternoon and elected the following officers:

Captain—R. L. Carr.

1st. Lieut.—J. R. Corey.

2nd. Lieut.—E. E. Griffin.

New uniforms were also distributed to the members at the meeting. Capt. Carr tells us the company is now in better condition than it has been at all.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 30th.

Gen. Charles P. Eagan, of embalmers' notoriety, is in Washington seeking a pardon and restoration to duty. He wants vindication, which is a little cheeky, in view of the general opinion of the public that his sentence to suspension for six years with full pay $7,600 a year and allowances, was more than lenient. Some time ago an offer was made to restore Eagan to duty if he would immediately apply for retirement, but he declined because his pay on the retired list would be only $5,625 a year. Under the law he will not reach the age of compulsory retirement until January 16, 1905, but there is talk of getting a bill through Congress authorizing the President to place upon the retired list any officer in the army, navy, or marine corps under suspension for a longer period than one year. It is said that McKinley has promised to restore Eagan to duty.

The death of Senator Davis, of Minnesota, is sincerely mourned by his colleagues regardless of party. As Senator Martin, of Va., truly said of him: "In the Senate his opinion was as highly regarded by the minority as by his own party." "As Chairman of the committee on Foreign Relations, Senator Davis personally drew up the declaration of war against Spain which Congress adopted and later as one of the Peace Commissioners he helped to negotiate the treaty of peace with Spain. The appointment of a successor to serve until the legislature of Minnesota fills the vacancy is in the hands of Gov. Lind, but it is not known in Washington whether he will appoint a democrat or a republican, although some think that the honor may go to ex Representative Charles A. Towne. The legislature will, of course, elect a republican in January. The same legislature will also elect a successor to Senator Nelson, who is willing to succeed himself. This will add another to the usual number of legislatures that will elect two U. S. Senators at the same session.

I always like to see a girl and her father good friends, and by that I mean chummy, advisory friends, who can talk like equals about anything that comes up in the family life or out of it. Such a girl is likely to be level headed. She is apt to make up her mind more slowly, and to keep it made up when she has once done so, after she has observed the cautious and judicial way in which her father's mind sets to work.—Helen Watter-son Moody in the Decemor Ladies' Home Journal.

People are Too Generous With Advice.

Some persons keep advice for gratuitous distribution, and give it at such length and with such energy that all free agency seems lost to the one addressed. A well-bred reticence should be exercised both in asking questions and offering advice respecting every one's natural desire for independent thought and action. The elders are apt to dogmatize, expecting their views to be accepted without question, for getting that their correctness is not so evident to those whose minds have not passed through the same process.—December Ladies' Home Journal.

Some Census Figures.

The Census Bureau at Washington has announced the official population of North Carolina by counties, comparing the figures with the census of ten years ago. The total population of the State is now 1,893,810, against 1,617,947 in 1890, a gain of 17 per cent.

The population of Pitt county is now 30,889, against 25,579 in 1890 showing a gain of 5,310 in ten years. In the other counties immediately adjoining us the figures are as follows: Beaufort, 26,404, against 21,072; Craven, 24,160, against 20,533; Edgecombe, 26,591 against 24,113; Greene, 12,038, against 10,039; Lenoir, 18,639, against 14,879; Martin, 15,383, against 15,221.

It will be some weeks yet before the population of the cities and towns of the State is given.

Wonders of the World.

It is estimated that the following are the 14 great wonders of the world.—Those of the old world were:

1. The Egyptian pyramids, the base of the largest covering 114 acres of ground.
2. The mausoleum erected by Mausolus, the King of Caria.
3. The Temple of Diana at Ephesus.
4. The wall and hanging gardens at Babylon, said to have been 87 feet thick and six miles long.
5. The colossus of Rhodes—a brazen statue of Apollo 105 feet in height.
6. Statue of Jupiter Olympus at Athens, made of ivory and gold.
7. The Pharos of Ptolemy Philadelphus, a light house 500 feet high on the island of Pharos, in Egypt.

The wonders of the New World are:

1. The art of printing.
2. Gunpowder.
3. Optical instruments, such as the telescope and microscope.
4. Steam engine.
5. Labor-saving machinery.
6. Electric telegraph.
7. Photography.—Philadelphia Record.

Ned Avery, an old colored man, died at Hamilton Friday and was buried Saturday by the white people of the town, who will erect a monument over his grave. Ned had been a staunch Democrat for the last fifteen or twenty years, and from this fact his own race would have nothing to do with him.—Tarboro Southerner.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SALE.

On Thursday, Dec., 27th, 1900, at my home place, 5 miles from Greenville, will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, a lot of horses, mules, hogs, cattle, carts, wagons, buggies, farm implements, corn, fodder, household and kitchen furniture, organ, etc.

Among the stock are several fine Red Jersey and Poland China crossed stock hogs.

Any of the above articles will be sold at private sale before the 27th if desired. G. M. TUCKER.

North Carolina Leads.

North Carolina leads all the other Southern States not only in the number of her textile mills, but also in wood working plants. The Dixie Magazine, published at Atlanta, which has been giving attention to this subject, reports that in addition to 500 saw mills, 85 shingle mills and 182 planing mills, sash, door and blind factories there are 63 factories making furniture, chairs, show cases, &c., 36 carriage, wagon and agricultural implement factories, 55 for making boxes, crates, &c., a total of 306 wood working establishment employing skilled labor. There are in addition to these several plants which turn out large quantities of axe and pick handles, spokes, rims, &c., and several for the manufacture of bobbins.—Wilmington Star

It is said the feud between the Rockefeller brothers has become so bitter that they will not attend same church. If they keep on at that rate, they may both find themselves in the same hell.—Wilmington Star.

The cabbage growers of Michigan have entered into a combine and raised the price from $4 to $14 a ton. Even the cabbage head fellows are catching on to the Trust plan.—Wilmington Star.

When dealing with a crank one good turn-down deserves another. At any rate, the hands of a clock never strike for shorter hours.

Better Care of the Insane.

The coming Legislature will be memorialized to make larger provisions for the insane of the State. The present hospital room is inadequate and consequently there are many in jails and county homes who ought to be in the State Hospitals where they can have more comfortable quarters and some hope of recovery. The State owes it to these unfortunates to better provide for them. It is to be hoped that North Carolina, with her increasing wealth and increasing taxes, will not forget these poor people who are dependent on her for care.—North Carolina Baptist.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.
