The Governor's Salary.

The Senate branch of the Legislature yesterday promptly passed a bill to increase the Governor's salary to $4,000. We regret to see that there was contention yesterday afternoon in the meeting of the special committee of the House on this subject. It had been hoped that the members of the Legislature would, in dealing with this matter, rise above the plane of small politics and deal with it as North Carolinians. In another column of this paper is copied from The Raleigh Post the statement that the governorship cost Mr. Elias Carr $6,000 of his private means and has cost Judge Russell $11,000. Governor Jarvis had no family excepting his wife and they boarded at a Raleigh hotel, yet a friend of Mr. Jarvis, soon after the expiration of this gentleman's term of office, told the writer that he had to borrow money to pay his debts before leaving Raleigh. We are conscious of the indelicacy of printing a statement of this kind, but it is about a public matter. We were aware, before the The Post printed the facts, of the drain of the governorship upon the private fortunes of Mr. Carr and Judge Russell. Judge Russell has this week given out the figures as to himself.

The cost of living increases constantly, and every year the demands upon the purse of the Governor of North Carolina grow. The effect of the continuance of his salary at the present figure will be to shut the door of the executive office in the face of every poor man and every man of moderate means, for no man who has not $6,000 or $11,000 to pay for the honor can enjoy it. It would not be agreeable to see a Governor dodging collectors, or even confronting them when they had bills against him which he could not pay.

The increase fixed by the Senate bill—$1,000—is little enough; too little. We cannot doubt that when this bill gets out of the House, that body will pass it ungrudgingly and without quibble —Charlotte Observer.

Scornful looks are the real eye lashes.

Negro Jew.

There is a negro Jew in the city —probably the only one that has ever been seen in Durham. His name is Samael Valskovitz, and he hails from Africa.

Valskovitz, speaks, it is said, the pure Hebrew language and in all including the Yiddish and Patois of the Hrebrews, can speak ten languages. He says that he is a Jew by religion, was taught that religion from infancy, and that he and his people have spoken the Hebrew language for generations.
He speaks English very poorly, but enough to carry on a conversation.

This negro Jew says that for ten years he has been on a boat that ran from Liverpool to this country.
Finally he left the boat at Norfolk and decided to live in the United States. In Raleigh he received aid and came on here, where he received some help. He says that he is going to locate in Greensboro, where he intends to go to work and live the remainder of his life.

Valskovitz is quite an attraction, and especially so among the Hebrews of the city.—Durham Herald.

Too Close Dancing

The young people get too close to each other as they dance. It looks bad, and is very improper. Young ladies should insist on the gentlemen supporting their arm at right angles with the shoulder, and not rest it on the young man's shoulder. It is all right to be affectionate, but the place for it is not in the ball room. If you want the young man to hug you have him do it at home and not in a public hall where every one can see you.
Besides this, it is much more comfortable to hold the lady or gentleman at a distance. You can dance easier, and more graceful.— Horton (Kan.) Headlight.

Election of Ball Managers for the Next Commencement.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Jan. 12.—
The election of chief ball manager and substitutes for the commencement for 1901 was held today and the following were elected: Chief, W. A. Murphy, of Morganton; substitutes, Metrah Makely, of Edenton; E. B. Cobb, of Wilson;
Frank Smathers, of Waynesville;
Henry Turner, of Raleigh; Joe Ramsey, of Rocky Mount, and W.
R. Capehart, of Edenton. The election of chief marshal will be in one week.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

A few more days and the criminal class in North Carolina will have lost their best friend.

A 12-year-old negro boy, near Greystone, threw a stone at a Seaboard Air Line train, and smashed a glass, which cut the face of Harry Chavasse, a passenger. The train ran back, and the boy was quickly captured by the passengers.

The governor pardons A. C.
Flynn, a white man of Rockingham, serving a seventeen year sentence for murder in the second degree, his victim being his brother.
The evidence laid before the governor went to show that the killing was accidental.

Assaulted By a Negro.

Leavenworth Kan., January 12.
Miss Eva Both, a well-know young woman of this city, was assaulted on south Broadway, a fashionable residence street of this city, at 6:40 o'clock tonight by Fred Alexander (colored who had followed her for twelve blocks.

Alexander was arrested shortly after the occurrence, and was taken to the office of the Chief of Police.
News of the attempted assault spread rapidly, and in a few moments the streets about the station were filled with a mass of excited men, determined to lynch Alexander, if he could be reached. The police, however, had placed him in a hack and taken him to the State Penitentiary at Lansing.

Miss Roth recognized her assailant, and identified him to the police. Alexander has been watched by the police lately, as he is the suspected murderer of Miss Pearl Forbes, who was assaulted and killed November 6th, three blocks west of the scene of to-night's attempt.

A Epidemic of Grippe.

New York, January 12.—The wet weather of the past three days has increased the number of cases of grippe. All the hospitals are congested and some have notified the superintendent of the outdoor poor to send no more cases. The dispensaries are crowded from morning till night and an extra force is at work preparing enough mixtures and prescriptions for the grippe. The total number of cases of all kinds in Bellevue today was 840.

