Trinity College Notes.

The Science Club held its regular meeting Saturday evening. The meeting was devoted to a general review of the more important scientific achievements of the Nineteenth Century. Prof Pegram, of the Chemistry department; Dr Hamaker, of the department of Biology, and Prof. Edwards, of the Department of Physics, discussed the progress in the work of their Departments.

Prof. Pegram, has received, with other very rare chemicals, some "Radium" Chloride. It is now being investigated spectroscopically and also with reference to its actinic properties.

The Historical Society will hold a Civic Celebration the 22nd of Feb. The name of the speaker on this occasion will be announced later.

The mid year examinations begin to-day, and will continue till February 1st, when the second term begins.

Birthday Tea.

Be sure to attend the Birthday Tea by the King's Daughters in the opera house Tuesday night. An elegant supper will be served and there will be a delightful programme of music and tableaux.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

Her Majesty Passes Away.

For the last few days Queen Victoria, Great Britain's beloved Queen, has been critically ill, and the world over there have been feelings of deepest sympathy and much anxiety as to her condition. Sunday she was almost in extremis and it was not thought she could survive the night. She did survive, and was still living today, but there was no hope that the end could be long stayed.

These bulletins have told of her condition today:

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22—The Bishop of Winchester read prayers in the dying Majesty's chamber at 11:30, midnight. The Queen showed some improvement and rallied slightly. At daybreak she began sinking again, at 8 o'clock this bulletin was issued: "Queen shows signs of diminishing strength and her condition assumes more serious aspect."

11 o'clock.—The Bishop and members of the Royal families were hastily summoned to the bedside of the Queen.

Noon.—The Queen is sinking rapidly. Doctors have abandoned giving stimulants and her strength shows rapid failure. The end seems to be drawing near.

1 o'clock.—The Queen is dead.

The civilized world will join in mourning the death of the noble Queen, the greatest woman the world has ever known.

Missionary Coming.

Dr. G. W. Greene, a missionary from this State who spent nine years in China and recently returned to North Carolina, will come to Greenville next Saturday and occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning and night. Dr. Greene will have something to say on the situation in China that will be of much interest, and all who can should hear him.

Good Hunt.

Mr. Ola Forbes and his northern friends who are visiting him, Mess. J. S. Mundy and Samuel Streit and Mr. Mundy, Jr., killed 63 partridges on a hunt they took Monday. That was a fine day's hunting. They are all enthusiastic hunters and are good shots.

With many people the only creed is that of insatiate greed.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21st.

As the administration doesn't wish to take any more chances, the conferees on the part of the House on the Army bill, have orders to agree to the bill as it passed the Senate. It is expected to go to Mr. McKinley in a day or two, and mouths are already watering for the nice little commissions that he will distribute under the new law.

The Ship Subsidy bill has been patched up so as to placate republican opposition, and it is now claimed that it will get the vote of every republican Senator, if it gets voted upon. It is to be considered in the Senate whenever no regular appropriation bills are on hand, for a time, but Senator Aldrich reminded Senator Hanna that the time would be limited when he gave notice that the Finance Committee would, during the present week, report the revenue reduction bill. The prediction has been made by a Senator that if the Ship subsidy bill was not passed before the revenue reduction bill, which will have the right of way, got before the Senate, it would not pass at all. If the democratic Senators choose they can easily prevent the Ship subsidy bill getting to a vote, but they may conclude that it will be good policy to allow the republicans to pass it.

While protesting all the time that he would not be a candidate, Senator Hanna is constantly busy laying wires to bring about his nomination for President, by the republicans in 1904. His latest move in that direction was to make a bid for the soldiers vote, by announcing his intention to join the G. A. R. If the democratic leaders can help Hanna get that nomination, they will certainly do so, because of their belief that his nomination by the republicans would assure the election of any democrat.

That "pull" under this administration is stronger than the Civil service Law is nothing new, but a disgraceful proof of it has just been given by the appointment of Wm. Hamlet, of Maryland, who was forced to resign as a general inspector of the Post Office Department, for having hired out his government railroad pass, to be an inspector in the Baltimore Custom House. In other words, a man who has shown his unfitness for a position under one department of the public service, has been given an equally responsible position in another. The secret of Hamlet's "pull" is his ability, or his supposed ability, to control the negro voters of Maryland.

A sensational scandal in the dead letter office of the Post Office Department, has resulted in the dismissal of the Chief in the property division and three clerks under him, and will probably result in the entire re-organization of the dead letter office. The clerks dismissed were guilty of conspiring to get valuable property for nominal prices, by means of bidding in certain packages, improperly described in the catalogue of the annual dead letter auction sale. One of them made a confession when cornered with a lot of the improperly described packages in his possession, and uncovered the conspiracy.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1901.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Interesting Observations and Comments On Measure Pending in the Legislature.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Jan. 21, 1901.

During the past week the General Assembly has passed a number of more or less important acts, while as many more are in the hands of the committees or on the calendars of the two houses. Some of the most important bills of a general character yet to be are:

Senate bill providing for the establishment of a Reform School for young degenerates, introduced by Senator Broughton of Wake. It is the intention of the two committees on Penal and Charitable institutions to hold a joint session early this week and give this measure and the subject generally earnest and full consideration. It is hoped and believed that a Reformatory institution that will meet the demands and needs of the State will be provided for during the session. Several bills have been introduced designed to provide liberally for the public free schools—one of them appropriating as much as $300,000, another $220,000 and a third $100,000—and I find upon enquiry that the Legislators, of all parties, are disposed to vote as large appropriation as the State can find the means to provide.

