WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8th.

Senator Teller made a short but vigorous speech just before the Senate adopted a resolution calling on the Secretary of War for a statement of the facts in the case of G. T. Rice, the American editor who was banished from the Philippines for commenting upon the rules and regulations concerning pilots and pilotage, as enforced at Manila. Mr. Teller read the editorial and then said: "The deportation of an editor is not a simple matter, to be whistled down the wind. I regard it as a grievous offense against the liberty of an American citizen that he can be taken, thrown into jail, and then deported under the pretense of the charge that he is a dangerous incendiary and a menace to the military situation. There is no such offense known to the laws of our country or in the criminal statutes of any State. It is not known in any republic, in any free country in the world. He is but one man, to be sure, but he is a citizen of the United States. The offense against him is an offense against every citizen of the United States. I do not make any apologies for pleading his cause here. I would feel justified if this was the last hour of the session and an extra session should ensue through failure of an appropriation bill, in standing here and calling the attention of the country to this outrage upon a citizen of the United States.

The bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the St. Louis Exposition has been favorably reported to the House, and Speaker Henderson has promised that it shall be voted upon, which is equivalent to a promise of its passage.

Representative Griggs, of Ga., made the Post Office appropriation the text for a speech full of common sense against the tendency on the part of Congress to increase the salaries of Federal employees. For instance, the following, the truth of which every one must acknowledge: "I undertake to say that there is not an employee of the government, who devotes his whole time to its service, who does not receive greater pay than he would for like service in private life. There is not an employee in the government service today who did not better his or her condition financially when he entered it. There is not one who, if he could better his condition in other service, would not resign tomorrow. Then, why this paternal interest in government employees? All of them are free men and women, and of full age. Why should we make them wards of the nation? How is this fatherly interest of legislators, so lately aroused, in what seems to me a cancerous growth eating its way to the very vital of the American body politic, to be accounted for?" Mr. Griggs answered the last question by citing the growth of associations of various classes of government employees, organized ostensibly for other purposes but actually used to lobby for a Congressional increase of the salaries of their members.

Gen. E. S. Otis, who is in Washington, is said to be much disgruntled because he had been led to believe that he, and not Gen. Nelson A. Miles, would be nominated for lieutenant general of the army. It is said that one of the reasons why Mr. McKinley took the unusual course of asking the Cabinet to decide by ballot which of the major generals should be nominated for lieutenant general was his desire to allow Otis to think that his nomination had been prevented by a majority of the Cabinet. It is said that Otis has been promised that Miles will be compulsorily retired by Mr. McKinley when he reaches the age of 62, which will be next August, and that the place will then be given to him.

A BILL

To be Entitled An Act to Prevent Live Stock From Running at Large in Certain Portions of Pitt County and to Consolidate and Enlarge the Stock Law Territory of Said County.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any live stock to run at large in that part of Pitt county embraced within the following boundaries, under the regulations and penalties prescribed in sections 2811, 2816, 2817, 2819, 2820 and 2822 of the code of North Carolina to wit: Beginning at the fence of the stock law territory of Greene county where the same intersects the county line between Pitt and Wilson counties; thence with the dividing line between Pitt and Wilson counties to the Edgemont county line; thence with the dividing line between Pitt and Edgemont counties to Tar river; thence down said river to the eastern terminus of the stock law fence surrounding the town of Greenville; thence with said fence around to the old plank road; thence with said public road running on the south side thereof, to the public road leading to Adams' bridge; thence with said public road to the fence enclosing the present stock law territory thence to the stock law gate on the road leading from the Snow Hill road to the Green Swamp road near Cicero Smith's residence; thence up said road to the Green Swamp road at the corner of Mr. Tingle's fence; thence down said road to L. B. Cox's line near J. J. B. Cox's residence; thence with said Cox's and Harding's lines to the canal; thence down the canal to the lower corner of W. J. Laughinghouse's fence; thence with said Laughinghouse's, J. B. Kilpatrick's, Walter G. Chapman's Jacob Barrow's and McG. Weatherington's fences to Levi Stokes' land; thence with said Stokes' line to C. Smith's line; thence with said Smith's line to the road leading to Gardner's bridge. thence down said road to the lower corner of Smith's fence; thence with said fence to the present stock law fence near C. P. Moore's; thence with said fence to the Craven county line, so, as to include within said boundaries all of that part of Pitt county lying between Tar river on the north and Contentnea Creek and Neuse river on the south. That Tar river from the Edgemont county line to the eastern boundaries of the fence surrounding the Greenville stock law territory is hereby declared to be a lawful fence.

Sec. 2. That J. R. Dozier, W. R. Horne, H. L. Blount, J. R. Moye and Frank Allen be and they are hereby appointed Fence Commissioners in said territory. They shall meet at Greenville on the first Monday in March, 1901, and organize by electing one of their number as chairman and one as secretary, and proceed to erect such fences as are necessary to enclose the territory herein before described and erect such gates over the highways as may be necessary. That said fence commissioners shall hold their office until the first Monday in January 1902, when their successors shall be appointed, and thereafter every two years their successors shall be appointed by the Board of commissioners for Pitt county.

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 9, 1901.

As usual, when the negro invades a fresh field, trouble has resulted from his entry into Hawaii. The South is the only country where the negro is given a fair chance to earn his living.

Do you know that the United States is spending more money in preparation for war and mending the damages done by war, than any country in the world, not expecting Germany England and the other great powers? It is a fact.

