Cudahy Abduction Case.

Omaha, Neb., Feb., 19.—The police have under arrest James Callahan, charged with complicity in the abduction of Edward Cudahy, Jr., on the night of December 18th. Callahan was arrested last Saturday, but the police have kept it a secret until today, in the hope of securing other arrests. Young Cudahy has positively identified him as the man who accosted him near the Cudahy residence and represented himself to be a sheriff from an adjoining county and forced him into a buggy, and also as the man who kept guard over him at the Melrose hill house during the thirty hours he was kept a prisoner, pending the negotiations for the ransom of $25,000 which Mr. Cudahy paid for the return of his boy. Daniel H. Burris who sold a horse and buggy to two men who are supposed to have used it to procure the abduction, also identified Callahan as one of those men. Mac. Larsen, a servant in the employ of J. N. H. Patrick of whom the kidnapers rented a house, also identified Callahan as the man who paid a month's rent in advance for a cottage in Happy Hollow, which the bandits abandoned two weeks before the abduction, tearing discovery.

Callahan was arrested by patrolmen Dueberry and Dwyer, both of whom are old acquaintances of the prisoner, one of them having gone to school with him. They also knew that he was a close friend of Pat Crowe for whom a large reward has been offered as leader in the kidnaping. Tonight the police secured information which they expect to lead to the arrest of another man connected with the crime. He is a coachman of a family friend of Mr. Cudahy.

Callahan is 38 years of age and was employed in the packing house of the Cudahy Packing Company at South Omaha up to three months ago. He has not been employed for some time but the police claim that he had been spending money freely. He has served in the penitentiary for highway robbery.

Some people wouldn't be satisfied on Easy street unless they could live in the corner house.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

The Lewith Mercantile Company, doing a department store business at Durham, has gone into the hands of a receiver.

Mrs. Lizzie Crawford Gurley, of Wayne county, was burned to death Tuesday afternoon. She had an attack of vertigo and fell in the fire.

Harold Horn, a young farmer of Davie county, was drowned recently in three inches of water. He was taken sick while crossing a brook and fell into it.

Two negroes attempted highway robbery in Greensboro Tuesday night. They knocked down their victim, dragged him aside and were about to rifle his pockets when his cries attracted assistance and the negroes fled.

The Hon. Carrol D. Wright, of Washington, D. C., (U. S. Commissioner of Labor,) will deliver the address at the next commencement of A. & M. College. The Rev. Dr. J. J. Lafferty, of Virginia, will preach the commencement sermon.

BLACK JACK ITEMS

BLACK JACK, N. C. Feb. 20.

There is right much sickness in this section now.

A. Q. Clark, who is attending school at Bethel, came in Friday evening and returned Monday.

We regret to know that W. H. Wynne is very sick.

Miss Lela Stokes, of Stokes, is visiting the family of B. F. Tyson.

Miss Annie White is on a visit to Mt. Olive.

Heber Dixon is on the sick list.

Miss Bertha Bright, of Chocowinity, was the guest of Miss Munsie Dixon on Saturday night and Sunday last.

It is a fact that when a town begins to assume the air of a city and entitled to be considered among the best and foremost of the State it at once begins to think of improvements of a permanent nature. Every one of North Carolina's best towns have been or are now discussing good roads. The people of the county have realized that it is economy and are demanding better roads. Good roads help a town wonderfully.—Concord Tribune.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

What The Law Makers are Doing.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, 20TH.

A committee from the House appeared at the bar of the Senate with a message formally preferring impeachment against Chief Justice Furches and Associate Justice Douglas, of the Supreme Court. The Senate received the committee standing and heard their message, at the conclusion of which they were instructed to report to the House that the Senate had received the message and will give proper consideration to the same, and, later, take due action thereon, as required by the Constitution and laws of the State.

Among the new bills introduced was one to prevent the use of tobacco by school teachers.

A resolution of regret upon the death of Dr. G. L. Kirby, Superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane at Raleigh, was adopted by a rising vote.

HOUSE.

A bill was introduced by Watts authorizing the expenditure of $10,000 for marble statues of Nathaniel Macon and Zebulon B. Vance, to be placed in the statuary hall of Congress.

A large number of new bills were introduced, among them these:

By Moore, to pay Cyrus Thompson, ex-Secretary of State, $374.94 for extra clerical assistance.

By Daughtridge, to secure costs in courts of Justices of the Peace.

By Allen, to punish disorderly conduct when people are attending divine worship.

By Allen, to restore to the Governor the power of appointing the members of the Board of Internal Improvements.

By Dees, to better protect property from fires.

By Seawell, to protect inhabitants of towns and cities in the right of self government.

House Impeachment Managers.

