STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

The next union meeting of the 2nd district of the Central Conference will be held at Gum swamp, Pitt county, commencing on Friday before the 5th Sunday in March.—Free Will Baptist.

We learn that revenue officers Saturday seized J. J. Potter's whiskey distillery near Snow Hill. They found some irregularity at the still. They also closed his saloon in the town, taking charge of his stock.—Kinston Free Press.

The schooner Coleman that left Newbern on the 5th laden with lumber for Philadelphia, was wrecked off the bar at Atlantic City inlet on Sunday and was a total loss. The crew were saved by the Atlantic City life saving crew.

Robbed Postoffice.

Orange, Va., January 21.—Thieves broke into the Orange postoffice last night and blew open the safe, taking the whole stock of postage stamps, which amounted to over $1,000. Fortunately, there was only between $5 and $10 in money in the safe. This they took also. There is no clue as to who the robbers are.

DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Jan. 23.

Important facts for farmers. Cost of different kinds of fence per 100 yards.

Cost of rail fence for 10 years. 500 rails for 100 yards or 12 rails per panel.

Splitting 500 rails at 40c per 100 $2.00

900 ft timber at $1.50 per m. 1.20

Hauling and putting up rails 1.00

Shrubbing fence 25c per year for 3 years 75

Total cost for 3 years $1.95

Making total cost for rail fence in 10 years $16.50 per 100 yards to say nothing of the loss of land taken.

Cost of walling.

750 feet plank at $1. per hundred delivered $7.50

40 post at 5c each, delivered 2.00

8 lb nails at 3c per lb 24

Cost of making walling 1.00

Total $10.74

Average cost of plank walling 7.16

Wire fence 100 yards.

100 yards at 10c per yard $10.00

20 post at 5c each 1.00

3 lb staples at 5c 15

Putting up fence 1.00

$12.15

Your rail fence takes a large fence row that is worth something each year and your fence is subject to be thrown down by stock, blown down in storm, or burned when fire gets to it.

Your plank fence is a strong fence, but is subject to be burned and when your posts decay some the force of wind against the plank will break the posts off before entirely rotten. The wire fence is fire and storm proof and stock cannot throw it down as they do a rail fence. The posts will last longer because the storm has no power on the wire, and will last 15 years instead of 10 years with repairing of posts.

This wire fencing can be had by applying to the Winterville Wire Fence Co., Winterville, N. C.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

What The Law Makers are Doing.

MONDAY, 21.

SENATE.

Gov. Aycock sent his first message to the Senate nominating Jas. R. Young as Insurance Commissioner to succeed himself. An executive session was held and he was elected.

A petition was read asking for a change in the boundary lines between Wilson and Pitt counties, and Senator Woodard introduced a bill to that effect.

A bill was introduced providing for additional buildings at the A. and M. College.

HOUSE.

Among the new bills introduced were these:

By Curtis: To tax dealers in pistols.

By Nichols: To appoint justices of the peace in Pitt.

By Ebbs: To prevent kidnapping and to punish persons for committing that crime.

By McKethan: Defining the liability of insurance companies in certain cases.

By Robinson: The prohibit pools trusts, monopolies and conspiracies to control business and prices of articles and to prevent the formation or operation of pools, trusts, monopolies and combination of charters of corporations that violate the terms of this act and to authorize the institution of persecutions and suits therefor.

Ransom Money Paid in Vain.

Atlanta, Ga., January 21.—N. H. Fraser, of Union Springs, Ala., whose son Bass was kidnapped several weeks ago while a student at the Technology School here, has apparently lost $500 by a decoy letter sent him. Mr. Fraser received a letter stating that if he would place $500 in gold, the amount he offered for his son, in a sack with a peck of potatoes and proceed along the road near the United States Federal prison, several miles from this city, he would be met by a negro, who would ask, "Massa, has you got dem potatoes?"

He was to deliver the sack and its contents to the negro, and his son would appear at a hotel in this city looking for his father at an early hour Sunday morning. The letter was signed "Packard," mailed in Atlanta, dated January 16th and the instructions were minute and specific. Threats of exposure and failure to carry out the instructions were frequently made in it. Mr. Fraser's son, a brother of the kidnapped boy, carried out the plan of the letter, met the negro as arranged, and gave him the money and potatoes Saturday night.

Yesterday early he was at the hotel mentioned, and remained there all day, but Bass Fraser did not appear, and no trace of him or the persons who received the $500 can be found.

A Colorado miner has discovered a new mineral which in the dark gives out light. Where he discovered it it gave light enough to work by without the use of candles. A moderate sized piece of it put in a vase of water will illuminate a room. He doesn't propose to hide his light under a bushel, but to utilize it and make money out of it.

We desire a live correspondent at every Postoffice in the county who will send in brief items of news as it occurs in each neighborhood. Write plainly and only on one side of the paper.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1901.

A correspondent of the Raleigh Post comes out in a letter championing the dog and putting in an objection to levying a tax on canines, the fund so arising to be applied to public schools. After eulogizing the merits and worth of the dog, and how much protection and benefit he is to the home, the correspondent gives as a further reason for not wanting the tax, that the dog is often a toy and a nurse for the baby and a great comfort to the little ones.

