Bitten to Death by a Rattler.

Fort Valley, Ga., Dec. 10.—Edward Swanson, of Hammond, Ind. advertised as a snake charmer and eater, while exhibiting here Saturday, was bitten by a huge rattlesnake with seventeen rattles, and died yesterday. The snake had been recently received from Florida, and it was guaranteed that its fangs were out, but this was a mistake. By public subscription a coffin was secured and the remains were interred here today. His mother, Mrs. Nellie Swanson, resides at Hammond, Ind. The young man was 23 years of age.

Goodwin Will Contest.

Pittsboro, N. C., Dec. 11.—Notice of contest was served today on H. A. London by J. A. Goodwin for London's seat in the Senate, and on R. H. Hayes by Jesse A. Giles for Hayes' seat in the House.

Mr. Hays thinks Mr. Giles made a mistake and intended to serve notice on E. W. Pou but failing in the latter will contest Pou's seat later.

Three Dollars and Thirty Cents a Minute.

New York, Dec. 11.—The will of Cornelius Vanderbilt shows an income of three dollars and thirty cents a minute. He held only twenty thousand shares of stock and not a single bond in the New York Central.

The schedules of the Vanderbilt property show a personal estate of fifty-three millions.

Attend the Meeting.

Do you want to see Greenville have water works, electric lights and better streets? Are you in favor of the Legislature giving the town the opportunity of voting on the question of issuing bonds to secure these improvements? Then be sure that you attend the special meeting called by the Board of Aldermen in the Court House Thursday night.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

The Weldon Oil Mills were destroyed by fire Monday night.

To Dec. 1st, 1900, the sale of fertilizers were 30,000 more tons than the previous year in North Carolina.

Mr. Elisha Garner was accidentally killed at the Selma Oil and fertilizer mills Monday. He was caught in the belting while repairing drive wheels.

Rev. Lacy L. Little, a Presbyterian missionary from North Carolina in China, was recently married in Shanghai to Miss Ella C. Davidson, formerly of South Carolina.

Gen. Thos. F. Toon, who will next month take charge of the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, appoints John W. Duckett of Lumberton, his chief clerk.

Gen. Julian S. Carr will call a convention of ex-Confederate veterans, to be held in Raleigh in February, when the legislature will be memorialized to increase the appropriations for the Soldiers' Home and for pensions.

James Robinson, a salesman in a dry goods store in Clinton, met a horrible death last week. He was struck by a falling lamp and covered with oil and in a moment was wrapped in a sheet of flame. Death ensued in a few hours.

The oldest prisoner in the penitentiary, Sam Redfern, of Wadesboro, aged 75 years, has been pardoned by Governor Russell. He was convicted of attempting to burn a residence and had served two years of a ten years' sentence

A Terrible Tragedy.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 11.—Jubal Gooch, a farmer, was killed by his young son at his home, nine miles from here, this afternoon. Jubal was drunk and was cruelly beating his wife. The son interfered, and the father drew a knife and chased him. Then the father returned to his cruel beating. The son returned, got a gun and blew out the father's brains. A warrant was set out for his arrest, charging murder. It was said at the sheriff's office tonight that the slayer had fled. The dead man used to live in Raleigh and was then a plasterer.

F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, reports a strange and sensational trial in Beaufort court last week. In the North Carolina supreme court reports there is the case of a man named Brooks, tried for rape it being in evidence that he personated the woman's husband. The court held that it was not rape; that fraud was not rape. The legislature in 1851, accordingly, enacted a law to meet such cases. Up to that time such a case had never been tried in the State and some thought there would never be another. The legislative act made the offense rape and fixed the minimum penalty at ten years in the penitentiary. Chas. Williams was last week tried for the same offense and convicted. He attempted to prove knowledge on the woman's part, but the latter's evidence promptly convicted him.

The Well Dressed Man

Attracts your attention wherever you meet him. He is numerous in Greenville this fall, and we take considerable of the credit for this condition of affairs. Ask the man if we are not entitled to this honor. Never before in the history of this establishment have we carried such a complete assortment of as we have this fall. Our customers tell us this, and they are certainly competent to judge. We have everything that is the rage in New York, and a visit to our establishment will give you a complete knowledge of all that is new and "Chic" in the fashionable world. In regard to our prices: We know that you will not utter a word of complaint. Drop in when you have a little time; we want to see you.

Reasonable and Right.

