On Main street, two doors south of post office. Employ only white workmen. Good clean work guaranteed.

Wednesday night while Rev. J. B. Morton and wife were at prayer meeting, his house was entered through the window. Mrs. Morton's trunk was opened and every thing in it turned upside down. The pocket books of both husband and wife were found and the money, about seven or eight dollars in each, abstracted.—Tarboro South-erner.

Come On.

THE REFLECTOR is gratified at the way its patrons have been paying up since the new year came in. But there are many yet who are indebted to us and we would appreciate an early call from them. It is a time that we need money, and at least what is already due ought to be paid without further asking.

Observations.

There can be no safer refuge than under the roof of a noble woman.

The man in whom his children delight must be as nearly right as may be.

If we could tell how things were going to effect us that we pray for, we would bless God for not answering our petitions.

To a woman who has sinned beyond pardon petty lying seems like child's play.

Some persons think Grief is always in tears, whereas she oftener smiles.

Two young people of Jersey City, desiring to marry and not having enough money, have entered into an agreement, which was duly drawn up before a Justice of the Peace, to contribute weekly to the raising of a fund of $1500. If in two years the sum shall not have been completed the idea of marriage is to be forever abandoned.

It is provided that the woman is to contribute $10 a week and the man only $5. This is not because his incidental expenses will be greater than those of the woman during the two years, but because he is making only $10 a week while she makes $14.

Your rail fence takes a large fence row that is worth something each year and your fence is subject to be thrown down by stock, blown down in storm, or burned when fire gets to it.

Your plank fence is a strong fence, but is subject to be burned and when your posts decay some the force of wind against the plank will break the posts off before entirely rotten. The wire fence is fire and storm proof and stock cannot throw it down as they do a rail fence. The posts will last longer because the storm has no power on the wire, and will last 15 years instead of 10 years with repairing of posts.

This wire fencing can be had by applying to the Winterville Wire Fence Co., Winterville, N. C.

A Church Advertisement.

The efficacy of newspaper advertising has been newly demonstrated at Beverly, Mass., where the First Universalist Church trustees have made a contract for a half-page of advertising space in the leading newspaper for every Saturday. This half-page is used to declare the doctrines of the church, announce the preacher's subject and the music programme for the next day, tell people how to reach the place and describe the seating arrangements. The church is crowded every Sunday night.—Philadelphia Record.

Kansas has burned a negro at a stake. Now that the north is beginning to realize that it has no exemption from such acts of savagery, will it not stop its foolish attacks on the south and co-operate with this section to find some way to prevent the crimes that bring this punishment.

A constitutional amendment has been offered in the house to postpone inauguration day until April 30th, when the weather will presumably be less conducive to pneumonia. Unfortunately, similar amendments have been offered every year in the last century without coming to anything.

South Carolina has a law that makes countries where lynchings occur liable for heavy damages. The result has been to stop the crime absolutely. Kansas, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Colorado, and other states ought to try this method and see if they cannot put an end to the disgraceful condition of affairs that exist within their borders.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18th.

It is understood that the Republican steering committee has given Senator Hanna one week within which to pass the Ship subsidy bill. If not passed in that time it is to be permanently side-tracked.

Representative Kitchen, of North Carolina, has no fear that a cadet appointed by him to West Point will suffer anything by hazing or fighting. He said on the subject: "I've been hoping to hear that my cadet had been 'called out.'" I reckon he's able to take care of himself, and I reckon also they will give him a side berth. He's a graduate of one of our North Carolina colleges, played center rush on the football team, and was captain of the baseball team. Oh, he's a peach: He stands over six feet high, weighs 180 pounds, and comes of good fighting stock.

The nomination of the son of Justice Harlan, of the Supreme Court, to be Attorney General of Porto Rico has not been confirmed yet by the Senate. At a secret session this week special efforts were made to get Senator Pettigrew to withdraw his objection to action but he refused, declaring that he had no doubt of young Mr. Harlan's personal fitness for the position and no personal objection to him; that his opposition was based on higher grounds the unfitness of the nomination of a son of a justice of the Supreme Court at this time to such a position. Mr. Pettigrew then said a few words concerning the recent nomination of a son of Justice McKenna to be major in the army, jumping him over the heads of 118 lieutenants and captains; also of the removal of a son of ex President Harrison, because his father had dared to raise his voice in opposition to the McKinley policy. Mr. Pettigrew said: "I make no charge against the Supreme Court, but I do say that the appointment of the sons of two of the members of that court to important positions under the administration at this juncture of affairs in the Supreme Court is to say the least, indecent.

Tom Reed this week came out from under cover and appeared before the Senate Committee on finance, which is considering the bill reducing war taxes that was passed by the House, as attorney for the "poor downtrodden" sellers of corporation stock, who are crying for the taking off of the tax of 2 cents upon each $100 of the face value of stocks sold. Mr. Reed's principal argument was that the tax in many cases is more than the selling value of stock. It struck many as a poor argument, inasmuch as stocks which are sold at less than 2 cents for each $100 of their face value would seem to belong properly to what are known as "wild cats," and should not be sold all.

The threat of the Ship subsidy press bureau to have the River and Harbor bill held up in the Senate until democratic Senators who are interested in appropriations carried by that bill allowed the Ship subsidy bill to be voted upon did not make a dent in the opposition of democratic Senators to the Ship subsidy bill. Democratic Senators from States along the Mississippi river, who were the ones aimed at by the threat, say they stand the failure of the River and Harbor bill as well as republican Senators can, and that no action toward that measure by the republicans will change their opposition to the Ship subsidy bill.

Secretary Root has again declined to furnish information asked for by a Congressional resolution. This time it is the action of Gen. Chaffee in regard to looting by foreign troops in China, information about which a resolution offered by Representative De Armond, of Mo. asked, that was refused, on the ground that it was inexpedient to make it public at this time. Mr. De Armond stated on the floor of the House that he was satisfied with the reason given for not making public information.

The oyster is a phlegmatic creature and yet it is often engaged in broils.

The editor of a comic paper should always manage to keep his wits about him.

Some men expend more energy in getting rid of money than they do in earning it.

"How much money has my husband in bank?" demanded the woman. "I cannot tell you that, madam," replied the man behind the grating. "Why, they told me you were the teller." snapped the woman.

The Mizelle case that was started Tuesday is still in progress with the end not yet in sight. The State rested its side of the case this morning and the defense begins its testimony. The case is being strongly conducted on both sides, many expert witnesses being examined.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.