That strikes us about the weakest of weak argument that any man could advance. The State needs parents and school-raised children worse than it does dog raised children. School associations are much better for a child than canine companions, to say nothing of the danger a child is subjected to by contact with the dog.

And if a dog is to escape taxation because of his usefulness(?) why tax the hog that furnishes our meat and lard supply, or the horse that does the greater portion of the labor as well as provide a means of transportation for a large majority of the people? These indispensable animals are taxed, then why let the dog escape just for sentiment?

Conscience Money.

Saturday Mrs. R. I. Farrar received a letter from the postoffice directed to the heirs of O. C. Farrar. When she opened it she found folded in blank paper thirty dollars in bills.

In her next mail was a letter directed to the heirs of the late W. M. Phippen, formerly of the firm of Farrar & Phippen. Without noticing the direction she opened this and found that it contained the same amount which she turned over to Mrs. James Pender for distribution.

The letters were postmarked Washington and Charlotte, January 19, missent, and stamped next day at the Birmingham postoffice, showing that they had been mailed on the cars. Not a word of writing appeared on any of the paper and no one has any idea who at this day should feel impelled to send money to the heirs of two men whose business dealings ceased about 18 years ago.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Queen's Family.

To the Editor of The Observer:

Please answer the following questions regarding the Queen's family, and you will oblige a number of readers:

1. Was she the successor of King George?
2. Whose daughter was she?
3. Whom did she marry?
4. How many children had she—how many boys and how many girls?
5. If the Prince of Wales dies, who will ascend the throne?
6. What is a Duke—how are they appointed?
7. Are they always of royal blood?

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 21, 1901.
1. No; she became heir presumptive to the crown on the accession of William IV, in 1830 and the latter dying without issue on June 30, 1837, she ascended the throne of Great Britain and Ireland that of Hanover, by the Salic law, falling to her uncle, the Duke of Cumberland.

2. She was the only child of Edward Duke of Kent, and Princess Victoria Mary Louisa, daughter of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg Saalfeld.

3. She married her cousin, Prince Albert, of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, on February 10, 1840.

4. Nine; five girls and four boys.

5. His eldest son, who becomes Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall when the Prince ascends the throne.

6. The ruler of a State called a Duchy. In Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain and Portugal a hereditary title of nobility, ranking next below that of Prince, but in some instances a sovereign title.

7. No; they can be created by the King. For instance the Duke of Argyle and the Duke of Marlborough are not of royal blood.—Charlotte Observer.

Hazing at West Point.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The Congressional Committee that investigated hazing conditions at West Point, tomorrow will make a report and recommend legislation which they believe will result in the abolition of hazing for all time in the academy. The committee will find what the inquiry developed, that hazing has been generally practiced and that in many instances it has been of a brutal character, and will also find that Booz was brutally hazed, but will not ascribe his death to the result of the hazing. The majority of the committee favor the statute which will provide not only for the expulsion of a cadet who is found guilty of hazing, but a provision that a cadet expelled for such cause shall not be eligible for reappointment and shall be forever barred from holding a commission in the army of the United States. This, probably, will be the legislation recommended to the House.

BIRTHDAY TEA.

Decided Success In Every Way.

The King's Daughters had quite a success at their birthday tea in the opera house, Tuesday night, both as an entertainment and financially. The programme of music and tableaux was splendid, this in itself being well worth more than the penny-a-year it cost the attendants to witness it. The programme was as follows, Miss Clara Bruce Forbes being pianist with each musical number:

- Vocal Solo—Miss Wolford.
 - Tableau—A thing of beauty is a joy forever.
 - Violin and cornet duet—Miss Della Forbes and Mr. Eberhardt.
 - Tableau—Sweet dreams
 - Mandolin solo—Dr. Willard.
 - Cornet solo—Mr. Eberhardt.
 - Tableau—The old woman who lived in a shoe with her multitude of children, three scenes.
- The musical selections were each responded to with an encore. The tableaux were composed of many little girls and were decidedly beautiful.

After the programme was completed an elegant supper was served.

The receivers for the evening were Mesdames R. J. Cobb, M. H. Quinerly, G. B. King and J. B. Cherry.

The King's daughters desire to return thanks to every one who assisted them about the entertainment in any way.

The gross proceeds of the tea amounted to something over $55.

MIZELLE CASE.

Verdict of Jury "Not Guilty."

The case against W. H. Mizelle on the charge of murder for poisoning his wife, came to a close Tuesday night after having been in progress eight days. The case was given to the jury after 8 o'clock and they were ready with their verdict by 9.

This was a remarkable case, and in all cost the county about $1,000. There were several expert witnesses and the jury being together so many days was very expensive.

It is useless now to comment on the merits of the case more than to say that public opinion and the verdict of the jury are very opposite.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollar-worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the Accident at Ayden.

A sad accident occurred in town last Friday morning. Little Johnnie, the three year old son of Mr. Charlie Tyson, was standing near the heater warming, when his clothing caught fire from the heater. The flames rose up over the little fellow. His mother hearing his pitiful screams ran to his assistance. In trying to extinguish the flames, she also was severely burned. Dr. Dixon being called for attended both mother and boy. At last accounts both were doing as well as could be expected.—Ayden F. W. Baptist.