If our prices are reasonable then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced. Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. To buy the right thing at the reasonable price is better, far better and more economical than the wrong thing at most any old price. The poorly priced is meanly made, got a wrong twist in it somewhere, you can't depend upon it.

When you want good dry goods you don't want to be shown makeshifts apologies for good dry goods. We cannot too strongly emphasize the goodness, the reasonableness of the following items:

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1900.

Some rich absent minded Americans visited the Paris exposition. One of these left a valise containing $45,200, forgot all about it and hasn't called for it yet. Wilmington Star.

A young lady in a Chicago school pulled out of a play rather than kiss a young man whose name was Smith and who was red-headed. Sufficient provocation.—Wilmington Star.

That young man in Shepperdsburg, Pa., who smoked a pipe over a can of powder while he was loading some cartridges, will not do so any more until the burns heal and he gets some more skin on.—Wilmington Star.

At Wake Forest College President Taylor states, there are 289 students, representing 72 North Carolina counties and seven States besides North Carolina. Trinity, Davidson and the University all have a largely increased number of students. There seems to be a general educational awakening all over North Carolina.

The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture, just submitted, shows that in 1899 there were sold in North Carolina, 244,808 tons of fertilizers, and in 1900 the number of tons sold was 279,238. The revenue derived in 1899 amounted to $59,511 and in 1900 to $55,247. The decrease in revenue (although over 31,000 more tons were sold) this year is due to the reduction of tonnage tax from 25 to 20 cents. This Board of Agriculture increased the salary of Commissioner Patterson to $2,000 per annum.

What Hurt the Negro.

The Ethiopian, a South Carolina paper edited by Rev. E. W. Williams, a well-known colored man, says in a recent editorial.

"The greatest blow the negro has ever received, and the one from whose damaging effects he will never recover, was given him by congressional enactments. It was the unconstitutional imposition of the right of franchise, for which he was in no way qualified. No government has ever done a defenceless people a greater injury. We do not consider that those States that have passed amendments to their constitutions abridging the privileges of the citizens in the exercise of the right of franchise, have done the negro half so great an evil as was done him by the national government when it imposed this right upon him.

Census Returns.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The population of certain places in North Carolina (having a population of more than 2,000 but less than 25,000, is as follows:

Asheville, city, 14,964; Beaufort, town, 2,195; Burlington, town, 3,592; Charlotte, city, 18,091; Concord, city, 7,910; Durham, city, 6,679; Edenton, town, 3,046 Elizabeth City, town, 6,348; Fayetteville, town, 4,670; Gastonia, town, 4,610; Goldsboro, city, 5,877; Graham, town, 2,052; Greensboro, city, 10,035; Greenville, town, 2,565; Henderson town, 3,746; Hickory, town, 2,535; High Point village, 4,163; Kings Mountain, town, 2,062; Kinston, town, 4,106; Monroe, town, 2,427; Mt. ## A Student Held Up.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Dec. 11.—Last night one of the students of the University was "held up" by a negro by the name of Wallace Jenkins, who threw a pistol in the boy's face and demanded his money. The boy gave him all he had with him—$1.40, and his pocket knife. The student soon raised a body of about fifty and captured the robber. He was this morning landed in Hillsboro jail to await his trial. There was great excitement when they were in pursuit of the negro.

Fighting in South Africa.

London, December 11.—The Evening Standard says the battle between General Knox and General DeWet continues and that the forces change ground incessantly. Lack of definite information is attributed to absence of telegraphic communication (with the scene of action. While the War Office is reticent, there are indications that officials have news suggesting considerable British success against DeWet.

The paid up leading lady is a "fixed" star. Magnets attract metal, and that probably explains why magnates draw in so much gold.

No young man objects to have his best girl look on him as a conundrum so long as she doesn't give him up.

"Doan' crowd in yo' angziety to git 'next' to er good thing," says Brother Watkins; it might put yo' up against hit."

There's such a thing as being too cool in the face of danger," says the Manayunk Philosopher. "Many a man's reputation has suffered by his temperature getting so low as to make his teeth chatter."

Read This.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

Will Be Pleased With Him.

The editor who is in Greensboro writes back that on the train he saw a number of the preachers returning to their homes from the Conference at New Bern, and they told him that they felt sure Greenville people were going to be pleased with Rev. H. M. Eure, whom the Conference sent to the pastorate of the church here. Rev. Mr. Eure was not long since transferred to this Conference from the West, where he has served as a Presiding Elder as well as been pastor of prominent churches. And one of the preachers who knows our town added, "I told him he was going to be well pleased with Greenville, too."
