A BIT OF HISTORY.

Taken From Old Records of Pitt County.

In the vault of the Superior Court Clerk's office is an old court record that contains a list of the judges who held the courts in this county from 1818 to 1844. Believing the list would be interesting to the public we copy it below.

- March 1818, Henry Seawell.
- Sept. 1818, J. S. Taylor.
- March 1819, J. J. Daniel.
- Sept. 1819, John R. Donnell.
- March 1820, John Paxton.
- Sept. 1820, J. J. Daniel.
- March 1821, Fred Nash.
- Sept. 1821, John R. Donnell.
- March 1822, William Norwood.
- Sept. 1822, Joseph J. Daniel.
- March 1823, George A. Badger.
- Sept. 1823, William Norwood.
- March 1824, John Paxton.
- Sept. 1824, Joseph J. Daniel.
- March 1825, William Norwood.
- Sept. 1825, John R. Donnell.
- March 1826, John Paxton.
- Sept. 1826, Willie P. Mangum.
- March 1827, Thomas Ruffin.
- Sept. 1827, Jos. J. Daniel.
- March 1828, James Martin.
- Sept. 1828, Robert Strange.
- March 1830, James Martin.
- Sept. 1830, Joseph J. Daniel.
- March 1831, William Norwood.
- Sept. 1831, David L. Swain.
- March 1832, Joseph J. Daniel.
- Sept. 1832, William Norwood.
- March 1833, Robert Strange.
- Sept. 1833, James Martin.
- March 1834, Thomas Settle.

Sept. 1834, John R. Donnell
 March 1835, William Norwood.
 Sept. 1835, Henry Seawell.
 March 1836, Thomas Settle.
 Sept. 1836, Robert Strange.
 March 1837, John L. Bailey.
 Sept. 1837, Frederick Nash.
 March 1838, B. M. Pearson.
 Sept. 1838, R. M. Saunders.
 March 1839, Jno. L. Bailey.
 Sept. 1839, R. M. Saunders.
 March 1840, Frederick Nash.
 Sept. 1840, Edward Hall.
 March 1841, Thomas Settle.
 Sept. 1841, John M. Dick.
 March 1842, Thomas Settle.
 Sept. 1842, Wm. H. Battle.
 March 1843, M. E. Manley.
 Sept. 1843, John L. Bailey.
 Here the list, which is all in the same hand writing ends, and underneath it is drawn the picture of a face. It will be seen that in those years only two Superior courts were held each year. These names of the Judges embrace some of the ablest men in the history of the State.

On the last page of the same book is this entry, giving the names of the Judge and bar in attendance: "Fall term 1857, Hon. R. M. Saunders, Judge; Gen. W. A. Jenkins, Att'y. Gen.; Hon. R. S. Donnell, Gen. G. B. Singleary, Wm. B. Rodman, Wm. T. Marsh, E. J. Warren, Geo. Howard, L. D. Pender, M. Shaw, Col. J. S. Carroway, Col. Sam Watts, E. C. Yellowley."

This page looks like the writing of Col. Yellowley. There is not a court in the State at the present time that can show such an assemblage of legal talent as was present at that term in Pitt county.

On the next to the last leaf in the book is a page headed "Our old friend Judge Caldwell." Underneath this heading is the following interesting entry: "On Friday morning about 4 o'clock on the 7 Feb. 1858 the Court House in Greenville Pitt county was discovered to be on fire and was entirely consumed with all the records except the books in the office of the Register—the Trial on appearance dockets of the Superior Court—and Trial Docket from the office of the Clerk of the County Court."

The writing in this old book is remarkably clear and distinct.

Competition is the life of trade, and sometimes the death of it.

The golden rule of the impecunious man is, "dun others as others dun you."

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 13.
 Simon Moye left on the train this morning for Wharton where he will today be united in marriage to Miss Pearl Hemby, of Beaufort county. They will return this evening and make Winterville their future home. All of Simon's friends, and they are many, wish him and his fair bride a long life and a happy one. Mrs. Moye will receive a warm and cordial welcome from all our citizens.
 1000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Rev. J. Wiley Nobles, a former resident of this county, but now of Kenly N. C. is spending a short while visiting friends and relatives in and around town. He will preach in the Baptist church tonight.

Don't forget when in need of a good substantial fence that it is to your interest to consult the Winterville Wire Fence Co., both as regards prices and material.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner, who has recently assumed charge of the Missionary Baptist churches at Ayden and Winterville, came last Monday and will make this place his home during his pastorage here.

