GENERAL ASSEMBLY What The Law Makers are Doing.

THURSDAY, 24.
SENATE.

A petition was introduced by Warren from citizens of New Bern against the sale of cigarettes; one by Arrington against stock law in Nash; one by Alexander from citizens of Mecklenburg for a tax on dogs.

Among the new bills introduced were these:

By Sugg, to authorize Snow Hill to subscribe to the capital stock of the Great Eastern Railroad Company.

By Henderson, to authorize persons who have been lunatics or confined in asylums to manage their own property.

By James, to allow Bryan Buck, a one-armed soldier, to peddle without license.

By Travis, to regulate the fees of clerk and register for recording chattel mortgages.

By Foushee, to regulate the board of internal improvements; to regulate the keeper of the capitol.

Senator McIntyre stated that Dr. J. L. M. Curry would speak at noon and he moved that the Senate adjourn at 12 o'clock in order to hear him. Unanimously carried.

HOUSE.

A bill was introduced by Sheets, to regulate fees in justices' court; to reduce cost of printing public statements.

The other bills in the House were of a local nature.

At noon adjournment was had to hear the speech of Dr. Curry.

Sketch of the New King.

Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, now King Edward of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India, is in his 60th year. He is scarcely 5 feet 7 inches high, and rather stout. As the Prince of Wales he dressed very neatly but plainly.

The character and capacity of the King are said to be different from what is, perhaps, the popular idea of his personality in this country.

For over a generation his mind has been developed by contact with the best authorities on all subjects. His mental ability is declared to be accurate, comprehensive and profound, and predictions have not infrequently been made that in the event of his ascension to the throne the world would see no ordinary sovereign ruling over England. He speaks French, Italian and German.

On March 10, 1863, he was married to Princess Alexandria of Denmark. Their living children number four—George, the Duke of York, who married Princess May of Teck; the Princess Louise, who married the Duke of Fife, and the Princesses Victoria and Maud, the latter the wife of Prince Charles of Sweden. One child died in infancy, and the Duke of Clarence, the oldest son, in January, 1892.

Enterprise, Kan., Jan. 24.—A street fight occurred here to-day, between women, led on one side by Mrs. Carrie Nation, the saloon wrecker, and on the other by Mrs. John Shilling, wife of the manager of the saloon wrecked yesterday. Mrs. Shilling was backed by a half dozen female friends.

Mrs. Nation later swore out warrants against Mrs. Shilling and her husband and Mrs. Wm. Bitter, charging them with assault, and Mayor Hoffman swore out a warrant against Mrs. Nation, charging her with disturbing the peace. All were arrested. They were taken before Judge Holt and released, all but Mrs. Nation being on bond. Mrs. Nation was found not guilty.

Putting up fence 1.00

$12.15

Your rail fence takes a large fence row that is worth something each year and your fence is subject to be thrown down by stock, blown down in storm, or burned when fire gets to it.

Your plank fence is a strong fence, but is subject to be burned and when your posts decay some the force of wind against the plank will break the posts off before entirely rotten. The wire fence is fire and storm proof and stock cannot throw it down as they do a rail fence. The posts will last longer because the storm has no power on the wire, and will last 15 years instead of 10 years with repairing of posts.

This wire fencing can be had by applying to the Winterville Wire Fence Co., Winterville, N. C.

SATURDAY JANUARY 26, 1901.

Mr. Death, of New Jersey, who has just been sentenced to life imprisonment, is no doubt wondering where his sting is.

Now the scientists are arguing the respective claims of salt and pepper to figure as the true elixir of life. In either case it is evident that life must be well seasoned.

A new perpetual motion machine is advertised by its inventor, who declares that it can be run by a small boy. That is pretty near perpetual motion, sure enough.

In an alleged race war in Indiana over half a hundred shots were fired and no one hurt, whereas, a Kentucky editor disgustingly remarks that such an occurrence wouldn't even pass for fun down his way.

Story Of "Nearer, My God To Thee."

"As a writer, as a poet, there were few in the literary world of London [in the forties] who had not heard of Sarah Flower Adams, the gifted woman to whom all Christendom to-day pays homage in its love for her immortal hymn, 'Nearer, My God, to thee,'" writes Clifford Howard in the February Ladies' Home Journal.

"It was not, however, until after the year 1860, when the present well known tune was composed for it by Dr. Lowell Mason, of New York, that the hymn attained its widespread popularity. Up to that time it had attracted but little notice. Through the spirit of Doctor Mason's sympathetic music it was quickened into glorious life and brought within the reach of every congregation and every Christian of soul.

Some people don't believe in letting their right hands know that their left hands never do anything.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25th.

Democratic Senators are now called upon to decide whether the Ship subsidy bill, which is again the "unfinished business" of the Senate, shall pass or shall fail to reach a vote. It is admitted by friends and foes of the bill that if the democrats choose they can easily prevent its being voted upon. The course of the democrats is not yet certain. There are two sides to the question. Some contend that on general principles it is the duty of the democratic and populist Senators, as representatives of the people, to defeat such a vicious bill, while others are equally confident that as a matter of party policy the democrats ought not to stand in the way of the placing of such a millstone around the neck of the republican party as this subsidy bill would be likely to prove, if allowed to become a law.

It is customary for Senators who indulge in bad language toward each other to apologize to the Senate, if not to the blackguarded Senator, but Senator Hawley has made no apology for having called Senator Chandler a liar at the secret session of the Senate that confirmed the nomination of Justice Harlan's son to be attorney General of Porto Rico several days ago. The incident was brought about by the reading from a pamphlet written by Chandler, twenty-odd years ago, by Senator Pettigrew, of a statement that Justice Harlan was given his place on the bench for work done as a member of a political commission sent to Louisiana by Hayes, and that Hawley, who was a member of the same commission, was to have received the appointment of U. S. Commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1876 as a reward for his work, but declined it because it didn't carry enough salary. Chandler's only reply was that Hawley's age irresponsibility prevented his feeling any resentment, and that he stood by his original statement. Chandler's strong point is not resentment of personal insults. Joe Blackburn once tweaked his nose in a committee room in the presence of seven or eight Senators, and he didn't even make an effort to resent the insult.

