POPULATION OF TOWNS.

What the Census Shows in Pitt County.

The census bulletin, giving detailed information as to the population of North Carolina for 1900, has been issued. There are 347 incorporated cities, towns and villages in the State, and from the report we get the following figures of those in Pitt county:

	1900	1890
Ayden	557
Bethel	457	377
Falkland	139	61
Farmville	262	140
Greenville	2,565	1,937
Grifton	228	121
Grimesland	277
Keelsville	42
Marlboro	111	92
Pactolus	52	105
Winterville	243

Pactolus is the only village in the county that shows a decrease in population.

Those having no figures in the 1890 column have been incorporated since that date.

Ground Hog Day.

Saturday, Feb. 2nd, is Caudlemas or Ground Hog Day. The day is important inasmuch as the little animal is supposed on this day to correctly prognosticate the weather for the next six weeks. Early in the morning on Ground Hog Day the little hog will arouse from his slumbers and come out to take a squint with his weather eye at his surroundings. It is said that if the sun is shining and the little hog sees his shadow he will immediately return to his hole in the earth and take another six weeks' nap, indicating that we may expect six more weeks of severe winter weather. But if the day is cloudy and the hog fails to see his shadow, he remains out, frisks around and we may learn that the backbone of winter is broken, and that there will be but little, if any more cold weather.

As the day this year was a perfectly fair one, according to this tradition there is a good bit of winter weather yet to come.

No Cigarettes in Tennessee.

Governor McMillin has attached his signature to the anti-cigarette bill, which prohibits the sale or bringing into the State for the purpose of selling any cigarettes or cigarette papers.

Once again the "coffin tack" has bid adieu to the State of Tennessee. It was an enforced farewell, for yesterday Governor McMillin signed the anti-cigarette bill passed by the Legislature now in session, and the law went into effect at midnight last night.

Inquiries this morning at the local tobacconists and newsdealers who have been selling cigarettes elicited the information that the stock of "coffin tacks" on hand were packed up last night and were unobtainable today. Those having a supply left over will probably ship them back to the American Tobacco Company's factory, from whence they were shipped here when Judge J. W. Sneed let down the fence for them in a legal decision about two months ago.—Knoxville Sentinel, Jan. 30th.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Jan. 23.

Important facts for farmers: Cost of different kinds of fence per 100 yards.

Cost of rail fence for 10 years 500 rails for 100 yards or 12 rails per panel.

Splitting 500 rails at 40c per 100 $2.00

900 ft timber at $1.50 per m. 1.20

Hauling and putting up rails 1.00

Shrubbing fence 25c per year for 3 years

Total cost for 3 years $1.95

Making total cost for rail fence in 10 years $16.50 per 100 yards to say nothing of the loss of land taken.

Cost of walling.

750 feet plank at $1. per hundred delivered $7.50

40 post at 5c each, delivered 2.00

8 lb nails at 3c per lb 24

Cost of making walling 1.00

Total $10.74

Average cost of plank walling 7.16

Wire fence 100 yards.

100 yards at 10c per yard $10.00

20 post at 5c each 1.00

3 lb staples at 5c 15

Putting up fence 1.00

Total $12.15

Your rail fence takes a large fence row that is worth something each year and your fence is subject to be thrown down by stock, blown down in storm, or burned when fire gets to it.

Your plank fence is a strong fence, but is subject to be burned and when your posts decay some the force of wind against the plank will break the posts off before entirely rotten. The wire fence is fire and storm proof and stock cannot throw it down as they do a rail fence. The posts will last longer because the storm has no power on the wire, and will last 15 years instead of 10 years with repairing of posts.

This wire fencing can be had by applying to the Winterville Wire Fence Co., Winterville, N. C.

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 2, 1901.

We suppose it is necessary, but it does seem somewhat gruesome to rehearse for a funeral, as the Britishers have been doing.

Greenville is very deficient in water supply for fighting fire, yet there are some citizens of the town who protest against an issue of bonds to establish a system of water works and other improvements.

President McKinley's notice to Congress to observe economy has borne fruit in appropriations that will certainly run up to one thousand six hundred million dollars for the next two years. But then, this is a business administration, strictly business, in fact.

There is little doubt that there will be a fight in the next Senate to exclude Senators elected by the four southern States in which negro suffrage is restricted. There will be none, however, to exclude Senators from northern States where uneducated and ignorant foreigners are not allowed to vote.

Four States with six Senators, are now deadlocked and some or all of them may go without representation in the upper house. How much longer will the people permit the Senate to throttle the annual amendment passed by the House providing for the popular election of members of that select body?

People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a news paper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated. So says the Mount Olive Advertiser, and it would be difficult to state a fact more forcibly in so few words.

The Gold Leaf years ago went on record as favoring the whipping post. Call it a relic of barbarism if you like but it would be a wholesome law. But the legislators are as afraid of that as they are a proposition to tax the dogs and thus get rid of a surplus of sorry sheep-killing curs and give the sheep a chance.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

A one inch advertisement inserted once in the Youth's Companion costs $56, in the Ladies' Home Journal $42, and at these rates these papers are full of advertisements.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1th.