Superintendent George Blair of the outdoor poor department, who has charge of the sending of patients to all the charities hospitals, said that all the hospitals in the city were filled.

Hand the Printer His Dollar.

The printer's dollars—where are they? A dollar here and a dollar there scattered over numerous small towns, miles and miles apart. How shall they be gathered in? Come home; you are wanted. Come in single file that we may send you forth again to battle for us and vindicate our credit.
Reader, are you sure you have not one of the printer's dollars sticking to the bottom of your trousers' pockets? Feel down and see if we are right.—Pauusutawny (Pa.)
Republican.

MONDAY, JANUARY 14, 1901.

This is the last day of Russellism. Aycock will now occupy the gubernatorial roost.

The increase in the congressional representation is only additional expense to the government for little purpose. Of course as it is going we want our share, and would kick if we did not get it, but a general reduction would have been just as acceptable.

The distribution of Congressional garden seeds this year will be the largest ever made, it is said, appropriation for this purpose having been increased from $130,000 to $170,000 which will add 3000 packages of seeds to each Congressman's quota.

Isn't it strange that so many people will refuse to purchase anything of home people, but just let some stranger come along and make some proposition which seems very reasonable and the dear people will be sure to bite and allow themselves to be taken in. When a person signs his name to a paper for an unknown person, they may look out, for by some scheme they are likely to have to pay much more for the article than if bought of a home man.—Orange Va. Observer.

A member of the "Annianis Club at Raleigh continues to show that he is equipped with the proper credentials for membership. Here is one of his productions:

Mention was made the other day of the fact that a man named Gordon had passed through this town in a wagon, with his wife and 13 children and that he had left six of his "young hopefuls" in Granville county. A gentleman here tells me that a man named Gordon in Granville, who, it appears, was the grandfather of the present man reared no less than 27 children, 25 of them sons, and he and all the 25 voted for Henry Clay.

There never was quite so absurd argument as that which led to the conclusion that Russell ought, as a matter of duty thus appoint himself. It went thus: A chief justice is to be appointed; he must come from the Republican party; he must come from the eastern section of that party; there is no man in the eastern section that is so well qualified as Russell; therefore it is Russell's duty to appoint Russell. Now, if there was any pretence of duty, evidently the only duty that could be spoken of was the duty to appoint a fit man.—Monroe Journal.

A Triple Murder.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Louis Currier, aged 40 years, at an early hour this morning cut his wife's throat, broke his son Archie's head with a baseball bat, took a dose of paris green and cut his own throat from ear to ear with a razor.

All three are dead. Currier left a letter addressed to the police which shows that the murder was premeditated. The letter is as follows:

"Albany, N. Y., Jan. 11 1901. 'To Whom May Concern: When you find our dead bodies you may call upon the President of the Painters' Union and get one hundred and fifty dollars for my funeral and one hundred dollars on my wife that will bury the three of us I guess. Notify my brother-in-law and his wife, which is my sister. She keeps a store on the corner of First and Lexington Avenue. 'I gave then all my belongings and also her father in North Adams. I have a sister in Morton street. Don't let her see any of us: With my best wishes, I remain till death.

"LOUIS CURRIER.

"She bought the paris green herself from Harvith Drug Store for the purpose of poisoning me, but I watched her too close and I gave her a hard death. I wish I could have given her more for that was not half enough. I wish I had done it before."

Currier was a painter by trade. His wife, whom he married thirteen years ago, was then employed in a woolen mill at North Adams, Mass. Their one child, the second victim of the father's gruesome deed was 12 years of age.

Mrs. Israel Currier, sister of the murdered and suicide, exonerates the dead woman and states that her brother made life most wretched for his wife, drinking to excess and abusing her.

Don't's.

Don't pretend to be fond of books unless you are. Funny embarrassments accrue from false pretense and false book lovers have been cleverly trapped.

Don't be too positive. A woman who suffers no contradiction is detested.

Don't boast of your friend's wealth or position, that cheapens you. Glorify their ability, which is to your credit.

Don't consider it smart to be flippant. All men of brains despite a silly talker, and nice women shun them.

Don't "talk like a book." Many books are prosy, more stupid and the rest not fit for conversational feats.

Don't be masculine. There are many kinds of queer creatures upon the face of the earth, but the most odious is a woman aping a man.

Don't undervalue politeness. It has made a millionaire of a poor person more than once, and it wins respect.

Don't wait until your friends are dead to show you value their talents. Do not flatter, praise.

Don't snub babies, or old persons. To do so, is cowardly. Go out of your way to be kind to the helpless.

Don't pet an animal one time and abuse it another. Animals have long memories.

Don't sham. All the same this does not mean to go into details to whomsoever lest they mistake you. That is egomania.

Don't be a poor copy of a great person. Be yourself and try to become somebody.