10,000 good second growth white oak spokes wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Miss Annie Stox, who has been visiting for quite a long while in Tuckahoe, returned home last Monday to the delight of her warm friends.

For a first class buggy, one that is a thing of beauty and will last as long as the very best see Hunsucker Carriage Co

The old store occupied by Barber & Harrington and Hurst, Son & Co., is being divided and will be made into two handsome stores, which will be quite an addition to that part of town.

The demand already, thus far in the season made upon the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., for cotton planters far exceeds their most hopeful anticipations. There is not a mill but what orders arrive for large numbers. Indeed they will have all they can possibly do to supply the demand.

J. A. Dupree, of Greenville, spent a short while here yesterday. We are always pleased to meet our old friend, for he reminds us so forcibly of the good old past.

Ambrose Johnson, of near Greenville, was in our midst Sunday and the last we saw of him he was all smiles and everything seemed to please him of course we look for him again.

A. G. Cox still pays highest cash prices for cotton seed.

We were surprised that "Bud" with such "Little" help could "Blow" (Jos-aphat!!) as he did in Saturday's Winterville Items.

W. S. & C.

The Commissioners of Lenoir county have appointed D. F. Wooten as Sheriff to fill the unexpired term of the late J. C. Wooten. The new sheriff is a brother of the deceased.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1901.

The question of good roads does not seem to disturb the minds of the people of this county, but you don't find many counties that need good roads more.

The Charlotte Observer, already the best newspaper that goes out of North Carolina, has a way of going right on adding good things to its bill of fare, and even invades other print shops to get the best to be had. Mr. J. J. Stone, of Greensboro, who is the most thoroughly efficient job printer in the State, has been induced to give up his large business to go and take the management of the Observer job printing and binding rooms. And Col. W. S. Pearson, editor of the Morganton Herald, a brilliant and scholarly writer, has been secured to go to Washington City and serve as correspondent of the Observer from the capital.

Over a Hundred Hurlled to Death
Decatur, Ind., Feb. 11.—Passenger train number 3, on the Chicago & Erie, due here at 2:25 this morning was wrecked east of Wren, Ohio. The tender left the track and was instantly followed by five coaches filled with about one hundred and fifty passengers. All the coaches were demolished. Only fifty persons could walk to Wren. All others were either killed or badly crippled. Ten doctors hurried to the scene. To add to the horrors of the wreck, it occurred where the ditch on either side of the track was filled with water. The ice was broken by the coaches and many got wet and were frozen before help could arrive. Nearly all the passengers were emigrants and names are unknown.

Alumnae History Prize.
The Alumnae Association of the State Normal and Industrial College offers a prize of $25 for the best historical paper written by a former student of the college upon the following conditions:
1. The student must have spent at least one year at the college.
2. The paper must treat of some phase of North Carolina history.
3. The manuscript must be typewritten, must contain not more than 2,000 words, and must be sent to Miss Mary Tinnin, Greensboro, N. C., April 25, 1901.
4. Each writer must use a nom de plume, her real name being given in a separate sealed envelope which may be enclosed with the paper.
Competent judges will award the prize after a careful consideration of the originality, research, and literary merit shown by each paper.

NOTES OF THE MODES.

These Items Are for Ladies.

Arms may be lost sight of in the craze for piling on sleeve decoration.

There's no limit to the clever effects one may have with insertion.

Up-to-date dressmakers use the velvet ribbons for anything from plain rows to outlining lace patterns.

All-over shirred dresses as a rule look better in pictures than upon a real woman.

Lace collars bid fair to assume cape-like proportions.

Tiny gift buttons perch around in threes, fours, fives and sixes, in the most sociable manner.

Don't despise the truck. You may piece material underneath it or you may use it to cover a hole.

Princes skirts in lengthwise tucking are modish. But what looks like tucks are really broad palits, as one may see by the foot fullness thus supplied. This fullness is all cut away from underneath above the knees.

Better keep one eye on the attractive little blouse.

Chemisettes play an important part in so many coats and bodies opening at the neck in a V.

Scarf-like neckties from a jaunty finish when knotted at the bust line and coming from under the big lace collar.

A sash falling from under an abbreviated bolero is at least noticeable.

We are to be allowed unlimited ruffles.

Designs in black soutache or fine chenille stunning on white taffeta.

Running a Store as Christ Would Conduct It.

