BETHEL ITEMS

BETHEL, N. C., Dec. 21th, 1900
Dr. R. J. Grimes spent Saturday in Greenville to attend court.

J. L. G. Manning was in Greenville Saturday on business.

Alley House and wife, of Scotland Neck, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Mattie Grimes returned Friday night from the Baptist Female University at Raleigh.

Miss Effie Grimes spent Friday night in Tarboro to accompany her sister home.

Andrew J. Moore and Charley James passed through on the train Thursday night from Chapel Hill.

Bethel Athenian Literary Society will have a debate Friday night.

Prof. Z. D. McWhorter's school gave an entertainment on Friday night.

Miss Sallie Roberson came in to spend Xmas with Robt. Staton and family.

Observe This.

No doubt there will be many persons to send off Christmas presents by express Monday. Sunday coming in between they will be unable to get packages in over night. For that reason the express office will be opened earlier than usual Monday morning to accomodate all wanting to get packages off. Shippers should remember to be on time and have packages plainly marked. This will avoid confusion. To insure getting packages off they must be in the office by 8:15 o'clock.

Concert.

The weather was so bad that the concert in the opera house Friday night for the benefit of the Christian church did not have as large an audience as it merited. Still enough was realized from the receipts to leave a surplus of about $7 above expenses. The programme was an excellent one, every part being well rendered.

Employment for Families.

Christmas Bells

Will Soon be Ringing.

OUR COMPLETE LINE OF HOLIDAY GOODS for Gentlemen is now on display. Our showing of Neckwear, Suspenders, Mufflers, Gloves, Hosiery and Umbrellas is the best in Greenville and represents the very newest ideas in haberdashery. We are doing a large holiday business and simply because at this time as at all other times during the year we adhere strictly to the popular prices. Take for instance our line of Neckwear and Suspenders.

We challenge any competition to produce anything that will excel them. We are disposed, if anything, to sell goods cheaper at this holiday time than at any other, for with us it closes the most successful season of business we have ever done, and we feel like doing our share towards making the Christmas season of our customers as pleasant as we can. Also we are holding a Reasonable and Right.

If our prices are reasonable then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced. Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. To buy the right thing at the reasonable price is better, far better and more economical than the wrong thing at most any old price. The poorly priced is meanly made, got a wrong twist in it somewhere, you can't depend upon it.

When you want good dry goods you don't want to be shown makeshifts apologies for good dry goods. We cannot too strongly emphasize the goodness, the reasonableness of the following items:

MEN & LADIES' VESTS.

Some right good values in Winter Wear. Heavy Fleece-Lined Vests for Men & Ladies 25c

HOSIERY.

A big markdown in hosiery. They were 15c now 10c, 20 now 15, 25 now 20.

CAPES AND JACKETS.

We come to the front with special lots of nobby garments at prices that would be suicidal earlier in the season, and yet wearing time has just begun. They have been reduced from $4.00 to $2.75, 5.00 to 3.25, 6.00 to 4.00, 7.00 to 5.00, 8.00 to 6.00. These jackets are new.

SHOES! SHOES!!

Shoes for men and ladies. We will cut the price more than half to push out some of these goods. They were $1.00 now 60c, 1.25 now 70c, $1.50 now 90c, 1.75 now 1.00, 2.00 now 1.20.

KID GLOVES.

Kid gloves for ladies and misses. These are the best grade always $1 they will go the next ten days at 79c, all sizes and all colors.

CLOTHING.

Men and youth's clothing will go for the next few days at hal price. Youths were $4.00 now $2.25, 5.00 now 3.00, 6.00 now 4.00. Mens were $4.00 now $2.25, 5.00 now 3.25, 6.00 now 4.25, 7.00 now 5.00, 8.00 now 6.00.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 22, 1900.

What a glad time of the year this is. Absent ones turning their faces homeward to meet around the family hearthstone and make Christmas merry together. Of all the holidays in the year Christmas is the most joyous. In the family reunions let it not be forgotten that one's own joy can be lightened by bringing joy to some one else. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The second act in the Cudahy kidnaping tragedy at South Omaha, Neb., was pulled off drawing effect. The letter thrown over in the yard at the Cudahy residence stipulated that $25,000 in shining gold must be deposited at night at a certain spot over which a white lantern was suspended, on a lonely road five miles from the city, and that the millionaire should make the drive out there alone with a red light swinging on his buggy. Mr. Cudahy first called the police to try and catch the bandits, but the family was so distressed over the loss of the boy that he decided to do as the letter said. He drew the gold from the bank, put it in a bag, swung a red light on his buggy and started out on the road indicated. Sure enough at the five mile post he saw a white light suspended from a stick. He put the bag of gold under the light and drove back home. At 1 o'clock his boy rang the door bell and there was joy in the house once more. Now the millionaire offers another $25,000 for the capture of the bandits.

The Charlotte News holds that there is no better indication of a city's enterprise and its business standing than the advertising columns of its newspapers. If a town is alive and the merchants are enterprising and looking for business, the columns of its newspapers will be filled with live advertisements. If the advertisements are few and are allowed to stand like sign boards on a country road, you can generally put it down that the town from which the paper comes is a dead one.—Kinston Free Press.

It is quite true that when a man wants his business done well he must attend to it himself. But it is equally true that reliable assistants are needed in the conduct of profitable enterprises. There are many kind of helpers. For instance, advertising. If the business man pays proper attention to advertising it will do more for him than he can possibly do for himself.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Dec. 22.

The Winterville Wire Fence factory is now offering 10,000 yards of 4 foot farm fence at 10 cents per yard. There is barbed wire at the bottom.

Miss Nannie D. Wood, who has charge of the music department in our school, left this morning for her home, in Charlottesville, Va., to be absent until the opening of the school, Jan. 7, 1901.

Miss Annie Lee Staley, assistant principal in the Winterville High School left this morning for her home at Staley, N. C., to spend the holidays.

The holiday exercises at the school Thursday night were of a highly interesting nature, and reflects much credit upon both teachers and students. The boys and girls who attended this school during the past session were ladies and gentlemen in the highest acceptance of the term, and there is not one of them, who by their general deportment and kindness, but what is endeared and loved by our whole people, and we challenge any school to produce a corps of teachers more proficient, painstaking and truly loved than those who compose the faculty of our school.

Miss Bulah Bready and little Letha Fair left for Emmetsburg, Md. Thursday, the first to remain and the latter to visit her grand parents.

Misses Lucy and Helen Galloway and Jimmie Galloway have gone home to spend Christmas.

Miss Lemmie Taylor returned to her home in Lenoir county this morning.

Rudolph Croom, of Kinston, who has been attending school here left last night and will return in time to be present at the opening.

Ray Croom, the champion cheero-maker and all-round ladies man is on a visit to Kinston.

W. M. Lydale, of Greene county, who has invented a very valuable tobacco truck was in town this week negotiating for the construction of the same by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co's.

Minton Hodges, of Washington, has gone home to spend the holidays. He will return in time for school.

Misses Lee Nichols, Tessie Speight, Nannie Jolly, Cora Carroll, Lecky Barnhill, Ella Page, Fannie Fleming, Valerie Fleming, Gladys Fleming and Rosa Tucker. Butler Allen and Calvin Mills have all gone home for Christmas and will be back in time for the spring session.

1000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

Jamie Cox, an adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cox, left yesterday to visit his mother for a short while in Coleraine, Bertie county.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply Iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.

For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

Four Car Loads of Merchandise Bought

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the