Raleigh, Feb., 19.—The House of Representatives today appointed nine prominent lawyers, who are members of that body, to manage the prosecution on the part of the House in the impeachment proceedings before the Senate against Chief Justice Furches and Associate Justice Douglas, of the Supreme Court. The managers are ex Judge W. E. Allen, of Wayne; Locke Craig, of Buncombe; ex-Judge A. W. Graham, of Granville; R. H. Hayes, of Chatham; J. F. Spainhour, of Burke; Geo. Kountree, of New Hanover; R. B. Nicholson, of Beaufort; F. M. Shannonhouse, of Mecklenburg; and A. A. F. Sewell, of Moore.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

There is always rum at the top. A religious woman takes to a funeral like a healthy man does to a fight.

The year after she is married a woman ought to be made to carry a bit in her mouth.

Most girls sooner or later you have to kiss, but there are a few that you only have to let kiss you.

When he is getting married and the minister asks if there is any one who knows any reason why the thing shouldn't go on, the average man can hardly help dodging.

Even we never saw such elegance for so little money. Designs and colorings entirely new. Get a look at the new styles. No other store ever offered qualities as good as these for less than one dollar and we could probably get that for these neckties too if we should ask it, but the price is

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1901.

Dealers should be careful now how they sell cigarettes to minors. And persons who buy the "coffin tacks" for boys had as well open their weather eye, too. The new law covers both these points with heavy penalties. If the law went a step further and provided for taking hold of a minor caught smoking a cigarette it might strike the root of the evil more effectually.

The Montana House has voted to add to the school fund the $30,000 of alleged bribery money deposited with the State Treasurer a year ago by State Senator Whiteside during the effort to elect Mr. Clark to the United State Senate. Whiteside charged that the money had been given to him by an agent of Clark to be used in the purchase of votes.

The Army and Navy Journal states that 304 commissioned officers of the regular army speak Spanish fluently, and that most of these are serving in the Philipines and the West Indies. About as many more officers possess a limited knowledge of Spanish. French is spoken by 224 officers; German by 136; Italian by 3; Swedish and Norwegian by 4; Tagalog by 5; Chinese, Japanese, Eskimo, Dutch, Hungarian, Portugese and Polish are also spoken by some of our army officers.

When we stop to reflect that the average man in this country is now paying more for the support of the national government than it costs him to support his State and municipal governments, says the Atlanta Journal, we get a pretty fair idea of where commercialism is leading us. A few years ago the total expenses of the government amounted to about five dollars per capita of population. To-day that expense is over ten dollars—or more than double what it was not a great while ago.

Walter G. Newman, who has been identified with some big mining schemes in this State, was once a stable boy in orange county, N. Y., when Governor Flower discovered him, took a fancy to him, and once gave him a tip by which he raked in $18,000 in cash. That gave him a starter, and he went to manipulating things on his own account and became wealthy. His latest big deal was working up the Gold Hill, Rowan county, scheme, and dumping it on his confiding stock buyers. The mine is there yet, but Newman is operating in other pastures.—Wilmington Star.

The Hebrew and The Big Trusts

The Atlanta Constitution notes the absence of the Hebrew from among the stockholders and manipulators of the enormous trusts and combines of the present day, such as the billion-dollar Carnegie-Rockefeller steel combination just organized. Naturally business men of the most discriminating judgment quick to catch on to any good opportunity for making money, why does the Jew remain aloof from and steer clear of these big trusts that pay such enormous dividends? For one reason, perhaps, because he is essentially a banker. The Rothschilds are the best example of the Hebrew financier, dealing chiefly in government securities. The Hebrew hesitates to take too great risks, and his caution leads him to avoid the big trusts. He is willing to make money more slowly and wait longer and more patiently for the profits than the Gentile of today, though he does not ordinarily get credit therefor. Then again the Jew, having so often throughout the history of his race been the victim of popular persecution, has grown very cautious as to becoming identified with any enterprise that may eventually have to run the gauntlet of great unpopularity, and he has long been giving an ear to the mutterings of the masses against the classes, especially as the classes the more and more pile up wealth. Multi-millionaire combinations are not "safe" enough for him.

In this connection of the Hebrew's caution and conservatism in business, it is worth while to note that he has not hesitated to invest his money in cotton manufacture in the South. And this is one of the best indications of its present stability and future success.—Charlotte Observer.

A Bit Of History.

In commenting upon some of the speeches made during the pending of the impeachment resolution, the venerable editor of the Wilmington Messenger, who is always interesting upon matters historical, recalls this interesting bit of history:

"It may be recalled that there was great indignation and contempt among educated citizens not lawyers over the great palavering over Pearson by many of the bar because he was really a great jurist, but under pressure flinched and allowed men of highest character to be sent by Governor Holden to prison without any legal authority saying "the powers of the judiciary are exhausted." But Senator Ransom and Hon. Joseph J. Davis, afterwards a Supreme Court Judge, interviewed that pure, upright, conscientious man and citizen and jurist, Judge books, of Elizabeth City, it was found that the "powers" of his court were not "exhausted." He issued the great writ of habeas corpus and the imprisoned gentlemen were released from the "Kirk Lambs," and Holden's execreable tyranny and usurpation. Pearson's grave is marked with a monument, reared by lawyers if we are not mistaken, while the grave of the pure and courageous Brooks is left unnoticed and unhonored. It is a reproach to the state. Judge Brooks told Governor Holden when that arbitrary visited him at his room to brow-beat him out of his purpose to issue the great writ of liberation, that if he did not treat him with proper respect governor as he was he would send him to jail. Holden vanquished and let Brooks ever after alone."