The shrewdness of the Hanna McKinley bluff in the Senate by antagonizing appropriation bills with the Ship Subsidy bill cannot be denied. Having determined that there shall be an extra session of Congress anyway, they could afford to make this bluff. If they succeed in getting the subsidy steal through by it, they will dodge the charge of arranging for the extra session just to get it through; if the subsidy bill fails to get through, it may also prevent some of the regular appropriation bills from getting through, thus furnishing other reasons for the extra session than Mr. McKinley's sudden desire to have Congress provide a form of civil government for the Philippines and his anxiety lest the Cubans should have to wait a few months for Congressional action on the constitution they are making. Unless all signs are wrong, there is some partisan devilry behind this extra session plan. It is easily conceivable that if the republicans intend to do some partisan legislating in the Fifty-seventh Congress, for the purpose of perpetuating themselves in power, they would prefer doing it this spring to postponing it to the regular session, which will not close until a few months before the next Congressional campaign. The large republican majority in both branches of the next congress will be a great temptation to a certain class of their leaders to indulge in partisan legislation.

There are indications that the republicans are going to try to do in the next Congress what they were afraid to do in connection with the Re-apportionment bill passed by the present Congress—poke their fingers into the internal affairs of those Southern States that have by Constitutional provision curtailed negro suffrage. Enough was said when the credentials of Senator elect Simmons, of North Carolina, were presented to the Senate to show that an attempt is to be made in the next Congress to get the matter before Congress by objecting to the seating of Senators from the States that have restricted suffrage—North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisiana. Whether the attempt will succeed will depend upon the support it gets from the more conservative republicans, many of whom have said in private conversations that they were opposed to any agitation of this sort in Congress, and would have favored the suffrage restrictions had they lived in the States that have adapted them. Democratic Senators will to a man oppose any and every move to question the right of Senators from the four above named States to take their seats in the next Congress.

It is now admitted by Treasury officials that the greater portion of the taxes imposed nominally to meet the expenses of the war with Spain, but really to make up the deficit that would have existed long before on account of the prohibitive nature of many sections of the Dingley tariff act, will be permanent, because of the increasing public expenditures and the decreasing income from custom duties. Some prominent republicans are openly advocating the lowering of tariff duties to increase the revenue but the rockribbed high protectionists, of whom Mr. McKinley is one of the chief priests, will not consent to that as long as they have the power to prevent it. So the people can make up their minds to pay war taxes not out by the bill now before the Senate for at least four years more.

THE HYMN OF LIFE.

We live in deeds, not in years; in thoughts, not breaths; In feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives, Who thinks most, feels the noblest acts the best.

And he whose heart beats quickest, lives the longest; Lives in one hour more than in years do some Whose fat blood sleeps as it slips along their veins. Life is but a means unto an end, that end, Beginning, mean, and end to all things—God, The dead have all the glory of the world.

—Philip James Bailey.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the Price is One-Half.

More news from Kansas. A man in a little village, in that State, was the father of two sons and a widow in the same village was the mother of two daughters.
The father married the widow's eldest daughter; the eldest son married the widow and the youngest son married the widow's youngest daughter. If you can figure out their kin the case is yours.—

The editor of the Lewisville Enterprise says he visited the Terrell Insane Asylum and was mistaken
by a lunatic as being a fellow-sufferer just arrived. Becoming confidential the crazy man asked the editor what made him crazy, and to humor him the editor replied:
"Trying to make money out of the newspaper business." "Rats!"
exclaimed the demented man,
"you're not crazy; you are just a —fool."—Ex.

Fire Alarm.

About 1 o'clock this afternoon a telephone message from West Greenville brought the news down town that the residence of Mr. H.
W. Whedbee was on fire. The alarm was rung and the entire department and hundreds of people went hurrying in that direction.
Fortunately the service of the department was not needed, as those who reached the scene first quickly put the fire out. The fire caught in the kitchen around the stove flue. Very little damage was done.

Knew Him in New York.

Not far from Rocky Mount, because it is in Eastern N. C., is a town we will call Sweetgum, because that is not its name. For years a certain gentleman there,
whom we will call Thompson,
because that is not his name, did little except to keep doing nothing. While there was nothing against him, other gentlemen who frequently met and passed him were so accustomed to it they rarely spoke except maybe, occasionally, to "nod the head." Latter Mr. Thompson went to New York and spent considerable time, during which two of Sweetgum's most prominent citizens, and both ex-judges, visited that city and meeting Mr. Thompson on Broadway addressed him familiarly and very cordially, saying "we are glad to meet you, John, etc." Now
"John," remembering being passed with only a nod many times by these gentlemen, and frequently with no nod, threw back his head and out his chest, and with withering scorn, though doubtless assumed, remarked: "So, ho! you know John Thompson in New York but didn't know him in Sweetgum, who are you any how?"
and passed on.—Rocky Mount

A MEAN LOOKING LETTER-HEAD

Has lost many a dollar for business men. If a man is judged by the coat he wears, he is also judged by the letter-head he uses. An artistic, nicely printed letter head may be looked on as a good investment.

It will be done right.
The price for doing it will be right, too.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep,"
but, like many proverbs, that will not stand.
Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally.
Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire.
These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1909.

I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month.
A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended.
I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.