R. J. Norton, a grocer of Marion, is running his store "as Christ would run it," and bids fair to run all his competitors out of business. He sells strictly for cash, refuses to deliver any goods at the houses of customers, displays the cost mark on every article and thus shows exactly what profit he is making. He refuses to sell tobacco, cigars or any preparations that have cider, brandy or other liquor in them. He carries on a soup house for the poor with his grocery business, and sells all goods there at actual cost.—Indianapolis, Ind., Dispatch.

Babies seem to be in demand in New York city. The other day the authorities gave notice that they had thirty eight to dispose of for which there was a rush all being taken but one colored picaniny. There wasn't enough to supply the demand.

A strawberry mark—"75 cents a box."

When ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to ask whys.

When a man is too lazy to work he usually drifts into politics.

It doesn't take a particularly strong girl to throw a fellow over. No, Maude, dear; a sliding scale is not a machine for weighing ice.

The auctioneer, no matter how cheerful, is always looking for more bid customers.

Atlas may have carried the world on his back, but he would probably balk at the game of Carri Nations.

Many a man who has traveled all over the world hesitates about going into a department store without a guide.

"When pay day comes around," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that gets the rocks."

Two More Arrested.

Chief of Police J. T. Smith returned from Henderson Tuesday night, bringing with him two more colored men charged with implication in the assault on Frank Hines last week. This makes six arrests in connection with the case.

Refused To Eat with White.

Race prejudice has caused the recall of invitations sent out by Congressman Charles F. Sprague, of Massachusetts, to members of the House District of Columbia committee to dine with him.

By an oversight Sprague sent an invitation to Geo. H. White, the North Carolina negro member of Congress, who is a member of the committee.

Representative Otey, of Virginia, who is a Southern gentleman of the old school, suspected that White had been invited to the dinner and he refused to accept Sprague's hospitality. Other members sent declinations and as it finally dawned upon Mr. Sprague that he would have to break bread with himself and the negro, White, alone, he decided to call off the dinner and will get up another one to which the members of the committee will be invited as individual members of Congress. In this way White will not be invited.

The incident has excited much comment in the House.

Northern, as well as Southern members, refused to eat with the negro member.

White is probably the last of the negro members of Congress. He goes out on March 4 and will be succeeded by a Democrat.

It is not believed another negro will ever be elected to Congress.—Washington Special.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggra-vation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 23, 1899.
Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

Highway Robbery.

Mr. John W. Sutton, who lives about six miles from Kinston, had an experience last night which he will long remember.

He was returning home from Kinston, walked, his team being busy. When he reached "Parrott's Forks," about three miles from here, he was halted, and a man approached and caught him by the coat, telling him to give up his money or he would cut his throat.
Mr. Sutton replied that he would give all he had—which was but 15 cents. By this time two other men approached and began to search Mr. Sutton, cutting his coat in eight places about his pockets.
His hip pockets were cut down.

They told Mr. Sutton that they knew he had more money in his breast pocket. One of them felt the pocket and told him that "there it was and to hand it over."
Mr. Sutton insisted that that was only his mail—that he had given them all he had with him. By that time he had opened his knife while in his pocket, and quickly taking it out struck the man in front of him with all his might.
The man groaned and said: "Oh!
he has cut me to the hollow." Another of the men replied, "Has the d— fool cut you?" and made a threatening movement. Mr. Sutton then tore loose and ran toward home. He is not sure whether he was pursued or not—he knows he reached home in safety right much the worse, however, by his experience. It is likely the two men's attention was needed by the wounded one, for Mr. Sutton is confident that the man was cut deep, as he struck with all his force.

He does not know who the men were—whether they were white or black—the night being intensely dark, and he being so badly frightened. He thinks it was men who knew he usually kept money in his breast pocket, as they insisted that his pocketbook was there.
They would no doubt have cut open that pocket too had he not used his knife as soon as he did, and ran. By quick action he probably saved his life and his pocketbook too.—Kinston Free Press.

"Adicles."

Noting that Printers' Ink is in search of a good single word to express "an advertised article" a Kentucky newspaper has coined the term "adicle" to supply the deficiency. If the suggestion should be accepted by Printers' Ink and the public "adicle" would become one of the most comprehensive words in the English language, for in this age of enlightened advertising there is hardly a single salable commodity which is not regularly kept before the public in the newspapers. Everything that mankind uses would come under the "adicle" category.—Philadelphia Record.

taken she pretends that it's only because all her friends want one.