On Friday Senator Travis of Halifax, introduced a meritorious bill designed to provide four months' school in counties not now having them, and appropriating $200,000 to carry out the provisions of the proposed act.

UNIFORM SCHOOL BOOKS.

The bill introduced last Friday by Senator Aycock of Wayne to secure a uniform series of text books in all the free public schools of the State is another highly important measure. That such a law is necessary seems to be recognized generally and this bill, with probably some changes, or a similar one, will doubtless become a law.

The bill contains excellent provisions, and among other things provides for a State Commission, of which the Governor is to be ex-officio chairman, with the State Superintendent of Instruction and three members of the State Board of education as the other members; bids are to be received and contract awarded to lowest bidder for a satisfactory series of school books for five years; and the price must be as low as the same books are furnished to the schools of any other State. Machinery is provided for the proper distribution of the books and all public free-school teachers will be required to use the books adopted, etc. All this will mean cheaper school-books—and that is what has been needed in North Carolina for many years. The competition among publishers, it is hoped, will be lively—despite the "book trust", for that trust does not include all the school-book publishers, I believe.

ELECTION OF SENATOR SIMMONS.
Tuesday the Legislature will formally elect Hon. Furnifold M. Simmons to be U. S. Senator and his six-years term will begin March 4. At the Democratic caucus he received the unanimous vote of the Legislators present. Senator Simmons was called to his old home in Craven county last Friday by the death of his mother, who has been ill for some time, but will return in a few days.

The Republicans will bestow the empty honor of their votes upon Hon. Richmond Pearson, of Asheville. Whether the five Populist will vote is not known. If they do and all the anti-Democrats are present, Pearson will receive only 29 votes of the 170 in joint session, at best, and if the Pops cast their five votes for Butler, Pearson cannot get more than 24.

Five votes for Butler! What a change in conditions from those existing in January, 1895.

AYCOCK A GREAT GOVERNOR.
The present occupant of the Executive Mansion is going to make the greatest governor North Carolina has had, in all our history, in some respects—or else disappoint a great many people. All indications point to the fulfillment of the first prediction, and the realization of the hopes and belief of those who know him best.

THE DOG TAX AGAIN.
That perennial question of the taxation or not of dogs is coming to the front early this session, and on Thursday of this week the Garrett bill to levy a tax on canines will be discussed. Its advocates say that it can be made to raise $75,000 to $200,000 for the public school fund. Its opponents claim—but we are all familiar with that old story.

CARE OF THE INSANE.
Dr. Murphy asks for $170,000 appropriation this year for the Morganton hospital for the insane. A portion of it is wanted for an electric light and power plant, and for the completion of an addition to building under way. Dr. Kirby of the Raleigh hospital, I have heard will not ask for more than one-half that sum, including an appropriation for additional female ward building to cost about $20,000. The latter is absolutely necessary, if the splendid record of this institution is to be maintained.

Stamp Taxes.

Congress will earn the thanks of the general public by speedily repealing the war revenue act imposing a stamp tax.

Taxes collected by stamps of small denomination are at the best picayunish. An ideal government would never impose them unless under stress of war or revenue deficiency. Nearly three years have passed since Congress authorized the raising of revenue by the small stamp tax. It is a tax which the everyday citizen must bear at a loss of time and a constant irritation that make the cost of the stamp slight in comparison.

In comparison with the total Government receipts, the proceeds of the stamp tax are hardly worth considering. The small stamp does not raise enough to justify the continual botherment of the taxpayers.—St. Louis Republic

The testimony in the Mizelle case was finished about 10 o'clock this morning and the lawyers began their argument to the jury. They had not finished when we went to press.

Is Dancing a Past Fancy.

One of the well known ballet trainers of the city in discussing the subject one day last week said: "People will not dance at all within a very few years. You see, dancing is not meant to be distorted as it now is. To dance one must be graceful, but to dance after the prevailing ballroom fashion one must be very angular. In the first place, there is nothing to dance. People no longer waltz, and when they do waltz they do not waltz well; it is a kind of awkward whirling around, with no opportunity or design for a graceful movement. All that was graceful about the waltz of the past has been taken from it to please the hopper, who would prefer to whirl around on one toe, with no thought of dancing. How can one expect that it would be any different with this two-step turning every one's head? No one can think to dance well when all he dances from one month's end to another is the two step. There is nothing graceful about that. You can't get any kind of training out of it. It is no dance. Did you ever analyze it?"

The master began to dance, turning from the evolutions of the old-fashioned dances to the waltz and the two-step. With his hands on his hips he glided back and forth, all the while smiling cynically.

"Can't you see how foolish it is?" he said. "Can't you see there is nothing to this wonderful two-step? One doesn't have to dance—just take so many glides, turn, glide again and again turn. Where is your opportunity for grace? Every man, woman and child in the country could do this if he wanted to. Our only good fortune is that they do not want to."

"But what difference does it make that the two-step is, as you say, a dance any one can do? Does a thing need to be difficult in order to be popular?" some one asked him.

"That is the secret of the whole thing—it does have to be just that. No one wants to dance something every living creature can dance, and if they do they ought not to, for it is a bad thing for our profession. I can't see what the society masters live on with this kind of thing going on, and you know they do protest. They tried to find some way out of the difficulty last summer."—Chicago Chronicle.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old fogy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.

Found Dead.

Mr. James Scales was found dead by the side of the road near James Combs' mill, Wilkes county, last Sunday night. He was about two miles from his home. He was about 60 years old and leaves a large family. There is no cause assigned, except it is probable he had been drinking and lay down and froze to death, says the Chronicle.