That Connecticut man who captured a 408 pound wife last week was greatly in-fat-uated.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

You can catch a cold now without using a trap.

Leave out love and life would not be worth living.

In paying a compliment it is not necessary to take a receipt.

The fritters of flattery make the favorite food for some people.

The dollar mark of mammon has become the idol of the people.

So lately dead, so soon forgot ten. 'Tis the way of the World. We flourish for awhile. Men take us by the hand and are anxious about our bodies and laugh at our jokes, and we really think, like the fly on a wheel, that we have something to do with the turning of it. Someday we die and are buried. The Sun does not stop for our funeral—everything goes on as usual; we are not on the streets; men laugh at new jokes; one or two memories still hold our names and forms, but the crowd moves in its daily circle, and in three days the waves sweep over our steps and wash out the last vestige of our footprints.—Ex.

Trinity College Notes.

Mid-year examinations will begin Friday 18, and will continue until February 1, when the spring term will begin.

Plans for the new library building, presented by Mr. J. B. Duke, of New York, have been accepted, and work will begin as soon as the weather will permit. The building will probably be situated inside the circular enclosure, facing the driveway on the west. Judging from the plans, the building will be a handsome one, and will add very materially to the appearance of the campus.

The Illustrated Methodist Magazine of St. Louis, for January, has an extended sketch on Trinity College. The article is well illustrated, containing handsome cuts of all the college buildings and of Mr. Washington Duke, Dr. John F. Crowell, ex president of the college, and Hon. Jas. H. Southgate, President of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. W. H. Mocre, presiding elder of the Durham district will move his family to the Park. He has secured rooms in the Mary Duke Building. Dr. Moore is already at the Park and his family will come the first of February.

The Avers Bible Lectures will be delivered this year by Chancellor James H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University. His subject will be the "Book of Job." These lectures will be delivered in the early part of April; the exact date has not yet been fixed.

Dr. J. S. Bassett, of the department of History, will lecture at Johns Hopkins University the latter part of this month. The subjects treated in his series of lectures will be: "The Negro in Africa; The Negro in American Slavery; The Negro in American Freedom."

A Pennsylvania man who was supposed to be dying of laryngitis was suffering from a case of half swallowed false teeth, which he thought he had left in his barn. After suffering for several days he told his physician that he thought he felt a lump in his throat when examination revealed the missing teeth, which were taken from their hiding place and the old man got well.—Wilmington Star.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the

THE FOLKS YOU SEE

Coming and Going This New Century.

W. R. Parker went to Everetts today.

R. A. Tyson went to Richmond today.

D. J. Whichard went to Greensboro today.

B. S. Sheppard went to Ayden Saturday evening.

Sanford Christman left this morning for Wilson.

C. D. Rountree, city tax collector, has been sick the past week.

M. Heilbron, of Tarboro, came down Saturday evening and spent Sunday here.

Miss Ida Damron, of Baltimore, arrived Saturday evening to visit Miss Lena Matthews.

Woodie Gardner, of Bethel, has taken a position here with the John Flanagan Buggy Co.

J. J. Laughinghouse and Alston Grimes went to Raleigh this morning to attend inauguration.

E. H. Shelburn and little daughter, Miss Mary, left this morning for Raleigh and Durham.

E. V. Smith, who has been visiting his parents near here, left this morning to return to Texas.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Mary Leslie alias Roy West, improper conduct, fined one cent and costs, $1.96.

B. F. Jolley, firing off pistol, fined one cent and costs, $1.96.

Watch Recovered.

The watch of Mr. R. L. Davis which was stolen some time ago by the negro who entered his store, and is now here in jail awaiting trial, has been recovered. It was found in Tarboro where the negro had been stopping and left it.

Steamer Sunk.

The steamer Tarboro, one of the boats belonging to the Tarboro Oil Mills and running between Tarboro and Washington, run on a snag Saturday in the Grand Turn, about a mile and a half above Greenville. A large hole was broken through the hull of the steamer and she filled rapidly with water. The steamer Edgecombe went to the assistance of the injured boat but could not keep her afloat and one end sunk. It is thought the steamer can be raised when there is more water in the river.

Brutal Outrage.

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 12.—News reached here today of an outrageous crime which occurred on Thursday morning near Moody's Mill in Moore county. The woman upon whom the outrage was committed is Mrs. Henry Brewer, a school teacher. Mrs. Brewer's husband is a son of William H. Brewer, a merchant and farmer of the Fall Creek section in Chatham county. My informant says that the assault was made while Mrs. Brewer was walking alone to the district school house where she was teaching. Sias Martindale, a young white man, has been arrested and identified as the man who committed the deed. He caught her in a secluded spot and overpowered her. A preliminary hearing was to have been held before a justice of the peace yesterday, but I am not able to learn the results of the investigation. There was talk of lynching.

The man, Martindale, is a nephew of a Mrs. Brewer who was outraged and murdered by a negro near Harpers' X Roads about two years ago. In that case the negro was lynched within 12 hours after the crime was committed.