A review of the work of the U. S. Patent Office for 1900 shows the importance of the know how in so liciting patents. A single firm of Patent Lawyers, C. A. Snow & Co., of Washington, secured for their clients during the year, 1497 allowances of Patent, many of which had been previously rejected.

Appropriation bills and private bills, including one for the relief of that struggling shipbuilding plant maintained by the Cramps, have occupied the attention of the House all this week.

The Senate Committee on Finance, instead of reporting the Revenue Reduction bill this week as expected, seems to have got things awfully tangled up, by amendments it has decided to make to the House bill and by what it has refused to do. The brewers are clamoring worse than ever and demanding that promises made to them when they were asked to contribute to the campaign shall be lived up to, and they have got some of the Senators badly frightened.

Julia Outlaw, colored, had visitors at her home in the southern part of Kinston yesterday evening. They had between them a bottle of gin, and they made the Outlaw woman's 7-year-old drunk. They gave him all he could drink. The boy went to sleep and could not be aroused, and the mother, becoming alarmed, summoned Dr. Ray Pollock. But it was too late. The child died shortly after the doctor reached the home.—Kinston Free Press.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables

Four Car Loads of Merchandise Bought

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old fog" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 26, 1890.
After my baby was born I took the whites and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.

Modify The Libel Law.

It is much to be hoped that the Legislature will pass the libel bill which has been favorably reported by the Senate judiciary committee. Under the existing libel law the newspapers are at a great disadvantage, as will doubtless be pointed out in the discussion of this bill in the two houses. A newspaper which persistently traduces honest men is entitled to no sympathy from legislators or juries—indeed, it is the interest and the desire of the decent press that justice should be meted out to such paper; but the greatest wrong and hardship may be visited, under the existing libel law, upon the most innocent and conscientious newspaper and in all fairness the Legislature should provide a way for its escape. For instance, a paper may publish a false charge against a citizen—we will say a citizen of whom it never before heard and against whom it can therefore have no malice. Its information may have been derived from an accredited correspondent or from some other equally trusted source, and its correspondent or reporter may have been misinformed, though he exercised due care in the matter and acted in good faith. Where there was no malice there should be no punishment when a correction is made and the person aggrieved exonerated. But, it may be said, that in case of an accusation of a serious nature the newspaper should verify the statement before publishing it. That is frequently entirely out of the question; if a paper stops to verify every statement it prints, it would rarely ever print any news, for an item which awaited this slow process would cease to be news ere the verification were established. We take it the original purpose of a libel law was to punish assassins of character who used a newspaper or other medium to blacken men upon whom they wished, for some reason, to take vengeance. It cannot be believed that the law ever intended to visit severe penalties upon a writer or publisher who made a misstatement without evil intent, and when he believed in all good conscience that what he was writing or publishing was the truth.—Charlotte Observer.

We have just received a large lot of embroideries and Valenciennes laces and invite the ladies to call and see them. PULLEY & BOWEN.

CHANGE THE SYSTEM.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Having amended our Constitution requiring an educational qualification to vote, it becomes our duty to see that every white child in North Carolina has an opportunity to acquire an education sufficient to qualify them to register and vote intelligently. I think the best way to do so is to abolish the township system and re-establish the districts as they were regardless of township lines. The township system has many objections. In the first place it does away with school houses on township lines and cause the children in those districts to be assigned to districts in their respective townships entirely beyond their reach, thereby depriving them of any opportunity to attend the free schools at all. And it creates a township committee which occupies a middle ground between the County Board and the district committee, often causing great delay in starting up the new school year because the County Board is not able to get men in the different townships to accept the position.

But the worst feature of the township system, and the one that may become most dangerous to White Supremacy after 1908, is the manner in which the school fund is apportioned to the different townships. The money is apportioned to the township according to the number of children of school age, and a township having a large negro population gets more, and sometimes twice as much, as an adjoining township, notwithstanding the adjoining township may have more territory and pay more taxes, thus giving the negro children in those thickly populated townships a much longer school term than the white children in the adjoining township.

Our Nation gives thousands of dollars of our money to educate the Indians. Our State makes large appropriations to the State University and industrial schools. And yet there are hundreds of bright little boys and girls whose parents contribute to those funds that have no opportunity of going to a free school, because of this vicious township system that originated in the mind of Mebane and was enacted into law by the Fusion Legislature.

A FRIEND TO EDUCATION.

Thanks Mr. Nichols.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

We see in the papers that our handsome and popular young Representative, Mr. Nichols, has introduced a bill in the Legislature to change article nine of the constitution of North Carolina, the purpose of which is to justly divide the school taxes of the white and colored races so that the whites will not be required to pay for the education of the negro.

We believe every white man in Pitt, regardless of politics, would vote for such an amendment if they can get the opportunity.

We know that Mr. Nichols will do all he can to get a favorable report on this bill, and if it is obtained we believe that the people will have an opportunity to vote on it.

If it does not get through the Legislature now, we believe it will eventually, and to Mr. Nichols we should send our most hearty congratulations for putting the ball rolling. J. W. SMITH.

Bear Bit Him.

The bear and deer that have for a long time been kept in the shed near Smith & Hooker stables were shipped by express this morning to New York. While the bear was being boxed ready for shipment he got hold of the finger of a colored man and bit it nearly off.