It is worth remembering that Mrs Nation did not attack the joints with the idea that her single arm could abolish them. She did so merely as the most effective means of calling attention to the deliberate violations of the law that were going on.

After spending millions on mortars for coast defenses, the War Department has now come to the conclusion that they are useless, the chances of their hitting anything being nil, and has stopped asking for money to buy them. Pity it couldn't have found this out before.

Justice Harlan made a speech the other day in which he said: "The fathers never intended that this Government should ever exert any power or authority over any part of the earth's surface free from the letter and the spirit of the Constitution." "This looks bad for McKinley's policy."

If every Board of County Commissioners in the State would follow the example of the Commissioners of Buncombe county enough unlisted taxable property might be discovered to do away with any necessity of increasing tax rates. The Buncombe Commissioners discovered that large amounts of solvent credits owned by people around Asheville, was not listed for taxation, and forty of these people were summoned to appear before the Board. In the first half day of the investigation only twelve people were examined and $40,000 worth of solvent credits were listed by them. It is said a half million dollars worth of unlisted property will probably be unearthed before the investigation closes.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 9. The following is the program at the laying of the corner stone of the Winterville High School by the Jr. O. U. A. M., on the 22nd of this month:
10:30—Laying corner stone and raising flag. Song.
11—Calling meeting to order by W. C. Vinicant (charman).
Prayer.
Address and presentation of Bible and flag by prof. W. H. Ragsdale of Greenville.
Speech of Acceptance by Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kinston, Song.
Address on Education by G. B. King, of Greenville.
Song. "Old North State."
Benediction.

1000 good lightwood hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.
Bobt Williams a colored man employed by Dr. Cox went to his dianer some distance from his work last Thursday. After getting in the yard he hung his coat on the fence leaving a watch in the pocket. In a short while looking out of the door he saw a large fire in the direction of his work. Upon investigation he found during his absence some one had set fire to a pile of fat lightwood posts and thrown the coat on top, all of which was burned. No remains of the watch could be found in the ashes, and it is supposed the fire was started in order to hide the theft of the watch. George is terribly grieved.

10,000 good second growth white oak spokes wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.
Misses Mattie Buck and Ludie Haddock, of the Chicod section, are visiting friends and relatives here this week.
Amos Boyd, who was right seriously hurt in a runaway accident one day last week, we are pleased to learn is very much improved.
Mrs. Lula Best and children who have been visiting in town for the past week returned to their homes yesterday.

At the laying of the corner stone of the Winterville High School here on 22nd those who shall be so fortunate as to be present will be treated to an oration that is seldom heard. For we know the orator, and like others who have heard Buck King to hear him once creates a thirsty desire to hear him again. He is indeed a veritable Demosthenes. We are glad it is George Badger King who is to be with us.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

There is a curious parallel between Queens Victoria and Wilhelmina Each made a love match with a German prince and each was almost the sole representative of a moribund dynasty. Victoria saw her country increase to an extent undreamed of when she came to the throne. Will Wilhelmina do the same?

A special elsewhere in this paper tells of the prohibition by certain railroads of the use of cigarettes by their employees. The man who drinks whiskey and has other habits which take the strength and character out of him is being more and more relegated to the rear. The strenuous business of the fast moving modern life needs clear heads and steady hands.—Greensboro Telegram.

Negro Frightened a Child to Death.

An old negress known as Jennie has long been a bugaboo to the children of Baritan. She goes from door to door begging for food. Children run away at her approach and hide until she is out of sight. On Friday evening she asked for food at the house of Charles Silbert, a jeweler. When Mr. Silbert's three-year-old daughter saw the negress she became so frightened that she went into convulsions. The convulsions continued until Saturday morning, when the little girl died of exhaustion.—Summerville, N. J., Dispatch.

Capt. R. E. Pittman, who has been in charge of the steamer May Bell for several years has quit and is captain on a new steamer that has just been completed and runs to Goldsboro. We all regret to lose the Captain, he was a clever and perfect gentleman. Captain Parson, of New Bern, has taken his place on the May Bell.

J. J. Smith while trying to get his cotton gin to work Tuesday, got his knee and foot in the gin and was badly mangled. The doctors think they will have to amputate the limb.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent backaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from ills which Wine of Cardui cures.
Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear.
Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Chas. Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life.
I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui. Mrs. ETTA KILLMAN, iting her brother, J. A. Parker,

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, N. C., Feb. 8 1901.

L. E. Elks has been sick for the last few days.

F. Powell is yet on the sick list.
It is likely that we will have a railroad to come to this place. The railroad inspector has been here
for the last few days investigating the matter.

Mrs. W. H. Galloway and her little daughter, Lizzie, left Monday to visit relatives in Chatham county.

J. B. Galloway was in town today.

Mayor and Commissioners have made a new resolution in opening and repairing the streets. We hope they will succeed at last.

Grimesland is coming. It makes the town look fifty per cent better to open Pitt street. I think the Commissioners deserve credit for it.

J. J. Laughinghouse was in town today.

Dispensary Election.

Our neighbor town, Tarboro, held an election Friday on the question of establishing a dispensary there. The result of the election was 274 votes for to 87 against the measure.

About 11 o'clock a handbill was distributed around the polling places asking the antis to discontinue voting and many of them did not vote. If all had voted there would have still been a majority for the dispensary.

It was a very quiet election
without any manifestation of ill feeling on either side. The bill to establish the dispensary will now go to the General Assembly.