It is a curious fact that those who clamor the loudest for imperial expansion abroad are the most indifferent to good government at home.—Philadelphia Record.

One result of the saloon smashing crusade is to be seen in the fact, now reported, that the town of Winfield, Kan., awoke Thursday morning to find that every one of the stained glass windows in one of the churches of the town had been "wrecked" and the pulpit and pipe organ ruined. One of the demolished windows was a memorial to the generosity of Miss Helen Gould, of New York, and cost $500. The whole damage to the church will amount to $2,000. On the wrecked pulpit was found an unsigned letter scrawled as follows: "We will show you how to treat the saloons, and will give you as good as you send. The next saloon in town wrecked means that some of you will be killed."

A Sad, Sweet, Beautiful Death.

How sublimely beautiful in the embrace of death was the remains of Mrs. Henrietta Williams, as she lay peacefully in her coffin in the Episcopal church, last Sunday. Never before have we been so impressed with the beautiful sweetness of death as in this case. Shrouded by her own gentle, loving hands, with that taste so characteristic of her beautiful life, she repaired to her church, loved, only second to the loving children who she has so tenderly and carefully trained and nurtured. With the reverence due only to the God of Heaven, ripe in years, and ripe in the virtues of a sweet, pure and cultured life, her spirit was borne by angels from the Holy Sanctuary of her house of worship to the Paradise of God, where loved ones waited to greet her, and welcome her to "the everlasting to everlasting." What a beautiful tribute has been paid her by Him, who doeth all things well. No higher tribute could be paid to the life she has lived, and the virtues she has practiced. Weep not loving children and friends, she has been honored as few on earth are honored. Imitate the life she has so gently and beautiful lead, lived and practiced, and the Holy place where she gave up one life for a brighter and more heavenly, will ever be a sacred spot in the memory of those who knew her so well, and loved her so dearly and tenderly. Beautiful, gentle, loving and true in life, sublimely beautiful in death.

Won Without Trying.

A minister was one day walking along a road, and to his astonishment he saw a crowd of boys sitting in front of a ring with a small dog in the centre. When he came up to them he put the following question: "What are you doing to the dog?"

One little boy said: "Whoever tells the biggest lie wins it."

"Oh," said the minister, "I am surprised at you little boys, for when I was like you I never told a lie."

There was silence for awhile, until one of the boys shouted: "Hand
him up the dog!"—London Labor Leader.

Bad Work of Crusaders.

Milwood, Kas., Feb. 19.—In a raid on a "joint" here by twenty masked men, heavily armed, late last night, Mrs. Rose Hudson, wife of the bartender, was instantly killed.

William Webb, one of the raiders, was shot through one arm and two or three of his companions were slightly wounded. Young farmers composed the party. Two arrests were made today and much excitement prevails over the prospect of a still more serious collision between the factions.

Shortly after 10 o'clock last night, two men entered the "joint,"
which is said to be owned by Mrs.
Michael Lochner. Warning had been served on the proprietress to cease business yesterday, but compliance was refused. When the men entered they ordered drinks
which were at once served by Bartender Hudson.

One of the men rapped loudly on the bar and at this signal about twenty more men rushed into the place. All carried arms and wore masks. Half a dozen shotguns were raised and discharged into the ceiling, apparently to demoralize the keepers of the place. Two men rushed upon Hudson with guns levelled at his head. He grasped the barrels and pushed them aside just as they exploded.
Hudson slipped to the floor. Just then Mrs. Hudson dashed in and hardly had she crossed half the intervening space when another gun was discharged point blank at her head. The whole top of her skull was blown away, and Hudson, regaining his feet, bore her to the rear room, where she died.

Ten men are said to have been waiting under arms to help defend the "joint" from the expected raid; but, when the band entered the place and began shooting, the defenders became panic stricken and decamped. When the raiders saw Mrs. Hudson fall, dying, they, too, became frightened and hastily quitted the place without attempting to destroy the liquors or fixtures.

Sheriff Everhardy, of Leavenworth, was quickly notified of the raid and today arrested John and Henry Wilson, farmers, charged with participating in the affair.

Mrs. Adams, the wife of a miner in Boise City, Idaho, some time ago attended a picnic where the eat-ables were spread on a flat ledge of rock. While they were eating she discovered specks of gold in the rock, but kept mum and went on eating. It wasn't long before she had a claim located, it panned out rich, and the other day she sold out for $250,000 cash and is now going to take a picnic in Europe.
